Enclosed is a copy of my 9-Page Master outline on the Wesley U Family. This covers Wesley, his children and grandchildren. The descendants (if any/ if known) of the grandchildren are presented in continuation sections as indicated on the left-hand side of the pages. I include only one of these [#6A - page - after the pink sheet]. If you are interested in exchanging/ upgrading records I will gladly supply more of these continuation sections. Note also that I have Master outline on the siblings of Wesley U

As you will see I collect full names (full maiden name of females), dates of births/ marriage/ death and place of birth/ marriage/ death/ burial. For place I like to include town/ county/ state and name of cemetery. Of course we rarely get all of this detail but one tries.

Enclosed is a copy of the latest UB so you can see how I reported on the Reunion. Details on the Upchurch Publications are enclosed. Please let me know if others are interested.

Here are a few questions dealing with some issues that surfaced as I studied your report.

#1 Re MARTICIA U. ZAVUE 1855 - I show she and HENRY ROBINSON. you show ROBERSON ??

#2 Re IRVIN/IRWIN SYLVESTER U. b. 9 MAY 1877

a. Is IRVIN or IRWIN correct?

b. See enclosed sheet 4A for I. Sylvester U. and his sons Ronald & Melvin. -

• Was it Ronald or Melvin who had CATHERINE and was her maiden name STOKY or STRONG?

• Was it Ronald or Melvin who had a son Leigh b. 1914 & about 1952?

#3 Re MARY ELIZABETH MCDONALD U. 15 JAN 1847 -
Did she marry James IPPENSEN or IPPERSON?

If you have evidence that would resolve the above questions I would appreciate having same. I'll be glad to share what I have on these matters and on the sources of same.

Your James Madison U. story is very well done and a copy of this has been placed in his profile. I did not have in my mind that he bought the farm in 1872 but did not move there until 1888. Nice to know.

Heidi, I know you are busy with little Andrew & Heather (2 of my 8 grandchildren have those same names), with various family activities and with lots of stuff. I don't want my intense interest in Uphurch family history to intrude on your peace & tranquility. However, you will sense that I am always happy to learn of another persons interest - mild or otherwise - in our Uphurch heritage. I am always happy to share/exchange/collaborate. I'll be happy to proceed in whatever way and at whatever pace suits you.

With all best wishes!

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Upchurch

I apologize in the delay in getting this family tree to you. I hope you find the information accurate and helpful to your collection of Upchurch genealogy. If I am missing any information that you could fill in for us I have listed my address above. It was nice to meet you in June at the family reunion and learn more about the Upchurch history

UPCHURCH REUNION JUNE 17, 2001

YAKLE FARM , NORTH OF TIMEWELL
ILLINOIS

FAMILY TREE FROM WESLEY UPCHURCH
TO THE PRESENT

Upchurch Reunion 2001

The Descendents of Wesley Upchurch held a reunion Sunday June 17, 2001. The reunion was held at the home place of James and Barbara (Bradney) Upchurch, now know as Yakle Farm, north or Timewell, Illinois.

The group was called together at noon when Barbara (Yakle) Elas rang the historic dinner bell, once owned by her grandparents, James and Barbara Upchurch. The group was led in prayer by Sam Painter, grandson of the late Christena (Yakle) Painter. He also paid tribute to two family members who recently passed away. They were his father, Kenneth Painter, and James Edward Upchurch, son of the late Owen Upchurch.

A large collection of family memorabilia was on display and included a musket loader gun and cane once used by James Upchurch; Barbara Upchurch's basket, a sampler made by Nora Elizabeth Upchurch in the 1800's; several scrapbooks and many pictures. Heidi Simmons, granddaughter of Mildred (Yakle) Cleaves displayed an extensive family tree tracing the Upchurch ancestry from Wesley Upchurch through the current generation.

