△△ The William and Nancy (Stinson) Bertram Family

William Bertram (June 17, 1783-Oct 28, 1865) was born in Rowan County, North Carolina, the son of William (the Revolutionary War soldier) and Sarah Patterson Bertram, the grandson of William and Margaret Bertram, and probably the great-grandson of an earlier William Bertram. About 1804, William and his father moved to Lee County, Virginia. On Feb 19, 1807, he married Nancy Stinson (Apr 8, 1789-Sept 22, 1855), daughter of George and Mary "Polly" Stinson.

In 1809, William and Nancy Bertram with their young son, Joel, arrived in Wayne County, Kentucky and settled in the Mt. Pisgah area. Several of William's relatives were already living there. William's father came about 1815 or 1816. After a few years, William and Nancy moved to the Sunnybrook community, the area still associated with the Bertram name.

The William and Nancy Bertram farm at Sunnybrook stayed in the family for over a hundred years. To reach the farm today, the traveler can turn from Hwy 200 onto Bertram Lane. The first house on the right of the lane stands deserted. It was built by Joseph S. Bertram in 1900. In the field behind that house once stood a large, two-story log house with long porches and tall stone chimneys. This house was the home of Joseph's parents, William Bertram and Martha Hurt, and probably the home of his grandparents, William Bertram and Nancy Stinson. Joseph S. Bertram was the last Bertram owner of the farm settled by his grandfather. When sold in 1920, it contained 250 acres, much of it still forest land. Each cleared field had acquired a name: Big Orchard, Little Orchard, Barn Field, Hillside, Pasture Field, Big Bottom, Little Bottom, Bridge Field, Pine Field, Clover Field, and Cove.

When William and Nancy came to Wayne County, they joined the Bethel Baptist Church (near Mt. Pisgah). After moving to Sunnybrook, they joined the Clear Fork Baptist Church. This church gave William a license to preach. In 1841, the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church was started at Sunnybrook with twenty-nine charter members. Among those members were William and Nancy, seven of their sons, and six of their daughters-in-law. All of William and Nancy's children, except John Calvin, were members of that church at some time or other. William and Nancy and eight of their children are buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery

BLEVINS

From: Over View Vol 23 No 4 OCT 2003
(Wayne Co, KY. Historical Soc, INC

Ray E. Blevins was born on October 22, 1920 at Langhum Fork in Wayne County, Kentucky. When he was four years old, his family moved to his Grandfather Hurt's farm in Parmleysville, Kentucky. Most of this farm had originally belonged to John and Robert Parmley, the family after which Parmleysville had been named.

Ray received his elementary school education and three years of high school at Parmleysville. This was the last year for Parmleysville High School at this location. The school reopened in the fall at Rocky Branch where he graduated. This change in school location made it necessary to ride horseback three miles to meet the school bus at the end of the gravel road. For practice sessions in basketball, there was only a dirt court on the play ground. That year Parmleysville was the winner in the district tournament and went to the semifinals in the regional.

Ray continued his education and played basketball at Lindsey Wilson Junior College, and later at Western Kentucky University. He was a high-scoring forward on both basketball teams, and had a stellar basketball career in college. In his junior year, his education was interrupted due to the unexpected death of his father. Several years later he returned to Western Kentucky University, and completed his B.S. degree.

Very early in life, Ray developed an interest in the history of the Little South Fork area, and has researched the genealogy of many of the pioneer families in the area, including his direct family line, and that of his wife, Frances Burnett Blevins. These direct family lines include the Hurt, Burnett, Ryan, Bell, Tuggle, Sandusky, Terry, and Smith families. To date, Ray has written and published three genealogy books on the Blevins, Hurt, and Burnett families.

Ray is retired from his position as Auditor for Ford Motor Company in Louisville, Kentucky where he lived with his wife, Frances Burnett Blevins, until after her death in 1983. He subsequently moved to Austin, Texas in 1986 where he currently resides. Ray is the father of three children, Sondra Blevins Goldstein (Los Angeles), Terry Blevins (Austin), and Creed Blevins (Aliso Viejo), and grandfather of four grandsons, Jonah (25) and Gabe (20) Goldstein, Alan (17) and Evan (14) Blevins.

William Columbus Blevins (Lum) was born February 12, 1875, at Pleasant Grove on Meadow Fork Creek in Cranberry Township. He was the only son of Josiah and Nancy Jane Spurlin (Pennsylvania Dutch) Blevins. He had two whole sisters: Martha Alice and Betty. His mother was married previously to a Bill Blevins and had four daughters. He died in the Civil War and was buried at Gettysburg, Pa. She then married Josiah Blevins.

As a young man, Lum owned and operated a country store at Pleasant Grove. The store was near Pleasant Grove School and the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, which is still standing.

△△ Lum married Pearl Upchurch, the daughter of John Thomas and Emily Stamper Upchurch. Pearl was born February 15, 1887. They had five children: Roland, born 1913; Cox Aaron, born January 10, 1915 and married Lois Marlowe, children Carolyn and Jerry; George William, born September 26, 1916 and married Madge Elledge, children Kenneth and Cristy, died January 3, 1969; Billy, born May 1920; and Theresa Pearl, born February 21, 1918 and married Robert Lee Crouse, children, Edward, Elaine, Billy, Wayne, Gary and Gayle. Roland and Billy died at an early age.

Lum and his family moved from Pleasant Grove to Laurel Springs and bought a farm. When the Blue Ridge Parkway was built, Lum sold most of his farm to the government. The Parkway was built through the middle of the farm and the maintenance area is now situated where the original home stood.

Lum was a big, jovial, and witty man. Everyone liked him and he was always looking for a good laugh. He loved to sit around and tell stories, most of which had really happened to him. One such story goes like this: As a young man, he and a friend, Rance Hendricks, were in Wilkes County horse trading and dark came upon them. They came upon a house, probably in the McGrady section, and decided to ask lodging for the night. Now, at this time there was known a Preacher Blevins that would travel around preaching; so, when Lum and his friend went up to the door to ask to stay the night, they were asked their names. Lum replied "Lum Blevins" and the man then asked,

Front: Annie Wyatt Walker, Pearl Upchurch Blevins, Victoria Wyatt Upchurch and Josie Wyatt Hoppers. Rear: child unknown, "Lum" Blevins holding Roland, man unknown.

"The Preacher Blevins"? Thinking that if they said yes it would prove to be a better chance to stay, he said "Yes, that's the one." They were asked in and after eating, the man called to his children and after some whispering, they went scurrying out of the house. Soon people started coming in and the host came up to Lum and says that he had invited all the neighbors for preaching that night. Well, Lum called to Rance and they went outside for a "walk" to try and figure out what to do. So, Lum says I'll preach and you pray, and the first one to laugh had to pay $4.00 to boot on a horse trade. Lum knew the Bible well and when all the people had gathered, he stood up and said, "Tonight I'm going to take as my text 'Do thyself no harm, for we are all here'". And about that time Rance goes "Hee Hee" and so later Rance had to pay Lum the $4.00 on the horse trade.

William Columbus Blevins died September 20, 1941 and Pearl Upchurch Blevins died September 30, 1958. They are buried in the Wyatt Cemetery on the Blue Ridge Parkway in Laurel Springs, N. C.
