flow of blood to the heart, leading to chest pain or angina. I was scheduled for surgery early on Friday, October 3. The angioplasty exploration would reveal the extent of artery blockage and provide for an opportunity to use balloons to dislodge the blockage or to implant a stent. It turned out the blockage was severe and unsuitable for the planned corrections. A team of surgeons was standing by and took immediate action. They performed open heart surgery and created three bypasses using arteries from the arm and chest. Sallaine and our children here in St. Louis were present to offer advice, consultation, and encouragement. I received the most outstanding health care one can imagine. After three days, Sallaine brought me home and has provided outstanding support. She has been a rock throughout. Our daughter from Tucson has been with us for a week with her support also. I am so fortunate in so many ways. (2)

Today, 7 days after the surgery, I am beginning to regain my perspective and to think more pro-actively about the future. Friends who have had this experience tell me that I should look forward to ten years of active life before getting another 30,000 mile check-up. Still, I know that some lifestyle changes are required.

I feel blessed to have such a great family, such good medical care and that I did not suffer any heart damage. Still, I feel more needs to be said to my friends. I considered myself to be in good health and my annual check-up last spring was favorable. We eat a variety of foods and in moderation and I thought my 211 pounds could be carried on my 6 foot frame. I now know that 190 is the number. Furthermore, in recapping my last year, I realize that signs of trouble were there even as I denied them. Furthermore, I now realize that my good diet has not been as good as I thought. Sallaine will help me do better. I hope all who read this will reexamine their own health status.

In our household, it is now "GOOD MORNING IN AMERICA".

13 OCT 2003

I was sorry to learn from Ruth letter of 30 SEP 2003 about the passing of Juanita. Please accept my condolences. I know you were close and will miss her. She and I enjoyed our exchanges by mail and I am so glad I got to meet her in your home. The above will explain my shaky handwriting. I'll be back in touch in due course!

Sincerely yours

Sept. 30, 2003

Dear Lepchurche,

A note to inform you of Juanita's death on Sept. 17, the funeral was on the 20th.

This was a sudden and unexpected event. She seemed to have a slight cold but on the morning of the 17th, woke up with breathing difficulties. We were informed about 7:30 that she was being sent to the E.R. at the Oxford Hospital and we got up there about 9 o'clock. The doctor said the prognosis was not good - pneumonia in one lung. She was admitted to the hospital and put on antibiotics. But about 5 p.m. she just suddenly and quietly quit breathing.

No one likes to think about going to a nursing home but we have no regrets about her time there. She had a better life this last year than she would have had at home. No one ever came to see her at home but she was visited there, they had good care, good meals and lots of worship services, entertainments of all sorts etc. (Juanita often even at Bingo!) We were informed about every little thing concerning her health - even a slight bruise or scratch she'd get accidentally.

Bill is executor and will be tied up for months.

We hope all is well with you.

Sincerely,

Ruth

REC'D 11 DEC 2002

11/19/02

Dear Upchurch Cousins,

Your accident on the stairs was really unfortunate. To get the UB out is that condition was quite an accomplishment. We appreciate your effort.

I enjoyed reading about your trip to England. As I told you before, England is one place I'd like to visit again. At this point in life I do not see it as a possibility.

On Memorial Day the women who come to Juanita's to help her for a few hours each day called and said she had an emergency at home and couldn't come. So I went to Juanita's to get her out of bed, get breakfast for her, etc, but found her on the floor. We took her to the ER at Oxford and she was in the hospital for several days. She was confused and could not walk, get out of bed, or do anything for herself. The diagnosis: a mini-stroke. We were told that she had to go to a nursing home or have 24-hour help at home. They sent her to the Water Valley hospital for a couple of weeks of re-hab.

Connected to the hospital is the Yalobusha County Nursing Home. It has an excellent reputation and a long waiting list but we were called to say they'd make an exception and take Jonita. We don't know who told the Home about Jonita. We think the social worker at the Oxford Hospital might have done it. Anyway the administrator talked to Jonita and told her she could continue her re-hab. program and if she got better she could go home. So she agreed to go to the Nursing Home.

She has had two other mini-strokes since then and was hospitalized. at these times she is totally confused. She has made no improvement physically in the nursing home.

We go to see her 2-4 times a week. She was very unhappy about the laundry situation there. So to relieve her worry about that, I am doing her laundry. Bill has her Power of attorney, makes all the decisions and pays her bills. We are totally consumed with her care and can make plans to go no where - not even to St. Louis to see our daughter & family.

