Consider not the spelling: Where there are recorded land grants, deeds, and wills, there is various spelling on the same page - Johnstone, Johnson, Johnson - and our forefather Tapley Johnson's name is spelled every way it could be spelled, including Tarpley - Taply, Tapply, Taple, Tapley, and Tappley. And the spelling Johnston was used more frequently until about 1800; the spelling without the "T" was more often used after that date.

Tapley Johnston's name appears first in Johnston County in 1786, "on the 20th of October...Joseph Irby for the sum of 80 £...sold unto the said Taple Johnson a certain tract or parcel of land lying in the County of Johnston on both sides of Black Creek containing 800 acres. Witness: Mark Myatt".

The first land grant to Tapply Johnston is 200 acres lying in Cumberland County on Cooper's Branch...issued in 1789 by Governor Samuel Johnston. The Grant had been entered in 1780. And subsequently there are five other Grants to him totaling 1265 acres - on Hughes Creek, Hectors Creek, Buies Creek, Neils' Creek, Thornton's Creek, Mill Creek (now Avents Creek), Little Creek and Black River, - through the year 1807. During that period of twenty years, it is recorded that he acquired by Grant and deed 3653 acres of land near the waters of the Cape Fear, in the vicinity that is now Averasboro, Erwin, Buies Creek, Lillington, Cokesbury and Kipling. *

There appears no sale, but in the years 1814 and 1818 he deeds land to his four children - William, Tapley, Jr., Sarah, and Betsy.

He like other men of ability in his day was appointed to select and build ferry crossing on the Cape Fear, to lay out and overseer roads, to prove deeds or wills; serve as Superior Court Juror at Wilmington, as bondsman and other like services that were common in his day.

We do not know when or where he married Lydia Matthews, but the story is told of his proposal. Lydia was putting down a hoe cake on the griddle over some coals on the hearth. The inspiration for a practical helpful wife overtook him and he patted her shoulder and said, "Lydia, will you have me?" Lydia patted the bread and replied, "Hush Tapley, hush!" And the patting pursued with, "O, Lydia, won't you have me?" and "Hush, Tapley, hush!" until the bread was all patted into the fire... when they faced their embarrassment, they laughed and decided to stop fencing with each other and face life together.

To this union we have a record of four children - two boys and two girls. William who married Goodin Carter; Elizabeth married Jesse Branch, but lived only a short time. Sarah married Joel Prince, and the youngest child, Tapley Ormond Johnson, Jr., married Mary (Polly) Atkins.

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 are representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

⁵⁷ Standard (s-w), May 31, 1851; Register (s-w), Jan. 9, 26, Feb. 9, 1856, Jan. 2, 1858. Lacking Raleigh business directories for the 1850s, the list of more than 70 merchants and tradesmen signing the resolutions at the Jan. 1858 meeting presents an informative cross-section of late antebellum businessmen (and one businesswoman): A. Notes
Sally had her daughter Lela Irwin Hines send my mother Sarah Upchurch Osborne's accordion. My mother still has it. Both Sarah and my grandfather Morgan could play it

I have a copy of Sally's death certificate from Alleghany County. It says she was born in Ashe County. I wonder if this is accurate. Her siblings seem all to be born in Alleghany County.

Sally and her husband are buried in Prather's Creek Cemetery in Laurel Springs, Alleghany County, NC.
