THE BARBEES

The Barbees of Wake County are descendants of William Barbee of Middlesex, Virginia. Positive heritage has been traced back to William Barbee's will d. 1720. The Barbees in Virginia go back as far as 1660 when William Barby was listed in an investment grant at York River, Virginia. In the will of our William Barbee his name is spelled Barby. Since the Barbys came to America, the Y has been dropped and EE added to spell Barbee. William Barbee referred to himself as a "free planter." In the inventory of his estate it is stated: "Money in the hands of Wm. Dawkins, merchant in London." The planters shipped tobacco to England to merchants, who held, sold, and exchanged for goods to be shipped back to Virginia. There are Barbys in Northamptonshire and Devonshire, England, today. There is a Barby Village, called "Barby on the Hill Village", located in Whants, England. (Archivist of Northampton County, England). The origin of the name Barby goes back to 1508 — Boroughy, etc. 1550-1613. The Barby Arms — ("Burke, encyclopedia of Heraldry") from the 1620 visitation of Devon: ARMS: "Argent, a chevron between "three garbs sable" CREST: An heraldic Tigers head erased argent attired with hx rams horns, or.

William Barbee b. 16 , d. 1720, married Elizabeth Beamont — Their children: John b. 1683; Hannah, bpt. 1685; William, bpt. 1687 — Middlesex, Virginia. (Parrish registry.)

John Barbee b. 1600, d. 1720 — married Ann Miller (bpt. 1693, d. 1766), on December 25, 1693. She was the daughter of John Mical Miller of Middlesex, Virginia. Their children: William, b. 1711 d. 1758 in Orange Co. N. C.; Christopher, b. d. 1779 in Wake County; John; Joseph; Francis; Rose; Mary; and Micall.

Christopher Barbee b. after 1712, d. testate in Wake County in 1777. He is the first son named in the will of his mother, Ann Miller Barbee, dated August 17, 1762. (Essex Co., Virginia). He married Margaret — He did purchase 133 acres of land in March 1747 in Essex C. Virginia, and in 1753, he purchased 25 acres. He sold these two tracts of land in November 1757. No record of a grant has been found in North Carolina, but Christopher did buy two tracts of land from John Bohannon one tract of 268 acres, the other 567 acres. These deeds are registered at the Orange Co. Courthouse March 1759. The location is in the locality where Christopher's Son Joseph later lived. This property became Wake County in 1777. Their children: Martha; Anney; Thomas; Joseph; Sarah Ann; Rose; Sukey; and Christopher. This is the Christopher Barbee that married in Wake Co. Dicey Hopson in February 1784. In 1792 Christopher Barbee donated 211 acres of land to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill along with nine other Chapel Hill Citizens. (Minutes of trustees of the University of N.C. 1789-1797. Christopher bought land on the south side of North East Prong of New Hope in January, 1787.

Joseph Barbee b. probably in Virginia. He died testate in Wake County, N.C. in 1830. He married Elenor who survived him. He served in the Revolutionary war. (Revolutionary accounts, Appendix B)

Wimberly?

Joseph Barbee received a land grant from the State of N.C., April 11, 1780 #470,300 acres on Kitts Creek — joining lines of Margaret Barbee. Going Barbee and his own line (he had purchased 100 acres in September 1777 from Christopher and Mary Barbee. Joseph built what was later called the Barbee Tavern on part of his land, on what was then the Chapel Hill (University Town) — Raleigh Road. In the 1790 census Joseph reported a family of twelve persons and 12 slaves. In 1800 he listed 10 in the family. The Barbee Tavern is no longer there as such. There had been a house built around the original two rooms that still remain as they were. The Beasleys, who live there today, married into the Barbee family years ago. Mrs. Batchelor who lived there until her death in 1972, told of the time the party which was escorting President Polk to Chapel to speak at Commencement at the University stopped there at the Tavern. The stage coach stopped at "Mrs. Barbees" for breakfast every day on the way from Chapel Hill to Hillsborough. Mrs. Batchelor was a descendant of Sally F. Barbee b. 1869 d. 1952. There is a family graveyard there today. Joseph and Elenor's children: Willard; Christopher; Mark; Asa; Peggy; Polly; Dorris; Rosey; and Nancy. (Joseph's will dated Feb. 1, 1830.)

Christopher Barbee b. January 20, 1779, d. Nov. 30, 1851 testate; married Frances Jones b. March 1, 1791, d. July 2, 1871, on August 13, 1807. They are both buried at the old "Barbee Tavern" in Wake Co. Their children: Willis; Joseph; Fletcher; Clara; Penny; Nancy; Christopher; Clem; William; George.

CHRISTOPHER BARBEE son of
JOHN and ANN MILLER BARBEE

CHRISTOPHER was born in Virginia sometime after 1712. He died testate, in Wake County, North Carolina in 1777.

CHRISTOPHER is the first son named in the will of his mother Ann Barbee, dated 17 August 1762, proved in Essex Co., Va. in 1766.

LAND HOLDINGS IN ESSEX COUNTY, VIRGINIA. CHRISTOPHER purchased from Moses Carnal, on 15 March 1747, 133 acres. And on 7 February 1753 he purchased from Ambrose Pilkinton, 25 acres. He sold these two tracts of land on 10 November 1757, to Robert Parker, Junior, of Essex. (For details, see ESSEX DEEDS in APPENDIX A) CHRISTOPHER'S wife Margaret Barbee signed this deed. Both signed with a "mark".

