A Zebulon woman was killed early Tuesday morning inside the Johnson's Forks Restaurant at the intersection of N.C. 97 and U.S. 264-Alternate.

The body of Darla Cline, 32, who lived in a room above the restaurant where she worked, was found at approximately 4:30 a.m. by two truck drivers who stopped at the restaurant. The victim's husband

Wake County Sheriff's Department officials said the actual cause of death would not be known until an autopsy was completed, but the body "appears to have stab wounds."

Maj. Danny Bellamy of the sheriff's department said Mrs.

LIZARD LICK NEWS

Nine is just fine

By CHARLES WOOD
Record columnist

The month of July, 1986, will bring us more than fireworks or lizard races.

Another grandbaby will be born to our son, Dennis, and his wife, Lisa. It's their first and our ninth.

Dennis was so excited when Lisa called, he was two blocks down the road before he realized he didn't have his car. Looks like there may be another mayor on its way.

Well, I don't care if it's a boy or girl, but I did get him a ball and glove for his first birthday. Now Lisa will have another one to spoil besides Dennis. Shirley says the more, the merrier.

Good luck Lisa. I hope it's twins.

That will make us 10 grandchildren and 10 is fine.

I see the Cinema Theater in downtown Zebulon is playing the life story of Patsy Cline. She worked for Uncle Connie B. Gay for $25 a day. During early radio this was a lot of money to her.

Connie said she was a darn good singer. Connie was born in Lizard Lick, graduated from Wakelon High, enrolled at North Carolina State University with only $2.52 to his name and retired with an estimated $50 million. Not bad for a Lizard Lick country boy.

Make a special effort to see the life of Patsy Cline. Tell them Woody sent you. Glad to see country movies coming to town.

Victim's husband sues diner

The widower of Darla Cline, the waitress murdered last year near Zebulon, has filed a lawsuit partially blaming her employers for the killing.

Terry L. Cline is suing Terry Meeks and William Meeks of Middlesex, owners of the Johnson's Forks restaurant where Mrs. Cline was working when she was murdered by former employee, Jeffrey Brian Medlin of Spring Hope. The suit alleges that the owners should have been more careful when they hired Medlin, who was sentenced in May to life in prison for first-degree murder.

Filed in Wake County Superior Court, the suit claims that because Medlin knew the location of the restaurant's cash box and that Mrs. Cline would be working alone, he was able to plan the robbery/murder. The suit also says the cash box was used to pay the winners on an illegal gambling machine at the restaurant, now known as the Eastside Grill.

The suit alleges the owners were negligent for putting Mrs. Cline in a dangerous situation and for giving Medlin knowledge of the money though they knew he was convicted of common law robbery in 1989. Cline is seeking compensation for the loss of his wife's companionship and the income she could have earned during her lifetime.

Mrs. Cline was the only employee on duty at the 24-hour restaurant when Medlin came in the morning of Sept. 11, 1990. Medlin beat the 32-year-old waitress with brass knuckles, stabbed her and cut her throat before fleeing with about $800. He was arrested later that day in Atlantic Beach and confessed. He is also serving 40 years for armed robbery.

Cline, who lived with his wife in an apartment above the restaurant at the intersection of Old U.S. 264 and N.C. 97, was asleep when the robbery occurred.

Dear Mrs Cook,

Your letter of February 1, 1983 arrived yesterday and I am very grateful for the information you have provided. My records on you and your husband, your children and grandchildren are now perfect and complete. If there are any changes - births, marriages, etc I hope you will let me know.

Your husband had 13 brothers and sisters. My records on these children of Mary Belle (Upchurch) are incomplete and I am corresponding with several people on them. You probably knew some or all of the thirteen. Let me list what is missing on the 13. If you just happen to know any of the answers, I would be thankful if you could drop me a note. Sincerely yours
Paul Updunbury [ROBERT PATRICK UPDUNBURY]

So Mary Belle U and I are 6th cousins. your husband and I are 6th cousins once removed. your children and I are 6th cousins twice removed.

Perhaps you have heard that I publish a bulletin on the Upchurch family. It is described in the attached flyer. I have been able to uncover quite a bit about the descendants of Harmon U and much of it is published in the Bulletin. In one of the issues there is a picture of Patrick Boggs U. This would be the great-great-grandfather of your grandchildren. He was the grandfather of Mary Belle U. Perhaps you or your children would like to subscribe to the Upchurch Bulletin.

Here are some more questions to round out the information on your family:

- 1) George Forrest Cook - where did he die?
- 2) George Ellis Cook -
 - a) when and where married?
 - b) Does Jeffery Cook spell his middle name ALLEN?
 - c) was Jeffery Cook born 6 FEB 1962?
- 3) Married Sue Cook
 - a) when and where married?
 - b) Is IELDS LAVEAM BASS the correct spelling?
- 4) Rita Gay Cook
 - a) when and where married?
 - b) what is the middle name of GERALD SCOTT
 - c) Are those spellings correct?

I am trying hard to get all the names and dates right so that people will not be disappointed when they appear in print. Anything you can do to help will be appreciated. The area of Clinton, OK has been the scene of a lot of Upchurch history. I have never been there but it keeps coming up in my search for information.

I note that you have 4 grandchildren. We have one grandchild named Heather Laine Schuler. Her parents live about 50 miles away from us so we get to see her every week or so. She is an absolute doll and is 10 months old. We have a ^{married} daughter who lives in St Louis and a single son who lives there.

Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely yours

Phil Upchurch

MRS VERNA COOK

Dear Mrs Cook,

I am trying to collect all of the details about the Upchurch and their descendants. I publish a quarterly bulletin on the Upchurch. I am related to Mary Belle Upchurch, your late husbands mother, and thus also to your children. We trace our common heritage back to Michael Upchurch the first Upchurch to come to America. He arrived in 1649. I will be glad to send you a sketch of our line if you are interested. Your husbands sister Ann Gertrude (Cook) Fletcher suggested you might be able to supply some information on the George Forrest Cook family. I will appreciate any help you can give with the following:

1). For you and George:

- a) when and where were you married?
- b) what is your full maiden name?
- c) when and where were you born?

2) For your son George Ellis Cook

- a) when and where born?
- b) Name of wife and her birth place and date?
- c) Names of children and their birth dates & places?

(10)

- 3) For your daughter Sue Cook
 - a) what is her full maiden name?
 - b) when and where born?
 - c) Name of husband and his birth date & place?
 - d) Names of children and their birth dates & place?
- 4) For your daughter RITA GAY COOK
 - a) when and where born?
 - b) Name of husband and his birth date & place?
 - c) Names of children and their birth dates & place?
- 5) For your son CURTIS RAY COOK
 - a) when and where born?
 - b) Full Maiden name of wife and her birth date & place?
 - c) Names of children and their birth dates & place?

My research has traced your husbands roots back to North Carolina where mine are also. I have collected a great deal of information on David Harmon Upchurch (your husbands grandfather) and in my Upchurch Bulletin I have published a picture of Patrick Bogans Upchurch (your husbands great grandfather). Patrick Bogans Upchurch is the greatgreatgrandfather of your children.

If you cannot answer all of the above questions, I would appreciate any information at all that you may have.

Sincerely yours
 Phil Upchurch
