MR RALPH CANCIENNE BABIN
NORCO, LA 70079

Dear Mr Babin,

I am interested in the Upchurch family and in this regard have corresponded with Mrs Barbara Sue (Smith) Freeman of Honolulu, Hawaii who, like you and I, is a descendant of an Upchurch. She sent me a large chart which you and Ellie Marie Bowler prepared quite a few years ago. I am anxious to exchange letters with you about any additional details you may have on Upchurch lines.

I publish a quarterly publication Upchurch Bulletin for which a flyer is enclosed.

Our relationship is shown on the attached sheet. your mother & I are 5th cousins, you & my son are 6th cousins while you and I are 5th cousins once removed.

I do hope to hear from you

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

I. [△] DAVID HENRY HOLLAND b 1776 OR 1777 (NANSEMENT CO, VA) d 1 MAR 1874
 (GUY HOLLY SPRING, WAKE CO, NC). Lived at Apex, NC near THE BRIGHT HOLLAND place which Union soldiers ransacked in the Civil War. War Col in War 1812 Md (1ST) () - - - Md (2ND) () 14 MAR 1849 () MABEL BRIDGES
 b 1782 () d 25 AUG 1867 (WAKE CO, NC) (at home of DAU LUCINTHA &
 SIL GREEN BECKWITH - FROM THE BIBLICAL RECORDER 4 SEP 1867

[△] Irma Ragan Holland's book includes an extensive amount of information about the Holland family. Mrs. Holland's step-son, [△] Darrell Holland lives in Charlotte and has copies of the book.

Most of the records we have refer to David Henry Holland as "colonel," a rank he apparently held in the War of 1812. The Biblical Recorder, a Baptist paper published in Wake County, carried a resolution in its March 25, 1874, edition, extending sympathy to the family of David Holland (the paper was on file at Wake Forest College in the 1950's) An obituary in The Biblical Recorder dated September 4, 1867, included a notice about the death of Mrs. Mabel Holland. The notice reads: "Died, at the residence of her son-in-law Green Beckwith, Esq., on Sunday night the 25th inst., aged 86 years, Mrs. Mabel Holland, widow of the late Col. David Holland, of Wake County (full text on #39)." There is a discrepancy in these dates for David Holland's death: If Mabel, his wife, died in 1867 and was referred to as the widow of Col. David Holland, he could not have died in 1874. NOTE: CHECK THE BIBLICAL RECORDER -- DO WE HAVE THE WRONG DATE FOR ONE OF THESE ISSUES?

According to Irma Ragan Holland's book, THE HOLLANDS...FROM VIRGINIA TO NORTH CAROLINA...THE JOSEPH HOLLAND LINE...THE JIMMY HOLLAND LINE, David Henry Holland died March 1, 1874, and the death is listed in the Wake County Death Notices, volume 1856 - 1893. This book says Holland lived in Apex, NC, near the Bright Holland Place. Northern soldiers ransacked the place when they came through during the Civil War.

Herbert Benoy cites this source of information: "The Hollands from Virginia to North Carolina" by Irma Ragan Holland, pages 6, 7, 8, and 10. Also, "Death Notices" Vol. 1836-1893, Wake County, North Carolina. Included in Herbert's papers are pictures of Lucintha Holland and her husband Green Beckwith. In correspondence with Mrs. C. F. Oakley of Siler City, NC, October 30, 1955, she says "the site of David Holland's home was around 3 miles from my old home...I've seen it lots of times." She mentions that she helped "Cousin S. W. Williams, a druggist in Raleigh, write a family history." She says Williams has died and she doesn't know who has the history...."You could write to Mrs. S. W. Williams, Hillsboro St., Raleigh, NC, and ask her if she has the history"

