HEN

The last time I communicated with you, you told me about a Grover Upchurch in my family. I was confused because I had never heard of Grover. He would have been my grandfather's (Harvey) first cousin. Well, I think I solved the mystery. I visited with Laverne Ringstaff a few years ago. She recently died and she was my mother's last surviving Upchurch first cousin. Laverne told me that Grover was Sarah Upchurch's out of wedlock son. Sarah never married and lived her entire life with her parents. I guess she and her son, Grover, were considered "outcasts" at the time and that is why my mother and grandfather never mentioned him. Isn't that sad? Laverne said Grover married and had 2 daughters, Frankie and Emily (possibly). Frankie married Tobin Armstrong and moved to Falfurrias, TX. If you have any more information on Grover's descendants I would like that too.

○ LIVING STONES History of Inwood Bapt Church 2000 WAKE CO, NC

PG 194, 195

One of the vigorous new leaders was Jeff Armstrong, who joined Inwood in 1985. In 1986 he was elected to the long range planning committee, and the next year he was elected and ordained a deacon. He was secretary of the board of deacons during the last two years of his term. He was elected a deacon again in 1991, and yet again in 1995. He was on a variety of committees, and almost regularly he represented Inwood at denominational meetings. In 1992 he was named to the sanctuary steering committee, and ultimately he was significantly involved in arranging financing for the construction of that building. He was lost to the congregation in 1997 when he moved out of the state.

"The Johnstones are an ancient family, deriving their name from the barony of Johnstone in Annandale, Scotland. By successive creations from 1430 to 1701, the head of the race attained the dignity of Marquis. Gabriel Johnstone appointed by the King, Governor of North Carolina 1734. His brother, John, was appointed surveyor of the state in 1736. They came from Dunee, Scotland."

We are not descended from Governor Gabriel Johnston; his will names only one child, a daughter Penelope, but he does give land to his two nephews, Samuel (Gov. Samuel Johnston) and Henry (his brother John returned to Great Britain and died there). Some of the land is still in the Johnson family about whom these records are set down.

The Scotch expressions which they held on to, and by-words - such as, "Well, Jeemes River!" indicated Scotch ancestry and some connection with the James River in Virginia.

Father (Kemp B. Johnson) said "Pa Johnson" (his father John Lewis Johnson) used to tell him his uncle (his only uncle was William Johnson, son of Tapley, Sr., and father of cousin Willis Johnson) always called him "Eon" as that was Scotch for John.

It has come down to us that the first Tapley Johnson's parents and grandparents were from Surry County, Virginia.

"After 1729 . . . a second type of immigration was mostly of the highest type of manhood in Virginia. The law of Primogeniture then enforced in Virginia, gave the eldest son the sole hereditary right, and compelled the younger men of the family to cast their lots away from home or become clergymen, or turn to other professions.

For the next fifty or seventy-five years there was a great surge of young men coming from Virginia into North Carolina, obtaining grants and purchasing land on which to establish their homes."

If we follow this migration we find a surge of these families selling land in Virginia: Surry, Sussex, Isle of Wight and Nansemond Counties, and moving into Halifax, Northampton, Edgecombe Counties, Johnston; Granville, and Chatham and Cumberland - following the courses of the Roanoke, Neuse and Cape Fear Rivers.

We learn from the land boundaries that his nearest neighbors and friends were: John Nall, Abraham Carter, Mark Robinson, James Haile, James Atkins, Nathan Prince, Matthew Jones, Jesse Jones, Samuel Northington, Major Thomas Armstrong, John Campbell, and some McLeods, and McKoys, and his several Johnson kin: Barnabas, Sill, William, James, and John, and his wife's family, the Matthews: David and Joseph. (Jesse Jones was the brother of Etheldred Jones).
