THE LEWIS DICKSON BARRY FAMILY

Lewis Dickson Barry, son of John Mark Barry, was born in North Carolina in 1815. His father died young and his mother remarried. The son and his step-father could not agree in harmony with each other, so at age sixteen, Lewis Dickson left his ancestral home and never received anything from his father's estate.

Being intelligent, industrious and proud, Lewis Dickson Barry prepared himself for a vocation. He learned the Saddlers' trade, and soon owned a large saddle shop in Nashville, Tennessee. He met and married Miss Margaret M. Wilson of McMinnville, Tennessee in 1837.

Lewis Dickson Barry and his brother David left Tennessee in 1839, with their families and slaves, and moved to Texas, settling in Clarksville, Red River County. After living in Clarksville ten years, Lewis Dickson and his family came to Grimes County in 1849, establishing a cattle ranch and sawmill in the "piney" woods nine miles east of Anderson. This was the first sawmill erected in this area. The first and second boilers for his mill were shipped from New Orleans via Galveston and up the Brazos River to Old Washington and hauled from there to the mill with twelve yoke of oxen attached to the wagon.

He built a two-story frame house on the outskirts of Anderson, where he lived until his death in 1855. He is buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery at Anderson. Lewis Dickson and Margaret M. Barry had five sons and one daughter. The daughter was born after they moved to Anderson.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Barry, with the help of her sons, carried on the family business until the Civil War disrupted all their lives. The four oldest sons volunteered for service in the Confederate Army. Mrs. Barry was left at home with twelve-year old Richard Edgar, ten-year Cornelia Ada and some faithful slaves.

Only two of the Barry brothers returned from the War — William E. and Lewis Howard. John D. was killed at Chickamauga, and buried on the Battlefield by his brother, William. Thomas, only eighteen years old, died in North Carolina.

William E. Barry married Martha L. Meachum. Their children were: William; Thomas, married Nora Ackerman — 1st, Maude Hardesty — 2nd; Hood, married Pauline Steele; Nora, married Boone Kirk; Eleanor, married Harvey Prowse; Mary (Mamie); Lucy, married Charles Holman. (Lucy Holman is 102 years old.)

Lewis Howard Barry married Elizabeth A. Kelley. Their children were: William Howard, married Frances Leake; Martha (Mattie), married Walter Leake; Sarah (Sallie) Kate, married Willis Roan; Elizabeth (Bessie), married Ed F. Blackshear.

Richard Edgar Barry married Kate East. Their children: Lewis Dickson; Lizzie, married Joe Upchurch; Emma, married James Hensley; Nannie, married Marshall Williams; William E. Howard, married Laura Woods; Katie, married James B. Davis; Richard Edgar, Jr., married Ruby Allen.

Cornelia Barry, married John W. Davis — 1st, J.W. Smith — 2nd.

The death notice of Mrs. Margaret M. Barry, dated at Navasota, Texas, May 2, 1900, states that she died at Wynnewood, Indian Territory, May 1, 1900. It states that the remains arrived in Navasota at 5:50 p.m., May 2, and were conveyed at once to Anderson where funeral services were held in the Methodist Church at 9:00 p.m., with burial the next morning at 9:00 o'clock at the Anderson Cemetery.

RALPH WALDO BARRY

RALPH WALDO BARRY (nicknamed "Tooky" 1896-1954) was born in Navasota, Texas to William Howard Barry (1869-?) and Frances Leake Barry (1870-1958) who named him after Ralph Waldo Emerson who once said "Everyone is a bundle of his ancestors". In the latter part of the nineteenth century, his paternal grandparents, Louis Howard Barry ("Pappy") and his wife, Betty Ann Kelly, came from Tennessee and settled in Anderson, Texas. There is a book by David Barry called the History of the Barry Family Since 870 A.D. which begins with Rollo the Dane in Wexford, Ireland. His mother's family came from England via Georgia and Alabama to East Texas.

Ralph was in the first class to graduate from the Grammar School at Washington Avenue and Church Street, and his daughter Jane was in the last class to graduate from this

Hi Ron---

To the best of my knowledge only 3 Upchurches served in the Revolution and they were not of the Harmon U Clan. If you come across information to the contrary I would appreciate details and would make a note of it in the Upchurch Bulletin.

As far as I can tell I do not have you in my system. It would be helpful to me if you could give me a couple of clues as to how you link back to your Upchurch ancestors. If you want to collaborate I will be happy to work with you to make the records of your Upchurch heritage more complete. I already have a huge amount on the Harmon U Clan.

Hi Phil,

I appreciate you responding to my question concerning the Harmon Upchurch clans involvement in the Revolutionary War. You asked me how I knew I was related to Harmon. I have included an e-mail that explains this. My grandmother is Myrtle May Upchurch. My mother is Doris Laverne Hendrick. I am looking for a family connection to the Rev. War as I am a Rev. War reenactor and would like to apply for membership to the Sons of the American Revolution if there is a connection.

Best regards,

Ron Barry