David Holland is mentioned twice in Elizabeth Reid Murray's book, Wake: Capital County of North Carolina. In her account of Wake County's involvement in the War of 1812 she says: "Late in 1812, after the war was in progress, the General Assembly divided the Wake County militia regiment into two regiments. So many Wake men had volunteered at a June muster that it was necessary to hold a draft to determine those to be accepted. Officers of the first regiment were Col. Allen Rogers, with John T. C. Wiatt and Daniel L. Barringer as first and second majors. Col. Simpson Shaw commanded the second, with William Daniel and Thomas Ferrill, majors. The 24 Wake companies were made part of a new Seventh Division of state militia, and Dr. Calvin Jones of Raleigh, adjutant general since 1808, was named major general in command of the new Seventh. Robert Williams of Raleigh succeeded Jones as adjutant general." She then lists the captains of the two regiments. Included in one regiment are the names of the following men: Dempsey Blake, James Speight, David Holland, Thomas Ferrill, Reuben Jackson, John Green, Solomon Jones, William Jones, Benjamin Dunn, John Arnold, William McCullers, and Asa Bacon. [△]

In her account of banking in Wake County during the 1800s, Mrs. Reid says the county's early banks came into being primarily for the purpose of issuing notes to retire the old post-Revolutionary paper currency of the state. Three of these banks survived the financial panic and depression of 1819, but in the 1820s local investors speculated heavily in bank stocks, and dividends began to decline. "Between 1832 and 1835...two (banks) passed all their dividends, and ...three were forced into liquidation in 1835. One of the reasons for their failure was the demand of the Second Bank of the United States that they meet in specie all their obligations to pay. Several groups of Wake citizens gathered in May and June of 1834 and forwarded to Congress resolutions protesting the bank's actions and opposing its rechartering....In June at Holly Spring, those taking...action were Woodson Clements, Col. David Holland, John B. Owen, John A. Brown, Needham and [△] Samuel Norris."

Hi Janet---

On 2 AUG 2009 it was my pleasure to meet with James Stronach in the historic Upchurch-Stronach house in Raleigh. Present also was Norma Tomb. She gave me your contact information and suggested we might have mutual interests in family history. I am in my 30th year of publishing the Upchurch Bulletin. There was a close connection between the Stronach, Royster, and Upchurch families starting well before the Civil War. My desire now is to write an article about this connection with a focus on the historic home. It would be a pleasure to hear from you and to learn if we can help each other. Feel free to take a look at my website www.upchurchstory.com.

Phil Upchurch

- ⑥ From notes of RPU call 31 OCT 2009 of Norma Hazel Worthington - The Mrs Janet Royster, Family Historian, is nee Janet Badger.

TAR HEEL HISTORY

By Lang Baradell

Not In Vain

Raleigh's Worth Bagley, the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War, became a symbol for America's reunification after the Civil War.

Among the war memorials on the capitol grounds in Raleigh stands a statue of a strikingly handsome young man named Worth Bagley. His name is unfamiliar today, but in 1898 it was known across the nation. He had the distinction of being the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War.

Bagley was from a notable North Carolina family. His mother, Adelaide, was the daughter of former Governor Jonathan Worth. His father, William H. Bagley, had been a newspaper editor in his native Perquimans County, a state senator and a major in the Confederate Army. He also had been private secretary to Governor Worth. That is when he met and married the governor's daughter. Later, he served for 18 years as clerk of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Worth was born into this illustrious family on April 6, 1874, in the family home on the corner of Blount and South streets in Raleigh. He was the eldest of six children and attended schools in Raleigh. Though accepted at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he chose to attend the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. At the academy, Bagley became a football hero. He was so successful on the field that poems were written about his athletic accomplishments. He graduated from the academy in 1895.

When the Spanish-American War began in 1898, Ensign Bagley was second-in-command of a recently constructed torpedo boat called the Winslow. The Winslow was assigned to be part of the Cuban blockade. The blockade was a key element in the U.S. war strategy and was established to prevent supplies from reaching Spanish soldiers on the island.

