Extract of Emails 15 & 17 APR 2014 Lory Ann Cole & RPW
15 APR 2014

There is Lucy Marsh who is the daughter of WHM and her birth is May 1862 & date of death unknown. She did marry William Harrison Abbott on 28 August 1877 in Wayne Co., KY. She is buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Wayne Co., KY.

There is also a Lucy A. Marsh Abbott (1837-1896) who is the daughter of Roswell Marsh & Lavina Jane Upchurch Marsh (WHM sister). She married Thomas Abbott. She is buried in Bethesda Cemetery, Bethesda, Wayne Co., KY.

My address is 4918 St. Rt. 276, Batavia, Ohio 45103.

My full name is Lory Ann Cole Hansel. I usually spell it Lori but legally it is Lory. Mistake not worth changing! DOB 7/8/1962 in Mariemont, Ohio. I married James John Hansel on 10/13/2001.

My father is Ralph Omer Cole 4/27/1943 and my mother is Judith Ann Riley (12/10/1946). They married on 11/4/1961. 52 years and still together.

I also have 1 sister, Jessica Marie Cole Wilson (4/11/1983) she married Frank Wilson II and they have 2 children Amburlynn Marie (b. 8/28/2009) and Frank "Trey" Wilson III (b. 5/1/2011).

Yes my sister is 20 years younger than I am! I don't have any children of my own so she was my baby. I have been blessed with 3 step-children and 5 grandchildren. They are awesome and I love them as if they were my own even though they are all grown and married.

WHM b1838 had only 2 wives. He was married to his first wife Minerva Ann Morris Abt 1855. He had 12 children with her two of which died at birth so there are no names recorded. Minerva & WHM are found on www.findagrave.com and there are photos of their grave sites.

Their 12 children are:

- William Rosey Marsh (1856-1942) [186D]
- Mary Elizabeth Marsh Davis (1860-1924)
- Lucy Marsh Abbott (1837-1896) [1863-195D]
- Thomas (1865-1993) [1903]
- Alba "Abby" (1867-1926)
- Joseph Harrison (1869-1917)
- Frances Ellen Marsh Denton (1874-1963)
- John Ellison (1876-1935)

I don't know how I missed listing the other 2 children but here they are:

- Martha Wayne Marsh (1856-1942) [1873-1880]
- Lavina Jane Marsh Alexander (1860-1924). Her daughter Della married a Roscoe Upchurch (1899-1936).

Also noted is that WHM son Thomas married Isabelle Upchurch.

[ ] = DATES FROM ABBOTT TREE (ASSUME CORRECT - RPW)
SEE WHM b1838 FOR TREE

She died in 1906. WHM remarried Abt 1910 to my great grandmother Arbecky "Arie Sweet" "Becky Arie" Simpson. She went by a few names so it looks like WHM was married several times! She was only about 17 when she married William Harrison who was about 72 years old. They only had one child together, my grandmother, Edna Marsh Cole (1912-1994).

WHM was a union soldier from Kentucky who signed on in 1863. I know he was a soldier but the records state that he was unmarried at the start of his service. He died in 1916.

That is how we are connected. I don't know too much about his children or what happened to them. As far as I know we did not have a connection to them or any family gatherings. My grandmother remarried Hile Criswell and I did know many of these relations. I was happy to know Arbecky before she passed but was still a child at the time.

Anyway my grandmother, Edna married Omer Lee Cole (1907-1990). They are both buried in Edenton Cemetery, Clermont, Ohio. They had 6 children: Arlene (1931-still living), Mary Ruth Cole Fahey (1933-still living), Walter "Buddy" Lee (1935-still living), Ora Frances Cole Lee (1937-deceased), Brenda J Cole Steele (1940-deceased), and Ralph Omer (1943-still living). Ralph is my father.

Dear Cousin Gatha,

Your nice letter of 25 JAN 2000 arrived on Monday and I have spent several hours incorporating what you provided. I am especially grateful for your input recognizing that you have many other duties. With your input the Master outline for the Elijah Keelen Dishman Family is being substantially improved.

