BENNETT BOWDEN

FROM: Bunn Families of SEUS- Vol 1- John, David, James and Wrightman Bunn - 2006 By Danny Calvin Bunn

A careful look at the 17 pages of this section reveals no UPCHURCH connections. Some may yet be found

A Note to Readers

David Bunn was a very popular name in North Carolina during latter part of the eighteenth century and the early part of the nineteenth century. Those researching that particular name must be extremely careful to insure that documentation gathered and compiled pertaining to that name is assigned to the proper individual.

This section pertains to the David Bunn who resided in Franklin County. David was a farmer and owned over six hundred acres of land in that county. The names of his wife or his parents are unknown. A marriage bond was issued to a David Bunn and Polly May on December 31, 1829 in Franklin County. Documentation to prove that Polly was the wife of the David about whom this section is written, has not yet been discovered.

It is felt that the above mentioned David was somehow related to David Bunn and his wife, Lucy Bunn, who lived in Northampton County, North Carolina between 1750 and 1781. David sold two hundred acres of land in that county to his nephew, Henry Bunn in 1781. Shortly thereafter, records in that county pertaining to that particular David ceased. In 1787, his son, Odam Bunn, sold one hundred acres of land in Northampton County. Records in that county pertaining to Odam also ceased shortly thereafter.

The 1781 Tax List for Wake County, North Carolina indicates that an individual named David Bunn owned two hundred acres of land in that county. Odam Bunn's name also appears a few years later on the tax list for that county. Although unproven, those two individuals appear to be the same ones who were residing in Northampton County earlier.

The 1850 census for the Dunn District of Franklin County lists David and members of his family. His wife's name does not appear on the list. Please note that his daughter's name was Lucy. Was she named after her mother? Also, David had a brother named John. David named one of his sons John. Was that son named after his brother?

David, of Franklin County, died prior to November of 1858. A Court of Equity notice in the November 6, 1858 issue of the American Eagle newspaper, Louisburg, Franklin County, North Carolina, mentions the sale of land belonging to heirs of David Bunn, deceased.

A careful look at the 17 pages of this section reveals no UPCHURCH connections. Some may yet be found

A Note to Readers

David Bunn was a very popular name in North Carolina during latter part of the eighteenth century and the early part of the nineteenth century. Those researching that particular name must be extremely careful to insure that documentation gathered and compiled pertaining to that name is assigned to the proper individual.

This section pertains to the David Bunn who resided in Franklin County. David was a farmer and owned over six hundred acres of land in that county. The names of his wife or his parents are unknown. A marriage bond was issued to a David Bunn and Polly May on December 31, 1829 in Franklin County. Documentation to prove that Polly was the wife of the David about whom this section is written, has not yet been discovered.

It is felt that the above mentioned David was somehow related to David Bunn and his wife, Lucy Bunn, who lived in Northampton County, North Carolina between 1750 and 1781. David sold two hundred acres of land in that county to his nephew, Henry Bunn in 1781. Shortly thereafter, records in that county pertaining to that particular David ceased. In 1787, his son, Odam Bunn, sold one hundred acres of land in Northampton County. Records in that county pertaining to Odam also ceased shortly thereafter.

The 1781 Tax List for Wake County, North Carolina indicates that an individual named David Bunn owned two hundred acres of land in that county. Odam Bunn's name also appears a few years later on the tax list for that county. Although unproven, those two individuals appear to be the same ones who were residing in Northampton County earlier.

The 1850 census for the Dunn District of Franklin County lists David and members of his family. His wife's name does not appear on the list. Please note that his daughter's name was Lucy. Was she named after her mother? Also, David had a brother named John. David named one of his sons John. Was that son named after his brother?

David, of Franklin County, died prior to November of 1858. A Court of Equity notice in the November 6, 1858 issue of the American Eagle newspaper, Louisburg, Franklin County, North Carolina, mentions the sale of land belonging to heirs of David Bunn, deceased.

ROBERT B. BOWDEN

D The Cary News SUN 23 JUN 1985 Cary, NC

Bowden-Cox wed

Lisa Jeannette Bowden of 607 Queensferry Road and William F. Cox Jr. of Greenville were married June 22 at Greenwood Forest Baptist Church in Cary. The Rev. Elmer Joyner officiated at the ceremony.

The bride's stepfather and mother are Mr. and Mrs. B. Stephen Cox of Cary. Her father is Robert B. Bowden of Zebulon. The bridegroom's parents are Hilda B. Cox and William F. Cox, both of Greenville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal taffeta. The elongated bodice had a drape-style portrait neckline. Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented with sequins and pearls overlaid the bodice. The renaissance-design sleeves had appliques of lace. A drape design overskirt had a pleated border that encircled the skirt and cathedral train. She wore a waltz length tiered veil that was attached to a wreath of silk flowers and pearls.

Bobbie Ann Bowden, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Blair Hornick, Mari Schwoyer, Kate Koehler, Deanne Santori, Audry Road and Stephanie Hill. Cathryn Smith was the flower girl.

The father of the bridegroom was the best man. Ushers were Lonn Hood, Scott Stroud, Bruce Hardman, Patrick Felton, David Lipe and Hugh Roach. G.F. Cox was the ring bearer.

Following the reception at the church, the couple left on their wedding trip to Virgin Gorda, British Virgin Islands. They will live in Greenville.

The bride is a graduate of Apex High School and is a student at East Carolina University, majoring in interior design and decorating.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Arendell Parrott Academy in Kinston and is employed at Cox Trailers Inc. in Grifton.

A careful look at the 17 pages of this section reveals no UPCHURCH connections. Some may yet be found

A Note to Readers

David Bunn was a very popular name in North Carolina during latter part of the eighteenth century and the early part of the nineteenth century. Those researching that particular name must be extremely careful to insure that documentation gathered and compiled pertaining to that name is assigned to the proper individual.

This section pertains to the David Bunn who resided in Franklin County. David was a farmer and owned over six hundred acres of land in that county. The names of his wife or his parents are unknown. A marriage bond was issued to a David Bunn and Polly May on December 31, 1829 in Franklin County. Documentation to prove that Polly was the wife of the David about whom this section is written, has not yet been discovered.

It is felt that the above mentioned David was somehow related to David Bunn and his wife, Lucy Bunn, who lived in Northampton County, North Carolina between 1750 and 1781. David sold two hundred acres of land in that county to his nephew, Henry Bunn in 1781. Shortly thereafter, records in that county pertaining to that particular David ceased. In 1787, his son, Odam Bunn, sold one hundred acres of land in Northampton County. Records in that county pertaining to Odam also ceased shortly thereafter.

The 1781 Tax List for Wake County, North Carolina indicates that an individual named David Bunn owned two hundred acres of land in that county. Odam Bunn's name also appears a few years later on the tax list for that county. Although unproven, those two individuals appear to be the same ones who were residing in Northampton County earlier.

The 1850 census for the Dunn District of Franklin County lists David and members of his family. His wife's name does not appear on the list. Please note that his daughter's name was Lucy. Was she named after her mother? Also, David had a brother named John. David named one of his sons John. Was that son named after his brother?

David, of Franklin County, died prior to November of 1858. A Court of Equity notice in the November 6, 1858 issue of the American Eagle newspaper, Louisburg, Franklin County, North Carolina, mentions the sale of land belonging to heirs of David Bunn, deceased.
