- Excerpt from the ID # 23 OCT 1980 Frank Jefferson U, Sr.
to RPU regarding our GF Bartley Jefferson U referred to below "As a boy--"

As a boy he had a muzzle loading single barrell shot gun that his mother bought him at an auction sale. He always called it the "Widow Crocker" because it had belonged to a Widow Crocker. I kept this gun until about 8 years ago. Someone broke into our home and stoled it along with a collection of guns that belonged to my sons and me.

PRE HISTORY THROUGH CENTENNIAL - ELIZABETH REID MURRAY

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 are representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

⁵⁷ Standard (s-w), May 31, 1851; Register (s-w), Jan. 9, 26, Feb. 9, 1856, Jan. 2, 1858. Lacking Raleigh business directories for the 1850s, the list of more than 70 merchants and tradesmen signing the resolutions at the Jan. 1858 meeting presents an informative cross-section of late antebellum businessmen (and one businesswoman): A. — The two youths drowned near Raleigh in trying to save a young lady from death were but 18 and 19 years of age, and were highly esteemed. The Evening Post says: "Mr. Crocker is the son of Mr. Alcey Crocker, aged about 19, and was in the employ of Mr. John W. Upchurch. He was a sober, industrious and affable young gentleman. Mr. John McMullan, son of Dr. McMullan, aged about 18, was a young man of most exemplary moral character, and the general favorite among "the boys," all delighting to be called his associates, and was highly esteemed by our citizens generally."

(The following information on the extended families of David Royster, Sr. and David Royster, Jr. is detailed as we received many questions, particularly while living in Raleigh, about our family's relationship to the Roysters who were doctors, or the Roysters who owned the candy store in Raleigh, and to Vermont Royster, Editor/Publisher of the Wall Street Journal.)

David Royster, Sr., son of Jacob, married Mary Daniel on 11 Jan 1775 in Granville County. As noted earlier, David, Sr. was a school teacher who taught in VA, NC, Ky. and TN. Around 1800 or 1802, David, Jr. a cabinet maker, moved to Raleigh to make furniture for the new State Capital Building being designed and built. In 1802 David, Jr. married Susan Sims in Granville County. Their 12 children were:

- William Howard Royster, who married Mary Stevens/Stephens, and they had 7 children.
- James Daniel Royster, b.1807, d. 1890, a paper manufacturer in Raleigh married Mary Smoothly Ashley, and they had the following children that they named after the states to distinguish their children from the other Royster children: Vermont Connecticut Royster; Dr. Wisconsin Illinois Royster who married Mary Willis Finch and they had 4 children, Hubert Ashley, Frank Willis, James Finch, and one that died early; Oregon Minnesota Royster; Virginia Carolina Royster; Indiana Georgia Royster; Iowa Michigan Royster; and Arkansas Delaware Royster. Vermont Connecticut had two sons, Wilbur High and Percy Hoke. Wilbur High married Olivette James Broadway of Monroe, LA, and they named their first son, Vermont Connecticut Royster, after his grandfather. Wilbur High Royster owned and managed the Royster Candy Store on Fayetteville Street in Raleigh. Vermont Royster, the grandson, became very famous and highly respected as Editor and Publisher of The Wall Street Journal. (Information about the Royster Family, as included in Vermont Royster's book, My Own, My Country's Times has been included in this family history summary.)
- Sarah Sanders Royster who married James Murray.
- Madison Bullock Royster who married Martha Terry.
- Irene/Irena Nichols Royster who married James Steble
- Joseph or Zachariah Royster who died in infancy
- Elisha Sims Royster who died in infancy
- Leonard Henderson Royster who married Jane Carmult
- Adaline Susan Royster who married William C. Upchurch
- David L. Royster who married Sarah Womble, and they had ten children including: Vitruvius, Nellie Cornelia, and Gertrude
- Mary Daniel Royster who married Alsey Crocker
- Amanda Malvina Royster b. 1826, who married William Henderson High, their daughter Hallie Lee High would marry the first Vermont Connecticut Royster.

Dear Mrs Scott,

On February 14, 1980 the very Ben Charles Upchurch
 Harris wrote to you about my interests in Upchurch genealogy. I think he sent you some information I had provided to him. At any rate, the research continues and the story gradually unfolds. The Upchurch Bulletin project (see enclosed flyers) is moving along nicely
 and we now have 230+ subscribers.

I am very anxious to hear from you and to share information about aspects in which we have mutual interests.

The Nathan Upchurch Clan is of special interest to me and special attention is being given to him. We surely must have information to exchange which would be of mutual interest.
 For example, I have a picture of William Clinton U the father of Florence Caroline U who m'd J C L Harris.

Hoping to hear from you

Sincerely yours
 Phil Upchurch

COLUMBUS, OH 43209

Dear Mrs Scovil,

Have me to thank you for letter of December 5, 1980 and your subscription for the 1980 issues of Upchurch's Bulletin. The issues have been dispatched under separate covers. Enclosed is an invoice for the 1981 issues in case you want to continue receiving the same. Perhaps you will want to wait until the 1980 issues arrive to see if it is worthwhile for you.

