DAUGHTERS OF DAVID U HEAD OF A LINE
IN THE WILLIAM U, II / JOHN U, II SUBCLAN

RP4
17 APR
2013

RE CONFUSION OVER 3 DAUGHTERS:

① A current tree posted by Sue S. Red (nee Barbara Sue Smith) shows 12 children - all with 2 names. My confusion arises over two daughters listed by Sue as follows:

Δ. MARYLAND ARIEL U 1835-1895

Δ. MARIAH ANN U 1837-1857

② I carry Maryland Ariel as two people as follows:

Δ. Ariel U XID-5955 b1 FEB 1834 (TN) d16 MAY 1895
(Ken-Wright Cms, Henry Co, TN) m17 SEP 1873
(HC, TN) William C. Nored

Δ. Maryland U XID-5956 b1 NOV 1835 (TN) d11 OCT 1857
(Bur Herten/Kuyler Cms. HC, TN) m1856/1857 (HC, TN)
Isaac S. Roberts

There is strong support for these two named daughters of David U but the names are styled in a variety of ways and require some interpretation/resolution.

③ Mariah Ann U is new to my array of children for David U and would make 13 children in 24 years - possible - but just a little suspect

NOTE - The array below provides for 9 children for John U, II on the presumption that a child was born every 2
 years - a common occurrence
 and a fair fit in this case.
 Child #1 is on the 1810 census
 but otherwise absent.

with more evidence the birth order could be rearranged.

There could have been 3 more births between #8 & #9 (1814, 1816, 1818). This array should be considered tentative -

Hi Dave---

I was pleased to have your email of 4 FEB and since have been checking my records to see if we have been in contact before. I do not find that we have although you may be in my records filed in a way that I did not think of. Could you remind me if we have been in contact. Otherwise could you tell me a little about how you fit into the Upchurch family. I have several hundred Upchurches with the Name David and it is hard to keep them all straight.

Look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for showing your appreciation.

○ Re The Upchurch-Obama Connection.

The "connections" came to light in this way. Malcolm Clydesdale in England is an Upchurch descendant. He has been unwilling to interact with RPU but interacts with our consultant Prof^Δ David Ransome. In the Spring of 2009 Malcolm forwarded to David Ransome an article about Michelle Obama, wife of ^ΔBarack H. Obama, President. It appeared in the English Newspaper Daily Telegraph on 9 MAR 2009. Ransome emailed RTH on 25 MAR 2009 about the article and a copy arrived in RPT hands from Ransome on 6 APR 2009. It shows a mom picture of the then Michelle Robinson circa 1982 with date David Upchurch, a young African American. The article has been placed in RPT Profile under Michelle Robinson with a copy of this sheet being placed in the Profile of the young man - presumably David U, Jr.

The "Big Band Era" is part of the fond memories of the 1930s and '40s for thousands of NARFE members. Once a year, two members of Chapter 90 in Fredericksburg, VA, combine big band music and fund-raising for NARFE's favorite cause into a fun evening for chapter members.

Meet Dave and Alice Upchurch. For the past 10 years, they have ramrodded Chapter 90's "Big Band Dance." Alice is quick to admit that the use of big band music to raise funds for Alzheimer's is not unique to Chapter 90. She and Dave got the idea from another Virginia chapter, Colonial Beach Chapter 595, when they attended such an event there.

Alice was born in Washington, DC, in January 1930; Dave was born in Elvins, MO, a small town in southeast Missouri, in November 1930. Alice stayed in Washington, going to college at Wilson Teachers College (now part of the University of the District of Columbia). After attending junior college, Dave moved to Washington in 1951 to work as a civilian clerk typist with the Department of Defense at the Pentagon. He moved to Chevy Chase in suburban Maryland and actually attended the same church functions that Alice did. But they did not meet until 1953. Three years later, they married. Dave continued his work at the Pentagon, while Alice took a job with the District of Columbia school system. Later, they both worked for the Department of the Navy in southwest Washington, then both transferred to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Alice left the IRS when daughter,

Kathy, was born. Dave worked for the Coast Guard and for the General Services Administration (GSA), retiring as a forms analyst in 1980. Alice returned to federal service after Kathy grew up, working eight more years with the Department of the Army. She says she never officially "retired," she just quit working in 1985. They lived in several areas of northern Virginia, finally settling in Fredericksburg in 1989.

Dave joined NARFE's Annandale, VA, chapter around the time he retired. He was not an active member until they moved to Fredericksburg, when Alice also joined NARFE and they both became active. In the 14 years that they've been part of Chapter 90, Alice and Dave have served as chapter president, vice president, public relations chair, membership chair, secretary and editor of the newsletter. Currently, Dave is legislation chair for both the chapter and Virginia Federation Area 8, while Alice is chapter Alzheimer's chair.

