Dear Phil

Thanks for the information that you shared. I think that the Hortons were too busy keeping things in the family. There are several 1st cousin marriages plus connection with Pace family, Scarborough, and Horton+Horton's.

There also are connection with the Vaden family plus Fawlers. ~~Another~~ Other prominent figures were the Alford, and Temples who I am living to in the Zeluda area too.

The Pace family also moved to Green County Alabama with Jesse Horton and William Scarborough.

Those Hortons are double cousins of mine since I descend from Jesse Horton's sister Sarah Horton who married John Scarborough and Brother Hartwell Horton whose ~~son~~ children married and produced my G.G. Grandmother Rebecca Scarborough Pace.

Hope you can come to the Green County Gathering. The Pleasant
 Hill Cemetery is near Pleasant Hill.
 Some Sandroyer plus Hartens, Bolton,
 Parkman and Pacer are current there.
 It would be great seeing you. We could meet Reynolds and Steve Pacer.

of Greene Co, AL do not show a ~~Horton~~ connection. Abel Upchurch, so named from the Little River District of Wake Co, NC (where there were lots of Hortons) to Greene Co, AL about 1820-1830.

Your packet helped me to understand how you & Benj Chamberlaine trace back to Amos Horton II. In this batch of folks I find Rebecca Horton who married John Sledge, or [no doubt an ancestor of my wife nee Sallaine Sledge]. However I am confused as to whether this Rebecca is a daughter of Amos Horton, II or Daniel Horton. See pages 23 & 26 (my numbers) from your packet enclosed. This is not a big deal to me as I only collect Sledge family details casually.

You expressed an interest in getting more details on your ancestor Penelope (Penny) Pearce (Pierce). I'll share what little I have. Enclosed is my profile on her from the David Horton Book (Nothing new here). Also provided is a profile sheet on a PENNY PEARCE who married Clem Mitchell. I doubt that is yours - but you decide.

The following may help to orient you about ~~the~~ Pearce (Price): <sup>(3)</sup>

#1 - An enclosed sheet about the three hatches of Pearce (could be spelled Price at any point in time)

#2 Pearce Family sheet dated 16 SEP 1999
This describes the 4 Pearce brothers who were in Franklin Co NC in the middle 1700's - and continues with the descendants of one of them (Philip).
Note that Nathan Pearce (a son of Philip) and Susan Upchurch - [we have long sought the name of her father & have it narrowed to 2-3 prospects].

The 1st Page of a 50 page document entitled
"Thirty-four Generations of Pearce". I have scanned this to see if I could spot a Penny Pearce - but no luck. I'll copy & send you the entire document if you so desire. My best take on this document is that it is correct from the 4 brothers on down but suspect as to correctness as to their earlier ancestors. Taking note of time & space your Penny should be among the descendants of one of the four brothers.

You mentioned that Mary Jo King might have more details on additional Sledge & Vycherks interactions. I'll be glad to write her about this if you can let me have an address.

Please don't feel under any pressure to respond to this letter. I'll be happy to hear from you if and when you find time. Perhaps we will find additional family records of mutual interest as time goes by.

Dear Phil,

What a surprise to hear from you! Doug Chamblee is my 1st cousin once removed. (He was my Dads first cousin). I met him for the first time this past summer when I was in Raleigh for a Horton researcher gathering. I had met about 20 Horton researchers on the internet and we all got together in Raleigh this summer and formed a Horton Family Assn. I was staying with another 1st cousin once removed on my Hoyle side, Tommy Temple who lives down the street from Doug. Tommy grew up in Zebulon. There is another 5th cousin Robert E. Horton who lives 3 houses down from Doug who was attending the gathering who has done extensive research on the origins of our Horton family. It is not from the infamous Barnabus of New York whos son David came down from NY. , According to the Descendants of David Horton of Wake Book by Davis.

I am indeed interested in the four Pearce (Pierce?) brothers from Franklin County. I do not have any information on Perry (Penelope) Pierce (Pearce) my 3rd Great Grandmother who married Littleberg Horton.

Enclosed is some information about Daniel Horton I of Sandy Va and the information from Robert Horton linking Joseph to the same Daniel Horton I.

Bob's information is most accurate because it is supported with land grants + Transcription etc. that place David of Wake in various areas.

The transcription from Mary Jo King was from a video taped interview. Mary Jo may have additional up Church and Sledge information. The Sledge connection is in the enclosed lineage of Daniel Horton I.

Sorry for the delay in getting back to you. All my time is spent working on my new old home so that we can get in by mid March.

DAVID HORTON - DIED 1784 IN WAKE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA
By Francis Allison Gregory and Robert Edgeworth Horton, Sr.

GENERAL AND SPECIAL FILES

Who was David HORTON who died in Wake County, North Carolina, in 1784, and who were his ancestors?

1. Was he the David HORTON, a son of John HORTON and Elizabeth LEE (John HORTON was a great grandson of Barnabas HORTON I, born in England, who came to America in c1638 and lived at Southold, Long Island, N.Y. from 1640 until his death in 1680.), who was born c1724 at Rye, NY; married Ann _____ according to (1) THE HORTONS IN AMERICA. This David HORTON was first noted in Wake Co, NC, in 1779, when he received a land grant, according to (2) DESCENDANTS OF DAVID HORTON OF NORTH CAROLINA.

a. On page 7 of (1) is a list of David's 12 children and the statement: "David HORTON emigrated to Wake Co, NC, before the Revolutionary War. He was a man of large means and owned extensive lands, as shown by deeds and will and a large land grant, in the public records. He was a member of the first Southern battalion of militia and marched against hostile Indians under Colonel Ambrose Ramsay."

b. On page 593 of (3) NORTH CAROLINA IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION is entry: "Roll of officers and private Soldiers detached from the first or Southern Battalion of the Militia of the County of Orange to march against the hostile Indians under the Command of Col. Ambrose Ramsey." This roster included a David HORTON. Note: There was no other David HORTON listed in reference (3), nor has a search of many other Revolutionary War-derived documents turned up a DAVID HORTON of N.C. who participated as a Continental Officer/Soldier, a Militiaman, or a Civilian in the Revolutionary War. The similarity of the two preceding quotations indicate they came from the same source. There were other David HORTONS in NC in the Revolutionary War period (1775-1785).

c. The following quotations are from reference (2).

Page 2 "According to numerous articles DAVID HORTON left New York and migrated to Wake Co, North Carolina before the Revolutionary War. Perhaps, but we have not been able to find him on record before 27 May 1779 when he received a 400 acre land grant."

(5)

Page 3 "At age 52, he was a member of the first Southern Battalion of Militia and marched against hostile Indians under Colonel Ambrose RAMSAY. While he did not fight in the Revolutionary War, he was said to have provided supplies to the Army." (FOOTNOTE No. 3 on page 4 indicates as the reference/source for this statement: "Adaline Horton White, THE HORTONS IN AMERICA, Seattle, Washington: Sherman Printing & Binding Co., 1929.)

Page 3 "We suspect he may be the David HORTON who was involved in an accidental murder caused when tempers flared and a fight ensued. This happened in Ulster, New York, 17 February 1772. How they came to North Carolina is also a mystery that has to be speculated upon." In support of the preceding is an extract from the Monday, February 17, 1772 edition of THE NEW YORK GAZETTE AND WEEKLY MERCURY: "From Newburgh in Ulster County, we learn, that a few days since, at the Raising of a Building there, some Words happened between one Samuel Moore and David Horton, which soon brought on Blows, when the former was beat to such a Degree that he dies in three Days after. Horton was immediately committed to GAOL."

d. There is no conflict, for purposes of this document, concerning the information in References (1) and (2) covering the Will and the children of the David HORTON who died in Wake County, North Carolina in 1784.

2. Was he the David HORTON who was the son of Joseph HORTON of Granville (Bute/Warren/Franklin) Co, NC whose will was made on 12 December 1763 and recorded in November Court 1768?

a. An extract of Joseph HORTON's will is contained in (4) WARREN COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA RECORDS VOLUME I:

Page 16 - BUTE COUNTY RECORD BOOK A

(A) 44 Will of JOSEPH HORTON, of Granville Co. Dated 12 Dec. 1763. Rcd. Nov Ct. 1768. Daughter SARAH, widow of WILLIAM SMITH dec'd. Daughter MARGARET, late the wife of JAMES HARRARD. Daughter CHARITY, wife of HENRY BIRUM. Sons: JOSEPH, WILLIAM, NATHAN, MOSES, DAVID. Son SAMUEL HORTON to be Executor & to have the land where I now live, 400 acres in Granville Co., bought from DANIEL POTTER, on the Cyprus River near TAPP River. Grandson SAMUEL son of DAVID HORTON. Wife: DAVI POTTER

JAMES ALFORD, LODK ALFORD.

b. An extract of the deed covering the land purchase by Joseph HORTON of the land listed in his will is contained in (5) ABSTRACTS OF THE EARLY DEEDS OF GRANVILLE COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA 1746-1765.

502 - Nov 24, 1763 DANIEL POTTER to JOSEPH HORTON of Nansemond Co, VA for 172 pds., land on Cypress Creek of 400 acres which was formerly granted to John Ferril Apr. 26, 1748, and to POTTER Oct. 20, 1755. Wts: Edward Cooley, Richard Yarbrough, William Ellis.

c. The first listing found on David HORTON after his identification in the will of his father, Joseph HORTON, is on page 19 of Reference (4) under an entry: "86 Acct. Sale of Estate of ROBERT CADE, dec'd. Dated 3 June 1769. Held at public auction by Court Order." In addition to the Sheriff's name, there were 18 other names listed following "mentioned". These names included DAVID HORTON, LODWICK ALFORD, JAMES ALFORD and LODWICK ALFORD, JR. It is noted that a JAMES ALFORD and a LODWICK ALFORD were witnesses for the will of JOSEPH HORTON, DAVID's father, in 1763. It is logical to assume the LODWICK and JAMES in both entries (Will and Sale) were the same persons. The ALFORD surname appears many times in land records in association with DAVID HORTON. It is apparent the family of Joseph HORTON were friends and close neighbors of the ALFORDS.

d. The only information available on DAVID HORTON of Wake County in the 1778-1779 period is contained in (6) WAKE COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA LAND ENTRIES 1778-1846 by Weynette Parks Haun, 1980. The following are extracts covering entries made in 1778-1779 as listed in Reference (6) which contain the name of DAVID HORTON. (There were two additional Entry Extracts covering Entries made in 1808 by a DAVID HORTON: it is assumed these were made by DAVID HORTON, JR.)

e. A number of factors may have had a bearing as to why the authors of References (1) and (2) determined the DAVID HORTON who died in Wake County, NC, in 1784. First, the Land Entries made in 1778 and 1779 in Wake County by DAVID HORTON. Land Entries were first authorized by a law which was enacted by the NC General Assembly in 1777. See LAND ENTRIES, pages 206 and 207 of (7) NORTH CAROLINA RESEARCH - GENEALOGY AND LOCAL HISTORY, Edited by Helen F. M. Leary and Maurice M. Stinewalt, 1980. DAVID HORTON took advantage of the Land Entry Law on land in Wake County. The land grants mentioned in Reference (1) and the copies of Land Grants used in Reference (2) were based on the Land Entries in Wake County only made by DAVID HORTON. These are covered by the extracts above from Reference (5). Next there was probably confusion in records keeping caused by County boundary changes; Granville County of 1760 changed to Granville and BUTE in 1764, then BUTE changed to Franklin and Warren in 1779; Wake County formed in 1770, with a contiguous border with Bute/Franklin and this border not being clearly established. A better understanding of the County changes/boundaries and broader more detailed research by the authors/contributors of/to References (1) and (2) would most certainly have revealed the true DAVID HORTON who lived in Granville, Bute and Franklin Counties before living in Wake County, where he died in 1784. (8)

It has been the intent of the authors to present under paragraphs 1. and 2. above available material on the DAVID HORTON who died in Wake County, North Carolina in 1784. A conclusion reached is that References (1) and (2) contain no factual data to support their presumed DAVID HORTON (Paragraph 1 above). There is sufficient factual data to support a conclusion that DAVID HORTON (Paragraph 2 above), the son of JOSEPH HORTON of Nansemond County (1719-1763), VA and Granville/Bute County (1763/1769), NC, was the DAVID HORTON who died in Wake County, NC, in 1784.

Myra, et al,

The document stating Daniel Horton came to Virginia under James Peters sponsorship lists these eight immigrants, in this order:

Robert Martin
Alice Hill
Fra. Synock
Diana Seayres
Tho. Langdell
Danll. Horton
Richard Stiball
Fra. Whitwell

The document stating Daniel Horton came to Virginia under John Woodson's sponship 12 years later, in 1690 lists 27 immigrants, the first eight of which were (also in this orderO:

Robert Martin
Alice Hill
Fra. Sink
Diana Seares
Tho. Langdell
Danll. Horton
Richard Stiball
Fra. Whitwell

The possibility of these names being coincidentally similar is too much for my imagination!

Looking back at the text in Volume I of "Cavaliers and Pioneers" I found a passage explaining the plan the London Company instigated to spur immigration also resulted in many ship's captains and large landowners falsifying immigration papers and claiming large tracts fraudently..

Further checking revealed John Woodson Jr. and Sr. along with Robert Woodson and others recorded the following patents involving immigrants:

10/21/1687, 36 persons, 1780 acres
    10 persons, 470 acres
4/23/1688, 37 persons, 1850 acres
10/23/1690 28 persons, 1385 acres

I am convinced Mr. Woodson was operating a fraud, the Daniel he claimed credit for in 1690 did not exist and hundreds of Woodson's descendents are now elected officials - probably Democrats.

How about that? We are back to one Daniel with a gap big enough for another generation...

THE HORTONS OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, AND WAKE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA (1700-1800)
By: FRANCIS ALLISON GREGORY and ROBERT EDGEWORTH HORTON, SR.

The Ancestral Chart with the same title and this document were derived to support the ancestry of John HORTON (c1781-14 Sep 1863) the 2nd Great Grandfather of Robert Edgeworth HORTON. The lineage from this John HORTON to the current generations is covered in a separate document by Robert Edgeworth HORTON.

The information on which the Ancestral Chart is based has been obtained primarily through research of published sources based on Actual Data. Much of the same information was used in writing DAVID HORTON - DIED 1784 IN WAKE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA. To support the Chart as succinctly and briefly as needed to convey the information desired, each Reference/Source and pertinent data therefrom is listed in the order it is on the chart.

DANIEL HORTON (Dates of birth/death unknown). His position as the first known ancestor is based primarily on his having lived in the same area in Virginia as Joseph HORTON, in the same period of time and on land that was not a grant or purchase as of the date listed.

According to his will, Joseph HORTON was the father of 9 children and had one grandchild, SAMUEL, who are listed in his Will and listed on the Ancestral Chart. Information was available only on his sons DAVID and SAMUEL and grandson SAMUEL.

DAVID HORTON (Birth date unknown, died 1784)

He and his son, SAMUEL, are listed in his father's will. Documentation verifies he lived in Bute County in 1763 and 1769; Wake County Land Entries indicate he Entered (Claimed) Land in Wake County first on 08 Dec 1778. No information is available on period 1769-1778, but he probably lived in Bute and Wake Counties.

Document contains the Will of DAVID HORTON (died 1784) and DAVID HORTON, Jr. (died 1816) and known information on children listed in Wills and their descendants. Since DAVID HORTON, Jr. was not listed in the Will of his grandfather, Joseph HORTON, it is postulated he was born after 1763.

Document contains no information on Samuel HORTON, eldest son of DAVID HORTON, other than his name, his wife's name and their date of marriage. What is known about this Samuel who was the 3rd great grandfather of Robert Edgeworth HORTON will be discussed following the presentation of the information we have on Samuel HORTON (Died 1794), the eldest son of Joseph HORTON and Executor of his Will.

SAMUEL HORTON (Birth date unknown, died 6 Dec 1794)

Since his father, Joseph HORTON, willed the 400 acres of land on which he was living in Granville Co, NC, and he was named by his father in his Will to be the Executor of the Will, it is postulated SAMUEL HORTON was the oldest child.

2. EXTRACT, DATED 19 DEC 1816, KERSHAW COUNTY (DISTRICT) SOUTH CAROLINA DEED BOOK --

(Copy of original with copy of deciphered version included herein.)

The first Deed, dated July 26, 1804, covers the sale of 500 acres of land on the head of Pinetree Creek, Kershaw County, South Carolina, on 24 October 1803 by GEORGE EVANS to a "SAMUEL HORTON OF LYNCHES CREEK in the said state". A JOHN HORTON was one of the three witnesses to the sale. This was the first and only association found between SAMUEL HORTON and his son, JOHN HORTON.

The second Deed, dated 19 Dec 1816, covers the sale of 500 acres of land "on the head of Pinetree Creek", Kershaw County, South Carolina by a "JOHN HORTON of the State aforsaid and CHESTERFIELD DISTRICT." on 27 January 1816 to a JOHN MORISON.

No information is available as to what occurred concerning the 500 acres of land, which is obviously the same 500 acres in both documents, between 24 October 1803 and 27 January 1816. Without a doubt, there were legal documents in the Chesterfield County Courthouse before 1865 covering the transfer of the 500 acres from the father, SAMUEL HORTON to the son, JOHN HORTON. ("All Chesterfield records were destroyed by fire in 1865" - See INTRODUCTION, SOME SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY RECORDS VOL. 1, Abstracted

by Brent Holcomb, 1976).

The only other data available that indicates a connection between JOHN HORTON and SAMUEL HORTON's family is the 1820 Census for Chesterfield County, South Carolina. (There are no HORTONS listed in the 1800 Census for Chesterfield County - only a HARDY HARTON, over 45 with 1 female, 26 to 44, in his household. John HORTON is the only HORTON listed in the 1810 Chesterfield Co, SC Census).

In the 1820 Census for Chesterfield County, SC, listed in the residence of JOHN HORTON are 2 males under 10, 1 male 10-16, 1 male 18-25, 3 males 26-45, 2 females under 10, 2 females 10-16 and 1 female 26-45. Obviously, the 1 male 18-25 and 2 of the males 26-45 were not JOHN HORTON's children. The other 3 males and 4 females do correlate as John's children, since he had 7 between 27 Mar 1808 and 02 Aug 1815, according to THE DESCENDANTS OF SALATHIEL HORTON, by Robert Edgeworth Horton, Sr., 1983

In the same 1820 Census for Chesterfield Co, SC, there is listed a RHODA HORTON. (Included herein is a Chesterfield County, SC, map from MILLS' ATLAS OF SOUTH CAROLINA 1825, which shows the location of the two HORTON residences - This map made in 1819 indicates the 2 HORTON families were there in 1818.). Rhoda was evidently the 1 female listed as over 45; others listed are 1 male 18-26 and 2 females 16-26. No other HORTONS were listed in Chesterfield County. No other HORTONS were listed.

In the 1830 Census for Chesterfield Co, SC listed under the residence of JOHN HORTON were 1 male 15-20, 1 male 20-30, 1 male 30-40, 1 male 40-50, 1 female 10-15, 1 female 15-20 and 1 female 50-60. One of the daughters, NANCY HORTON, married ASHIEL W. WASHINGTON THOMPSON before 1827. One son, William HORTON (20-30) was listed separately with female 15-20.

It can be postulated, very accurately, based on the preceding information, that sometime between 1803 and 1820 Rhoda HORTON and Samuel HORTON, with their family, lived in Kershaw County and/or Chesterfield Co, SC; that Samuel HORTON died before January 1816; that Rhoda HORTON lived in Chesterfield Co, SC with her family, and Rhoda HORTON either moved from Chesterfield Co, SC, to an unknown location or died sometime between 1820 and 1830.

AUTHORS' FOOTNOTE: Francis Allison Gregory and Robert Edgeworth Horton, Sr. met in April 1982, when Francis visited Bob in Raleigh, NC. Bob's Aunt (Francis' 2nd Cousin, once removed), Ella Valera Gregory (Mrs. Mark Hanna Mayfield), the coauthor with Lewis Joel Gregory of WILLIS GREGORY FAMILY HISTORY 1785 to 1968, coordinated/suggested the get-together. Since 1982 Bob and Francis have not personally met again, but they corresponded with each other and talked via telephone a number of times. All of the information in DAVID HORTON - DIED 1784 IN WAKE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA and in this document - THE HORTONS OF NANSEMOND COUNTY, VIRGINIA, AND WAKE COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA (1700-1800) has been derived between them.

Bob and Francis are 3rd Cousins through their GREGORY relationship. Bob's great grandfather, Thomas Twitty GREGORY, was a brother of Francis' great grandfather, Willis GREGORY, Jr. The common ancestor was Willis GREGORY; therefore, information concerning the family is contained in the WILLIS GREGORY FAMILY HISTORY 1785 to 1968.

Francis has a direct interest in the HORTONS, since a 4th Great Grandfather was William HORTON (c1739-c1834) of Surry Co, VA, and Lancaster Co, SC. There is no known direct relationship between the Chesterfield County, SC HORTONS, and the Kershaw/Lancaster Co, SC HORTONS. The Kershaw/Lancaster HORTONS ("THE HANGING ROCK HORTONS") are currently a primary genealogical puzzle for further research by Francis. Interestingly, one of the brothers of William HORTON left Lancaster County, SC in 1783/84 and purchased land in Wake Co, NC. This was Amos HORTON, who lived in Wake Co until his death in 1822 and had at least 7 children and 9 grandchildren. He was "lost" from the "HANGING ROCK HORTONS" until recently and he and some of his children have been included as a part of the Wake Co, NC DAVID HORTON descendants over the years because Amos HORTON lived close to David HORTON, Jr. and the two names were associated in two or more deeds.

** HORTON FAMILY INTERVIEW WITH MARY JO KING OF CHESAPEAKE, VA ****

Typed version of video taped interview with Mary Jo King.

Note: All bold words were spoken by Mary Jo King.

All other spoken words by Harold Horton or Myra Hester Warren.

Jesse Horton

We are here in Chesapeake, VA on Sunday, October 19, 1997. I am Myra Hester Warren of Birmingham, AL, and filming us today is Harold Horton of Jackson, MS. We are here to video tape our interview Mary Jo King at her home in Chesapeake, VA. We are all three descended from Jesse Horton, who is our great great great grandfather. Mary Jo, I was wondering if you could start with Jesse Horton and come down to your line to let us know how you descend from him.

Well, Jesse Horton was born in Hanging Rock, SC and then moved with his parents to Wake Co, NC and lived there for awhile. He then moved down to Blount Co, AL and then on to Greene Co, AL. Jesse married Sarah Elizabeth Chamblee, called Sallie. He was also married to Betsy Fowler and it is true that he was married to Betsy Fowler. There is a book on the Fowler Family, and in it they say that she was married to Jesse. They seem to think that she died in childbirth. They were only married about a year and then he married Sallie Chamblee. Sallie's father was Isaac Chamblee. and her mother was Lucretia Jones. They lived and died in Wake Co, NC. Jesse Horton moved to Pleasant Ridge, Greene Co, AL after he married Sarah Chamblee.

Myra, read the names of the children of Jesse and Sarah Horton, and Mary Jo correct her as she reads the names.

1. Jane Emeline Horton married Jesse Jones
2. Elizabeth Marcia Horton married first John Madison Henry and second to John William Slaughter.
3. Therza Horton married first to William Carpenter and second to John Bridges
4. Maria Horton married Henry Edwards
5. Mosey Horton married to Littleberry King
6. William Horton married first to Marcia L. Ford and second to Mary Emily Kirkland Tillman
7. John D. Horton (Jack) married first to Mary Coleman and second to Julia Holley
8. Candice Horton married George Rieves
9. Rebecca Horton married John Raleigh Brewer
10. Eliza Horton married William Buntin

Myra, give the dates of birth and death of Jesse and Sarah.

Okay, I show Jesse Horton was born on 7 Jan 1773 Hanging Rock, SC and died on 2 Aug 1850 Pleasant Ridge, Greene Co, AL. He married Sarah 15 Mar 1799 Wake Co, NC. Sarah was born about 1776 and died 17 Mar 1862. They are both are buried in the Horton Cemetery in Pleasant Ridge, Greene Co, AL.

And you and Mary Jo are from Molsay Horton and I am from Elizabeth Horton. And that makes Jesse our ggg grandfather...all three of us. Let's see, Bill Horton comes from William and Sue Horton comes from Elizabeth Horton.

Jesse was born in Hanging Rock, SC and moved with his father, Amos Jr. to Wake Co, NC and he lived there for several years and then went to Blount County, AL. The reason that I know this, is Laura Kate Eatman Gray, who was descended from William Horton, is the one who told me that. She has since passed away. She was doing quite a bit of the family history a long time before I even got into it. William Horton was Jesse's son and she is also kin to me on the Eatman side of the family. I corresponded with her for quite some time, and I finally got to meet her before she died. But anyway they moved up there and I know where Jesse's land was and when we go to NC, I plan on showing you where the property was. Then after they married, a group of them, who all the group was I don't know because Laura Kate said that a group of them left Wake Co and went by SC on the way to Blount County. They stayed there about two years, but they did not buy any property. They lived with relatives. From there they went on down to Greene Co. (You mean Jesse and Sarah?) Yes. Most of the records show her as Sallie, but her real name was Sarah Elizabeth. They had had all of their children by that time.

Boy, that must have been a project to take all of those children, and they traveled on horseback? They walked. A lot of them walked and took their cattle, sheep and dogs all of that with them. Can you just imagine that...no roads to have to travel like that? Well, it was bad enough when I used to go to Greene Co, AL. I can remember going with my father and mother from Charlotte, NC and everytime we came to a river or a creek, they had this flat barge and somebody either took you across the creek or you had these hand things where you pulled yourself across the creek, because they didn't have bridges back in those days all down through there. Blount Co and Greene Co were just isolated areas and they were beginning to build them up. Even when I was young, I can remember going through those areas. All the children that Myra called out earlier went with them. And they may have had others that they lost.

Bill Horton told me that Jesse owned the land patents in Pleasant Ridge and he was the first settler there. He owned the first rights to the land there and he lived across that creek there, that river and the Indians were on the other side. He used to have trouble with the Indians coming across and getting his cattle, chickens and all. They were pushing the Indians out from the time they landed in Surry and on down, the Indians were just going further and further and sometimes they even married a lot of them...the settlers did.

What was the year that they first got to Greene Co? 1823 or 1824. I know that Elizabeth was about 13 or 14 years old. Jesse owned quite a bit of property down there and he developed that land. And he was one of the fathers that developed Eutaw, Pleasant Ridge and Greene Co. Well back in those days an acre of land went for something like a dollar and a half or two dollars. His sons John D. and William Horton, both owned a tremendous amount of land in Greene Co. Along with Littleberry King...he owned a tremendous amount of land. Okay, now there were two Littleberry Kings. Some of that patent land was the older Littleberry King and he was across the Sipsey River. The older Littleberry King was about 20 years older than our Littleberry King.

Well, anybody in the Horton Family owes themselves a treat by going to Pleasant Ridge, AL and seeing the old Horton Cemetery and the cemetery at the Pleasant Ridge Church. Its quite a site to see. Okay, those stones at the old Horton Cemetery on Route 14 were made of concrete and those at Pleasant Ridge are made of marble. Jesse's has got to be made out of granite, 'cause as gooda shape as it's in.

Something that I would like to know, and I have asked you and Myra this before, on Sarah's tombstone there is a hand shake with one finger sticking out like this, and nobody seems to know why. Okay, do you think that's the Quaker reference. Sarah was supposed to be a Quaker and the picture that I have of her, she is in a Quaker outfit. So, it could be a Quaker thing. After they moved down there, there were no Quakers, so they started the Baptist Church. I have seen those tombstones in other graveyards, but I have not seen that one finger sticking our like that. It is very distinct with the handshake. I know some Quakers here. I'll see if I can put somebody on to it and find out about it.

Amos Horton, Jr.

Now, we would like to go back from Jesse to his dad, who was Captain Amos Horton, Jr. Would you tell us a little bit about him. Well, Amos Horton, Jr.'s father was Amos Horton, Sr. and his mother was Sarah Peebles. Amos Horton Jr. was born around 1735 in Surry Co, VA. He married the 25th of May 1767 in Brunswick Co, VA. He died 28 Mar 1821 in Wake Co, NC. His wife, was Ginney Peebles and she was Sarah Peebles niece. Amos Horton, Sr. married Sarah Peebles and her brother John Peebles was Jean/Jane Peebles father. Amos Horton, Jr. was a captain in the Revolutionary War. Yes, but that comes later. They lived up in Brunswick Co. and Surry Co. and moved around and bought and sold land. They didn't seem to stay in one area long, but they were in a certain vicinity for a good while, and then they moved about the time of the Revolutionary War down into Hanging Rock, SC, which is near Kershaw, SC. (Amos Jr.) Amos Sr. moved down there eventually, and he died down there. Oh, Amos Jr. moved down there first?. Right. Of course, Jesse was born in Hanging Rock, which is Kershaw Co, SC. Our GGG Grandfather, Jesse Horton was born in SC? Right. Then they moved back up to NC...is that correct? Well, after the Revolutionary War when he fought with Francis Marion in his Company in SC and I think he was a Colonel. He was under Colonel John Marshall in 1780 according to the SC Archives Department, but the group fought under Francis Marion, "the Swamp Fox". There are a lot of swamps down there in that area of Charleston where they fought. And they were constantly leading them (the British) astray and picking at them but they finally won.

Could you tell us who Amos Jr.'s children were? Myra, read the names that you have. Okay, and Mary Jo, please correct me if I have anything wrong.

1. Drury Horton married Elizabeth Wall
2. Sarah Horton married John Scarbrough
3. Jesse Horton married first Betsy Fowler and second Sarah Elizabeth (Sallie) Chamblee
4. Hartwell (Heartwell) Horton married Nancy Vaden
5. Samuel Horton Okay, now I question Samuel. I've never found any proof at all that Samuel was Amos Jr.'s son. The only thing I show is that Samuel and Hartwell were born at the same time, and that just can't be. I do question Samuel. I've never found any connection whatsoever. Although I do have him down because people have said that.
6. Rebecca Horton Now Rebecca Horton is not Amos Horton Jr.'s child. She is Ginny Peebles child. Ginny was married to Tooke first, and then she was married to William Ezzell. Rebecca and John are Ginny Peebles children. He is supposed to have asked for guardianship of these two children and they assumed the name of Horton. Down in SC they are known as Horton's. The rest of the children of Amos Jr. stayed up this way. Now John Peebles was in Hanging Rock, SC. Rebecca went with him up to NC. But they were not adopted. He only got guardianship, and one of these days I'm going to Southampton, which is not far from here and try to find those records and I'll know more about them later.
7. Aredy Horton married a Freeman. This is all I know about them. But I think that they stayed in that area.
8. Lavinia (Viney) Horton married John Peebles III
This is all of the children that I know about.

To the best of your knowledge, can you tell us where the rest of the children were located? Well, Jesse of course went to Greene Co, AL and Drury...I don't know where he went. Well, Bill Horton asked us that while we were up here, if we could find out about Drury, because he has nothing on him. Hartwell Horton stayed in NC, and we are going to visit some of his descendants. Sarah moved to Alabama with the Scarbroughs and they are buried there in Pleasant Hill Cemetery. Lavinia Horton, who married John Peebles III; I don't know where she went. John Peebles was born in 1781 in Wake Co, NC. and married in 1805. She was his second wife. He had been married before. Lavinia died in 1860, but I don't know where.

What else do you want to add to this portion of the interview? Well, I was just looking at some of the things that I have here. Did we mention the dates of Amos Jr.? Yes, and he was born in Surry Co, VA and married in Brunswick Co, VA. But he died in Wake Co, NC. They say that he is buried at the Hephzibah Church that we are going to visit. There are some old stones there that are not marked.. Well, this Red Horton that we are going to visit, said that at one time he knew who was buried under these rocks. But he said that he has been gone so long that he has forgotten all of them. I am in hopes that he will think of them. Paul Horton who was one of Hartwells descendants is the one who told me that he is buried at the church. He and she were both buried at the church. Paul would have been an uncle to this Red Horton that we are going to see.

Mary Jo can you tell us a little bit more about Amos Horton, Jr. and about the church down in SC. Okay, the old Hortons were buried in a Horton Cemetery outside of Hanging Rock, SC, and I don't know if there are tombstones there or not because I never got to that cemetery. I went down there during Thanksgiving and it was ice and cold and down to 25 degrees that day I was rambling around. It was just too cold to go to that one, but this is the picture of Hanging Rock Methodist Church that in the same vicinity, Kershaw, SC. That is the picture of the church which was established after the old church, Hanging Rock Methodist Church outside of Kershaw, SC. These would be descendants of Amos Horton Sr. because Amos Horton Jr. went to Wake Co and his children went with him. So these would be brothers and sisters of Amos Sr. And this is the picture of the cemetery and is the old part of the cemetery. I don't know when the church was established and the tombstones back behind that old one are the old Horton stones when the Church was first established. This is Hanging Rock, Kershaw Co, SC, south of York County.

Amos Horton, Sr.

From Amos Jr. we are going to go to Amos Sr. Would you tell us what you know about Amos Horton Sr. Well, Amos Horton Sr. was born about 1710 in Surry Co, VA and he died about 1791 in Lancaster Co, SC which is right near Kershaw Co, SC. He was married about 1730 in Surry Co, VA. You said that he was probably buried in SC? He's buried in SC because he owned property there. He went with his sons and their children from Brunswick Co to Kershaw Co. He is buried there, but we don't know about his wife, Sarah Peebles. She may have died in Surry Co, but nothing is mentioned in the deed of his down there and the property he owned, it only mentions Amos Horton Jr. and Amos Horton Sr.

Could you tell us about how many children and a list of their names? Well, Amos Horton Jr. was one, Henry Claiborne Horton who married Millie was one, Daniel Horton...now let's stop on that one there. This Daniel is a grandson of our Daniel Horton who was an immigrant? Yes, and this Daniel Horton married Mary Ezzell. I have tried for a long time to connect more of the Ezzells into the Horton Family, and I have not been able to do it. Then Jesse Horton was another child and I don't know who he married. Our Jesse Horton who was our GGG grandfather was named for this Jesse Horton, who was Amos Sr's son. Yes, and he was Amos Jr.'s child. Then there was a Rebecca also there was a William. And then a lot of people say there was a Thomas, who was a son of Amos Horton Sr., who married Orender Bush. I have not found any connection. If we don't have proof, we don't want to use it. And he did not go to SC with the family.

Do you know all total how many children Amos Sr. had? No, because I feel like that there are other children besides these. Because we've got some Horton's that we can get back just so far and they are named exactly like our family but we can't identify who their parents were so I feel like Amos Horton Sr. and Daniel Horton both had more children than we can not identify.

Do you know if Amos Horton Sr. had more than one wife? He only had one wife that I know of and her name was Sarah Peebles. In the deeds of Surry and Brunswick Cos. she is listed as his wife. But then when he goes down to SC, she is not listed. So apparently she must have died in Brunswick Co. Mary Jo, it would be interesting to go down there some day to look at all of those old cemeteries like you started doing and possibly find Amos Horton Sr.'s tombstone and grave. Well, I doubt if there would be a tombstone except a stone (unmarked).

Daniel Horton

Mary Jo, we are down in SC with Amos Horton Sr. I would like for you to tell us about his father, who was Daniel Horton. Am I correct? Right. When I was working on Amos Horton Sr. and Amos Horton Jr. I got into Albermarle Parish Register which is a book and it really gave a lot of the history of the family. That's Albermarle Parish, Surry/Sussex Co, VA. I began to question about Daniel Horton being the father of Amos Horton Sr. and I consulted with Laura Kate Eatman Gray, and I sent her the material that I had gotten and she agreed with me, that we felt that Daniel Horton was Amos Horton's father. The reason for that is some of these children such as Rebecca that married a Sledge, Sarah married a Collier and Elizabeth married an Ivey...all had children named Daniel, Jesse. They were all named the same names. So this is how we came up with the fact that Daniel was the father. Now, Daniel Horton came into Nansemond Co. 10 November 1674 according to the 'Cavaliers and Pioneers' which is a book that shows people who came into this country. Also, there is another book 'Immigrants' by Boddie, in Surry Co, and according to Volume 2, Daniel Horton came in under James Peters.

You say came in under James Peters, what are you talking about? If they could not pay their passage over, then there were people waiting at the dock who would pay their way over and these people got 50 acres of land for each person they paid for. And then each person had to work seven years as what they called an indentured servant and pay off that passage. Then they could go on about their lives after that. So from this James Peters, Daniel Horton went into the Isle of Wight County and Isle of Wight is between Nansemond and Surry County. He was in what is known as the Lawnes Creek area. Now that is another place like Albermarle Parish. Lawnes Creek...is that near any large town now? Smithfield in the Isle of Wight Co. Surry, VA is Surry Co. Its in between those two towns. Mary Jo, if you look at England, you will see Isle of Wight, south of London and makes you wonder if a lot of people didn't come from that area. The best I can find is that James Peters was of British descent and if he was of British decent and Daniel was indentured to him, it would make sense for Daniel to also be of British descent. Yes, Daniel Horton and the Hortons are from England. They are definitely from England. There is a house of Horton if you read Barnabas Horton's history, it tells you something about where they came from. Although we are not directly descended from Barnabas Horton. But that family did come from that area.

Do you agree that it is possible that Daniel Horton could be related to Barnabas Horton back in the old country? That it is a possibility? Right...but not direct descendent. Because Barnabas was here before our Daniel came over. According to the history of Barnabas, there is no Daniel.

Do you have the information as far as who Daniel married? All I know is her name was Martha and she show up in the Albermarle Parish Register of her being in Sussex Co. and being godparent to these Iveys, Colliers, and Sledges. This is why I jumped on that...with Martha's name being with Daniel's at the end. Then I went back and checked and I have the probate record of Daniel Horton with Martha listed as administrator, so that is definitely his wife. But we do not know who Martha is. With her being listed as probate, you would think that it would have her last name listed. Well, they have Daniel's listed as Horton and hers also. Maiden name, no. They didn't go by maiden names back in the records then. And I have hunted through all Ezzell history, and have hunted Carlisle's which were families there, and I've been through Rose's trying to connect her up with one of those and I haven't been able to do it.

Mary Jo, on Daniel Horton you told me that you know what river he came in on. Was that the James River? Oh yes, they came in on the James River. They came into the Chesapeake Bay and from there on up into the Elizabeth River and then the James River.

Do you know what ship? No, it is not listed. Okay, in 1711 Daniel Horton signed administrative returns of Robert Carlisle Sr. and this is one reason why that Martha could possibly have been a Carlisle. But I could not connect her up as having been married to him. In the 18th of June 1718, that was when Daniel Horton's estate settlement was done and Martha was listed as the administrator. It was witnessed by a John Weaver, a Nicholas Partridge, a Giles Underhill, William Thomas and John Simmons. Now, Giles Underhill's family went on down into Wake Co, and I have some records from them, but they are not in our family.

Mary Jo, do you have a record of any of the children of Daniel Horton? Yes, in the Albermarle Parish Register, the last record we have of Martha was when she was godparent to Henry, son of Hugh Ivey and Elizabeth, and he was christened on the 6th September 1740. She was a godparent along with John Thomason and William Craig and so therefore I feel that Martha died right after that. She lived 20 years after Daniel died. She definitely was younger than Daniel. But the last record we have of Martha was in 1740 when she was a godparent.

Okay, now the children of Daniel Horton that I have been able to identify through the Albermarle Parish Register are:

1. Amos Horton who married Sarah Peebles. I don't have any dates. This was way back before the census records were done.
2. Rebecca Horton married John Sledge, Sr.
3. Sarah Horton married John Collier, Sr.
4. Elizabeth Horton married Hugh Ivey. Now these are proven because their children's names are the same as our family.

5. But another one that I feel real sure of is Alexander Horton and there is a deed in 1724 of Lawnes Creek Parish, Surry Co, VA for 150 acres. He lived along the Nottaway River and the land that he got as 150 acres was a part of Benjamin Harrison's land patent. Okay, Alexander married Mrs. Sarah Bland New. Her father was Edward Bland and he was at Westover, Charles City. She married Edward New and had a son named John New so when Alexander married her, she had the one child. Between Alexander and Sarah, they had a son named Bland Horton and according to census there were two females that were their children too. There were three children in that family but I don't know what the females names were.

Mary Jo, you told me that Daniel came into the United States in 1674, then you said that his will was read in 1718. So that means that he was in the States approximately 44 years. Well, some came as teenagers, so he could have been 14 or 15 years old.

Do you have any other information that you would like to share with us on Daniel? No, I guess that is about it. I do feel sure about Alexander being one of his children.

In your many years of research, you do feel that Daniel is our immigrant. Yes, and I have had different people agree with me after I gave them all of my information. Seems that I have proved and disproved.

Mary Jo, I would like to talk to you a little about this picture album that Sarah Horton is holding in this picture. Sarah, of course, was Jesse's wife. Inside the front cover it says July 5, 1864 and if you turn it over, the first picture is a tintype of Sarah holding the book. Tell us where you got the book. The book was given to me by my aunt, Onie King Leach. The first picture and last in here are Horton's. This picture is John D. (Jack) Horton, Jesse Horton's son. This is a tintype just like Sarah's. All of these other pictures are of Kings. Sarah Elizabeth, after Jesse died, went to live with Littleberry and Molsay King, her daughter. I imagine this is why this was passed down to my family, since she lived with the Kings. This book must be about 150 years old.

From this tape we are going to Wake Co, NC, where Amos Horton, Jr. moved to from SC. We are going to try to see Red Horton, who is descended from Hartwell Horton, Amos Sr.'s son.

We are going to where Jesse Horton lived in Wake Co, NC. It is property that he got from his father, Amos Horton, Jr. Why would Jesse leave NC and go to Alabama? Well, people were moving in on them and they could get more land in Alabama.

Well, Mary Jo, it's been a great day taping this interview with you and we want to thank you for your time in doing this with us. And we will pass it on to the rest of the Hortons, Kings and anybody else that wants to listen. I appreciate your doing it for me.

Daniel Horton came into VA in 1674 as an indentured servant. He was an independent farmer renting land by 1699. My information indicates that he died in Surrey County, VA. His wife was godmother for several of their grandchildren in that area. Amos I moved to SC after his children were born. Of course early records were destroyed in the Late Unpleasantness of 1861 by elements of the United States Army under the command of William Tecumseh Sherman. Amos II was a captain of SC militia under Colonel Kershaw of Gen Francis Marion's command. Jesse was born in Hang Rock, Kershaw County, SC. Evidently Amos II moved to Wake County, NC after the First American Revolutionary War. I suspect that he may have gotten a land bounty for his service in the War. I have been unable to find record of his service or land bounty, either in the National Archives or South Carolina Archives.

Intense research by individuals in Virginia have failed to discover an American connection linking the Daniel Horton line of Surrey Co, VA with the Bamabus Horton line. Currently several researchers are endeavouring to make this connection in England.

Would like to expand my information on the Scarbroughs and David Horton of Wake. I found a deed tonight where David Horton sold 25 acres to Amos, so they must have been close neighbors. Also an examination of the will of Amos II fails to find a Jesse (Jyse) Scarbrough listed as a child of John and Sarah Scarbrough. I believe that their son William b1790 was the father of John Wesley Scarbrough who married Nancy Jane King, daughter of Littleberry and Moley Horton King of Pleasant Ridge in Greene County. Also buried in the Horton Family Cemetery in Pleasant Ridge are a Moses Scarbrough and his wife.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Δ 12. JESSE<sup>4</sup> HORTON II (AMOS<sup>3</sup>, AMOS<sup>2</sup>, DANIEL<sup>1</sup>) was born January 7, 1773 in Hanging Rock, Kershaw County, South Carolina, and died August 2, 1850 in Pleasant Ridge, Greene County, Alabama. He married (1) BETSY FOWLER 1798 in Wake County, North Carolina. He married (2) SARAH ELIZABETH CHAMBLEE March 15, 1799 in Wake County, North Carolina, daughter of ISAAC CHAMBLEE and LUCRETIA JONES.

Notes for JESSE HORTON II:

In 1800, the Jesse Horton household in Wake County, NC, consisted of Jesse, Sarah, Jane Emeline, and a young gentleman 16-26 years old, possibly one of Jesse's or Sarah's brothers. At this time Jesse owned no slaves. This same year Jesse served as the administrator of the estate of Isaac Chamblee his father-in-law, who died intestate that year. Jesse received 36 acres "in right of his wife."

In 1816 Jesse Horton was taxed for 259 3/4 acres (probably someone else's) plus 919 acres. In 1817 and 1818 he was taxed for only the 919 acres. In 1819 his taxable acreage was 1,161, as it was in 1820, plus 4 slaves.

In 1821 Jesse was taxed for 1,331 acres and 5 slaves. During this year Jesse served as executor of the estate of his deceased father Amos Horton (Jr.). According to the will of Amos Horton, written March 28, 1821 and was probated August 18 of that year. Jesse received "all my lands on the north side of the Road, by his paying Drury Horton $50, and also two negros Barn and Eady." In 1822 Jesse was not listed in the tax lists, having moved to Alabama, but in 1823-25 his brother Hartwell was taxed "for Jesse Horton" several hundred acres of land. Jesse had taken his slaves to Alabama.

In 1824 the Jesse Horton family, including 8 slaves, moved to Greene County, Alabama, settling in the vicinity of Pleasant Ridge in the northeastern corner of the county. Jesse appeared on the tax lists of Wake County, North Carolina, until 1822 when he possibly moved to Blount County, Alabama. In early 1826 Jesse travelled back to Wake County to sell the remainder of his land and settle his affairs in that state.

The 1830 Census of Greene County, Alabama, lists Jesse Horton with three sons (Jesse Habbord, 11, William, 18, and John D., 16) and three daughters (Elizabeth M., Mariah, and MaryAnn Rebecca) with his wife Sarah. Jesse owned 19 slaves at this time.

On December 1, 1830, Jesse acquired 79.87 acres of land in Pleasant Ridge through the Tuscaloosa Land Office. Jesse purchased 320 acres from David Scott and Edward Sims on August 4, 1831 for $1600. On January 10, 1832, he acquired 158.67 more acres nearby. Jesse gained 40.03 acres through the Tuscaloosa Office on March 30, 1837. Later that year, on August 18, Jesse purchased 235 acres from Albert, Hamilton, Mary, and Sarah McGowen for $2000.

In 1840 the Jesse Horton household consisted of Jesse, Sarah, William and his wife Marcia, and a boy 5-10 years old, possibly George Washington Horton, son of Elizabeth and John Henry. Jesse owned 23 slaves this year. On March 2 of this year Jesse purchased land from his son-in-law George W. Rives, husband of daughter Candice.

On April 21, 1841 Jesse purchased 285 acres from the Achilles Edwards estate for $1650. In June of 1847 Jesse conveyed through "natural love and affection" 240 acres along with three Negro slaves: Abe, 24, Harriet, 20, and Esther, 14 to his daughter Candice, wife of George W. Rives. These were put in a trust, with son John D. as trustee, for the life of Candice. The proceeds of these properties were to be conveyed to Candice or her heirs. Apparently about this time George and Candice moved to Morehouse Parish, Louisiana, and Jesse felt some need to provide for her.

By 1850, all the children were gone, and Jesse and Sarah lived on their plantation with 25 slaves, 13 of whom were of age to be field hands. In the 1850 U.S. Census Agricultural Returns, Jesse Horton is shown with the following, the yearly production for 1849:

- Land: 300 acres improved, 360 ac. unimproved, total value $7,980.00. (tot.660a)
- Equipment: $315;
- Livestock: 5 horses, 3 mules, 11 milk cows, 4 oxen, 26 other cattle, 35 sheep, 95 swine, total livestock value: $1,120.00
- Produce: 2,000 bu corn, 511 bu oats, 18 bales cotton, 50 lb wool, 50 bu peas, 10 bu potatoes, 350 bu yams (sweet potatoes), 150 lb butter, 200 lb honey.

Notes for WILLIAM HORTON VI:

William Horton was a very successful planter in Pleasant Ridge, Greene County, Alabama. He was born in Wake County, North Carolina in 1812.

When William was about 10 years old, the family moved to Alabama, settling eventually in Pleasant Ridge, Greene county, in 1824. In

The 1850 U.S. Census listed for William Horton the following, representing the land and production for 1849:

Land: 380 acres improved, 100 acres unimproved, total value: $3,600.00

Equipment: $635.00

Livestock: 5 horses, 10 mules, 10 milk cows, 6 oxen, 10 other cattle, 23 sheep, 80 swine, total value of livestock: $1,966.00.

Production: 40 bu wheat, 2,000bu corn, 50 bales cotton, 20 lb wool, 300 bu peas, 15 bu potatoes, 900 bu yams (sweet potatoes), 150 lb butter, 45 lb honey.

The 1860 U.S. Census listed for William Horton the following, representing the land and production for 1859:

Land: 1,000 acres improved, 1,100 acres unimproved, total value: $41,000.00

Equipment: $1,000.00.

Livestock: 13 horses, 32 mules, 13 milk cows, 8 oxen, 13 other cattle, 38 sheep, 350 swine, total value of livestock: $7,100.00.

Production: 300 bu wheat, 50 bu rye, 10,000 bu corn, 255 bales cotton, 69 lb wool, 1,000bu peas, 25 bu potatoes, 1,000 bu yams (sweet potatoes), 305 lb butter, 3 tons hay.

In 1859, according to unsubstantiated Pickens County newspaper, William Horton purchased "Sipsey Mills," located on the Sipsey River a few miles from Pleasant Ridge, from Colonel Lanier and his associates. The selling price of $10,000 was paid in coin. This quantity of hard cash could not be obtained in Greene or Pickens County, and William Horton travelled by streamboat to Mobile where, likely upon credit of sale of his cotton, he got this sum in coin and placed it in one or more nail kegs. On landing at Horton's landing at the Mouth of Sipsey after dark, William Horton, not wishing to travel after sunset, sat upon the keg(s) all night, by some accounts with his pistol drawn, until he could travel safely to the mill north of Pleasant Ridge and settle the agreement with Lanier and associates.

This mill was subsequently burned on the morning of April 6, 1865 by elements of the United States Army, under the command of Brig. Gen. Croxton, who had earlier burned the University of Alabama in Tusculoosa. In reports this mill is referred to as "Lanier's Mill" and "Sipsey Mills." There were apparently two mills on the Sipsey River about two miles apart. A quantity of bacon and flour were taken by Croxton's arsenists. Later that afternoon, while retreating back toward Northport, General Wert Adams' brigade of CSA cavalry engaged Croxton's brigade, driving the Lincolmites further toward Northport until they made a stand at Romulus. At least two ambulances and General Croxton's personal baggage wagon were captured by the Confederates. According to the "Military History of Mississippi 1803-1898" by Dunbar Rowland, the affair occurred thus:

"In the latter part of March, 1865, General Adams marched his brigade, including Wood's Regiment, from Jackson to Macon and West Point, to join General Forrest, and was ordered to meet Croxton's Brigade of the Federal expedition under General Wilson. Adams marched with his command from Columbus to Pickensville, April 5, and on the 6th attacked the rear of Croxton's column, causing it to turn from the Eutaw road toward Tusculoosa. Adams pursued through the day but could not force Croxton to turn and give battle until about dark, when the Federal cavalry halted in a very favorable position. They were soon driven by a gallant charge of Wood's Regiment, in which Captain Luckett fell, leading his squadron. Thence Croxton retreated on the gallop toward Tuscaloosa. The roads were almost impassable. Adams lost 9 killed and 25 wounded. The Federal loss he estimated at 75 killed and captured, and he took all the ambulances and personal baggage of General Croxton.

Colonel Moonman wrote from Canton (Mississippi) May 4: 'Should the war cease now you would have the honor of having won the last victory on Confederate soil and in the Confederate cause.' Thus was the battle near Pleasant Ridge which followed the destruction of the mill of William Horton which he had just purchased six years before.

Notes for MARY COLEMAN:

Mary Coleman Horton gave birth to an infant daughter which died or was still born. The date is unknown.
 Mary Coleman Horton died November 29, 1843, one month and one week after delivering Jesse Hubbard Horton, son who died 10 months and 13 days later on August 4, 1844. It is reasonable to speculate that Mary's death was due to complications of the delivery, possibly a pelvic infection, a common sequelae postpartum in those days. Jesse Hubbard was evidently a frail child to die at 10 months of age.

Children of JOHN HORTON and MARY COLEMAN are:

- i. INFANT DAUGHTER<sup>6</sup> HORTON.
- ii. ALONZA HORTON, b. 1838, Pleasant Ridge, Greene County, Alabama.

- v. LEONIDAS A. HORTON, b. 1842, Pleasant Ridge, Greene County, Alabama; d. February 9, 1863, Shelbyville, Bedford County, Tennessee.

Notes for LEONIDAS A. HORTON:

Private L(eonidas) A. Horton enlisted in Company B, 4th Battalion Mississippi Cavalry, on November 14, 1861 in Columbus, Mississippi, by Captain Yancey, for the period of one year. That same day he was appointed Sergeant. He appears on a muster roll of Company D, 8th Reg't Confederate Cavalry on September 1, 1862. This roll covered the period from January 1 to September 1, 1862. He was last paid by Captain Hamilton on January 1, 1862. On August 8, 1862 he was reduced to the ranks, though there is no indication of the reason of this reduction in grade.

This company was formerly Company B, 4th Battalion Mississippi Cavalry, and Company B, 2nd (Brewer's) Battalion Mississippi and Alabama Cavalry.

The 8th (Wade's) Regiment Confederate Cavalry (also known as the 2nd Regiment Mississippi and Alabama Cavalry) was formed in May, 1862, by the addition of three companies, which had formerly served in the 1st (Beall's) Battalion Alabama Cavalry, to the 2nd (Brewer's) Battalion Mississippi and Alabama Cavalry.

According to his messmate, J.A.G., Leonidas A. Horton "died of typhoid pneumonia near Shelbyville, Tennessee, February 9, 1863, son of John D. Horton of Greene County, Alabama, in the 21st year of his age.

"He was suddenly and violently attacked (by the typhoid pneumonia) and survived but the short period of ten days (i.e., he contracted typhoid on January 31, 1863). The deceased was a member of the McCaa Rangers, Company D, 8th Confederate Regiment of Cavalry. He entered service on his country for the war in the fall of 1861, under the gallant Captain McCaa. He was a faithful soldier performing all the duties required of him with cheerfulness. He shirked no duty when able to perform it. He was in most of the skirmishes that his command was engaged in and acquitted himself with honor. He was engaged in all the cavalry movements in the enemy's rear during the great fight at Murfreesboro and was near his beloved Captain when he fell, gallantly leading the charge against the Abolitionist legions near Levergne on the evening of January 1, 1863. In his company he was highly esteemed by his officers and fellow soldiers-- none knew him but respect him. As a soldier, he was gallant, patriotic, and generous; as a friend, he was true and obliging.

"Often has his sprightly wit caused the merry laugh to ring around the glowing camp-fire. Alas: we shall see his noble form and listen to his wit and merry laugh no more, for the brave soldier has left this land of war and trouble. Though far from parents and sisters yet he was affectionately cared for and I hope they will strive to meet their son and brother in the better world where war, death, and trouble will never enter."

Marriage Notes for BESSIE HORTON and EVERETT OWENS:

Everett was working as a clerk of a grocery store owned by William Taylor Horton and boarded with the Moses Hortons. Mose and Civille did not approve of the marriage so they eloped by taking the train from Eutaw to Meridian and were married by a justice of the peace.

They lived in a rented apartment behind the store until it was destroyed by a tornado shortly after they were married. They moved to a house near the Presbyterian Church and lived for a short while, then moved to the house about two miles north where they raised their family.

Notes for SARA LEE HORTON:

The following tribute to Sara Lee Horton was written by her niece, Marian Burke Treacle in August 1995:

Sara Lee Horton was born on January 19, 1901 at Pleasant Ridge, Greene County, Alabama. She was the fourth daughter born to Civille and Moses Horton. The birth of a son was to follow in a couple of years. Sara's father owned and operated a large cotton plantation, and until the boll weevil invaded and began to destroy the crops they must have enjoyed a comfortable and contented lifestyle. At that time and during the early years of the 20th Century, I have heard that Pleasant Ridge was quite a bustling community, with much of the life of the community centering around the activities of this historic Presbyterian Church where we now gather to celebrate the life of Sara Horton. Following the devastation of the cotton industry, Moses Horton decided to move his family to Tuscaloosa. Sara and her siblings attended school there where she later earned a Bachelor of ARts degree from the University of Alabama. In later years she also was granted a Master's Degree in Education from the University of Maryland.

For a number of years, Sara lived in Miami, Florida where she was a teacher of Home Economics at Miami Beach High School.

World War II was approaching and she decided to join a branch of the service, choosing to become a WAVE in the United States Navy. Sara served stateside at several Naval Air Stations and eventually attained the rank of Lieutenant.

Following her discharge from the Navy, Sara again returned to teaching for a brief period, deciding later to become a Home Demonstration Agent living in various places and traveling throughout the State of Florida before settling in West Palm Beach as her last post. There she built a home for herself where she enjoyed a full life with many friends for about twenty years. Active in church work, she remained a devout Presbyterian throughout her lifetime. She chose as her final home Westminster Towers Retirement community in Orlando, where she spent the final 18 years of her life.

Sara was a happy person and she did much to bring warmth and cheer to her side circle of friends and her family to whom she was extremely devoted. She was always there for all of us and she will be sorely missed, but we will hold fast to the memory of Sara and what she meant to each of us in our lives.

The following was written by Sara Lee Horton in October 1978:

"Most of the material related here was given me by Aunt Mary, my father's only sister; some was gleaned from conversations of my father. Most of the dates were copied by me from tombs in the Horton family cemetery and Pleasant Ridge cemetery, both in Greene County, Alabama.

"Amos Horton, our great, great grandfather was a captain in the Revolutionary War under General Marion. However, some family tradition said he had charge of the First Militia of South Carolina during the war. One note I have said his name have been Jesse or William. The Hortons are supposed to have settled in Virginia prior to residence in South Carolina. I have a number of references, documented by courthouse and parish records of Hortons in Virginia prior to South Carolina dates. It is interesting that the names William, Jesse, and Amos, frequently used in our family, occur in them.

Jesse Horton, our great grandfather was born in Hanging Rock, South Carolina. He moved to North Carolina where he married Sarah ("Sallie") Chamblee. They had three sons and nine daughters. Aunt Mary could recall only eight of their names. Two of them were married to Berry King (?), and after one of the weddings, he took his bride home on horseback in front of him! (?) Jesse moved to Alabama about 1820 or 1822, perhaps as early as 1816 or 1818, and settled near Blount Springs, Blount County, Alabama. Two of the sons, William (my grandfather) and "Jack" moved to Greene County, Alabama, when quite young. They were the first white settlers of the county and entered a section of land from the Government. At the time, there were many Indians in the County, William became a very wealthy planter, owning 100 slaves. During our childhood there were still a number of negroes named Horton living around Pleasant Ridge.

William Horton, our grandfather, was born near Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina. He was married twice-first to Marcia Ford, then to Mary Emily Kirkland Tillman (our grandmother) who was a widow with one daughter, Ophelia. From his first marriage, there were six children and seven from the second. All the children received a good education at the Archibald Academy (Union Academy) at Pleasant Ridge, a well-known institution in that region with many boarding students coming from the surrounding country. Three pursued further study. William became a dentist, Mary graduated from the Tuscaloosa Female College in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and Clarence, after attending the University of Alabama, completed his study of medicine at Heidelberg University in Heidelberg, Germany. Our father, Moses, "read law" (the procedure for studying law then) in a judge's office in Eutaw, but never took the state bar to become a licensed practicing attorney.

Since many years have elapsed, perhaps I can relate with impunity a couple of "family skeletons" which I've heard from Papa and Aunt Mary. Their half-sister, Martha Jane, affectionately called "Sis Matt," was married to Dr. (Isaac Newton) Snedikor. When her father died, she inherited quite a bit of money, but as women in that day were not allowed to own anything in their own names, it was all in Dr. Snedikor's name. One day she asked him for a check for $50, as I recall the amount, which she proceeded to raise to $500 or $5000, thus retrieving some of her own money back. With this, she bought a dilapidated piece of property in Birmingham, improved and sold it for a profit. Repeating this idea several times made her a very wealthy woman. Somewhere along the line, she divorced Dr. Snedikor-an unheard-of act in those days! Aunt Mary and my father spoke with great admiration of "Sis Matt's" astuteness, but on other occasions Papa would say "Sis Matt is the devil." When I was a teenager, he remarked sometimes that I was like "Sis Matt" then to tease him I'd ask, "Smart or the devil?" I have a small daquerreotype of her given me by Aunt Mary because of my resemblance to her.

Money often creates controversy in families-ours is no exception. At the time of my grandfather's death, there being no banks then, money was kept on a big iron safe at home. Uncle Amos was executor of the estate of which, at the time, he was heavily indebted. Finally, our grandmother (Amos' stepmother) had him hlegally removed as executor, but he meerged owing the estate nothing and a very wealthy man! He was a pompous individual, living the life of a Southern gentleman with fine saddle horses and a large pack of blooded fox hounds. Aunt Carrie (Amos' second wife) resented the money he paid for them. Once when he paid $75 for one, she was so angry she went out and paid $40 for a hat! When I was 8 or 9, he gave me my very first ready-made dress- a white organdie with tiny tucks, lace and a berth. I must have been very proud of my "store-bought" dress for a group photograph of us cousins at this time shows me on the first row decked in the white organdie in the dead of winter.

In 1939, Aunt Mary and I visited Peasant Ridge together. She took me to the old Horton family cemetary I'd never known existed before. Here in the middle of a cotton field, across the highway from where Grandpapa's home once stood (it was burned in 1938 by arson), was an oasis of trees. As we drew near, among the brambles and briars, could be seen many old tombs- some still standing, many tumbled and the inscriptions illegible. Hortons of several generations rest there including our great grandfather Jesse, and his wife, Sarah."

of Tidewater, VA. Bob proposes that his SC<sup>(2)</sup> group of Hartens descend from Samuel Harten, son of David Harten, Sr b 1724.

Let me present a sketch based on your letter and then pose a question or two:

I. Daniel Harten d 1716 (Surry Co, VA)

A. David Harten

B. Amos Harten, I

C. Rebecca Harten md John Sledge, I, son of Charles Sledge

D. Joseph Harten

1. David Harten, Sr b 1724

a. David Harten, Jr

1. Littleberry Harten
md () Penelope Pierce

b. Samuel Harten

QUESTIONS / COMMENTS

#1 your records and mine indicate you and Doug descend from Littleberry Harten - but you also indicate that you two were also descended from Amos Harten, I. Can you explain the Amos Harten, I part?

#2 In some records I show Penelope Pierce "Penny" as Penelope PEARCE - If the latter is correct we can do a lot of checking about her lineage back to the 4 PEARCE brothers who were in Franklin Co, NC in the mid 1700's and who had a close relationship to my Upchurch ancestors.

#3 Re Rebecca Horton who Mr John Sledge, I<sup>o</sup>. This is indeed my wife's line - but with a question. Enclosed is a 3-Page Sledge Family Tree. Note that the John Sledge & Charles Sledge parts fit with details in your letter including the location of Sandy Co, VA. The problem is that the Sledge Tree shows John Sledge named Rebecca Mary not Rebecca Horton. I hope we can resolve this. One could make a number of guesses - maybe Rebecca Horton named first a MR MAURY and then named John Sledge. But - maybe you have facts.

Like you I feel we must somehow be cousins - but a look at my records does not bring any specific common ancestor for us to the fore. However, the family lines that are of interest to us both lived essentially in the same area at the same time I searched my Liles, Stockland, Pace, Scarborough, Hays, and Edwards lines and did not find useful family associations as related to our mutual interests. However, I am sure there are some there. A review of my 500+ Horton papers may considerably more productive. I found numerous cases where the Norton and Upchurch families were linked. I selected 20 such Biopics which are presented in order for your amusement/use/whatever. I excluded Norton/Upchurch interactions outside of NC although some of these Biopics might also be of interest to your broader treatment of the Norton Family. For each of the 20 Biopics enclosed you will note an XID in the upper right-hand corner. This means the individual involved is a member of the Extended Upchurch Family by one means or another (marriage, adoption, direct descent, etc). Please let me know if you have questions about any of these. A special comment about XID-904 + 905. These were children of Sally Chamber and a Dr Charles T. H AUGHTON (NORTON). The Dr went off to the Civil War from Western Wake Co, NC & was killed in the war in 1862. His widow married a young local boy William Buster Upchurch, I who became quite a local success. This W. B. U, I was my father's 2nd cousin. I see quite a romantic tale here with the young boy marrying the widow - but it is all a matter of imagination and speculation.

The Biopiles are for: Annie Theresa, Betty, Bessie for Charles Wayne, Cleo, Edna, Evelyn, Helen, Herby, Ida Blanche, Ida M, John Thomas, Margaret Ann, Mary, Nellie, Pauline, Thurman Miller, Virginia, William Wayne, and the others. Supplementary related names are embedded in these Biopiles.

Three Biopiles for Hartam with no known Upchurch connection are enclosed because they are generally interesting. They are for Ernest, Ernie, and Ernie Clarence.

Dan, I am sorry I do not have Internet connections / EMAIL. It seems we do have a lot of potential mutual interest. At the same time one understands that we are both engaged in a variety of matters. Even if we had nothing to do but Family History the challenge that readily come to mind exceeds one's capacity. I'll be glad to hear from you at your time and interest permit and hope we can continue to be helpful to one another from time-to-time.

Sincerely yours

☺ Phil Upchurch
