This week I would like to dedicate my column to the memory of Addie Booth who died last Tuesday and was buried at Salem on Thursday. I remember how, like Naomi in the Old Testament, she took a young, very much in love with her son, city slicker girl and taught her the ways to be a good wife and mother. She taught her how to pick snapbeans, can them and cook them just right to keep her husband happy. She taught her what vegetables cornbread went with and how to chop vegetables and gave her a chopper to do it with. She took her to main street Apex and introduced her to the dry cleaners; the drug store and the best dress shop in the area. She taught her about the kindness and love in the folks at Salem Baptist Church and the fellowship of the Home Demonstration Club where the young bride learned more about cooking, gardening and even some sewing. She taught her how to put your husband and children first in the home and to center the family around the love of God and church.

Mary Lou Booth

She did all these things without thought of praise or reward but I am very grateful to her for her years of serving her family, church and community. We have missed her and hope her legacy will continue.

Our thanks to all of you and especially to the folks at Kinton's Nursing Home in Fuquay. The staff there are the best anywhere and for those of us who are in the health care profession, we can tell you it is very difficult to maintain the level of care received at Kinton's. Thanks to all of them and to all of you who have helped us so much in the last week and throughout Mrs. Booth's illness.

DETAILS RE CO "I"

CAPPS, Nestus, Private

Enlisted in Wake County on 1 April 1864, for the war. Died at Richmond, Virginia, 12 January 1865, of "Pneumonia."

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I.
After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.
