Dear Gerry,

Thanks so much for your letter of 31 MAY 1995 and for the photo about Kevin Upchurch. This makes 5 individuals with this name in my files. He could be one of the other four but I can't be sure. I'll keep working on his identity. I really appreciate having clippings like this for my files. It was kind of you to send it.

We have just returned from a 15 day family history trip through TN and NC. It was very informative - and now I have tons of information to process. I have been putting a high priority on getting into the real estate business. It certainly keeps one busy.

Our farmers have been too used to plant corn until today. We have only a few days left until it will be too late.

The changes you mentioned for the COA are not a surprise. It is to be expected that a new person in charge will make Changes. The whole development and alumni proven was one I enjoyed very much. It would have been nice if I could have stayed another ten years. I say that because it becomes clear in due course that this is the sort of work where you need a long time frame in which to become effective. You realize this in your continued association with the more mature supporters with whom you continue to work. If asked,

 I would advise any Dean to appoint a 30 year old person as leader of development and let them gain 40 years experience.
 It takes a long time for development work to unfold and yield results. You and I know that only too well.

Our new life is very good - but I can now see what you and others told me about retired people are busier than people who have a regular job.

My best to you and Rex.

☺ Sincerely yours
 Phil Upchurch

Dear Phil & Sallaine,
Thought you might be interested in the picture which appeared in yesterday's Arizona Star. I would like to know if Kevin (if church) is related to you two.
Have you had much flooding on your farm? Our farm south of Manhattan and southwest of Topeka in Kansas has received many inches of rain recently.
To update you, Phil, John Enger's grand Washington State University begins June 5, as Ed. Dir. of 4-4 yth Ind. and Development College Day (a 60%-70% position) I shall be quite busy! David Sharp is planning to discontinue sustaining membership! Beginning July 1, I'll be calling only our oldest (older) alumni as when the time goes by the great beyond the time the future in D.V.!! Write soon!