As I said, the Nursing Home has an excellent reputation as one of the best in the state - if not the best. There's a waiting list of over 200 people. They are getting ready to enlarge it and double its size from 67 residents to 130.

Luckily the children and grand-children can come home about two times a year.

Since our son lives in the Washington area we were concerned during the sniper attacks, and we had reason to be. He lives in Falls Church, VA, less than 1/4 mile from the attacks there. He had planned to go to the Home Depot that night but decided to stay home and watch the football game. much later

As you see I didn't get this mailed but the news may still be new to you

Happy Birthday
Ruth U.

Dear Phil and Dallaine,

Your visit here seems like a dream so much has happened since then. We enjoyed meeting you so much. If you are ever back this way, ^{again,} the Historical Society would love to have you and we could gather up quite a few more Upchurch connections.

Bill has been working hard to get the information you want. Some people are eager to respond, others are not so cooperative.

If you remember, we had moved my sister from Tennessee to Mississippi the week before you were here to our assisted living facility in Oxford. She seemed to be adjusting quite well until the first of June when she had a stroke and was hospitalized for 12 days. She still cannot stand and is just beginning to use her right arm a little. Her left arm is still useless. She cannot feed herself and is more or less helpless. She is still at the Assisted Living place but has a "sitter" during daytime hours who is really good.

[Note: This letter was in same packet as one from William Joseph U dated 20 AUG 2001. RM answered 6 SEP 2001 - for which see profile of William Joseph U] with her. But there seems to be a crisis of some sort two or three times a week.

Last Sunday night, unknown to us, lightning took our telephones out of service. About 11:30 p.m. a deputy sheriff rang the doorbell and told us Lois had been taken to the hospital. Since I couldn't be reached they contacted my brother in Ft. Worth for permission to take her. We then went to Oxford about midnight and got home about 3 a.m. Her trouble was not diagnosed - other than dehydration, and a bronchial congestion. She is still in the hospital. I go to Oxford every day while she's hospitalized and 2 or 3 times a week at other times.

This has taken a toll on me. I have lost 18 pounds since you were here. Worry and stress cut down my appetite. I'm glad to lose the weight but not this way.

Another concern is Quonita. Her legs are swollen below the knees and are an ugly reddish in color. I took her to a doctor two weeks ago. He gave her about 5 things to do: drink lot of fluid, elevate the legs when sitting down, leave off salt, take lasix and wear elastic hose. So far, she has done very little of his instructions. It's hard to believe a former nurse does so little to follow a doctor's instructions,

I wish you were close enough for us to share Bill's garden. Would you believe 22 cantaloupes in the house? also eggplant, okra, cucumbers, tomatoes, pepper, etc. We'll have to make a "give-away" run soon.

Your big crisis was a terrible thing to experience. It must have been a shock to discover. I'm glad insurance covered your losses.

Jean had a similar experience on a much smaller scale a couple of years ago. The washing machine mal-functional and flooded the basement. They had just finished a room down there. They discovered it in time before it damaged too much. a company came ⁱⁿ with big fans etc and got things back in order. Their insurance covered the cost of drying things.

This is enough so -

Sincerely,

Leith

interest. The story of Rugby, TN was new to me. I looked it up in the Fentress Co, TN Heritage book and got a feel for this special community.

I must report to Bill on the farming situation. It is time to prepare for planting corn and in the next day or so the soil will be dry enough to work if it does not rain. Yesterday I went out to Montgomery Co to look over a 160 acre tract with my son and his wife. They will probably place a bid on it today. It is a lovely tract with mostly mexio silt loam and a nice zone pond. It does need terraces and some clearing. There are about 100 acres now tillable but this could be brought up to 135 acres.

My very best to you and Bill.

Sincerely yours

Two bits of news about Upchurches - if you haven't heard:

□ + Δ

(1) Bill's oldest sister, Julia Upchurch Morgan, died
Feb. 19, 1999 following a massive stroke on Feb. 15.
She never regained consciousness.

2 As seen in the enclosed article, our son Robert Burton Upchurch, retired from the Navy officially on Oct. 31 and began employment at Aegis on Nov. 2. He didn't even have to move.

Δ

Our daughter, Jean, no longer works at the St Louis Journal but is now a Public Relations Consultant at St John's Hospital and also teaches a course on Journalism at Webster University.