We can rest a while on what we have or if you can find time we can move along a little bit more. Enclosed is a copy of the Updated Master outline for the Elijah Keelen Dishman Family covering his children. The descendants (if any) of his children are covered in continuation sections as indicated by the number on the left hand side of the page. I have included herewith only one of those (#24). I can send #13, #25 & #27 if you so request. I have been able to add a few more details from my copy of the Wayne County Cemetery book by Coffey. I can also send #42 if you desire. It cover the family of Gladys Sarah Dushman & Leonard Cullen U. you will note that Susilene Hughes (who was Dassy C. Dushman) is also an Uplund descendant. What is on the master outline enclosed is all I have on this couple. Maybe they had descendants?

Enclosed is a list of some missing items on the family of Elijah Keeler Dushman. Please don't feel obligated to pursue all of this. If you happen to know some of the details, I would be happy to have them. Any extra effort you may decide to expend will be appreciated - but I don't want to be a bother.

I notice the Cemetery Book for Wayne Co, KY has a big cemetery in Monticello named the Alexander Cemetery. Are you a part of this Alexander family? We saw Elk Spring but not the Alexander Cemetery. Do you know any of your ancestors that intermarried with Uplund males or Uplund descendants?

with All best wishes - And do get some rest. It's OK to go to sleep while reading. I do it watching football all the time.

P.S. - let me know if you have questions
Phil U

Sincerely yours
Phil Uplund

Hi,

Sorry this took so long. I got some of my papers misplaced, so I hope I'm sending what information you ask for. If I find more papers I'll try to send them later. I'm still working after work I try to spend an hr. or so with my mother. so when I finally get home I get supper over with - I'm so tired I fall asleep reading or writing. Today was a bad day so I stayed home from work & caught up on some work at home.

Again I apologize for putting off fixing these papers. If I can be of any help again, I'll try not to be so slow.

Sincerely
Gatha Dishman

Dear Cousin Gatha,

Cousin Melua called me yesterday to report on what she had learned from you by phone. I have updated my records. This gave me the details I had requested from you in my letter of 9 JUL 1999. Thanks for giving Melua the details.

Provided herewith is a copy of my 5-Page Master Outline for Joseph Dishman (son of Lydia (W) Dishman), his children and grandchildren. Descendants (if any/ if known) of the grandchildren are included in continuation sections as indicated by number on the left hand side of the page. I include only one of these [Continuation section 24A - after the pink sheet. This is for Joe Dishman b. 11 SEP 1893.

I have also provided a bit of some missing details. I would welcome answers you may have or can get with little trouble. If you have any information which would correct or improve or make the Master outline more complete, I would appreciate your input. I would be happy to have any details you would be willing to provide on you and Kullum and your family.

Please don't let any of the above be a burden to you. I do appreciate your interest in family heritage. As you can tell it is a subject which interests me deeply.

Melna tells me a person in Lancaster, KY is working on a Bushman Book. Do you have the name and address of this person? I would be happy to cooperate with them.

With all best wishes to you & Kullum.

OVERVIEW WAYNE CO, KY Vol 24 No 1 JAN 2004

"Spradlin was early success"

Taken from the Wayne County Outlook 3-30-1994

Entrepreneur probably seems to be a modern term to most people, a symbol of big business in modern times. But that isn't necessarily true. Wayne County was home to one of its own entrepreneurs during the early part of this century. Henry Albert Spradlin ran 18 different businesses here in Wayne County, on property which now lies on Columbia Avenue. According to his daughter Anna Alexander, who resides here in Wayne County, Spradlin owned property located below the current senior citizens building and across the road where the old jail began.

"Daddy was very talented," Alexander said, when she spoke of her father during a recent interview. "He could do anything." Though not a formally educated man—he only completed the third grade—Spradlin was very intelligent in business. He successfully operated a blacksmith shop, an undertaking business, a stockyard and a well-digging operation, just to name a few. Spradlin was born January 8, 1876. He began his business days in a blacksmith shop, where he shod horses and fixed wagon wheels and tools. Spradlin was a blacksmith when he married Nora Alexander. The pair had nine children—Gord, Guy, Joe Tom, Ada Woodrow Crouch, Walter "Watt", Maggie, Margaret Anna, Henry Rankin, and Francis. While still operating the black smith business, Spradlin bought a wood planer and began his second business.

