

I. Introduction

a. Name of cemetery: Inwood Baptist Church Cemetery (the church itself is now known as "The Point")

b. Location of cemetery: 3700 Lake Wheeler Rd, Raleigh, NC 27603; map:

<http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=crMap&CRid=2149097>; GPS Coordinates: Latitude: 35.73107, Longitude: -78.68328

c. Origins of cemetery: "On part of the property donated by W. G. Upchurch and B. J. Upchurch the church established a cemetery. The minutes do not refer to any decision to do so, and neither they nor the church rolls refer to the death of any member before 1885. Yet, in February, 1883, they asked W. G. Upchurch for more land "so that burial ground could be enlarged." There is no evidence of any immediate response from Upchurch, but apparently his response was in the affirmative. In November, 1886, a committee of five (S. Otho Wilson, N. H Strother, R. P. Jones, B. J Upchurch, an A. Betts) was appointed to draft a plan for the management of the cemetery lots... At the next meeting the committee reported and was instructed "to go forward with the work of laying out and adorning" the cemetery...and for establishing and enforcing the regulations for the use of the lots. Slightly more than a year later, on May 7, 1887, "Bro. A. Betts reports for Bd. of Trustees that deed to __acre of land from Brothers B. J. and W. G. Upchurch has been duly recorded."

"The space for the cemetery which the church had acquired at the time it was organized proved to be insufficient. On March 26, 1910, the cemetery committee was instructed to raise necessary funds to purchase more ground if advisable." At the next meeting they were authorized to do as they thought best in regard to purchasing additional land." But was land purchased? The records are silent. It is probable, however, that enough land was secured to give temporary relief for what apparently was becoming an urgent problem."

d. Ownership status and survey status: In December 2015 the Inwood Baptist Church merged with The Pointe Church. In effect Inwood ceased to exist and ownership of all church assets are now vested in the new church.

Entries of individuals buried at Inwood began with information found at Findagrave.com; specifically for Inwood Baptist Church Cemetery: <http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=cr&CRid=2149097>; additional information on individuals buried at Inwood taken from records found on Ancestry.com, familysearch.org, and general Google searches.
