SEE LTR 19 OCT 2001 JOHN READ U TO RPU RE A 13 ITEM REPORT OF NANCY CARTER MOORE RE BRUNSWICK CO, VA RECORDS POSSIBLY BEARING UPON JOSEPH U b 1775 (VA) - RPU COMMENTS:

- 3 From wills and deeds, I know that Michael Upchurch lived on the south side of Eaton's Road in 1784, near Middle Run. His neighbors were Valentine White, Thomas Parham, Lewis Dupree, Thomas, Isaac, and Benjamin Mosely. MICHAEL U, III XID-159 HIS LOCATION & NEIGHBORS 1784
- 6 By 1777, Michael/Myal Upchurch's neighbors were BARTHOLOMEW UPCHURCH, Matthew Rainey, Thomas Bracy, and Allen Love. This deed is from "Daniel Burnet and his wife Elizabeth of CHATHAM Co. NORTH CAROLINA to Thomas Smith of Chatham County, N.C.," and it was land already lived on by Joyce Burnet, at the head of Poplar Creek. MICHAEL U, III XID-159 BARTHOLOMEW U IS NEW !! NEED DEED TO VERIFY THIS NEW UPCHURCH FAMILY MEMBER - LOCATION 1777
- 7 Another 1777 deed of gift from William Brewer and his wife Mary to John Brewer is for "518 acres which was William Brewer's dec'd plantation, on the south side of Rattle Snake Creek joining William Jones, Henry Ledbetter, UPCHURCH'S BRANCH, and James UPCHURCH. JAMES U IS PROBABLY JAMES U, III AS HIS BIRTH HAS OTHER REFERENCES TO RATTLE SNAKE CREEK & RATTLE SNAKE CHURCH; HOWEVER CANNOT YET RULE OUT HIS 1ST COUSIN JAMES U, II WHO LIVED IN THE SAME ERA & AREA
- 9 There was also a THOMAS UPCHURCH in Brunswick in 1776, as he is a witness to the will of Thomas Lambert. THIS THOMAS U IS NEW COPY OF WILL TO VERIFY DETAILS. TO RPU RECORDS, NEED WITNESS A WILL IN 1776 HE COULD HAVE BEEN THE FATHER OF JOSEPH U b 1775 !! THOMAS PROBABLY AT LEAST 21 IN 1776 HENCE BORN 1754 OR BEFORE
- 10 Everybody over 16 had to do road work in the 1700s in VA, or have a slave do it. Some of these records have survived, and on September 7, 1738, JAMES UPCHURCH and WILLIAM UPCHURCH were removed from Francis Wray's road crew and placed on William Mosely's road crew. So, WOW, these Upchurches were there early enough to be Joseph's father, that is for sure! In Brunswick County Court records, William was added to a list of tithables in 1736, SO THIS IS WHEN HE BECAME 21. THIS INFO IS NEW TO RPU, BASED ON AGES THIS JAMES U IS ALMOST CERTAINLY JAMES U, I XID-151
- ALTHOUGH THERE IS SOME CHANCE IT COULD BE HIS SON JAMES U, II XID-154. THIS WILLIAM U IS A GOOD FIT TO BE WILLIAM U, I XID-3343, A BROTHER OF JAMES U, I - XID-151
- 12 In a November pre-election (of burgesses) in Brunswick, the only Upchurches on the list were JAMES UPCHURCH Sr. and MICHAEL UPCHURCH. THIS REFERENCE IS NOT DATED BUT ANOTHER CITATION IN RPU SHOWS JAMES U REGISTERED TO VOTE FOR BURGESSES IN 1748 - PROBABLY ALL THE SAME HENCE JAMES U, SR = JAMES U, I (SR) XID-151 & MICHAEL U = MICHAEL U, III XID-159

NOTE: NANCY WRITES IT WOULD BE HELPFUL TO FIND JOSEPH U b 1775 LISTED IN SOME OF THESE VA RECORDS - THIS IS POSSIBLE BUT NOT LIKELY AS HE LEFT VA AS A TEENAGER OR YOUNG MAN - RPU

 Concerning a possible family history trip to Alabama

CROSSFILE:

PICKENS CO, AL

JUDGE ISAACS ↑

RALPH LIVERMAN

JAMES ROY TAYLOR

I do not know how to advise on your possible trip to Alabama. Yes, there is a lot of information there, but you will probably have problems with the options you listed. I doubt you could find enough interested people to hold any kind of lecture, for

- this is an extremely rural area.
- our Upchurch family is just not there any more and what does remain is getting smaller and older.
- in my past experiences, the historical society in Eutaw is primarily just a social club; but I do not know about now.

As for records, here is what I know from experience.

