ARMELIA UPCHURCH XID -3070

Commentary: Armelia Upchurch (1825±1871) was the daughter of Hubbard Upchurch and the granddaughter of Nathan Upchurch I, head of Upchurch clan # 3. She lived her entire life in western Wake County, NC. At age 25, she was still unmarried, but soon attracted the attention of Hinton Hudson, a widower with five children. Their 1850 PDUULDJH ZRXOG SURGXFH WKUHH PRUH FKLOGUHQ WR + available leads one to speculate that Armelia and many of her close kin may be buried in a yet-to-be located cem HWHU\ RQ KHU IDWKHU¶V IDUP ORFDWHG D P Station. The ten DFOHV RI $UPHOLD¶V IDPLO\ HPEUDFHG VHYHUD LQFOXGLQJ 2OLYH 0RUULQJ +XGVRQ %DXFRP +ROOHPDQ brothers were members of the ry of the Confederacy. The linkage of the family to Salem Baptist Church deserves more study.

Acknowledgements: This biofile was transcribed by Nancy Saul, one of the volunteers at the facility in Cary.