Mansberger, Branoff wed

Angel Branoff of Zebulon and David Mansberger of Raleigh were united in marriage on Saturday, Dec. 18, 1993, at Zebulon Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Glasgow; Dr. Michael Simmons of Crabtree Valley Baptist Church; and the Rev. Jack Benfield of Zebulon United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Steve and Donna Rutter of Zebulon and the late Jimmy Branoff. Parents of the bridegroom are Bill and Dot Mansberger of Bethlehem.

The bride was given in marriage by her brothers, Ted and Bill Branoff.

She was attended by Nancy Joyner of Haysville as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Toni Porter of Zebulon; Amy Clement of Raleigh; Jennifer Grabiak of Plano, Texas, sister of the bridegroom; and Carol McKay of Laurinburg.

Kellie Mansberger, niece of the bridegroom, was the junior bridesmaid. Sandy Loughran and Suzanne Jamieson were honorary bridesmaids.

Katharine Branoff, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Eric Branoff, nephew of the bride, served as the ring bearer.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Michael Mansberger of Athens, Ga., brother of the bridegroom; Jeff Grabiak of Plano, Texas, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Guy Lewis of Chicago, Ill.; and Robert Crawford of Hickory.

Wedding music was presented by Lennie Collins, organist; Jill Branoff, sister-in-law of the bride, pianist; Ginger Graves, soloist; and Ted and Bill Branoff, guitarists.

The wedding was directed by Eva Liles.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is the director of promotions for the Carolina Mudcats.

Her husband is a graduate of Hickory High School, Oral Roberts University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest. He is the minister of education and youth at Crabtree Valley Baptist Church. He is also a veteran of the U.S. Navy and is currently a chaplain in the U.S. Air Force Reserves.

After a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple will make their home in Louisburg.

Reception

Jack and Grace Belcher greeted guests. Punch was poured by Emma Boccock and Judy Corke, and Susan Green cut the cake. The reception was catered by Martha Stancil.

Branoff attends seminar

Angel Branoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Branoff of Zebulon, attended the annual Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation/N.C. Leadership Seminar held at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte June 14-16.

The seminar, sponsored by the Charlotte Jaycees, is held annually to promote leadership, free enterprise and America's incentive system, according to event organizers. It provides a structured and intense setting for the students to interact with recognized local, state and national leaders of business, education, the arts, government and the professions to gain a better understanding of the American economic system, said Steve Walker, state chairman.

According to Walker, Branoff was selected because of her ability to work well with others, her desire for new pursuits and her willingness to learn and share new experiences and ideas.

The North Carolina seminar is modeled after the International Leadership Seminar which draws student participants from every state in the U.S. and from 12 foreign countries. The International Leadership Seminar was formed and is still supervised by actor Hugh O'Brian.

O'Brian was so inspired after a 1958 visit with Dr. Albert Schweitzer in Africa that he decided to form the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation dedicated to the recognition and development of leadership potential of high school sophomores, said Walker.

Branoff-Thompson vows spoken in local ceremony

Jill Karen Thompson of Zebulon and William David Branoff of Zebulon were united in marriage Aug. 9 at Zebulon United Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Lovelace.

The bride is the daughter of Marcelene B. Thompson of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy J. Branoff of Zebulon.

Madie Brantley of Zebulon and Maudie Thompson of Wendell are grandmothers of the bride.

Given in marriage by Dewitt Thompson, her uncle, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta featuring an elongated bodice with a portrait neckline. Motifs of alencon lace, dusters of seed pearls and sequins embellished the entire bodice and elongated waistline. All-lace Renaissance-designed sleeves had deep cuffs of taffeta accented with lace and pearls. Lace cascaded from the waist of the full skirt, and the skirt extended into a full cathedral-length train with lace highlights. The hem of the skirt and train were bordered with lace. A waltz-length veil fell from a wreath of silk flowers and pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bride's maid of honor was Robin Corbett, her cousin. Bridesmaids were Angel Branoff, Darlene Branoff, Patty Henderson, LuAnn Massey, Elaine Perry and Vera Walker. Junior bridesmaids were Jamie and Heather Brantley.

Each bridesmaid wore a royal blue taffeta gown featuring a fitted bodice with a scoop neckline. Wide fluted ruffles extended over the neckline and shoulder. The elongated bodice was piped at the waistline. The circular skirt was softly shirred at the waist. The gown featured fluted ruffles at the hemline extending to the back waistline. A large bow of taffeta accented the back waist.

Other attendants were Ara Melissa Thompson, flower girl, and Hunter Brantley, ring bearer.

The bridegroom wore black tails with a white shirt, black tie and black cummerbund.

The bridegroom chose Ted Branoff, his brother, to be his best man. Ushers were Shannon Bearden, Mike Bunn, Kurt Carlan, Van Diatzikis, Felton Gay, David Johnson and Brian Tomasik.

The church was decorated with candles and yellow roses.

Wedding music was presented by Jim and Susan Powers, vocalists; Betsy Green, organist; and Cynthia Thompson, pianist.

Nancy Joyner presided at the register. Rebecca Brantley and Jennifer Gay distributed programs. Becky Corbett directed the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and N.C. State University. She is a mathematics teacher at Reynolds Senior High School in Winston-Salem. Her husband is a graduate of Zebulon High School and N.C. State University. He is employed by AMP Inc. as a plating engineer.

After a wedding trip cruise to the Bahamas, the couple will make their home in Winston-Salem.

Rehearsal dinner

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom-elect's parents, was held Aug. 8 at the Plantation Inn in Raleigh. Approximately 50 guests attended.