- Greene County - Probate Judge Isaacs has worked hard to preserve the Greene county records and old newspapers, but they were neglected for many years due to racial problems. Sadly, a few years ago, I found a lot of records dumped on the floor in a building with no air conditioning and with broken windows; the clerk at that time told me those were "white folks' stuff" and she did not care what happened to them. I could have packed my car with records and she would not have stopped me. One caution, Xerox copies in Judge Isaacs office are expensive. But on the positive side, she has always allowed me personal access to go through the files and books. And there is only one library in Eutaw that has a tiny genealogical section that is kept under lock and key. I believe the only accommodations in Greene County are near Union at the Greene County Racetrack, and they are not very good.
- Pickens County - You may be interested in Pickens because the Union/Mantua area of Greene County used to be in Pickens County at the time the Upchurch family came to Alabama. Unfortunately, Pickens was a burned county—all the records were destroyed during the Civil War. I do not consider them as genealogically friendly as Greene, but the existing records have been better maintained. Pickens County Library has a lot of branches—I know those at Aliceville, Carrollton, and Reform—and each has a portion of the genealogy collection. There is also a genealogy group in Gordo, which maintains their own library and does some research, but I do not know who is running that now. The only accommodations I know of are in Reform, and again, they are a sad excuse. So you are left with driving back to Tuscaloosa or going to Livingston [which is in Sumter County].

One very important person who is doing a lot in Greene County is Ralph Liverman, an attorney in Eutaw. He has transcribed and published the minutes of several of the churches in Greene County. [Working independently, he and I both transcribed the Hebron Presbyterian Church minutes. My version appears on the Greene County website; his is in book form. The only Upchurch mentioned in it is Samuel Pierce Upchurch, son of Hudson, who was received in the church on 26 Oct 1869 and was baptized.] Ralph has also helped raise money for and donated his personal time to restoring some of the churches and the cemeteries. Supposedly, there was at least one Upchurch was buried at the Hebron Church Cemetery, but I do not recall seeing a tombstone nor can I find it in my records. The church no longer exists and the old part of that cemetery has been destroyed by vandals—I was told it was racially motivated, since both blacks and whites were buried [separately] in the same cemetery. Most of the tombstones in the older cemetery are broken and laying in tall grass. I believe they are beyond restoration, but, hopefully one day, someone may be able to map the area and collect the tombstone data. Until then, I was advised the tombstone pieces should be left exactly as they fell; due to the remoteness, the tall grass, etc., they probably will not be disturbed.

I have no family left in Greene County—only an uncle in York [Sumter County, about halfway between Meridian, MS and Eutaw] and an aunt in Meridian, and they are both well getting on in years. I try to see them once or twice a year, but it is usually a quick trip and I stay one night. Most of that is because of work and because the focus of my research has been on my mother's maiden name [Hughen]. There are a few distant cousins that may still live there, but the ones I am most familiar with have moved, are in the nursing home, or dead. Depending on a lot of factors, we could make plans to meet there; it would have to be in the summer or during a school break [I am a full time substitute teacher] and when I can schedule a break with my business partner [we build and sell townhouses].

EXTRACT

○ RPU Extract of Book in RPU Genealogical Collection NO 31

INDEX TO HATHAWAY'S REGISTER

△ From 1900-1903 at Edenton, NC

△ JAMES ROBERT BENT HATHAWAY

Published "The North Carolina

Genealogical Register with a total of 480 pages and over 50,000 names. Entries concerned the early families of the old North State. Much valuable family information not available elsewhere is included.

△ In 1945 in AUSTIN, TX

Walter S. Ray published this Index to Hathaway's Register. He originally titled his index as

"The Lost Tribes of North Carolina, Part I"

RPU COMMENTS:

1. A fair scan of this book reveals no UPCHURCH entries and so far details on the other families provided appear marginal to RPU interests although something of significance may later be found.
2. The Clearfield Company use of a 5"x8" reproduction + original poor print quality makes hard reading. I could reproduce in larger print but so far cannot justify this effort

GEORGE ALFRED ISELEY, mayor of Raleigh, who as a result of a third reelection is serving for the fourth term as the chief executive of the capital city, was born on a farm near Burlington, North Carolina. In his youth he had no particular financial or educational advantages, pursuing his studies in the public schools and Elon College. In his boyhood he worked in a drug store and afterward attended Page's School of Pharmacy. He became a registered pharmacist and was employed in a drug store in Burlington, while later he was chemist with a manufacturing drug company, the Justice Drug Company of Greensboro. Military activities then interrupted his business life, for from May, 1917, to July, 1919, he was with the United States Army, being with the medical department of the Sixty-fourth Infantry of the Seventh Division. He was transferred to U. S. A. Laboratory No. 1 and he became a sergeant, first class, of the Hospital Corps, with headquarters at Neufchateau, while following the signing of the Armistice he was with the Army of Occupation in Germany.

On the 20th of February, 1920, Mr. Iseley came to Raleigh, where he has since made his home, and here became a partner in the Boon-Iseley Drug Company, owning one of the most widely known drug stores in North Carolina. His leadership in trade circles was indicated in his election in 1931 to the presidency of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association. He is the author of various articles on store management which have appeared in drug journals.

On the 11th of June, 1924, Mr. Iseley was united in marriage to Florence Bingham, of Daytona Beach, Florida, who is active in welfare work and in the Red Cross. Mr. Iseley is a Mason. He is a past commander of Raleigh Post No. 1 of the American Legion, was a charter member of the Civitan Club, and is now a member of the Lion's Club. He has long been deeply interested in civic affairs, considering it to be the duty as well as the privilege of every good citizen to support the principles in which he believes. A recognition of his high standing led to his election in 1931 to the