LAND HOLDINGS IN NORTH CAROLINA. No record of a Grant to this CHRISTOPHER has been found. And no deed can be found to him. But we know that many early Orange County deeds are missing, and that Wake County deed books up to 1790 (twenty years) have been lost.

In ORANGE COUNTY, N.C. REGISTRATION OF DEEDS (see APPENDIX B) we find that CHRISTOPHER bought two tracts of land from John Bohannon, one tract of 268 acres, the other of 567 acres. These deeds were registered at the Court for March 1759. We know the location of these grants to John Bohannon, and they are in the locality where CHRISTOPHER'S son Joseph later lived. Since we know CHRISTOPHER owned land at the time of his death in 1777, we assume that these two are the tracts he owned.

REFERENCES in the COURT MINUTES OF ORANGE CO., N.C. Only three references to this CHRISTOPHER have been found in Orange. The first of these references is dated June 1759, the second one is in November 1760, and the third in August 1763. They all concern duty on "Road Juries". CHRISTOPHER was to be Overseer of the road near his home in 1763. For details, which show who his neighbors were, see ORANGE COUNTY MINUTES, APPENDIX B.

The MINUTES for Orange are missing from August 1766 until the Court for May 1777. In 1770 Orange County was divided, and the section in which CHRISTOPHER lived was cut off into Wake. The Wake MINUTES begin with the Court for June 1777, so that we have no references to CHRIS in Wake, until that date. His will was proved at this Court by Thomas Barbee, his son, one of the executors, and Samuel Saxon, a witness. An inventory of the estate was filed. This original will is in Raleigh. We give an abstract:

Dated 8 November 1775. Legatees were:

wife, Margaret, who was to have the use of the plantation and all perishable property during her lifetime.
He gave his daughter Martha Wimberly one negro boy, his daughter Anney Barbee, one negro boy.
These slaves were to be sold after the daughters' deaths, and the proceeds divided among their children.

To son Thomas Barbee one negro boy ... it being the last part of my Estate I have to give to him

To son Joseph Barbee one negro boy ... it being the last part of my Estate I have to give him

To daughter Sarah Ann Beasley one negro fellow ... and after her decease to be sold and the money equally divided among her children and if she should die without an heir for the negroes to fall to her sisters Rose and Sukey Barbee it being the last part of my estate I have to give her.

Item - I lend to my dear and loving wife Margit Barbee all the rest of my Estate both Personal and Perishable to her during her life or widowhood and after her decease, for the land to be equally divided between Benelge Barbee and Christopher Barbee, and Benelge Barbee to have the upper end of the land and Christopher Barbee to have the lower end of the land, And the rest of my Estate Negroes, Stock, household goods to be equally divided between Christopher Barbee, Benelge Barbee, Rosey Barbee and Sukey Barbee

And I choose for my Executors, Samuel Saxon, and Thomas Barbee.

Witnesses: William Maner
Thomas Barbee
Sam'l Saxon.

Signed: CHRISTOPHER (x) BARBEE his mark

From the arrangement and wording of the above will it seems that daughters Martha Wimberly and Anney Barbee were married and already had children, while daughter Sarah Ann Beasley had no children.

At the Wake Court for December 1780 "The Court Ordered that Gray Darbee, Samuel Saxon, and John Mottley be appointed to divide the perishable part of estate of CHRISTOPHER BARBEE between Rose Barbee, Sukey Barbee, Christopher Barbee and Abimeleck Barbee, orphans of said CHRISTOPHER, agreeable to will of testator and report to next Court." This shows that Margaret, Christopher's widow, died before December 1780, as CHRISTOPHER'S estate was not to be divided until after her death.

Among the Wake County documents in the N.C. ARCHIVES in a box of Estate Papers are two which concern CHRISTOPHER BARBEE'S Estate. These are the Guardian Bond for Thomas Barbee, dated 3 March 1782, as "Guardian for Christopher Barbee a minor an orphan of CHRISTOPHER BARBEE" Signed by Thomas Barbee, Joseph (x) Barbee. Witness, J. Rice; and the bond of Joseph as guardian of Abimeleck Barbee, minor, son of CHRISTOPHER, with the same signatures as the bond above.

CHILDREN OF CHRISTOPHER AND MARGARET BARBEE, in the order in which they are named in the will.

- I. MARTHA BARBEE married before Nov 1775 Wimberly, had issue.
- II. ANNEY BARBEE married before Nov 1775 Barbee ? Had issue? Possibly she married Goin Barbee, son of JOHN ? Goin's will dated 8 April 1806 names his wife ANN and 6 children. See Chart #4, pg. 89.

- III. THOMAS BARBEE was granted 300 acres in Chatham in 1779 on the North-east Creek of New Hope. "Begin at the corner of said Barbee's line at a white-oak west 204 poles to a red oak in Henry Beasley's line ..." etc.

In December 1786 THOMAS BARBEE sold to Christopher Barbee, for £ 50--300 acres on N.E. Prong of New Hope ... Beasley's line ...

Witnesses: Ephriam Beasley

Joseph Barbee

Signed: THOMAS BARBEE

Recorded CHATHAM DEEDS D-246.