Worth Bagley

On the morning of May 11, 1898, the Winslow joined two other American ships, the Wilmington and the Hudson, near the mouth of Cardenas Bay, which is located on the northern coast of Cuba, 70 miles east of Havana. There had been reports of Spanish vessels in the area, and the three American ships steamed into the bay to look for the enemy.

During the course of the search, they spied a Spanish gunboat, tied to a dock, at a distance of about 3,500 yards. Captain Todd, commanding officer of the Wilmington, ordered the Winslow forward to investigate. When the Winslow got within 1,500 yards of the target, the Spanish gunboat and a shore battery opened fire. The Winslow responded, and the Wilmington and the Hudson advanced to join the fight.

One of the first Spanish shots wounded the commander of the Winslow, Lieutenant John B. Bernadou, in the leg. As the battle continued, the Winslow suffered severe damage, including the loss of its steering mechanism. As a result, the Winslow could be maneuvered only by putting its engines alternately in forward and reverse. In addition, damage to the vessel made direct communication between Lieutenant Bernadou and the engine room impossible. Worth Bagley was forced to deliver directions to the engine room from the deck. To do this, he had to run back and forth from the deck, down a ladder, to the engine room below. Near the end of the battle, while Bagley was on deck, a Spanish shell hit the Winslow and exploded. Bagley and two sailors were killed instantly. Two other enlisted men were seriously wounded and died soon after. Heavy shelling from the Wilmington eventually silenced the Spanish guns, and the three American ships withdrew, with the Winslow towed by the Hudson.

After the battle, Bagley's body was taken to Key West, Florida, on board the Hudson. The ship arrived on May 12, and on the following day, a memorial service was held for the fallen officer. The body was then sent by ship to Jacksonville, Florida, and then by train to Raleigh.

Along the train's route, people gathered to pay their respects. Large crowds assembled in Savannah, Georgia, Charlotte, Concord and Salisbury. Flowers were sent along the way to be placed on Bagley's casket, including an arrangement in the shape of the state flag given by North Carolinians living in Savannah.

The funeral train arrived in Raleigh at 1:40 a.m. on May 16. Friends and family, including Bagley's brother-in-law Josephus Daniels (the future U.S. secretary of the Navy was then publisher of Raleigh's State Chronicle), were waiting at the station. The group, along with an eight-member military escort, took the casket through the dark city streets to the Bagley family home. At 1:30 that afternoon, a military escort took the body to the Capitol, where it lay in state for two hours in the rotunda.

Funeral services began at 4:30 p.m. on the southern side of the Capitol grounds. Flags were at half-mast, and businesses were closed, as 10,000 people gathered for the funeral. Some looked down from the Capitol roof, while most crowded around on the grounds and streets.

Family members and state and military officials sat in a place of honor. Behind the casket a group of cadets from the Agricultural and Mechanical College served as an honor guard. Fifteen hundred soldiers from nearby Camp Bryan Grimes stood in formation in the street facing the Capitol. Three ministers conducted the service, which included an 11-gun salute.

When the ceremony ended, the casket was taken to nearby Oakwood Cemetery. The procession numbered 3,500 and included military units, the governor, members of the state supreme court and a contingent of Raleigh school children. At the cemetery, soldiers stood on three sides of the grave, leaving the fourth for the family. A few more words were spoken by the clergymen, taps was played and three volleys were fired by the Governor's Guard.

Bagley's death naturally prompted the strongest reactions in North Carolina, but the killing of the young man was also of national interest. Newspapers across the country pointed to the symbolism of a Southerner dying heroically in this first national conflict since the Civil War. Bagley became a symbol of the reunification of the nation. Units of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was the Union Army veterans' association, sent flowers to the funeral.

One of the greatest national tributes to Bagley came in June when the secretary of the Navy announced that a torpedo boat, planned for construction, was to be named for the young North Carolinian. On September 26, 1900, the Torpedo Boat Worth Bagley was launched from a shipyard in Bath, Maine.

