

○ See str 6 FEB 2001 Doris Ruth U & RPU

Doris reports that her father (Rex Edgar U) courted a young lady in the Inwood Baptist Church Community of Wake Co, NC by the name of AGNES SCOTT and that this very same AGNES SCOTT came up to Doris at her father's funeral and mentioned this courtship.

[Note: I am still trying to figure out which family Agnes Scott belongs to. She could be nee AGNES TAYLOR or nee AGNES BAXTER but I have no proof for either - RPU 17 FEB 01]

23 DEC 2010

Dear BOB,

I was saddened to learn from your letter of 4 DEC 2010 of the passing of your dear friend Winkle, my cousin. My delay in writing is due to the fact that I had surgery on my right rotator cuff on 8 DEC 2010. I am doing fine and today started 3 months of therapy. I am just beginning to scribble a brief letter or so.

After many years of knowing about Winkle it was a great joy to meet her and she seemed to have an immediate repisir which seemed to be a special gift of hers. How I wish we could have had more visits & exchanges.

I know that you and Winkle will close and that you will miss her very much. I am most grateful that you sent a letter and details.

My work on Upchurch Family history will continue for some time to come and I always hold out hope for gathering more lost sheep into the fold.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Blessed Year ahead with Respect
Phil Upchurch

Dear Phil Upchurch

For your very good records, enclosed are copies of obituary and funeral leaflet for Winkle (Weaver) (Grady) Swing - RID No. 1101 in your Upchurch Bulletin. She collapsed and died minutes later about 5:00 pm EST, Nov. 27, while visiting her sister Marie, in Connecticut.

Winkle enjoyed a long blessed life - with good health up to the minute she collapsed, good looks, good mind, good personality, gracious Southern manner & charm, and since her retirement in 1983 at least, a daily effort to help others. The last 10 years she and I have held leadership roles in 4 orgs. plus 2 other orgs. for her plus her life-long leadership in her church.

I love her and will deeply miss her until we are together in Heaven.

Sincerely
Bob Baxter