THOMAS has not been found in the 1830, 1840, or 1850 census for Chatham, Orange or Wake County, North Carolina. He seems to have left this section.

- IV. JOSEPH BARBEE married Elenor, died testate in Wake Co., N.C. We have information about many of his descendants, see the sketch by Belle Lewter West, page 62.
- V. SARAH ANN BARBEE Married before November 1775 Beasley. We have no information about her.
- VI. ROSE BARBEE married (bond in Wake 8 April 1786) James Harwood. Bondsman: Fendal Beasley. No further information.
- VII. SUKEY BARBEE married (bond in Wake 8 April 1780) Jesse Beasley. Bondsman: Fendal Beasley. No further information.
- VIII. CHRISTOPHER BARBEE was a minor as late as 3 March 1782, when his brother THOMAS qualified as his guardian.

He married in Wake County, N.C. Dicey Hopson, daughter of Thomas. The marriage bond dated 1 Feb 1784 does not give the bride's name, but Dicey and her four children are named in the will of Thomas Hopson, dated 20 Dec 1804, and recorded in WAKE WILLS 7, page 5, Feb 1805. (He calls her "daughter Dicey Motley" so evidently she married again.) He leaves "Half a child's share to CHRISTOPHER BARBEE'S four children namely CHRISTOPHER BARBEE, MILLY BARBEE, PATSY BARBEE, EADY BARBEE". Executors to this will were "loving son William Hopson and GOIN BARBEE".

Witnesses: GOIN BARBEE, John O'Kelly, Wm. H. Burton.

In ORANGE DEEDS we find that on 20 Jan 17--(Proved Feb Court 1787) Thomas Hopson of Wake Co., N.C. sold to CHRISTOPHER BARBEE for £ 50, a tract on the South side of North East prong of New Hope ... begin Widow Hopson's corner, east to Thomas Hopson's line, N down the creek ... 100 acres. Witnesses: William Hopson, Zachariah Hopson.

CHRISTOPHER BARBEE died young. His will, dated 17 Jan 1792, was proved at May Court 1792, recorded in ORANGE WILLS B-166. Legataes were wife DICEY, who was pregnant. If she had a male child he was to inherit the land, later. "Daughters" number and names not stated. Executors: "loving friends GOIN BARBEE and JOSEPH BARBEE". Witnesses: GOIN BARBEE, Ephriam Beasley, Ransom (x) Davis.

A section on fraternal orders describes several most if not all of which appear to be MASON LODGES, of which the following is presumed to be one:

George Washington Lodge No. 174

George Washington Lodge No. 174, located at Lassiter's Crossroads, was chartered December 5, 1855. William C. Mason was master; J. Broodwell, senior warden; M. C. Lewter, junior warden; Hinton Hudson, secretary; Sims Upchurch, treasurer; William Womble, senior deacon; Joseph Bell, junior deacon; and A. Barbee tyler.

Dues for the year 1858 were one dollar per member and 75 members are listed in the lodge minute book.

The cornerstone of the lodge was laid by Columbus Lodge No. 102 on September 29, 1859.

In 1882 the lodge moved to Bell's Crossroads and on July 24, 1908, S. M. Baldwin sold the lodge a lot located behind the present Bell's Baptist Church where the lodge now stands.

With the coming of the New Hope Dam the members of George Washington Lodge will be forced to move from the Bell's Community and the Lodge will probably unite with some nearby lodge.

MRS AGNES BARBEE SOMMERLIN
RT 1, BOX 522 MS WOOD BRANCH RD
STONEVILLE, NC 27048

Dear Mrs Sommerlin,

As you will see from the enclosed sheets I am keenly interested in all uplander and their descendants. Recently I have been working on the outline for your Greatgrandfather, George Munsteruplund. Quite a few people have helped including your Uncle Woodrow Munster Barbree. He suggested you might be able to provide some details not available to him. Here are my questions:

- 1) For Thomas Dewey Barbree
 - a) where did he marry Agnes May Elliott and when in MAY 1936 did she die?
 - b) when & where did he marry Helen Kinkeas, what is her full maiden name, when & where born, still living?
 - c) where did he marry Elsie Lee Hurley and is that her full maiden name?
- 2) For Corinne Barbree (child of Elsie adopted by TDB)
 - a) Was her original full name Corinne Mack Bowen?
 - b) what is her full adopted name?
 - c) when in JUL 1939 was he born and where?
 - d) Details on her marriage & children if any?

3) For yourself

a) when in JAN 1945 did you marry and where?

b) where did you marry on 3 AVE 1963?

c) what is the full name of Bennie E. Bradley and when and where was he born?

d) what does the C. M. in C. M. Sommerlin stand for and where was he born?

e) do you have any children? If so, details?

You may not have all of the above but I will be grateful for anything you can supply. Please let me know if you have any questions or our Upchurch family history.

I'd be glad to send a sketch of your line and mine showing how we are related and going back to Michael Upchurch, I, if you so desire.

I was born & raised in Wake Co, NC and lived there many years but since 1975 have been here in Arizona. I miss NC - especially the bar-b-q

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

The parentage of JOHN SCOTT of Wake County, N. C., who was the ancestor of the line of SCOTTS in which this writer is interested, has not been proven. However, in 1762 one JOHN SCOTT of Wake Co., N. C., was buying and selling land on Crabtree and Walnut Creeks. He left a will, recorded on the first of November, 1819 (WAKE CO., N. C. WILL BK. 15/347), naming his wife, Hannah and children, without naming his children. Presumably JOHN SCOTT who was later active in land deals in this same section was one of those unnamed children.

