RUPERT TOMSON JACKSON

260

Born February 24, 1903 in Sampson County, Rupert T. Jackson was the son of Hinton Miles Jackson and Jenett Eliza Tew Jackson. His daughter tells us that her father came to Angier in 1930 from Sampson County to work in his sister's (Malissa Jackson Denning) husband's grocery store. He worked for Mr. Webb Denning for six years then bought the store from him and changed the name to Jackson's Market. It was located on the northeast corner of North Broad Street East and Williams Street. He worked twelve to fourteen hours a day, six days a week but Sundays were his Lord's days. Most Saturday nights it would be midnight before he got home, but he was up in plenty of time to ring the bell at Angier Baptist Church where he also served as a Deacon. He was a member of Angier Kiwanis Club and served as Town commissioner.

His daughter Nancy stated that in his free time her daddy enjoyed fishing and baseball, especially since his son Kenneth played with a Tobacco State League team. She also said he was a man with little formal education but a man with a big heart; he was the best husband, father, and grandfather a person could be and he loved people. He fed many families when they had no money; he was Santa's helper when Santa was running short of goodies or when children needed shoes to wear to school. He commented once that he couldn't believe a man had gone to the moon, but IF they did, the weather would never be the same. She agrees with her dad . . . the weather hasn't been the same!

Finally, his daughter said, her father did not have many worldly goods but he must be very rich in heaven because he always wanted to give rather than receive. He was honest, truthful, dependable and he was much loved by his family.

Mr. Jackson was married to Eliza Jeanette Jackson for sixty-five years; she came to Angier in 1930 with her husband. Mrs. Jackson was born in Sampson County, October 25, 1903. Her parents were Everette Anson Jackson and Ada J. Jackson.

Her daughter described her in this manner: "She loved her family and stayed busy at home looking after her children and her mother-in-law who lived with them. In later years she started working in Jackson's Market with her husband. They were partners in work as well as in life. She was a great cook — as her family, many preachers, soldiers in World War II, and many young people of Angier can attest. She loved people and could find something good about everyone. She enjoyed her church and loved her Lord. She was a good woman. She, like her husband, enjoyed the game of baseball, probably because their son was involved in the game. Most of all she loved her family and devoted her life to caring for and helping them. Many people called her 'Mama Jack' even though they were not related. She was a person who was easy to love and her family really loved her."

They have five children: eleven grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grand child. They are listed by families.

Iris Jackson Harrison (Mrs. Perry N. Jr.) has two children. Iris H. D'Alton (spouse-Judge Jim D'Alton) has two children: Tanner Smith and Harrison Smith, and a stepson; Berkley D'Alton. Carolyn Harrison is married to Major Michael Barnes; their children are Timothy Barnes and Justin Barnes.

Kenneth B. Jackson is married to Janie Wray Williams Jackson; they have two children: Kenneth B. Jackson, Jr. is married to Karen Surles Jackson; their children are Jennifer Lynn Jackson and Kenneth B. Jackson III. Judy Wray Jackson Johnson is married to George Leonard Johnson; their children are Christopher Ashley Johnson and Lisa Renee Johnson.

Ada Jackson Upchurch (Mrs. Harold) has one son, Don E. Wimberly III (spouse-Donna Hair); his sons are Don E. Wimberly, III, Ashley R. Wimberly and David A. Wimberly. She has a granddaughter, Meredith Brooke Wimberly. She has one stepson, Harold Upchurch, Jr. whose spouse is Lisa Dean Upchurch.

Jean Jackson Harper (Mrs. Allen Stan) has three children. George T. Parker, Jr. has two children: George T. Parker III (spouse Jane Hodges Parker), and Molly Jeanne Parker. Amy Jeanette Parker Desormeaux (spouse Capt. Joe) has one daughter, Olivia Parker Desormeaux. Third is A. Stannette Harper.

Nancy Jackson is married to Millard R. Currin and they have two daughters and one son. Nancy Ruth Currin is married to André M. Bertrand and their daughter is Amber Megan Bertrand. Jeanette R. Currin is married to Raymond Strickland and their three daughters are Allison Ruth, Jamie Raye, and Kasey Jeanette Strickland. Their son is Millard R. Currin, Jr.

Mr. Jackson died December 21, 1984, and Mrs. Jackson died March 24, 1986.

Jim and Lyn Bender and their six children will move into their new home at Esther Evans' old address on Wagstaff Road. The Benders owned the home that was built by the Champion family more than 70 years ago. The Benders have their own fond memories of the house and they look forward to making more family memories in their new home. The Extreme Home Makeover, Hometown Edition will be unveiled at 11 a.m. on Thanksgiving morning. The community is invited to attend and welcome to visit the new home on Friday and Saturday following the unveiling for an open house from 12 to 3 p.m. both days. Alice Ligon of Triangle Homeworks, who has coordinated the Extreme Makeover, said so many Fuquay residents have contributed to make this new home possible, she wants them to be able to see the fruits of their labor.

Family memories,

By KAREN WHITE
CORRESPONDENT

When Esther Evans received word that her long-time family homestead was to be torn down and rebuilt, she cried. She was exceedingly happy for the Bender family, recipients of the latest extreme home makeover. But she cried as her own memories of the life she had while growing up on Wagstaff Elco Champion, (above) was Esther Evans' mother. She and her husband created many memories for their nine children on Wagstaff Road through much of the early 20th Century.