When they began the Chapter 90 Big Band Dance, Alice and Dave hoped to use the event to make people in the area more aware of NARFE, raise some money for Alzheimer's and have some fun. The Upchurches were able to sign up a local band called, what else, "The Fredericksburg Big Band," a group of 20 professional musicians that plays only charity events. And because a member of Chapter 90 is a member of the Fredericksburg Country Club, the annual event is held there.

...Their Big Band Dance raises funds for Alzheimer's research

In the past 10 years, Chapter 90 has raised an estimated $20,000 for Alzheimer's research, much of it at the Big Band Dance. For its efforts, the chapter has received appreciation from both NARFE Headquarters and from the Alzheimer's Association. And its efforts have made Virginia one of the top contributors to NARFE's Alzheimer's fund—number one in the nation in 2003.

Much of that success can be traced to people like Alice and Dave Upchurch, members who devise creative ways to raise funds to combat a disease that affects so many of our friends and family. We hope that events like this will become more widespread, raising funds and NARFE's profile in the community.

Cobra Patrol earns World Conservation Award

The Cobra Patrol of Wayne Co. Cub Scout Pack 164 combined their den project with the local BRIDE cleanup effort.

The young men picked up roadside garbage on 92 E and Hwys. 90 and 1619 for pledges of money.

They used their funds to buy ten Bradford Pear trees for the Monticello-Wayne County Memorial Park.

They wanted to show their appreciation of the local park where many of their activities take place.

The Cobra Patrol consists of Daniel Burton, Jordan Crouch, Ben Hutchison, Kacy Kennedy and Trey and Zachary Richardson. Their leader is Jeff Hutchison, assisted by Gary Crouch.

The patrol would like to thank the people who gave money to their project.

They also would like to express their appreciation to Andrew Parmley and David Upchurch for their help with this project.

Above—Members of the Cobra Patrol of Wayne County Cub Scout Pack 164 bought 10 Bradford pear trees and planted them at Memorial Park. Pictured are (not in order): Kacy Kennedy, Zachary Richardson, Jeff Hutchison (Leader), Gary Crouch (Leader), Ben Hutchison, Daniel Burton, Jordan Crouch, Park Director David Upchurch, and Solid Waste Coordinator Andrew Parmley. Turner Coaches a Bit At All-Met Luncheon

By CHRIS SWEZEY
 Special to The Washington Post

One of Norv Turner's tasks as head coach of the Washington Redskins has been building a foundation for the team's future success. Yesterday, however, he focused on a different type of foundation as guest speaker at The Washington Post's 13th annual All-Met luncheon, which honored the 330 student-athletes who were named first-team All-Met and the 30 individuals named coach of the year in 29 sports.

"The most important part of high school athletics is participating," Turner told the audience of more than 1,000 at the Washington Hilton and Towers. "Regardless of the awards, if you believe in what you are doing and learn from your wins and losses, that will help you build a foundation which will be with you forever."

Benita Fitzgerald Mosley, a Garfield High School graduate who in 1984 won the gold medal in the 100-meter hurdles, received the Distinguished All-Met Award.

Fitzgerald Mosley directed part of her speech to Garfield sophomore Sheena Johnson, the 1998 track and field All-Met performer of the year.

"There is a sense of déjà vu when I read about" Johnson, Fitzgerald Mosley said. "Twenty years ago I was in the same position. I am carrying my first child now, and I might have to move back to Washington so that my child can keep up that tradition."

John Harvill, Gaithersburg High's football coach for 41 seasons, received the Donald Huff Award, which recognizes contributions made to local athletics. Harvill's teams have won more than 280 games and two Maryland state titles (1986 and 1992).

Springbrook softball All-Met Allison Lane and Eleanor Roosevelt football All-Met David Upchurch received the Michael L. Trilling Awards. The awards are named for Trilling, the high school editor of The Washington Post from 1971 until his death at age 46 in October 1988.

Lane was 15-2 with a 0.14 earned run average for the Silver Spring school, and has a weighted 4.3 grade-point average. She will attend the University of Florida in the fall.

Upchurch averaged 15.6 yards per reception as a tight end and also had 15 sacks as a defensive end for the Greenbelt school. He has a 3.3 grade-point average and gives recitals in classical and gospel piano.

"I hope all the athletes here will volunteer their time in the community, church and school," said Upchurch, who has signed a letter-of-intent with West Virginia. "After athletics are done, the only thing we have is character. We need to make our names as honorable as we can."