MRS HENRY E. VAIL
1965 BENSON ROAD
GARNER, NC 27529

Dear Mrs Vail

Perhaps Jessie Ruth Warner, whom I believe is your relative, has mentioned that I have roots in central NC and that I published the Upchurch Bulletin on which details are enclosed. JESSIE Ruth and I are not related but a number of the families from which she and I descended have members who have intermarried. This coupled with our mutual interest in family history has led to a continuing exchange of information letters. She recently sent me your name and address and indicated something of your emerging interest in family history.

I don't know that you and I have a reason to correspond but I wanted to contact you just in case. All four of my grandparents and I think all eight of my grand-grandparents are from central NC. A sketch is enclosed. These families are in turn related to dozens of others. I have well over 100,000 words of individuals who lived in central N.C. I continue to add to these files weekly with information from all eras from the Revolution down to today. For example, I subscribe to the Edinburgh & Apex papers and clip all marriage & obituarier and file them just as I'd have they will be useful.

If you want to send me a list of your questions about your family I'll be glad to check my files to see if they shed any light on whatever is puzzling you. Some birth did send me a sketch of your line back to your Alburn, Bacon, Tater, Harwood & Rogers line. I have entered all those details in my files. I probably identify with the Tater family among those listed better than the others.

If you do write could I have your full maiden name - I file that way.

It would be great to have another casual correspondent in central N.C. who is interested in the family heritage of the area. you never know when we could help each other.

Sincerely yours
 Phil Upchurch

① Zebulon Record THUR 14 MAR 1996 Zebulon, NC

Eastern Wake County is an area that people have called home for more than 300 years.

Historians believe the Tuscarora Indians lived in the Marks Creek area, east of Knightdale, at the dawn of the 18th century. Food and wildlife were plentiful here. In fact, legend has it that panthers lived along the Neuse River at that time.

One of the first white men to pass through this area was English explorer John Lawson, who followed the river into the present-day Wake County. English settlers followed in his wake; homesteads began popping up in this area around 1740.

EDGAR BARBEE

Work began on the city of Raleigh and the state capital in the late part of the 1700s. By that time, several small communities had sprung up in eastern Wake County. Three — Knightdale, Wendell and Zebulon — eventually became towns, while others — Eagle Rock and Shotwell — remain small communities. Why some grew and some did not can be attributed to some degree to the Raleigh-Pamlico railroad, which was built around 1905. The railway primarily carried lumber and cotton products, but it also attracted new businesses and citizens to the area.

The heritage of eastern Wake County has been, and continues to be, tied closely to tobacco, but today the area hosts several industries that employ more people than the gold leaf. We still enjoy a slow pace of life here.

Above, an actor demonstrates traditional ways to tie tobacco for drying in a barn.

Who we are

The eastern Wake route of the railroad tracks resulted from the work of several people, including Henry Haywood Knight, commonly regarded as the father of Knightdale.

Knight, whose family owned much of the land in what is now Knightdale, was a community leader at the turn of the century. He and others arranged for the construction of the first Knightdale school, a one-room building on First Avenue, around 1900.

He is thought to have been instrumental in getting the railroad to put its tracks through Knightdale. The depot was built on land donated by Knight.

The land around the depot grew into a business district, which formed the basis of the town, chartered by the state of North Carolina March 9, 1927.

The town of Wendell grew out of the seed that was the one-room Rhodes School House, which was built in the days before the American Civil War, or the "War Between the States" as many in this area still call the conflict. Named for landowner Ambrose Rhodes, the school was renamed Wendell Preparatory School around 1890 in honor of the poet Oliver Wendell Holmes, a favorite of then-Schoolmaster M.A. Griffin.

Shortly afterward, a Wendell post office opened in a store belonging to J.R. Nowell. Restored by the Wendell Historical Society, the original post office is currently located on Fourth Street.

The town of Wendell was incorporated March 6, 1903.

One of the town's first major establishments came from the efforts of R.B. Whitley, C.Z. Todd, Amos Dean and others, who formed the Bank of Wendell in 1907. Whitley served as the bank's president until his death in 1944. He also was a town official and a state legislator at different times.

The town of Zebulon also resulted from businessmen working together. Falconer Arendell of Wakefield and Edgar Barbee of Barclaysville founded the Zebulon Co. in 1906 and purchased 90 acres that served as the heart of the new town.

With development in full swing, the N.C. General Assembly passed an act the following year — Feb. 16, 1907 — which incorporated the town. The original boundaries consisted of 297 acres. The town has grown to cover more than 3,600 acres.

Barbee brothers conspire to bring line to Zebulon

Wakefield's efforts to secure railroad go for naught

Zebulon Company obtains land, rail firm accommodates owners

by Scott McLeod

In the business world, having an inside contact provides an investor with information that can turn a poor man into a rich one, or make a rich man richer. For the speculator without the inside track, relying on judgment, experience and general business trends, it can be a no-win situation.

So it must have seemed to the businessmen of Wakefield in 1906 who were trying to lure a railroad to their town by all the standard, accepted means of the day but were beat out by the Zebulon Co.