You do have some names I would very much like to know. Although your grandmother was an Upchurch I don't know her name - although it is undoubtedly in my records. If you could send me the names of your grandmother and the names of her sisters, and your grandfather's name along with your mother's father's name, etc I will be most grateful. A Family Relationship Chart is enclosed in case you would be willing to complete same. When I hear from you I will send you a sketch of your line back through the Upchurches. Sincerely yours, Phil Upchurch
[SENT CARD] [ROBERT PHILLIP UPCHURCH]

Dear Mr. Upton:

I am sorry to have been remiss in answering your letters
but first I was having eye problems and lastly I was in Europe.

How sorry I am to be a disappointment but I really do not have any information to exchange. I know very little about my Upton side except for my beloved grandmother and her sisters, none
of whose married names I remember.

I am enclosing the application
and a check for the Upton
Bulletin and will look forward to its arrival.

Sincerely -

Florence H.C. Crocker

This is the inscription on her tombstone:
In memory of our Mother
N. A. Hobbie
Daughter of the late Whitney Upchurch
Died April 13, 1888
In the 71st year of her age
Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord

Nancy Upchurch Hobbie is buried near several Upchurch graves, including Adelaide Jenks Upchurch (2/20/1858 - 2/14/1936); Martha A. Upchurch (11/12/1832-1915); Willaim A. Upchurch (5/4/1858-2/5/1889) and Carell Upchurch (9/30/1884-11/19/188?)

I had some correspondence in 1957 with the D.A.R. and with Etta Belle Lewter West in Detroit, Mich., concerning the Upchurch line. Several women had joined the D.A.R. on the Moses Upchurch record/line. His wife was Mary Simms. According to the D.A.R. records, Moses Upchurch had a son, Whitney Upchurch (his wife was Elizabeth Goodwin), born in 1793. The Wake County census for 1830 shows Whitney Upchurch and in his household there is one male between 30 and 40 years old; thus it is possible this is the Whitney who was born in 1793.

Update on the search for the parents of
John Henry Nix

Betty Nix Crocker called me this week with a report of the great find that she and Ann Nix Staggs had. Some one heard that they were looking and got Ann in touch with a lady doing research on the Pruitt family. John Henry was living in the home of H.F. Pruitt in 1900, in Oak Level in Cleburne Co., AL. His father was J.W. NIX, his mother MARTHA J. AMANDA PRUITT, d/o Tillman M. Pruitt. Rosie his sister married a Mr. McDonald and was last known to be living in Marietta, Ga. She would be 97 years old if still living. John Henry also had another sister named Fannie. I did not find Fannie Nix in 1900, so we can assume that she was the oldest child and maybe already married. The parents died about 1896 in Cleburne Co. and may be buried at Piney Woods Church Cemetery. Betty is excited about finding this and some proff of their Cherokee Indian heritage. She now needs to find the Sparks and McWorter connections. There are two McWhorter graves in Mt Paran Church Cemetery.. Also Betty, take note of the mother of Albert Marion McElroy on page 21 this issue. These very probably are sisters. It appears now that John Henry had no brothers. Some one needs to go to the court house in Cleburne Co. and look for a will or estate records, maybe guardians records for the children of J.W. and Martha Nix. This is a great find.. Good luck on finding more connections to this line

Hi Carla---

God to have your input on the Fort Family. Since Jay scanned all our Fort Biofiles to send to Spencer it will be easy for him to send you a set as well for you to peruse. By copy of this email I am asking Jay to send a set to you.

It is unclear as to how much mutual interest we will have with Spencer or as to how it will unfold. I will follow up on this and keep you informed.

Thanks~

Phil Upchurch

Hi, Phil,

I read this with interest as I have run across the Fort family in research I have recently done for the Page Walker. I was tracing an early Cary family, the William Crocker family. Mr. Crocker was one of the earliest principal/teachers at Cary High School (1870s 1880s time frame). He married Hersilia Fort, whose father was Foster Fort. They were from the Wake Forest area and the Fort family were noted builders in Orange and Wake Counties. Is this the same family? Just curious since I had recently run across the name!

Blessings,

Carla

Hi Spencer---

I was pleased to note in Wake Genealogy Watch, the newsletter of WCGS, that you are responsible for Forest Ridge Park on Old NC HWY 98 and in the Fort Cemetery. It was great to chat with you yesterday about this and to learn of your interest in local history. I hope we can have a series of exchanges to explore possible mutual interests. Can you confirm that the scanned versions of my Fort Biofiles sent yesterday by Jay Buck, our Web Master, arrived?

I am a Wake County native and have long explored the history of Wake and its people. Much of my effort is embraced by the operation of Upchurch and Allied Families Association, Inc. We have an office in MO where I live and one at 1130 Kildaire Farm Road in Cary, NC --Suite 120. Do contact our Program Coordinator there, Carla Michaels, and arrange for a visit. There you will be able to inspect the Wake cemetery records collected by Irene Kittinger over many years which she has donated to Allied Families.

I invite you to have a look at our two websites---www.upchurchstory.com password 2013upchurch# and www.alliedfamilies.com password allied2014#.

My Ray ancestors lived along Highway 98 with a key spot being Highway 50. There is much more I can share about the area based on my research on my heritage in the area.

Please let me know how you think you and I might more fully explore our possible mutual interests.

Best Wishes~

Phil Upchurch, Manager, Allied Families.