Apex

Historical Raleigh (enlarged and revised edition)
With Sketches of Wake County (from 1771)
And Its Important Towns
Descriptive, Biographical, Educational, Industrial, Religious, Illustrated
By Moses N. Amis - 1913

△ The town of Apex had its beginning with the close of the Civil War. Among its first settlers were J. McC. Ellington, H. C. Olive, Q. I. Hudson, W. F. Utley, W. H. Harward, Brinkley Olive, A. N. Betts and others, △△△ who contributed to its life in the beginning and afterwards. It was incorporated by the Legislature of 1871-'72, with the late Hon. H. C. Olive as its first mayor. It derived its name from being the highest point on the survey of the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad.

Until 1905 it was but a small town, where the standard of virtue, intelligence and patriotism was high, but where little progress in material things had been made. In that year, beginning with the organization of a bank and the establishment of a tobacco market, began a new life for the town and surrounding community. Fire later destroying a number of unsightly frame buildings, the first brick structure was soon erected. Again, in June, 1911, nearly all the remaining old frame buildings in the business section were also consumed by fire. Now the principal street of the town (Salem) is lined with handsome pressed-brick-front stores. Business houses have continued to increase in number, until now nearly everything to complete a small city is here represented. This metropolis of western Wake is one of the busiest, most attractive and substantially built towns of its size in North Carolina. Its streets are well laid out and splendidly shaded in the residential sections, while the business part of the town is marked with buildings of beautiful architectural designs and substantial construction.

Apex has a population of about one thousand, and, being located in the centre of one of the best agricultural sections of the State, has a large rural territory from which to draw life and sustenance. It is in the limited "Old Belt" tobacco¹ lands of North Carolina and Virginia, which produce the finest yellow-wrapper tobacco. The tobacco market at Apex is one of its chief industries. It is equipped with two splendid warehouses, three large prizehouses², markets about two million pounds of tobacco annually, and enjoys the distinction of making the highest average price per pound of any market in the State. It is the centre of a fine cotton-production section, the receipts of this staple being from three to five thousand bales of cotton per year.

Public education in Wake County has always found some of its most potent advocates and influences at Apex. Notable among those who have wielded an influence throughout the county in this respect are the late Hon. H. C. Olive, State Senator and for many years chairman of the Wake County Board of Education; Hon. L. J. Sears, at present, and for many years past, chairman of the same board, and Hon. Percy J. Olive, an ex-representative and a public man who has taken an especial interest in the schools. That these gentlemen are and were but the exponents of the sentiment around them is witnessed by the fact that Apex has one of the finest and best-equipped schools in the county, and that every school in White Oak Township levies a local tax to supplement the general education fund.

Few communities in the State have had more additions to their population within the past five years than has that of which Apex is the centre. Those seeking desirable homes have found here a happy combination of advantages—fine lands, intelligent, virtuous and hospitable neighbors, good markets, good roads, good schools and good churches. No fictitious values have been placed upon the lands; for, with the true idea of progress, the efforts of those who have done most for the community's upbuilding have been directed to keeping the real estate at its true value. Contributing mostly to this and at present forming the most valuable of its citizenship, without disparagement to others, may be mentioned Messrs. W. F. Utley, W. H. Harward, A. B. Hunter, L. S. Olive, Percy J. Olive, Dr. W. Wade Olive, S. W. Stone, J. B. Mason, J. W. Lassiter, W. B. Upchurch, J. H. Sears, A. V. Baucom, A. C. Hughes, C. P. Sellars, W. B. Johnson, A. D. Upchurch, Samuel Watkins, Jr., A. T. Seymour, C. R. Weaver, S. T. Bennett, B. H. Pate, J. R. Cunningham, S. V. Hudson, S. S. Rogers, J. R. Norris, G. C. Norris, R. J. Bolling, Dr. R. W. Stephens, Dr. R. W. Johnson, Dr. C. B. Wilkerson, J. F. Mills, S. A. Branch, W. H. F. Branch, L. J. Sears, M. G. Upchurch, G. E. Upchurch, H. B. Harward, J. R. Harward, R. L. Bagley, J. C. Burns, Q. I. Hudson and others.