The deal that blew the first breath of life into Zebulon — which came in the form of a wheezing, chugging locomotive owned by the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Co. — involved two brothers and probably a little back scratching, a more familiar business practice during the turn of the century's laissez-faire economy than it is in today's regulated world.

When plans were announced for the construction of a Raleigh-to-Wilson train line in the early 1900s, the railroad's tentative route was to take it through Wendell, Wakefield and Middlesex as it moved eastward from Raleigh.

Since Zebulon did not even exist at this time, Wakefield seemed a logical choice.

As a bustling eastern Wake town that had opened a post office as early as 1826, Wakefield was the largest town in the area, and had been registered as a voting precinct since 1861. It had thrived as the midway point on the stage coach line between Wilson and Raleigh, and had incorporated as a town in 1899 with approximately 1,000 residents. With its business district all but dead today, it takes some imagination to picture Wakefield as it was in 1890, complete with a hotel, a drug store, a general store, a sawmill, a livery stable, a dairy and cold blocks of ice available to get people through the hot summers.

The news of the railroad perked up some ears in Wakefield. According to Edythe Tippet, a local historian, "Everybody knew that the railroad was going to really open up this area."

With this in mind, the businessmen in Wakefield got together in 1903 and voted in a bond issue promising the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Co. $10,000 in assistance if they would locate within a half mile of their community. As a further incentive, in October of the following year, the businessmen got together and promised the railroad another sum of money in a private deal.

"Everybody in Wakefield, down to the farmers and the blacksmith, had pledged money to try and get the railroad to come through," Ms. Tippet said.

Wakefield, however, despite the combined efforts of its citizens, was not to get the railroad.

Maybe it was a kind of collusion or maybe it wasn't that brought the railroad to Zebulon, but it definitely was a deal that stayed in one family.

The principal shareholder in the Raleigh and Pamlico railroad was Claude Barbee. His brother, Edgar B. Barbee of Barclaysville, started buying land in what is now Zebulon in early 1906.

First, he bought 49 acres from the widow Frances Whitley, and then 11 days later got 41½ more adjoining acres from the widow Martha Horton. Two days later, on Feb. 15, 1906, Barbee sold the land to the Zebulon Co., whose principal shareholders were himself and Falcon

Benjamin Arendell, a Wakefield businessman.

"It had already been decided that the railroad was going to come through what is now Zebulon," said Ferd Davis, a Zebulon lawyer and a founding member of the Little River Historical Society. "They knew it but the people in Wakefield didn't."

Instead of taking the money from the Wakefield businessmen, the R&PS planned a route that ran 1½ miles south of Wakefield, through a thick pine forest.

