Mayoral candidate arrested

E.G. Eakes, one of three candidates for mayor of Zebulon, was arrested early Tuesday morning by Zebulon police officers for being drunk and disruptive and making harassing phone calls.

Eakes resides at 902 W. Gannon Ave.

"Apparently, Mr. Eakes had made three or four phone calls to the communications center (911) in Raleigh," said Zebulon Chief of Police J. Wayne Medlin Tuesday afternoon. "They then contacted us. When our officers confronted him, he didn't give them any problems."

The incident occurred at about 2:15 a.m. at Eakes Service Center and Oil Co. on North Arendell Ave-

Eakes was taken to the Wake County Jail and placed on a $375 secured bond. He was bailed out late Tuesday morning.

Last Thursday, Eakes formally filed as a contender for Zebulon's upcoming mayoral race. As of press time, he had not made a statement about his candidacy.

Dear Edna Earl,

Thank you for your letter of November 4, 1982 and for all of the details. I have found time now to extract the information and to record it. I have written to Mrs Robert Fosater in Charlotte and hope to get more details from her.

I was particularly pleased to learn ~~that~~ about Joseph Bell Fosater. The fact that he died young probably explains why he and Quetta U had only two children.

It is possible that you may have some more information that is not available elsewhere. As soon as I hear from Mrs Robert Fosater I will be able to see what bits are still missing.

Thanks again for your help and All the Best for the New Year.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mrs. Upchurch,

I hope I have answered your questions about our family. Some of this information I got from -

Mrs. Harold S. Lasater

Rt. 1, Box 169

Moncure, N.C. 27559

Before I could do much checking my husband's sister (Elizabeth Lasater Lynch) lost her husband and she came to live with us. Mrs. Roberts Lasater of 3525 Havenwood Rd., Charlotte, N.C. 28205 went to see Mrs. Harold Lasater and was allowed to copy all the information Mr. & Mrs. Harold Lasater had collected on the Lasater family. Mrs. Harold Lasater died before he assembled this information in book form. Robert Lasater and my husband are first cousins.

Bunn High class together again after 40 years

The 1955 class of Bunn High gathered June 17 in the cafeteria to celebrate its 40th reunion.

Fifty-seven people attended, including class members, spouses, friends, and teachers Jean Hinnant, Johnny Alford and Betty Sanders Abernathy.

Betty Rose Upchurch Privette, current school secretary and one of the classmates, gave a tour of the school facilities. The tour was especially meaningful, said class members, since the original building has been scheduled for demolition by October. A meal of barbecue and fried chicken was served. Wayne and Dale Gay Perry provided dessert.

Several class members were given T-shirts decorated with the Bunn High bulldog mascot for the following awards: class member who lives closest to the school; class member who traveled the farthest to attend the reunion; class member with the most children; class member with the most grandchildren; and the male and female class member who changed the least. The T-shirts were donated by Phillip and Jeanie Price McClellan.

Donnie Perry read the class prophecy. Rose Winstead Lloyd read the class history. Wayne Perry led a recognition for deceased members — Jimmy Sykes, Langford Baker, Ted Edwards and Harold Mullen. Candles were lit in their memory. Members expressed memorable experience while attending BHS and talked about the last 40 years.

Decorations included posters of superlatives, boys/girls basketball teams, teachers and administrators. Tables were accented with candles and bouquets of magnolias. The focus bouquet was a large basket of red roses, the class flower, with a giant "40" rising above the arrangement. Members listened and danced to '50s music on the jukebox.

The general co-chairmen were Ms. McClellan, Ms. Perry and Willie Brantley Williams; treasurer and location/contact committee: Wayne and Dale Gay Perry; food committee: Gene and Carolyn Baker Mullen, and Billy and Rose Winstead Lloyd; entertainment committee: Donnie and Lynda Perry, and Henry Mullen; decorating committee: the McClellans, and Ronnie and Nancy Tant; invitation/name tag committee: John and Willie Brantley Williams. Thirty-four class members attended from a total graduating class of 54.
