Roberson, Griswold exchange wedding vows

Patricia Brantley Griswold of Zebulon and Elton Manning Roberson of Zebulon were united in marriage July 8 at Zebulon United Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Tommy Privette.

Presented in marriage by sons Chuck Griswold and Ken Griswold, the bride wore a long-sleeve ivory suit.

She was attended by bridesmaids Dana Griswold, Kim Griswold, Debbie Roberson and Tracy Roberson.

Other attendants were grandchildren Megan Roberson and Taylor Griswold.

Ushers were Chuck Griswold, Ken Griswold, Art Roberson and Blake Roberson.

Wedding music was presented by Jill Bunn, pianist and organist; Jim and Susie Powers, vocalists; and Bonnie Temple, chiming of the hour.

Register and program attendants were Paula Green, Amy Acevedo and Susan Howard. Jean Liles directed the wedding.

The bride is a former teacher at Zebulon Elementary School. She retired in June.

Her husband is a teacher and coach at East Wake High School.

After a wedding trip to the coast of North Carolina, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Zebulon Lions Club Building. Greeters were Billy and Betsy Green.

Goodbyes were said by Franklin and Judy Eddins, Mary Lib Privette, and Tom Evans.

Wedding-day breakfast

The children and grandchildren of the bridal couple-elect hosted a wedding-day breakfast at Robinwood in Wendell.

Rehearsal party

An after-rehearsal dance party was held at the Zebulon Lions Club Building. It was hosted by friends and relatives of the bridal couple-elect.

The Log Cabin Steak House in Smithfield was the setting for a dinner party honoring Kimberly Wynn of Raleigh and Chuck Griswold of Zebulon on Nov. 2.

The party was hosted by Griswold's neighbors, Mary Kemp Allison, Joyce and Ralph Alford, Margaret Bowling, Mary Kay and Perry Grogan, Alice and Jimmy Harris, Bernice Hepler, Ruby and Crafton Hudson, Lois and Chuck Kinnemur, Ruby and Wayne Perry, Bobbie Lou and George Massey, Lee Murray, and Jean and Lawrence Liles.

Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented a corsage of silk orchids and the bridegroom-elect received a rose boutonniere. Shirley Winn and Patricia Griswold, mothers of the couple-elect, were also remembered with silk orchid corsages.

The serving tables were covered with white tablecloths featuring runners of ivy and burgundy mums. Crystal candlesticks and votives with burgundy candles on beveled mirrors highlighted each table.

Guests were served prime rib, baked potatoes, apple rings and buffet tossed salads. A special cake decorated in white, burgundy and green was served along with ice cream for dessert.

Approximately 25 guests attended. The neighbors presented the couple-elect a three-piece silver service.

On Nov. 9, Miss Wynn and Griswold were the honored dinner guests of Jane and Jim Driver.

The menu consisted of broccoli soup, chicken in sour cream, cheesy potato casserole, string-bean casserole, stewed apples and yeast rolls. Chocolate cheesecake was served for dessert.

Other dinner guests included the mother of the bridegroom-elect, Ken Griswold and Dana Richardson.

The couple-elect were remembered with an open vegetable bowl in their chosen pattern.

Miss Wynn was honored with a miscellaneous breakfast shower on Nov. 24 at The Meeting Place restaurant in Wendell.

The event was hosted by Jane Strickland, Linda Creech, Margaret Williams, Trudy Watkins, Margaret Cannady, Sherri Duni-gan, Susie Roberson, Virgie Mason, Jean Amos, Becky Spivey, Julia Creech and Donna Creech.

The bride-elect, her mother, and the mother of the bridegroom-elect were presented silk corsages upon arrival.

The candlelight breakfast buffet consisted of eggs, bacon, sausage, grits, hash browns, biscuits with assorted jellies, fresh fruit, coffee and juice.

Miss Wynn was presented a place setting of the couple-elect's chosen china pattern by the hostesses and other miscellaneous gifts by the guests. Approximately 35 people attended.