"He made wagon boards and truck boards and he made the coffins for the county," Alexander said. She recalls holding the cloth used to line the coffin with. "You put cotton in the coffin and covered with a gray flannel cloth," she explained. Alexander said that her father kept coffins in a back room along with suits and dresses and buried many of the dead in Wayne County. His next venture was to build onto the blacksmith shop and found a used furniture store. "He would go to Louisville and Indianapolis and bring furniture back here by the truckloads," Alexander said. "People still see me today and say 'I've got a piece of your Dad's furniture at home.'" It was during one of his trips to the city that Spradlin saw the first television set. Alexander said that she and her sisters were big radio fans and listened all the time. Her father came home from a trip and walked upstairs where they were listening to a radio program. "He told us 'I'll never live to have one but some of these days you will watch what you're listening to right now,'" Alexander said. Spradlin went into the well digging business and Alexander has a picture of the old steam operated equipment he used to drill for water. "Mom and Dad, when they moved to their first home in town had the first well in town. People came from all around to get drinking water." Along with well-digging, Spradlin had a place in the back of the blacksmith shop where he used a forge to dress out bits, such as those on the drilling machine.

From there, he expanded business to a location across the street, near where the old jail was located. "He built the WPM building, with stockyards on one side. Upstairs (over the stockyards) was a storage room used for the R.J. Reynolds Company," Alexander said. There was an apartment upstairs on the right side of the building and Spradlin operated a restaurant on the lower floor of that portion of the structure. The stockyard was Spradlin's Livery Barn. "I worked at the stockyards at the scales where the cattle were weighed in." Spradlin first had a hired auctioneer, but later picked up the skill from observing and became his own auctioneer. Alexander can recall when her father would bring Alvin C. York home from the stockyards for the noon meal. "He came in overalls all the time," Alexander said. "He would always tell mama that she made the best meals." When the R.J. Reynolds Company vacated the storage area, Spradlin founded Wayne County's first skating rink, which was open during the evening hours and on Saturdays. But Alexander and her siblings enjoyed the rink at other times also. "After school, we'd take our friends in a skate," she noted. Spradlin's next venture was into the coal business. He leased some mines and hired men to dig the coal and bring it into town to him. Spradlin would then sell the coal to townspeople for heat. "Many a night I can remember people would knock on our door needing heat...Dad would get up to get them coal," Alexander said. Spradlin provided fuel for automobiles with his gas station, or a "gas pump as we called it back then. Eleven cents was the cheapest I knew of gas being."

Besides his many businesses, Spradlin was also very involved in the community of Monticello. He was the president of the county fair and owned the only merry-go-round to come to the fair at that time. Spradlin was a charter member of the Church of Christ, was a deacon and treasurer of the church. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge. "Most of all he was a friend to those in need," Alexander said. Looking back now, Alexander can see how important a role her father played in the business community. But back then "it was just the family to me." Alexander said that her father's work made life very interesting. "There was something going on all the time."

Spradlin died on May 11, 1942, but Nora Alexander Spradlin lived for many years after her husband, residing in the home that he built her on Columbia Avenue. Anna married Howard Alexander, who lived in New Jersey. The couple lived there raising their three sons, Sonny, Steve and Butch. Anna and her son Butch now live in Monticello, as does son Steve. Sonny resides in Georgia.

from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I.
After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864,
and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

Floyd's story on the Adams/Alexander mix up is that John Adams Alexander used a Coca Cola sign on his store with his full name. The store closed & the sign stayed years later. His son A. F. Alexander reopened the store but the Alexander part had faded so people saw only John Adams - so his children became Adams. [I think another version more correct - RPU]

I remember Maggie Alexander she and a Helmer (Arthur Helmer Shelbina). They had a son whose name I do not know. They lived near Canallton in Canall Co, GA. Maggie came to see my mother often and they were very close. Maggie had a skin disorder. Any of her skin that was not covered was pure white - almost albino looking.

Services set today for Martha Farmer

Services for Martha Edith Alexander Farmer, an award-winning Dallas elementary school and special education teacher, will be at 2 p.m. Friday at Restland Funeral Home in Dallas. Burial will follow at Restland Memorial Park.

Ms. Farmer died Tuesday of cancer at her Richardson home. She was 78.

