The Zebulon Record THUR 16 MAR 1989 Zebulon, NC

In Zebulon

Price, Blackley exchange nuptials in double-ring ceremony in February

Chandra Blackley of Zebulon and Gentry Price of Middlesex were united in marriage Feb. 11 at Union Hope Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Preston Massey.

The bride is the daughter of Brenda Blackley of Zebulon and the late Bobby Blackley. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price of Middlesex.

Given in marriage by her brother, William Holland, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta featuring a yoke of illusion with a wedding band collar, fitted bodice and leg-o'-mutton sleeves, all trimmed with beaded alencon lace. The full-length skirt and chapel-length train were adorned with cutouts and beaded alencon lace. The back waistline was accented with a bubble bustle. She wore a matching headpiece of satin, accented with pearls, strings and sequins, with a four-tiered veil of illusion.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and miniature red roses, lily of the valley, stephanotis and green ivy with seed pearls and strings, accented with white and red satin picot ribbon as streamers.

She was attended by Karen Holland, sister-in-law of the bride, as maid of honor and Jena Ayscue, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid.

The attendants wore gowns of red satin designed with a V neck and fitted bodice, accented with a bow at the waist.

Other attendants were Dana Patterson as flower girl and Mark Cariveau as ring bearer.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with tails, black bow tie and matching cummerbund.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Jeff Mullen and William Holland.

The couple pledged their vows before an altar centered with a brass 15-branch candelabrum featuring red satin roses and baby's breath. It was flanked by six-branch candelabra, ferns and a unity candle. Each window held a single candle encircled with magnolia leaves with bows and streamers of white satin picot ribbon.

Wedding music was presented by Nanetta Warren and soloist Betty Winstead.

The guest register was attended by Rena Price, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Denise Patterson presented programs to the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Bunn High School. She is an accounts receivable and payroll clerk at TNI. Her husband is a graduate of Southern Nash High School and is employed by Mathis Electric.

After a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains, the couple will make their home in Middlesex.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom-elect's parents in the church basement. The menu consisted of barbecued chicken, potatoes, slaw and bread.

After the meal, the bridal-couple elect cut the three-tiered, red and white wedding cake which was centered with a bride and bridegroom figurine. The cake was provided by the bride-elect's mother.

Laura Ruth Hughes of Fairmont and Gary Wilson Blackley of Cary were married January 23 at First Baptist Church in Fairmont. Rev. Ronald L. Hughes and Dr. Wayne Wike officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hughes of Fairmont. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Blackley of Pine Knoll Shores, formerly of Cary.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin with beaded French illusion and Alencon lace. Long sleeves were appliqued with Alencon lace, seed pearls and sequins. The full cathedral train had appliques of beaded lace to the bottom and trimmed in lace. A matching bridal veil was held by a Juliet head piece with fingertip illusion.

Mary Anna Moseley was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Claire Macauley, Elizabeth Floyd, Sallie Floyd and Nancy Costin.

Harold Blackley was best man. Ushers were Glenn Blackley, Karl Blackley, Philip Blackley and Robert F. Hughes.

Following a reception at the church fellowship hall, the couple left for a wedding trip to Charleston. They will make their home in Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Peace College and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is employed with the N.C. Department of Revenue.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wingate College and UNC-Wilmington. He is employed with the N.C. Department of Revenue.

912 IRENE PERRY

Irene was born June 13, 1913, in Franklin County to Otis and Annie Dent Perry. She lived most of her life in Franklin County. She was baptized as a very young girl and was a faithful member of Kinches Chapel United Church of Christ in Franklinton.

She was a truly sweet woman who everyone chose to have as a friend and who willing to be a friend to all. She took care of many and never had a bad word to say. She babysat for Earl Blackley when he was a child and called him her child. She later babysat for Earl and Rosa Lee Blackley's children, Betsy and Lisa. We played games like "find the switch". She would pick a switch off a bush in our front yard and make us close our eyes while she hid it. We would then search everywhere to find it while she told us if we were "hot" or "cold". The game was her subtle way of telling us we were not acting good that day. Because she loved us so much she didn't want to spank us so she'd play the game. I always thought Irene was the best cook! One time she kept feeding me biscuits just to see how many I would eat.

When I got married on June 23, 1990, my grandmother, Mildred Suitt Blackley, brought Irene and our neighbor, Bea Upchurch, to my wedding. They were seated with my family as special guests at my wedding.