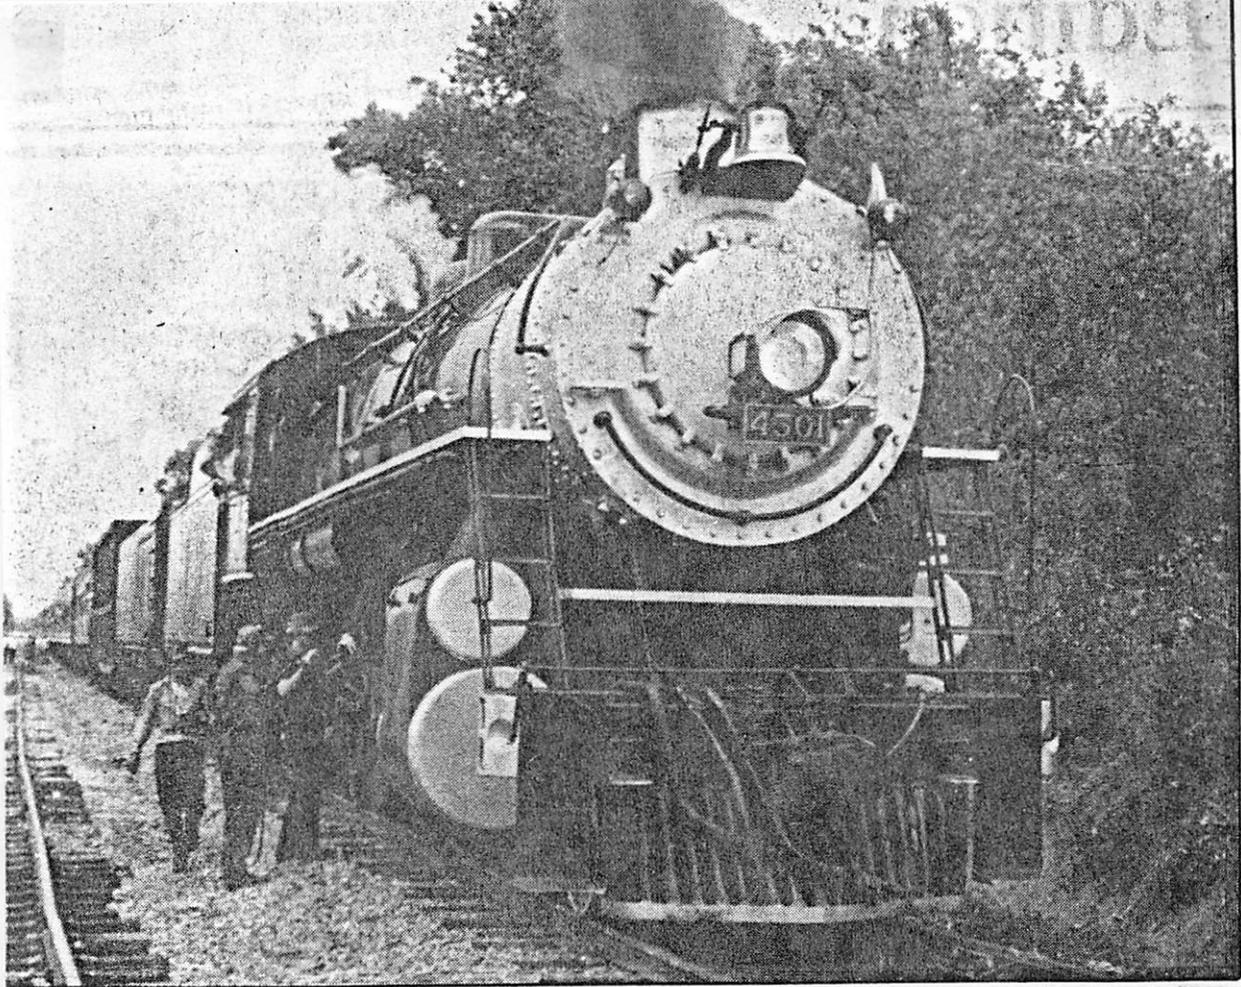

At least Arendell knew of the new route, and this allowed him to get in on the building boom that hit the area and leave his name on what has become the town's main street. Originally, Vance Street, running parallel to the railroad, was to be the main street, but it just didn't develop the commercial interests that thrived on Arendell.

By June, the Zebulon Co. had sold its first lots. The town was completely surveyed and planned before any of the building started, with east-west roads running parallel to the railroad. Lumber and tobacco were early products, and a 1907 edition of the Raleigh News & Observer describes the "birth of the new town of Zebulon," which was officially chartered by the N.C. General Assembly on Feb. 16, 1907, one year after the formation of the Zebulon Co.

So it was that the concerted efforts of the Wakefield business community could not pull off the railroad deal. Ms. Tippet said an old rumor credits an early Wakefield property owner and businessman, Ivan Proctor, with predicting the demise of the town after it failed to secure the railroad right of way. "He had business in Raleigh but he kept his Wakefield property," she said. "He is rumored to have said, 'If the railroad doesn't come to Wakefield, the cows will be grazing in the street within one year.'"

It was six years later, in 1913, when Wakefield's charter was repealed by the N.C. General Assembly. Though the cows didn't take over Wakefield, it seems that Proctor, if the rumor is true, did accurately predict the demise of the early eastern Wake town.

○ COMMENTS ON THE FAMILY OF HUBBARD U 1800-1859

These comments are derived largely from RPU 25 FEB 2011 the will of Hubbard written 31 AUG 1858 probated MAY 1859 and from a deed made by the heirs of Hubbard on 22 NOV 1859 both preserved in the Profile of Hubbard, the deed of RPU by Henry L. Hinkle on 11 FEB 2011 via email.

- △ The will gives all of his land to son Green Berry U on condition that he care for his parents for their lives.
- △ Daughter Lorena^{given} receives items as equal gifts already given to his other children - not named.

The NOV 1859 deed is not exactly in line with the will in that it indicates a dowry of land has already been set aside by the widow nee Esther

- △ Byrd (she died in 1864 leaving a will) and the remainder of the property is in the hands of Hubbard's children
- △ who sell their undivided share to their brother PARKER U.

The sellers are styled as follows:

- △ 1. ARMEALLY^{HER MARK} HUDSON [ARMELIA U]
 + Husband HINTON HUDSON
- △ 2. TABBITHA^{HER MARK} HOLLEMAN [TABBITHA ESTHER U]
 + Husband - shown as WILLIE HOLLEMAN
 but signed as [WILEY W. HOLLEMAN]
- △ 3 G. B. U [GREEN BERRY U]
- △ 4. LINDERMON^{HER MARK} U
- 5. LORENA^{HER MARK} U [NOTE BORN 1824, STILL SINGLE 1859 AGE 35]

Note that the deed does not mention a daughter of Hubbard named OTELA U [BORN 1840 PRESUMED DIED < 1859
 Note that the deed is just if mistakenly lists Wiley W. Holleman as W. W. UPCHURCH

Note the deed reserves a one acre cemetery where Hubbard rests Deed land adjoins LEVI BAUCOM, HINTON HUDSON, ET AL, witness GEORGE L. BARBEE

Hubbard purchased land in 1823, 1834, 1837 - how the three tracts relate to the NOV 1859 deed is unknown. It is presumed to lay just SW of Lynchburg Station and is probably what is now UPCHURCH FARMS SUBDIVISION.

On 18 JUL 1983 RPU & John Lee U, Jr walked the tract looking for the cemetery without success.

Proof that TABBITHA ESTHER U had the middle name "ESTHER" is lacking. Hubbard had a sister TABBITHA & his wife = ESTHER.

 of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I.
 After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war
 period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company
 muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864,
 and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor
 records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

- 1850 Census lists Merrell as 34, farming and living with him are Elizabeth Olive 65 and Clarinda Olive 21. We do not place Clarinda unless the census age is wrong because his sister, Clary was married in 1820. Of course, census ages are often wrong and this could be his sister, perhaps a widow. Her married name was Wilson but the census taker could have misunderstood that.

