Slain Fla. doctor mourned by sister from Zebulon

A recent tragedy that's gained national interest has local connections as well.

On Friday, John Bayard Britton, a doctor who performed abortions at a Pensacola, Fla., clinic, was shot and killed by an anti-abortion protester. Britton's family now mourns, including his sister, Barbara Britton Sedwitz, who lives in Zebulon.

The family believes the man accused of the crime knew Britton wore a bullet-proof vest because of threats against his life, and that is why the victim received the fatal shot in the head.

Mrs. Sedwitz said when her brother began performing abortions, he was calm despite the threats, adding that he felt his work was important. Instead of turning away from the potential danger, despite the fact David Gunn, an abortion doctor, was killed at another Pensacola clinic last year, Britton wore the bullet-proof vest and hoped everything would be all right.

Mrs. Sedwitz said the accused murderer, Paul Hill, a former minister, should be brought to justice quickly and given the full punishment.