TAR HEEL HISTORY

By Lang Baradell

Not In Vain

Raleigh's Worth Bagley, the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War, became a symbol for America's reunification after the Civil War.

Among the war memorials on the capitol grounds in Raleigh stands a statue of a strikingly handsome young man named Worth Bagley. His name is unfamiliar today, but in 1898 it was known across the nation. He had the distinction of being the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War.

Bagley was from a notable North Carolina family. His mother, Adelaide, was the daughter of former Governor Jonathan Worth. His father, William H. Bagley, had been a newspaper editor in his native Perquimans County, a state senator and a major in the Confederate Army. He also had been private secretary to Governor Worth. That is when he met and married the governor's daughter. Later, he served for 18 years as clerk of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Worth was born into this illustrious family on April 6, 1874, in the family home on the corner of Blount and South streets in Raleigh. He was the eldest of six children and attended schools in Raleigh. Though accepted at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he chose to attend the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. At the academy, Bagley became a football hero. He was so successful on the field that poems were written about his athletic accomplishments. He graduated from the academy in 1895.

When the Spanish-American War began in 1898, Ensign Bagley was second-in-command of a recently constructed torpedo boat called the Winslow. The Winslow was assigned to be part of the Cuban blockade. The blockade was a key element in the U.S. war strategy and was established to prevent supplies from reaching Spanish soldiers on the island.

Worth Bagley

On the morning of May 11, 1898, the Winslow joined two other American ships, the Wilmington and the Hudson, near the mouth of Cardenas Bay, which is located on the northern coast of Cuba, 70 miles east of Havana. There had been reports of Spanish vessels in the area, and the three American ships steamed into the bay to look for the enemy.

During the course of the search, they spied a Spanish gunboat, tied to a dock, at a distance of about 3,500 yards. Captain Todd, commanding officer of the Wilmington, ordered the Winslow forward to investigate. When the Winslow got within 1,500 yards of the target, the Spanish gunboat and a shore battery opened fire. The Winslow responded, and the Wilmington and the Hudson advanced to join the fight.

One of the first Spanish shots wounded the commander of the Winslow, Lieutenant John B. Bernadou, in the leg. As the battle continued, the Winslow suffered severe damage, including the loss of its steering mechanism. As a result, the Winslow could be maneuvered only by putting its engines alternately in forward and reverse. In addition, damage to the vessel made direct communication between Lieutenant Bernadou and the engine room impossible. Worth Bagley was forced to deliver directions to the engine room from the deck. To do this, he had to run back and forth from the deck, down a ladder, to the engine room below. Near the end of the battle, while Bagley was on deck, a Spanish shell hit the Winslow and exploded. Bagley and two sailors were killed instantly. Two other enlisted men were seriously wounded and died soon after. Heavy shelling from the Wilmington eventually silenced the Spanish guns, and the three American ships withdrew, with the Winslow towed by the Hudson.

After the battle, Bagley's body was taken to Key West, Florida, on board the Hudson. The ship arrived on May 12, and on the following day, a memorial service was held for the fallen officer. The body was then sent by ship to Jacksonville, Florida, and then by train to Raleigh.

Along the train's route, people gathered to pay their respects. Large crowds assembled in Savannah, Georgia, Charlotte, Concord and Salisbury. Flowers were sent along the way to be placed on Bagley's casket, including an arrangement in the shape of the state flag given by North Carolinians living in Savannah.

The funeral train arrived in Raleigh at 1:40 a.m. on May 16. Friends and family, including Bagley's brother-in-law Josephus Daniels (the future U.S. secretary of the Navy was then publisher of Raleigh's State Chronicle), were waiting at the station. The group, along with an eight-member military escort, took the casket through the dark city streets to the Bagley family home. At 1:30 that afternoon, a military escort took the body to the Capitol, where it lay in state for two hours in the rotunda.

