○ NOTES OF RPU Call to Muley Albert Perry "MONK" 3 FEB 2006

Discussed with Monk the prospects of holding a meeting to discuss Program on Developing a History of Shamhatter & Swift Creek Township, Wake Co, NC. He thinks I should check with Rebecca Loye at Mill Park to get her ideas.

Re Uncle Moe's land Monk says it was about 2005 when Joseph Sr Jr sold the land to N.C. State Univ for about 3 million. In earlier years Joseph ran cattle on the area. He lived in Raleigh but would come out often and Monk knew him.

Monk & I discussed the fact that there were at least two tenant houses on the B. G. U land on Mid River Road. This led us to discuss the prospect that Uncle Moe could have been the father of the mulatto WOODROW ATWATER who died probably in the 1970's Monk knew Woodrow and half jokingly called him "Cousin". Both Monk & I remember Woodrow as a tall, light skinned man with a neat mustache.

○ Added RPU Note

Based on Monk & RPU comparing notes by phone on 3 FEB 2006 there is no question but that Woodrow is the mulatto I remember seeing at our old place about 1940 when he came to see a black lady who lived there. He was a handsome looking man. Monk said Uncle Getty teased Uncle Moe telling him to buy clothes for his "son". Uncle Moe protested. Still my memory is that it was said Uncle Moe had a child by a black woman.