MRS RUTH B. JONES
2616 ERWIN RD
DURHAM, NC 27705

Dear Cousin Ruth,

I thank you for your letter of October 15, 1984. I was so sorry to learn of the death of Belle West. She was a great lady and all of our extended Upchurch family owes her a great amount of gratitude for her very fine genealogical work. I stopped by for a brief visit with her about last February and could tell at that time that she was failing. Upon returning to Tucson I called her daughter Carolyn in Richland, Washington.

I have sent a card of condolence to Carolyn and will write her a letter. It is my desire to dedicate one of the issues of the Upchurch Bulletin to Belle and I hope Carolyn has a suitable picture of her.

I am still spending 10-20 hours of my "spare" time each week on Uplund genealogy. When issue 4 of Volume 5 appears next month, I will have completed 5 years of publication and will have published and identified 12,000 members of our extended Uplund family. There are lots more to document and a lot more interesting details to discover and publish.

Now that I have taken a closer look at your own line I see that certain details are missing. I do hope that you are in a position to help complete the record on Laura Alice (Uplund) Barber and her descendants. Some questions are posed on the attached sheet. These include questions you might be able to answer out of your memory.

Please give Walter McEwan Uplund my regards.

Sincerely yours
Paul Uplund

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

WILLIAM YEATES (YATES)

William Yeates (The name was changed to Yates in later generations) was born 1727 and according to several DAR membership applications his birth took place in Virginia, although I have found no substantiating evidence of this. He died testate in Wake County in 1808. He married, perhaps in N.C., 1748 Mary — who was born 1732 in N.C. She may have been Mary Tapp as William Tapp of Culpeper Co., Va. names daughter Mary Yates (wife of William) in his will.

William served in the Revolutionary War as a private in McRee's Company from N.C.

On 5 June 1784 William Yeates purchased 490 acres in Wake County for 100 pounds (proclamation money) from Absalom Harwood. This land was on the "Indian Branch waters of New Hope." This same date he purchased in Chatham County 600 acres for 100 pounds from Absalom Harwood. This must have been the same tract, extending through both counties.

In 1792 a deed in Chatham County regarding land sold by "William Yeats Sener of Wake County" to "William Yeats Juner of Chatham County" shows that William, Jr. paid 50 pounds for 280 acres. Lewis Wimberly, William's son-in-law, was listed as a witness on this deed. William signed with his mark. This same year William bought land from John Harwood who was perhaps another son-in-law.

On 17 Mar 1807 William sold 300 acres of land to Alsey Yeats "in the county of Wake and Chatham ... on the Indian Branch of New Hope" for 100 pounds current money. This land was bounded on part by land belonging to William Yeats, Jr. and also by land belonging to Matthew Yeats.

I regret that I have been unable to learn anything of a personal nature about William Yates. He most certainly was a planter. He and Mary had thirteen children:

1. Matthew, b. 1760 or 1773, d. 1830 or 1837, m. 7 Nov. 1793 Elizabeth Wimberly (d. 1806), m. 2 Wake Co., N.C. 1807 Elizabeth Baucom (b. 1783, d. 1830/39). 2. William, b. Wake Co. 1762, d. Montgomery Co., Ga. 1850 (or 1827) intestate, m. N.C. 7 Nov. 1793 Mary Wimberly (b. N.C. 1764/5, d. Ga. 1856), daughter of Lewis and Martha (Barbee) Wimberly. 3. Sally. 4. Margaret, m. Bertus Upchurch.

Patsey (probably Martha, but apparently referred to as "Henneritte" in her father's will), m. William Babb and moved to Oglethorpe County, Ga. 6. John. 7. Elizabeth, m. — Gregory. 8. Mildred, m. — Harwood. 9. Crecy or Crissey, m. — Strickland. 10. Jethro, m. Nancy Harwood. 11. Alsy, m. Cynthia Malone. 12. Mary, m. — Beasley. 13. Susannah.

Surviving members of the state champion Green Hope High School basketball team

The champions, a half-century later

Members of the state champion Green Hope High School basketball team got together over the weekend to mark 50 years since they won the North Carolina Class "C" championship on the court at UNC.

Seven teammates and the team's manager were reunited at Vickie's Calabash Restaurant in Cary to reminisce about the good ol' days. They included William Ellis of Butner, Melvin Beal of Cary, E.J. Daniels of Baltimore, Billy Ennis of Red Oak, Carl Ferrell of Green Level, Richard Glover of Cary, Clifton Nutt of Durham and Percy Sears of Greensboro.

The coach, W.O. Council, and two teammates, Bernice Yates and Ray Barbee, are deceased. And teammate Lawrence Shadrach of Wilmington was unable to attend.

The team topped Rock Springs High School in the finals. Ironically, 50 years later, none of the teammates could remember the final score.

Green Hope High School was established in 1927, the first accredited rural high school in Wake County. It later became an elementary school and burned in 1963.

Saturday, April 16 was a special birthday for Annie Barbee. Annie's son Ronald Barbee and family, her daughter Carolyn Allen and family from Raleigh and her granddaughters (Carolina students) had a cook-out at Annie's house. They had a big birthday cake and presented her with presents. I promised Annie I would not tell her age.

Faint, illegible text and numbers, possibly a ledger or financial record, with some lines and columns visible.