Once when my husband and I were leaving for a vacation, we had a lady at RDU check our boarding passes. I didn't know her name but I knew her face. I knew she was from Franklinton so I told her I grew up there. She didn't know me but the minute I mentioned Irene's name, she knew exactly who I was. Another time Irene's name came up in the same way was when I was at Rex Hospital waiting for my youngest son, Nathan, to have surgery. A lady from Franklinton was working there in the same day surgery unit and I recognized her face. I also remembered her singing in the choir at Irene's funeral. She didn't recognize me until I said Irene's name. Not only did Irene tell me and Betsy growing up that we were her 'babies', she told others as well. It meant the world to me to have these two ladies tell me that even after Irene had died.

Later in life, our family still stayed in touch with Irene. We and others helped move her to an apartment in Creedmoor. Betsy paid her bills, shopped for groceries, cooked, cleaned, took her to doctor appointments, and took her by Bojangles. Eventually, Irene went to live at Britthaven in Louisburg. We visited Irene and other family members who were also there several times a week.

Betsy got a call from a nurse at Britthaven on Saturday evening, June 9, 2001 on her cell phone. Irene had passed away. She is buried at Kinches Chapel.

Double-ring ceremony in Raleigh unites Zebulon couple

Mrs. Larry R. Loucks
Bettie Denise Blackley

Bettie Denise Blackley of Zebulon and Larry Richard Loucks of Zebulon were united in marriage Saturday, July 14, at Seby Jones Chapel, Meredith College, Raleigh. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. Jack Glasgow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackley of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Ramona Loucks of Wakarusa, Ind., and the late Richard Loucks.

The grandmother of the bride is Kathleen Bunn of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with a wedding-band collar. The basque bodice was overlaid with English netting, iridescent sequins, white seed pearls and alencon lace. The poet sleeves were detailed with shimmering sequins, pearls and white silk embroidered lace. The back of the gown was accented with a bow.

The bouffant skirt and chapel-length train were detailed with hand-beaded lace and pearl motifs. The bride's headpiece was a crown of alencon lace, shimmering sequins and sprays of pearls; a pearl-studded French pouf complemented the back. Fingertip-length silk illusion fell over the back of the gown.

She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white phalaenopsis orchids, miniature carnations and ivy.

The bride was attended by her sister, Sherrie B. Hopkins, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Linda Edwards of Clayton; Vicki Harmon of Louisburg; and Marsha Massey, Felisa Parker, Nancy Pippin and Debbie Wheelless, all of Zebulon.

Each attendant wore a dress of jade taffeta with pouf sleeves and a V-back accented with a large bow. They carried cascade bouquets of gerbera daisies, alstroemeria lilies, miniature carnations and roses in shades of peach with ivy.

Other attendants were Tyler Hopkins, nephew of the bride, as ring bearer, and Anna Bunn as flower girl.

The bridegroom wore black tails with a white vest and tie. He chose Clif Reynolds of Wakarusa, Ind., to be his best man. Ushers were Dave Brown of Jackson, Mich.; Scott Butterbaugh of Worthington, Ohio; Craig Hopkins of Zebulon; Lance Loucks of Charlotte, brother of the bridegroom; Larry Knowles of Ann Arbor, Mich.; and Greg Krallman of Steamboat, Colo.

The church was decorated with two brass candelabra and two brass candle trees flanking the altar; an arched candelabrum formed the background for the kneeling bench.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Jack Glasgow, vocalist; Lennie Collins, organist; and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Brannan, pianists.

Kim Pace of Zebulon presided at the bridal registry. Pam Street and Justin Cooper, both of Indiana, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, handed out programs. Jane Mitchell of Zebulon directed the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and Meredith College. She is a second-grade teacher at Zebulon Elementary School. Her husband is a graduate of Michiana College of Commerce and Tri-State University, and is a master of business administration candidate at Campbell University. He is self-employed as a management consultant.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Velvet Cloak Inn poolside atrium in Raleigh. The reception was hosted by the parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Blackley, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Hendricks, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Narron greeted the guests. Bonita Perry presided at the guest registry where the bride's portrait was displayed.

The poolside atrium was decorated with geraniums, hibiscus and fig trees in large clay pots. The pool was enhanced by seven floating arrangements with candles. The food table was centered with a three-tiered arrangement of mixed peach flowers and votive candles. Round tables decorated with white cloths and peach overlays centered with mirrors and burning tapers were spread throughout the pool area.

The guests were served hors d'oeuvres of seasonal fresh fruit with melba dip, seasonal crudite with esperanza dip, chicken salad bouchees, imported and domestic cheese with crackers and French bread, Swedish meatballs in bordelaise sauce, and baron of beef carved to order with assorted cocktail rolls.

The four-tiered bridal cake was iced with a basket-weave design and decorated with mixed peach flowers. The cake was served by Linda Cooper and Laurelyn Street, sisters of the bridegroom.

Birdseed roses were handed out by Emily Cooper, niece of the bridegroom. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Pearce and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blackley. Janet Jackson assisted at the reception.

Wedding-day breakfast

Miss Blackley and Loucks were honored with a wedding day breakfast on Saturday, July 14, at Balentine's in Raleigh.

The buffet line consisted of fresh fruit, juice, coffee cake, hash browns, grits, baked apples, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, toast and biscuits.

As the guests entered the Garden Room, they were directed to the registry table by Sherrie Hopkins. A peach and jade color scheme was used throughout the room.

Miss Blackley was presented a gold bracelet that belonged to her grandmother. The bracelet was worn by the bride-elect's sister on her wedding day. Loucks was presented an engraved pocket watch that belonged to the bride-elect's great-grandfather.

Special guests were parents of the bridal couple-elect. Several out-of-town guests attended.

Hosts and hostesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hopkins and Tyler, and relatives of the bride-elect.

Rehearsal dinner

Miss Blackley and Loucks were entertained at a dinner following the wedding rehearsal on Friday, July 13, at Balentine's in Raleigh.

The Rebel Room was the setting for a buffet meal consisting of roast beef, baked chicken, seafood newburg, a variety of salads and vegetables, an assortment of desserts, tea, and coffee.

The head table was decorated with a mixed arrangement of flowers flanked on each side with burning tapers.

The couple-elect chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

Hostess for the occasion was the bridegroom-elect's mother. Other special guests were the bride-elect's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Hopkins and Tyler; Mr. and Mrs. Lance Loucks; Linda Cooper, Justin and Emily; Laurelyn Street and Pam; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Becher.

Bridesmaids' luncheon

The bride-elect was honored with a bridesmaids' luncheon on Friday, July 13, at The Plantation Inn in Raleigh.

The meal consisted of stuffed pork chops, meatloaf, greens, potato salad, toss salad, fresh fruit and assorted desserts.

Hostesses were Joyce Blackley, Linda Blackley, Sylvia Blackley and Linda Edwards, all of Clayton.

Special guests were mothers of the bridal couple-elect; Linda Cooper and Laurelyn Street, both of Indiana, sisters of the bridegroom-elect; and Sherrie Hopkins of Zebulon, sister of the bride-elect.

The hostesses presented Miss Blackley with a white bride's Bible.

Zebulon Record THUR 21 JUL 1994 Zebulon, NC

Angel Hope Wilson of Corinth Holder and Stephen Thomas Perry of Zebulon were united in marriage Saturday, April 30, at Hopkins Chapel Baptist Church. The double-ring, candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Norris Cook and the Rev. C.W. Driver.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Wilson of Corinth Holder. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Perry of Zebulon.

The bride's grandmother is Inez Wilson of Zebulon. Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Willis Blackley of Zebulon and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McGhee of Chapel Hill. His great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Blackley of Zebulon.

Escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin. The fitted, sheer yoke bodice was styled with a wedding-band neckline and appliqued with pearls and sequin-sprayed schiffli lace. The skirt flowed into a cathedral-length train with sparkle, double overlay tulle layers. The long sleeves were poufed at the shoulders and accented by beaded schiffli appliques, as was the basque waistline.

The bride's headpiece was a tiara adorned with pearl and sequin floral appliques, framed by beaded loops. The veil, consisting of a pearl-sprayed double illusion, was detachable. She carried a cascading bouquet of bridal white roses intertwined with English ivy.

The bride chose her aunt, Lynn Averette, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia Odom and Angie Strickland.

The honor attendants each wore an iridescent taffeta formal-length gown of midnight teal. A sweetheart neckline with a back bow crowned a cutout back which flowed to a basque waistline. The poufed sleeves were shirred to the elbows. They each carried a white candle in a brass holder, decorated with white miniature roses cascading over a flow of ivy enhanced with white satin streamers.

Lindsey and Amanda Wilson were the flower girls. Serving as ring bearers were Kevin and Jason Averette.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Groomsmen were Tim Perry, brother of the bridegroom, and Terry Jackson.

The bridegroom, best man and groomsmen each wore a formal full-dress satin striped black tuxedo featuring back satin notch lapels, pleated trousers and a black bow tie.

The church was decorated with an arched candelabrum adorned with ti leaves and English ivy. Spiral and tree candelabra were used on the sides of the altar and had matching greenery. A bridal arrangement of white snapdragons, stock, fugi mums, white lilies and baby's breath was displayed in the sanctuary.

The couple used a double kneeling bench and a unity candle decorated with ti leaves and white satin streamers. The windows of the church were decorated with brandy snifters containing floating candles, encircled by magnolia leaves and blossoms.

Wedding music was presented by Joanne Mitchell, vocalist; Jill Bunn, organist; and Woody Brannan, pianist.

The wedding was directed by the bride's mother and Geraldine Creech, aunt of the bride. Register and program attendants were Kelly Byrd and Amy Hogg.

The bride attended Smithfield-Selma High School. Her husband attended Zebulon High School and Nash Community College. He is self-employed on the family farm.

Mrs. Stephen Thomas Perry
Angel Hope Wilson

After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

The parents of the bride hosted a wedding reception at the Zebulon Rotary Club Building.

After the wedding rehearsal, the bridegroom-elect's parents hosted a steak dinner in the fellowship hall of the church. The bridal couple-elect chose this time to present gifts to their attendants.

Blackley, Hall exchange vows at Raleigh Christian Community

Georgia Ann Hall of Raleigh and Willis Steven Blackley of Zebulon were united in marriage Nov. 7 at 3 p.m. at Raleigh Christian Community. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Spradley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Johnson of Raleigh. Parents of the bridegroom are Willis Blackley of Zebulon and Lila McGee of Chapel Hill. The bridegroom's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Blackley of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of ivory chiffon trimmed with schiffli lace. The Queen Anne neckline was accented with venise lace and seed pearls. The Victorian sleeves were sheer with lace and pearl appliques. The chapel-length train was trimmed in schiffli lace and appliques of venise lace and pearls. The matching veil was lace leaves and flowers accented with seed pearls and sequins with finger-tip illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and white stephanotis with a touch of baby's breath and a trail of ivy.

She was attended by Cynthia Chapman as matron of honor and bridesmaids Carmen Frye, Sue Perry and Joan Parrish. Lisa Blackley and Tracie Hall were junior bridesmaids.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids each wore a long gown of teal-colored taffeta with Elizabethan sleeves, a sweetheart neckline and a flower-trimmed basque waist.

Leigh Johnson was a miniature bride and wore a gown identical to the bride's. Jason Frye was a miniature bridegroom and wore a black tuxedo that was identical to the bridegroom's.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with an ivory wing-collar shirt. His boutonniere was a rose with stephanotis.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Roy Hall, John Hudgins, David Peele, Donnie Perry and Jimmy Parrish. Christopher Hall and Michael Blackley were junior ushers.

Church decorations included a floral centerpiece of yellow and white gladiolus, carnations and other mixed flowers. Palms and ferns adorned the altar and pulpit. One large arched candelabrum, two spiral candelabra and two seven-branch candelabra were used, along with a kneeling bench. Communion was taken from one silver chalice.

The wedding was coordinated and directed by Mabel Norton and Jennifer Garris.

Wedding music was presented by vocalists Jacqui Gregory and Marie Hinton. Greg Logan played the violin and was accompanied on the piano by Woody Brannon. Marshall Tyson arranged and played a variety of music with handbells.

The bride is a graduate of Enloe High School in Raleigh. She is a technical secretary at Nationwide Insurance Co. in Raleigh. Her husband attended N.C. State and Campbell universities and is employed by Pepsi-Cola as an accounts representative.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

Reception

Tables for the reception were flanked with lighted silver candelabra and arrangements of fresh yellow and white gladiolus, carnations, freesia, spider mums, greenery and baby's breath.

The menu consisted of sausage balls, cheese buttons, chicken salad finger sandwiches, colored mints, seasonal vegetables with dip, peanuts and citrus punch. These were served from silver trays and bowls, and from crystal.

The off-white, four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with fresh yellow and white flowers, baby's breath and greenery. It was topped with two white doves.

Servers were Joanne Simpson, Evelyn Dean, Dianne Helvey, Belinda Gay Cookman, Debbie Gray and Sonja Holten.

The outside grounds were decorated with lighted white pole candles lining both sides of the walkway that connected the church with the reception hall. Satin bows flanked the doors and church posts.

The bride and bridegroom arrived in a horse-drawn buggy. The horse's bridal was decorated with a satin bow.

Rehearsal dinner

The rehearsal dinner was held on Nov. 6 at the church.

After the rehearsal, a barbecue and chicken dinner was hosted by Willis and Ernestine Blackley, with a seasonal harvest theme.
