I know for a fact that the Fairchilds lived right up the road from me in an old log cabin built in the 1850s that has burnt down. My dad used to live there as a young boy. He knew of the house as the Bertram Place. James Ahile and Thursey Fairchild Bertram lived there. Thursey (if I'm not mistaken) was a sister to Martha. They were daughters of Abijah Fairchild who built the home.

He told me that some of Reuben and Martha's boys operated a store in Burfield where the post office was located. I believe they also owned a grist mill right beside the store. His father James worked at the grist mill.

Preceding him in death were his father, Elmer Young; one brother, Herbert; and twin sisters, Beuna and Eula who died in infancy.

He professed faith in Christ at an early age and united with the New Hope Baptist Church where he remained a faithful member until God called him home. He devoted thirty years as Sunday school teacher at New Hope.

I know for a fact that the Fairchilds lived right up the road from me in an old log cabin built in the 1850s that has burnt down. My dad used to live there as a young boy. He knew of the house as the Bertram Place. James Ahile and Thursey Fairchild Bertram lived there. Thursey (if I'm not mistaken) was a sister to Martha. They were daughters of Abijah Fairchild who built the home.

He told me that some of Reuben and Martha's boys operated a store in Burfield where the post office was located. I believe they also owned a grist mill right beside the store. His father James worked at the grist mill.