Funeral services began at 4:30 p.m. on the southern side of the Capitol grounds. Flags were at half-mast, and businesses were closed, as 10,000 people gathered for the funeral. Some looked down from the Capitol roof, while most crowded around on the grounds and streets.

Family members and state and military officials sat in a place of honor. Behind the casket a group of cadets from the Agricultural and Mechanical College served as an honor guard. Fifteen hundred soldiers from nearby Camp Bryan Grimes stood in formation in the street facing the Capitol. Three ministers conducted the service, which included an 11-gun salute.

When the ceremony ended, the casket was taken to nearby Oakwood Cemetery. The procession numbered 3,500 and included military units, the governor, members of the state supreme court and a contingent of Raleigh school children. At the cemetery, soldiers stood on three sides of the grave, leaving the fourth for the family. A few more words were spoken by the clergymen, taps was played and three volleys were fired by the Governor's Guard.

Bagley's death naturally prompted the strongest reactions in North Carolina, but the killing of the young man was also of national interest. Newspapers across the country pointed to the symbolism of a Southerner dying heroically in this first national conflict since the Civil War. Bagley became a symbol of the reunification of the nation. Units of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was the Union Army veterans' association, sent flowers to the funeral.

One of the greatest national tributes to Bagley came in June when the secretary of the Navy announced that a torpedo boat, planned for construction, was to be named for the young North Carolinian. On September 26, 1900, the Torpedo Boat Worth Bagley was launched from a shipyard in Bath, Maine.

Cardenas. In 1899, a year after local Spanish-American War hero Worth Bagley was killed at Cardenas, Cuba, in 1898, this Raleigh & Cape Fear Railroad station and post office were named in his honor. Rufus R. Sexton became the first postmaster, followed by William L. Johnson, and then Lena E. Sexton, who served for twenty years before the office closed in 1925.¹⁸

Kemp B. Johnson erected telephone poles for a line from his home at Cardenas to Caraleigh Mill in Raleigh in 1896; in 1907 the area got its own exchange when Dr. James M. Judd, A. C. Burt, Ed H. Ballentine, and other local residents formed Cardenas Telephone Company. Mrs. Sexton operated the switchboard at her home near the railroad depot. A. N. Johnson had a general store at the depot. Dr. Judd lived nearby and carried on a medical practice covering Wake, Harnett, Johnston, and Chatham counties. Dr. H. H. Utley also practiced there in the early 1900s. In about 1895 Irene Johnson Cook built a small private school, which later became a public school for white children until the county school board authorized a new building, completed in about 1910. Kemp Johnson assembled a large lumber business. Dr. Judd's daughter, Edith Judd Parker, recalled that Johnson had a "music hall" near his home and allowed the community to use it for special speakers and events such as school Christmas programs. The area's earliest moving pictures were also shown there. Other businesses and industries included sawmills and cotton gins owned by W. M. Ballentine and W. Z. ("Zeb") Atkinson, and J. L. Brown's grocery. J. H. Hinesley's blacksmith shop was located there in the 1910s.¹⁹

WORTH BAGLEY

(1) The U.S. Congress declared war on Spain 25 APR 1898 on 2 MAY 1898. The 1st NC Regiment was formed at Camp Bryan Annex near Raleigh, NC. Nine days later Ensign Worth Bagley, younger brother of Adelaide Worth Bagley Daniels was killed aboard the USS Winslow at Cardenas Bay, Cuba. He was the first American naval officer to die in the Spanish-American War. He is buried in Oakwood Cem. A statue was erected in his honor on the Capitol Square in 1908. (37, Pg 93)

TAR HEEL HISTORY

By Lang Baradell

Not In Vain

Raleigh's Worth Bagley, the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War, became a symbol for America's reunification after the Civil War.

Among the war memorials on the capitol grounds in Raleigh stands a statue of a strikingly handsome young man named Worth Bagley. His name is unfamiliar today, but in 1898 it was known across the nation. He had the distinction of being the first U.S. officer killed in the Spanish-American War.