HIGH SCHOOLS

BY LARRY MORRIS—THE WASHINGTON POST

At The Washington Post's luncheon honoring the 330 student-athletes who were named first-team All-Met and the 30 coaches named coach of the year in 29 sports, Redskins Coach Norv Turner says: "The most important part of high school athletics is participating."

↳ SARILLA JANE WHITE SIDE

Grandmother's mother, Mary Ann (Upchurch) Whiteside, was the oldest daughter of David Upchurch. Prior to her marriage she lived on the family farm, the Wayside Inn. The late Phil Upchurch of Galatia told me that he had been told that the inn was located about one block north of his grandfather Gratton's home, (the site of the present bank in Galatia) on the old State Road or trail from Shawneetown to Kaskaskia.

David Upchurch is usually mentioned as being a public official and a farmer, but he was also an excellent cabinet maker. The late Phil Upchurch had a beautiful chest of drawers in his home made by David Upchurch before his death in 1855.

Mary Ann Whiteside died in 1858 and is buried at Brooks Cemetery just west of Galatia. Her husband William Whiteside was a native of the present Saline County and the son of Thomas and Sarah (McCreary) Whiteside, natives of Warren and Clark Counties, Kentucky, respectively. He was left with three young daughters to rear: Annrilla Clementine (Ann) age 13 years, Jane age 10 years, and Margaret Mahaley (Meg) age 5 years. William and his brother Lewis were owners and operators of saw mills in the west part of Saline County. After the death of Mary Ann, William decided to sell out and move his family to Arkansas. He was able to persuade Lewis to do the same. A third family went with them. *

I asked Aunt Rachel Barter, Grandmother's youngest child, why Great Grandfather would leave Saline County and take the children to an unsettled country, when the relatives were nearby. Her answer was that he thought it was becoming too populated and he liked the wide spaces. She also told me that Grandmother had told her, "the Whiteside men were much better hunters than farmers, and were known for their fine riding horses and hunting rifles, and were not afraid of anything-man or beast."

DAVID UPCHURCH ESTATE SALE

Mary Afton Anderson P.O. Box 493, Ridgway, IL 62979

David UPCHURCH was born in North Carolina 2 Jul 1797, probably in Chatham County, as his father was in Chatham County in 1795 and in the census of 1800. David was the son of Samuel and Mary Ellen (SIMMONS) UPCHURCH. The family moved to Wilson County, Tennessee when David was a child. It was here that David married Sallie JOHNSON in 1818, and had two children by her. Sallie died and David brought his two small children to Gallatin County, Illinois, where his parents lived, in the early 1820's. In 1824 David married Elizabeth ORR, and by this marriage had ten children. However, only five of these children lived to be adults. David was well known in politics in Gallatin County, and when Saline County was formed in 1847, he was one of the judges. He was one of the founders of the town of Galatia, and for many years ran the Wayside Inn just north of there. He also farmed extensively and was a cabinet maker. He died 21 February 1855 and was buried at Bethel Creek Church Cemetery along with many others of his family. His surviving children were: John Foster, Mary Ann (Polly) WHITESIDE, Eliza Jane SMITH, Melissa Caroline GRATTON, Nancy Orr WELCH and David Taylor.

The administrators of his estate were John Foster UPCHURCH and the husband of Eliza Jane Upchurch, Dr. Jacob M. SMITH of Galatia. The sale of personal property was on 16 April 1855. Below is a list of buyers and the items purchased.

This writer refers to David U (XID-4319) as Judge David U. [I presume the "Judge" part is an honorary name given to him as an adult - RPU]

- 3 David Upchurch b 7-2-1797 in NC, according to census records and an early article on him. This article reports that "David was brought by his parents to Wilson County, Tennessee when quite young." The article further states that David Upchurch was the Judge of the first County Commissioner's Court of Saline County, IL. "In 1833 and again in 1836 we find by the entry book that he was entering land where now stands the splendid and wealthy village of Galatia, the original plot of which was laid out by himself and W.J. Gatewood, a very eminent lawyer of Equality, on the first of November, year 1836. Galatia is the oldest town in Saline County. When the writer first knew Judge Upchurch, he was living in his little farmhouse just across the street from the little town, and in connection with his farming and other affairs, kept a wayside inn; unpretentious it was, but home like, comfortable and scrupulously clean and neat, where the very best of provisions which were to be had were prepared in the best possible manner. While Judge Upchurch presided over the County Commissioner's Court, his good common sense, excellent judgment, and frugal habits, had very much to do in starting the county affairs in the right direction and fortunate indeed would it have been for our people had the example he set been followed by those who succeeded him in office. When he died in February 1855, the immense concourse of sorrowing friends gave evidence of the esteem in which he was held."