An interesting geneology note - not connected to Upchurch history:

As children, my sister and I played with a large leather-bound book. It contained copies of the Illustrated London News, dated 1845. On the margins of the newspapers was handwritten addresses to William Crowley Buffalo Barracks, Lake Erie, N.Y.

We always wondered why our great-grandfather had a U.S. address. We thought he immigrated directly from England to Canada. Our grandfather immigrated to the U.S.
from Canada and we always thought he was a native of Canada. Now, we are wondering!

One night my sister-in-law was surfing the Internet and found an address for Buffalo Barracks →

I don't think it is an active base but there are records. My sister-in-law E-mailed an inquiry about William Crowley, ^{13th} The curator answered quickly - the color of his eyes, his height, weight, color of hair, his home town in England, etc. He had joined the U.S. Army, served out one enlistment and re-joined but left before his time was out - and moved to Canada (near Detroit)

My brother surmises he got ill as ^{he} died within 3 years. But he also thinks his children were born in New York so our grandfather might be a native U.S. citizen. That's being checked out.

My grandfather crossed onto the U.S. at Detroit with a brother and parted there. The brother was never heard from again. We have a relative who writes to every Crowley she hears about. Maybe someday we'll know!

My grandfather settled in Jamestown, TN and my father was born there. Why he came to that wilderness (at that time) I don't know, unless he was attracted to the near-by English settlement at Rugby being promoted by Thomas Hughes, the English author. My grandparents did live at Rugby for a time.

Sincerely
Ruth (Crowley) Upchurch

Another note - not about Upchurches:

On May 19, there will be ceremonies announcing the establishment of a College scholarship ~~established~~ in the name of my twin sister. It will be a surprise to her. Isn't that exciting? I hope I can attend the festivities. She lives in Franklin, TN - my favorite spot in Tennessee

Thanks for offering to send copies of the copy about my family but there is a copy of that book in our family.

I've always got a kick out of the stories of our Dad & his brothers & sisters. My grandfather was from Canada & wanted to show the "superior" education by naming his children as he did (or at least that what we think was his reason)

Alphonso Claude Crowley (my dad) was named after the King of Spain.

Sylvanus Johnson - don't know the origin of that Percy Zenobia - where did that come from - Greek mythology or something?

Obed Orestus ? ?

Only one aunt had an ordinary name
- Myrtle Moss - and she married a Boss!

Dear Upchurch,

I was interested in your description of your trip to Fentress County, TN. That part of the country has a special place in my life.

We lived in Cookeville but my father's parents lived in Jonestown as did aunts & uncles. So we visited there one or two times a year. In my young days, it was a trip of several hours. There was no short route. We travelled through Peep Mill right by Alvin York's home. We sometimes saw him sitting on the porch.

In my father's young days, his parents ran "The Crowley House", the only hotel in town. Cordell Hall often stayed there when he was a judge. When they sold the Hotel, it became "The Mark Swain Hotel." Mark Swain never was in Jamestown but his parents lived there until shortly before he was born. The hotel later burned.

After Bill & I were married we visited Jamestown. An Upchurch was sheriff and had confiscated a whiskey still. My uncle gave us the spiral of copper tubing from that still (I don't know what ever happened to it).

Anyway, I have many fond memories of Jamestown, even though it was known as a rough, tough little town. An uncle was a doctor there and could tell many tales about situations he encountered.

Just thought you might be interested in my memories

Dear Cousin Ruth

Thank you for your renewal on the UB for 1996 and for your $30 contribution to the Upchurch Research Fund. This fund is very important for helping with money on our family.

I was delighted to have your "memoir" of Fentress Co, TN. It is indeed a beautiful place. There is much Upchurch history there and it continues to unfold. I have a number of documents about Fentress Co, TN including the 1987 History of Fentress Co, TN. This is really a "heritage" book. I have extracted many portions of it as related to Upchurch history. With your letter in hand I looked in the book for CROWLEY history. I found 7 articles where the Crowley name is mentioned. Included is your father Alfonso C. Crowley - also Squamos Crowley, Persis Crowley, James Crowley, etc, etc. I wonder if you have this book. If not, I'll be glad to make a machine copy of the ⁽²¹⁾ parts that relate to the Crowley family and send some to you.

I still have a lot of follow-up to do on my visit to Futuro Co, TN. Retirement was supposed to bring all the time in the world to me but every day seems to be overly full - it is all enjoyable and I think this is the best time of our life.

My best to Bill.