Bagley was from a notable North Carolina family. His mother, Adelaide, was the daughter of former Governor Jonathan Worth. His father, William H. Bagley, had been a newspaper editor in his native Perquimans County, a state senator and a major in the Confederate Army. He also had been private secretary to Governor Worth. That is when he met and married the governor's daughter. Later, he served for 18 years as clerk of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Worth was born into this illustrious family on April 6, 1874, in the family home on the corner of Blount and South streets in Raleigh. He was the eldest of six children and attended schools in Raleigh. Though accepted at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he chose to attend the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. At the academy, Bagley became a football hero. He was so successful on the field that poems were written about his athletic accomplishments. He graduated from the academy in 1895.

When the Spanish-American War began in 1898, Ensign Bagley was second-in-command of a recently constructed torpedo boat called the Winslow. The Winslow was assigned to be part of the Cuban blockade. The blockade was a key element in the U.S. war strategy and was established to prevent supplies from reaching Spanish soldiers on the island.

Worth Bagley

On the morning of May 11, 1898, the Winslow joined two other American ships, the Wilmington and the Hudson, near the mouth of Cardenas Bay, which is located on the northern coast of Cuba, 70 miles east of Havana. There had been reports of Spanish vessels in the area, and the three American ships steamed into the bay to look for the enemy.

During the course of the search, they spied a Spanish gunboat, tied to a dock, at a distance of about 3,500 yards. Captain Todd, commanding officer of the Wilmington, ordered the Winslow forward to investigate. When the Winslow got within 1,500 yards of the target, the Spanish gunboat and a shore battery opened fire. The Winslow responded, and the Wilmington and the Hudson advanced to join the fight.

One of the first Spanish shots wounded the commander of the Winslow, Lieutenant John B. Bernadou, in the leg. As the battle continued, the Winslow suffered severe damage, including the loss of its steering mechanism. As a result, the Winslow could be maneuvered only by putting its engines alternately in forward and reverse. In addition, damage to the vessel made direct communication between Lieutenant Bernadou and the engine room impossible. Worth Bagley was forced to deliver directions to the engine room from the deck. To do this, he had to run back and forth from the deck, down a ladder, to the engine room below. Near the end of the battle, while Bagley was on deck, a Spanish shell hit the Winslow and exploded. Bagley and two sailors were killed instantly. Two other enlisted men were seriously wounded and died soon after. Heavy shelling from the Wilmington eventually silenced the Spanish guns, and the three American ships withdrew, with the Winslow towed by the Hudson.

After the battle, Bagley's body was taken to Key West, Florida, on board the Hudson. The ship arrived on May 12, and on the following day, a memorial service was held for the fallen officer. The body was then sent by ship to Jacksonville, Florida, and then by train to Raleigh.

Along the train's route, people gathered to pay their respects. Large crowds assembled in Savannah, Georgia, Charlotte, Concord and Salisbury. Flowers were sent along the way to be placed on Bagley's casket, including an arrangement in the shape of the state flag given by North Carolinians living in Savannah.

The funeral train arrived in Raleigh at 1:40 a.m. on May 16. Friends and family, including Bagley's brother-in-law Josephus Daniels (the future U.S. secretary of the Navy was then publisher of Raleigh's State Chronicle), were waiting at the station. The group, along with an eight-member military escort, took the casket through the dark city streets to the Bagley family home. At 1:30 that afternoon, a military escort took the body to the Capitol, where it lay in state for two hours in the rotunda.

Funeral services began at 4:30 p.m. on the southern side of the Capitol grounds. Flags were at half-mast, and businesses were closed, as 10,000 people gathered for the funeral. Some looked down from the Capitol roof, while most crowded around on the grounds and streets.

Family members and state and military officials sat in a place of honor. Behind the casket a group of cadets from the Agricultural and Mechanical College served as an honor guard. Fifteen hundred soldiers from nearby Camp Bryan Grimes stood in formation in the street facing the Capitol. Three ministers conducted the service, which included an 11-gun salute.

