Boyette, Creech speak

Oct. 13

wedding vows

Wanda Joy Creech of Zebulon and Robert Allen Boyette of Wilson were united in marriage Oct. 13 at Wakefield Central Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eddie Price.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Creech of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Royce Boyette Sr. of Wilson. The bride's grandmother is Ester Creech of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white shantung and re-embroidered schiffli lace. The gown featured a V-front and back of beaded, scalloped lace and sleeves which tapered to a point at the wrist. The bodice and sleeves were detailed with hand-beaded lace designs featuring seed pearls and clear sequins. The dropped waist featured scalloped beaded lace all around.

Three rosettes in back led to a fully gathered skirt which flowed into a cathedral-length train. The skirt and train flowed to a scalloped border and featured designs of hand-beaded lace.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a floral tiara of rolled roses, lace, pearl sprays and sequins. A small back pouf sprinkled with pearls led to a single tier of waltz-length illusion.

She carried a nosegay featuring porcelaina bridal roses outlined with silver-gray winter wheat and featuring an iridescent pouf ribbon.

She was attended by Tammy Perry as matron of honor and bridesmaids Demetrae Creech, Jule Jones, Angel Landgrover, Cynthia Whitley, Bannanne Wilder and Donna Wilson.

The bridesmaids each wore a strapless floor-length gown of emerald iridescent taffeta with a matching off-the-shoulder jacket trimmed with rhinestone buttons.

The bridegroom chose Dr. Brian Harris to be his best man. Ushers were Jordan Boyette, Rodney Creech, Bill Davis, Kelly Farmer, Jeffrey Harris and Michael Marshall. Honorary ushers were Anthony Creech and Timothy Creech.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with tails, a white satin vest and a matching tie.

The church was decorated with an arched candelabrum draped with springerii ferns and ivy. Spiral candelabra and tree candelabra were draped with flowers.

A wedding basket was used featuring mixed flowers. A kneeling bench, used by the couple, was decorated with mixed flowers. Aisle candles and sheaves of wheat tied with iridescent white bows and springerii ferns were used to enhance the aisle.

The windows were decorated with boxwood and wheat sheaves. Two grapevine wreaths with wheat sheaves and white bows were used on the front doors.

Wedding music was presented by Mary Jo Ferrell, soloist; Linda Perry, organist; and Lynda Hinton, pianist.

Anna Crowder was the register attendant and Kristen Price was the program attendant.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and N.C. State University. She is a CPA at Dixon, Odom and Co. in Raleigh.

Her husband is a graduate of Ralph L. Fike High School and N.C. State University and is employed by E&A Environmental Consultants in Cary.

After a wedding trip to St. Martin, French West Indies, the couple will make their home in Knightdale.

Mrs. Robert Allen Boyette
Wanda Joy Creech

Reception

The wedding reception was held in the Hendricks Fellowship Hall and was hosted by the bride's parents. Guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Lelon Creech.

The banquet tables were draped with sheer opalescent and gold lame. Wheat, matching that in the bride's bouquet, was used throughout the floral arrangements. The floral cherub centerpiece was positioned between two fresh fruit displays and a moss-covered cornucopia holding fresh vegetable crudites.

The reception hall was decorated in a candlelight garden setting with harpist Sally Turner performing. Virginia Richards and Trudy Watkins served sparkling grape punch.

The multitiered wedding cake, made by Tammy Perry, was draped in fresh flowers and wheat and was presented on a veil of gold lame surrounded by tiny gold cherubs. The cake was served by Carolyn Hocutt and Frances Kemp. Farewells were said by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Creech as birdseed bags were distributed by Kristen Price and Ashley Ray.

Rehearsal dinner

A pig picking was held on Friday, Oct. 8, at Wedgewood Country Club in Wilson. The event was hosted by the parents of the bridegroom-elect.

The buffet dinner consisted of pork, boiled potatoes, green beans, slaw, hush puppies and assorted beverages. For dessert, the guests were served groom's cake.

After dinner there was music and dancing. The couple-elect chose this time to present gifts to the bridal attendants, groomsmen and other special guests.