She taught for 33 years in the Dallas Independent School District, including at Ben Milam, William B. Travis, James W. Fannin and William L. Cabell elementary schools.

After retiring from Cabell in the 1980s, she taught preschool at Preston Highlands Baptist Church in Dallas.

"She couldn't stay away from kids. She just adored them," said her daughter, Rebecca Moore of Richardson.

Her awards included the prestigious Golden Apple Teacher of the Year Award from the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

Ms. Farmer never stopped trying to improve her teaching. She received her master's degree in special education from East Texas State University in the late 1970s.

"She wanted to be a better teacher and learn more about things," Ms. Moore said. "She said she wanted to be remembered as someone who loved children, and she really did."

In addition to Ms. Moore, Ms. Farmer is survived by her husband, John C. Farmer of Richardson; two other daughters, Faye Dell Macune of Thousand Oaks, Calif., and Mary Brock of Rockwall; a sister, Adele Coblenz of Atlanta, Ga.; six grandchildren; and one great-granddaughter.

○ OVERVIEW WAYNE CO, KY Vol 24 No 1 JAN 2004

"Spradlin was early success"

Taken from the Wayne County Outlook 3-30-1994

Entrepreneur probably seems to be a modern term to most people, a symbol of big business in modern times. But that isn't necessarily true. Wayne County was home to one of its own entrepreneurs during the early part of this century. Henry Albert Spradlin ran 18 different businesses here in Wayne County, on property which now lies on Columbia Avenue. According to his daughter Anna Alexander, who resides here in Wayne County, Spradlin owned property located below the current senior citizens building and across the road where the old jail began.

"Daddy was very talented," Alexander said, when she spoke of her father during a recent interview. "He could do anything." Though not a formally educated man—he only completed the third grade—Spradlin was very intelligent in business. He successfully operated a blacksmith shop, an undertaking business, a stockyard and a well-digging operation, just to name a few. Spradlin was born January 8, 1876. He began his business days in a blacksmith shop, where he shod horses and fixed wagon wheels and tools. Spradlin was a blacksmith when he married Nora Alexander. The pair had nine children—Gord, Guy, Joe Tom, Ada Woodrow Crouch, Walter "Watt", Maggie, Margaret Anna, Henry Rankin, and Francis. While still operating the black smith business, Spradlin bought a wood planer and began his second business.

"He made wagon boards and truck boards and he made the coffins for the county," Alexander said. She recalls holding the cloth used to line the coffin with. "You put cotton in the coffin and covered with a gray flannel cloth," she explained. Alexander said that her father kept coffins in a back room along with suits and dresses and buried many of the dead in Wayne County. His next venture was to build onto the blacksmith shop and found a used furniture store. "He would go to Louisville and Indianapolis and bring furniture back here by the truckloads," Alexander said. "People still see me today and say 'I've got a piece of your Dad's furniture at home.'" It was during one of his trips to the city that Spradlin saw the first television set. Alexander said that she and her sisters were big radio fans and listened all the time. Her father came home from a trip and walked upstairs where they were listening to a radio program. "He told us 'I'll never live to have one but some of these days you will watch what you're listening to right now,'" Alexander said. Spradlin went into the well digging business and Alexander has a picture of the old steam operated equipment he used to drill for water. "Mom and Dad, when they moved to their first home in town had the first well in town. People came from all around to get drinking water." Along with well-digging, Spradlin had a place in the back of the blacksmith shop where he used a forge to dress out bits, such as those on the drilling machine.

From there, he expanded business to a location across the street, near where the old jail was located. "He built the WPM building, with stockyards on one side. Upstairs (over the stockyards) was a storage room used for the R.J. Reynolds Company," Alexander said. There was an apartment upstairs on the right side of the building and Spradlin operated a restaurant on the lower floor of that portion of the structure. The stockyard was Spradlin's Livery Barn. "I worked at the stockyards at the scales where the cattle were weighed in." Spradlin first had a hired auctioneer, but later picked up the skill from observing and became his own auctioneer. Alexander can recall when her father would bring Alvin C. York home from the stockyards for the noon meal. "He came in overalls all the time," Alexander said. "He would always tell mama that she made the best meals." When the R.J. Reynolds Company vacated the storage area, Spradlin founded Wayne County's first skating rink, which was open during the evening hours and on Saturdays. But Alexander and her siblings enjoyed the rink at other times also. "After school, we'd take our friends in a skate," she noted. Spradlin's next venture was into the coal business. He leased some mines and hired men to dig the coal and bring it into town to him. Spradlin would then sell the coal to townspeople for heat. "Many a night I can remember people would knock on our door needing heat...Dad would get up to get them coal," Alexander said. Spradlin provided fuel for automobiles with his gas station, or a "gas pump as we called it back then. Eleven cents was the cheapest I knew of gas being."