SAMUEL UPCHURCH FAMILY

David Upchurch m(1) 7-21-1818 Sally Johnson in Lebanon, TN. There were two children by this marriage. No further information has been found for her. It is assumed that she died either at the birth of her second child or shortly thereafter. David was in Gallatin County, IL by 1823. He m (2) 4-4-1824 Elizabeth Orr b 5-12-1802 VA died 12-27-1889 Galatia, IL dau of Nancy (Perkins) and Wm. Orr. There were eight children, only four survived the death of their father. David died without leaving a will. The appraisement of personal property was lengthy, some items were included which were not found on the usual list. At the sale, one cook stove valued at $4 and one Taylor's goose valued at 50¢. Taylor was the youngest child, age eight at the death of his father. The goose brought thirty cents, purchased by Jacob Smith. Dr. Smith made no other purchases at the sale. It is hoped that he bought the goose in order to return it to Taylor David Upchurch.

David operated a hotel and tavern in Galatia for several years before his death. His widow continued to operate the hotel through 1880, and possibly did so until her death. Her son Taylor and his family lived in the hotel with her.

Dr. Smith came into the town of Galatia on the stage coach, settled down and married Eliza, with whom he had fallen love soon after his arrival. He was from Laurel Hill, PA and a graduate of the Univ. of PA School of Medicine at Philadelphia. He is listed as one of the two earliest doctors in Galatia, was evidently well-liked. The court records show that he was trusted and on commissions, etc. He was a co-administrator of the estate of his father-in-law, David Upchurch. His name appears many times in the deed books of Saline Co., buying and selling land. There were seven children.

- 16 Nancy Orr Upchurch b 2-25-1830 d 4-16-1910 in Galatia. It may be assumed that the children of David and Elizabeth Upchurch were born at the "Wayside Inn", the hotel or inn operated by David and his wife on the old trail from Shawneetown, IL to St. Louis, MO. On the map made by David H. Burr, for the U.S. Post Office in ca 1834, Galatia is listed as 'Gallatin', and the next stop to the west is Fancy Farm, then Franklin, Nashville and Belleville, IL. Nancy O. married 12-19-1845 Egbert Grief Welch b 10-15-1824 TN d 12-10-1912 in Galatia. Both are bur at Webber Camp Ground Cemetery. There were twelve children born to the couple.

From Biographical Sketch in Atlas of Illinois, 1876, page 240: "Philip Doddridge Baxter Gratton, M.D., born at Marion, Illinois, Williamson Co., attended school from age 6 to 16. Began to read medicine under Dr. Sneed, and finished under Dr. C.A. Smith of Galatia, IL. In 1862-1863 he attended Chicago Medical College and commenced his practice at Galatia. In the fall of 1863 he raised a battalion of soldiers and in February 1864, was commissioned Senior Major of the 13th IL Cavalry. He served in the war until the fall of 1865. After the war, he returned to his practice at Galatia."

Dr. Gratton was the son of Silas and Elizabeth Gratton. The father was also listed as a physician on the 1850 Census of Williamson Co. Illinois, which showed his birthplace as VA. His mother was born in KY, according to the census. Dr. P.D. Gratton d 7-6-1925 in Galatia. Both he and Melissa are buried at Webber Cem. They always made their home in Galatia. Their home was a large two story house on the main street. It was demolished about three years ago in order to build a new bank on the site.

Melissa and Dr. Gratton had six children.

DAVID U

- ① Sally U b 30 MAR 1795 (Daughter of Samuel U head of John U / Samuel U Subland) and 5 FEB 1811 Valentine Vanhooser in Wilson Co, TN. The date of Sally's death is not known but Valentine Vanhooser remained in Wilson Co, TN in 1816 and David U (bro of Sally U) was his bondsman. It is not likely that David would have been surety if his sister had been alive so it is assumed she was deceased by that date (29, Pg 161).

① See 24 8 MAY 1984 Miriam Anderson to RPI

The 1820 census of Middle TN shows:

1. Ambrose U 26-45 Stewart Co No 118
2. David U > 45 Stewart Co No 118
3. William U 16-26 Stewart Co No 118
4. David U 16-26 Overton Co No 13
5. Joseph U 26-45 White Co No 346
6. William U 26-45 Jackson Co No 26
7. Stephen U 26-45 Wilson Co No 418

Miriam suggests that perhaps all ~~these~~ of these Upshurites came to TN as a result of the trip Samuel U made in 1810 from TN to VA to Chatham Co, NC and back to TN. Samuel U was bro of #? above