When the ceremony ended, the casket was taken to nearby Oakwood Cemetery. The procession numbered 3,500 and included military units, the governor, members of the state supreme court and a contingent of Raleigh school children. At the cemetery, soldiers stood on three sides of the grave, leaving the fourth for the family. A few more words were spoken by the clergymen, taps was played and three volleys were fired by the Governor's Guard.

Bagley's death naturally prompted the strongest reactions in North Carolina, but the killing of the young man was also of national interest. Newspapers across the country pointed to the symbolism of a Southerner dying heroically in this first national conflict since the Civil War. Bagley became a symbol of the reunification of the nation. Units of the Grand Army of the Republic, which was the Union Army veterans' association, sent flowers to the funeral.

One of the greatest national tributes to Bagley came in June when the secretary of the Navy announced that a torpedo boat, planned for construction, was to be named for the young North Carolinian. On September 26, 1900, the Torpedo Boat Worth Bagley was launched from a shipyard in Bath, Maine.

So your great grandmother and I are 4th cousins, you and my great grandchilden will be 7th cousins while you and I are 4th cousins 3 times removed.

Gilbert U (my GGF) and his first cousin Calum U (your ancestor) were raised in the same community (Moccasin Creek Area) of NC. Gilbert U was about 1804 at age 12 moved to an area about 20 miles west. Calum ^(born 1789) stayed on in the community and married & had children. Calum U moved to Hancock Co, GA about 1820 & had several children there and then moved to Henry Co, GA (where his Uncle Charles U was located) and there had several more children. Some of the son of Calum U, including your great ancestor, Button U, moved to AR before the Civil War.

I am gradually accumulating details on the Richard U III / Calum U subclan and will be publishing more about it in the UB as time goes by.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

○ LIVING STONES History of Inwood Bapt Church 2000 WAKE CO, NC

PG 102

Less than three months after Robert Baird joined Inwood Church in April, 1961, he was elected director of the Training Union. Two months later he was named to the building committee for the construction of the new educational facility. The next month he was elected deacon. A year later, in August, 1962, he was elected president of the Brotherhood. And in September, 1962, he was elected chairman of the Board of Deacons.

PG 141, 142

Robert Baird, who had been elected chairman of the Board of Deacons in September, 1962, completed his term as deacon in 1964. He was re-elected to three-year terms in 1965, 1969, 1974, and 1978. During much of his time on the Board he was chairman, and indeed assumed that responsibility during that difficult time in 1976 when the chairman left the church. He was often a delegate to the annual meeting of the Raleigh Baptist Association, and from time to time he was a messenger to the Baptist State Convention. He was often a member of the screening committee for the election of deacons. And he was a member of the pulpit committee named after Adams' short tenure as pastor.

Some of the older generation continued to make significant contributions to the leadership of the church until well into the 1980's. Four were almost "perpetual" deacons. Willis Harris, who had been baptized in 1949, and whose first leadership position was that of director of the Sunday School in 1951, continued to have great influence. He was elected a deacon in 1980, and again in 1982. Twice during this era he was on the deacon screening committee, and in 1986, when other trustees were being elected for limited terms, he was elected "trustee for life." Rand Jeffreys, who had first been elected a deacon in 1946 and often re-elected since that time, was on the board in 1980 and was named co-chair in 1981. He was elected to another term in 1986. He was, of course, active in many other ways. He was chairman of the nominating committee in 1981 and a member of that committee again in 1988. In 1985 he was a member of the ad hoc committee to plan the best use of the church's physical facilities. After 1988, he held no office. James Jeffreys, who was first elected a deacon in 1950, was elected to three terms as deacon during this era: 1981, 1985, and 1988. Robert L. Baird had been elected to terms beginning in 1962, 1965, 1969, 1974, and 1978. He was elected once again in 1983. Neither of these four was elected to any church office after 1988.