Annie Barbee returned home last week after spending two weeks with her sister, Louise in Pennsylvania. While there she attended her nephew Dr. Fred Rosenblum's wedding.

Annie never has a "dull" day. She will have five granddaughters in school at UNC-Chapel Hill this fall. Clabron Ann, her daughter from Atlanta, Ga. will have three daughters, Ronald has a daughter in medical school and Carolyn Allen's daughter, Barbara, will be a freshman.

United way honors Barbee for service

The United Way of Wake County presented two awards for outstanding volunteer service at its annual meeting last week, including one to Apex High grad Ronald M. Barbee.

Receiving the awards, which are the highest recognition United Way has for its volunteers, were Barbee, tax partner with KPMG Peat Marwick, and Harold C. McAllister Jr., retired marketing manager from Travelers Insurance.

Barbee, a Wake County native who graduated from Apex High School, has been a United Way campaign volunteer in one capacity or another for the past 22 years. Under his leadership as Campaign Chair in 1986, United Way of Wake County achieved a 19 percent increase over the amount raised in the previous year's campaign — the largest percentage increase in the nation for a United Way of similar size.

Barbee, who lives in Raleigh, was first elected to United Way's board of directors in 1980, and served as its chairman in 1989. As a member of their Strategic Planning Committee, he helped chart United Way's direction for the four year period spanning 1988-91. He was the founding chair of the Alexis de Tocqueville Society, an organization for major individual contributors to United Way. He is also owner and pilot of the hot air balloon with the United Way logo that has been seen at many community activities over the past few years.

Ronald M. Barbee

In addition to his United Way work, the Duke graduate's community involvement includes service on the boards of United Way agencies. He currently sits on the Salvation Army's board, and has also been on those of the Life Enrichment Center and Drug Action, Inc. Other groups that have had Barbee as a board member include the North Carolina Child Advocacy Institute, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Eastern North Carolina, Rex Hospital Foundation, Raleigh Little Theater, Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, and several others.

Last year, Barbee received the North Carolina Association of Certified Public Accountants' Public Service Award. In May of this year he will chair the 4th annual Rex Classic LPGA ProAm Golf Tournament, which raises approximately $250,000 per year for the hospital.

this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I.
After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war
period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of
the company was compiled principally from company
muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864,
and 15 September through December 1864. No
company muster rolls were found for the period prior
to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor
records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war
records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and
histories, all provided useful information.

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

Dear Mr Barbree,

I have been collecting family history on all descendants of Upchurch for many years and since 1980 have published the Upchurch Bulletin. Oliver Ungate Upchurch suggested that you might be willing to provide some details on the descendants of Emma Irene (Upchurch) Barbree. Oliver has helped me a great deal on providing details for the descendants of George Winston Upchurch, son of Isham Sims Upchurch. Isham Sims Upchurch was a 2nd cousin of my grandfather Bartley Jefferson Upchurch. Isham and Bartley both served in the Civil War. I was born and raised in the Yater Mill/Inwood Baptist Church area of Wake Co, NC which is where my grandfather settled when he returned from the Civil War. I have all of the details which Edna Belle (Jaunter) West collected on the George Weston Upchurch Family but she did not collect certain items and some additional events have happened since she did her collecting. (7)

I hope you can help with the following:

1) For Emma Irene Upchurch

a) where was she born?

b) where did she die?

c) where is she buried?

d) where did she marry?

e) where was Thomas Clayton Barber, Jr born, when did he die and where is he buried?

f) Did she have just five children?

2) For Clyde Larue Barber

a) where was he born?

b) where did he die?

c) where is he buried?

d) where was he married?

e) where was Eoda Rachel Catter born, when and where did she die and where buried?

f) Did he have just two children?

3) For Mary Pearl Barber

a) where was she born?

b) where did she die?

c) where is she buried?

d) where did she marry?

e) where was Cecil Harold Morgan, Sr born, when and where did he die and where is he buried?

f) Did she have just one child?

3.
4) For Thomas Dewey Barber

- a) where was he born?
- b) when & where did he die?
- c) where is he buried?
- d) where did he marry the 1st & 2nd time?
- e) Did he have any children other than the one adopted son?
- f) what is the full maiden name of Agnes Elliott, when & where born, when & where died, and where buried?
- g) where was Elsie Fee Harley born, when and where died and where buried?

5) For Norma Blanche Barber

- a) where was she born?
- b) when and where did she die?
- c) where buried?
- d) where married?
- e) Did she have just two children?
- f) when and where was Albert Bernard Crane born, when & where died, and where buried?

6) For yourself

- a) where were you born?
- b) Did you have just one child?
- c) when and where were you married the 1st, 2nd & 3rd time?
- d) what is the full maiden name of Irene Miller and when & where born? Still living?
- e) what is the full maiden name of Mabel Compton and when & where born? Still living?
- f) what is the full maiden name of Dorothy Green and when and where born? Still living?

I know the above amount is a lot. Anything you can supply will be most appreciated.

Can you tell me who the father of Irene Miller was. My great grandmother was Lucetta Miller. She lived in the Green Level area. I am just beginning to sort out the Miller family.

If you have any questions about your Upchurch ancestors, I'll be glad to try to answer them. I have 16 file drawers with information on about 100,000 individuals directly or indirectly related to the Upchurch.

It would be great to hear from you.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch
