FRANK W. DVORAK

Frank W. Dvorak, Lt. Col. Ret. U.S. Airforce, 96, of 804 Cricketfield Lane, Cary, died Sept. 1. He was preceded in death by his wife, Audrey Leu Dvorak, to whom he was happily married for 40 years. He is survived by his children, Elizabeth D. Little, F. Thomas Dvorak and Robert M. Dvorak; his grandchildren, Elizabeth B. Little, Michael F. Little, Andrea L. Dvorak-Grantz, Rosemary K. Little-Wensley, Allison M. Dvorak, Bobbi M. Dvorak and Mark A. Little; one great-grandchild, Sarah E. Little.

He was a dedicated officer and decorated war veteran, serving in the U.S. Air Force for over 30 years. Following his distinguished military career, he served with the Department of Defense at the Pentagon, Washington, D.C.

He was an accomplished scholar and athlete, participating with the U.S. Military team as an Olympian. He served as faithful navigator of the Edward O'Neil Assembly of the Pompano Beach Branch of the Knights of Columbus. He will be remembered for strength of character, capacity to love, courage and tenacity. He was a generous and loving father and grandfather, and will be greatly missed by his family.

A funeral mass was held at St. Andrews Catholic Church in Apex on Sept. 4. Internment will be held at Arlington National Cemetery with full military honors.