Besides his many businesses, Spradlin was also very involved in the community of Monticello. He was the president of the county fair and owned the only merry-go-round to come to the fair at that time. Spradlin was a charter member of the Church of Christ, was a deacon and treasurer of the church. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge. "Most of all he was a friend to those in need," Alexander said. Looking back now, Alexander can see how important a role her father played in the business community. But back then "it was just the family to me." Alexander said that her father's work made life very interesting. "There was something going on all the time."

Spradlin died on May 11, 1942, but Nora Alexander Spradlin lived for many years after her husband, residing in the home that he built her on Columbia Avenue. Anna married Howard Alexander, who lived in New Jersey. The couple lived there raising their three sons, Sonny, Steve and Butch. Anna and her son Butch now live in Monticello, as does son Steve. Sonny resides in Georgia.

A. 5 MAY 1882 - RALEIGH, NC

— Yesterday Mr. William G. Upchurch sold from his stock farm, to Mr. J. T. Breedon, a prominent and progressive farmer of Bennettsville, S. C., a number of fine cattle from his herd of Jerseys. There was a bull, "Duke of Norfolk," five years old, and three cows, aged nine, seven and two years, each with a calf by her side, the price paid for the lot being $735. The cattle are all thoroughbreds. We regret, to see such splendid stock leave the State.

EXTRACT OF CHAPTER 47 of BOOK "TAR HEEL EDITOR" BY JOSEPHUS DANIELS - 1939. This chapter contains details of the 1892 N. C. Election - For the special role played by S. OTHO WILSON see a separate extract - For a decade after the Civil War the Republicans supported by Federal Law, the Block & Carpet Bagger betrayed NC white society. Then the Democrats took over and restored sanity - but farmer continued to suffer. Thus in 1872 some of the farmer under the Farmer Alliance broke away to form the Populist People Party in which S. Otho Wilson played a large role. The Populists lost but managed to join the Republicans for the 1894 and the 1896 elections with success as "fusionists"

SOME NOTES FROM THE CHAPTER: "JO" = Josephus Daniels
(COPY OF ENTIRE CHAPTER PLACED IN S. OTHO WILSON FILE)

- 1892 JO owned State Chronicle & pushed Capt Sydenham B. Alexander - farmer President of "FA" (Farmer Alliance) for GOV. • Thomas R. Jerryman of the Intelligencer pushed Gen Thomas M. Holt [S/O Edwin M. Holt, textile mogul] for a full term, Gen Daniel G. Fowle having died in office.
- Thomas S. Ashe of the NED also supported Cal Holt. Holt carried Jerryman to buy the Chronicle from JO & turn it to support of Holt which happened. • Earlier JO had a run in with Holt who was President of N. C. Railroad & had blood continued. JO was a liberal on labor but feared a split in Democratic ranks would return Block & Power
- JO formed North Carolinian and supported first Gen Jehon S. Carr and later Edras Carr, a large Edgecombe Farmer & formerly President of FA. Holt folded & stopped support of Chronicle which merged with N & O to become N & O Chronicle. • Marson Butler of FA tried to the extreme in the FA so as to include the FA Ocule plank - but the radical faction broke away to form Peoples Party. Nationally the Democrats nominated Grover Cleveland who won for the Democrats Nationally for the first time since the Civil War - but all this angered the FA.
- Peoples Party wanted Cal Harry Shimmer but settled for Pat Exam who lost in spite of strong support from Shimmer & Marson Butler
- Republican Candidate: Daniel M. Fucher of Redell - later on Sup. Ct.
- In NC Populists got 47,840 votes for Exam as GOV vs 137,519 for Carr who won.