Robert Phillip Upchurch, Editor of the Upchurch Bulletin, was the group's special guest. He gave a presentation about the descendents of Michael Upchurch, who immigrated to the United States from England in the 1600's. Phil Upchurch and his wife Sallaine have traveled extensively in England and the United States researching Upchurch ancestry. He has identified nearly 50,000 descendents of Michael Upchurch in the United States. Saturday afternoon, Jim Yakle and Carol Collins accompanied Phil and Sallaine on a tour of the Brown County Cemeteries where many Upchurch ancestors are buried.

Over 100 Family members and friends attended the reunion, traveling from Alabama, Arizona, California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, and Texas. Barbara (Yakle) Elas had the distinction of being the oldest member present at 92 and Jesse Kinman, the great-grandson of Mildred (Yakle) Cleaves was the youngest member present at 3 months old.

The Life of James Madison Upchurch

James Madison Upchurch was born in 1846 and spent his entire lifetime of 81 years in Brown County, Illinois. He was the son of Wesley and Mary Patterson Upchurch who had come to Illinois from North Carolina about 1843. They settled near Buckhorn where they raised eleven children.

James, the second child, in 1870 married Barbara Bradney, daughter of Sylvester and Elizabeth Meservey Bradney. They had eight children, all born in Buckhorn except the last one.

In 1872, they bought a 40 acre piece of land about four miles northeast of Timewell, but it was not until 1888 that the family left Buckhorn and moved to the small farm in Pea Ridge Township, where the last child was born.

On these 40 acres was a beautiful wooded tract sloping down from several level acres to bottomland with a creek and some springs and up to more woodland. This tract had been homesteaded only 36 years before James bought it. It had a small cabin on it near the road which had been built by the previous owner, and in which the Upchurch family lived while building their new home.

The house was built of lumber from the native trees on the farm. Oak and walnut were used for the heavy sills, which were hand hewn with a broad axe. The floors were sawed from oak, and the siding was perpendicular foot wide planks. There were five rooms, a sizeable living room and a good-sized kitchen, three small bedrooms, and a floored attic with windows. A large summer kitchen was built on the north side, which was connected to the main part of the house by a sided and roofed passageway where dry firewood was kept. Many of the large shade trees were left around the house, some of which are still there. In 1891, an 80-acre piece of land to the north was bought and added to the farm. Since there were many maple trees, an annual product of maple sugar was made.

Mr. Upchurch was not a man of great material possessions, as very few farmers in Brown County were in the early days. He made a good living for his family from his 120 acres by hard work and frugality. He was kind, intelligent, a good citizen and a good husband and father. All of his children went to school and also learned to help with the farm and housework. He was not talkative, but when he did talk his family and neighbors listened with respect.

The older grandchildren have many stories to tell of their childhood visits to the farm. One grandson remembers watching his grandfather tan hides of groundhogs to make leather for shoestrings. He saw him leaching wood ashes in a homemade wooden hopper for lye to tan the hides and make soap. He watched him build rail fences, and do many other tasks that went with backcountry farming, as well as cultivating the land and harvesting crops, caring for livestock and endless clearing of underbrush. Sometimes a youngster was allowed to go with his grandfather to the north part of the farm to empty the sap buckets, which had been hung on pegs on the many maple trees to catch the sweet liquid. It was poured into a barrel on a horse-drawn bobsled and taken back to the house to be boiled down over an outdoor fire, into maple syrup. There were also the boyish pleasures of swimming and fishing in the creek and hunting arrowheads in the creek bottom where he had been told there had been an Indian encampment years before.

After the seven children (one died while quite small) grew up, they married and all but one stayed in Brown and Schuyler Counties. The eldest, Elmer, moved to California. Nora married Francis Holtkamp and lived not far from the family home. Ethel married Guy McDonald and they made their home in Huntsville Township in Schuyler County. Mr. McDonald farmed and also became well known for his ability to twitch water with a forked twig. He found water for wells for numerous farmers of both counties.

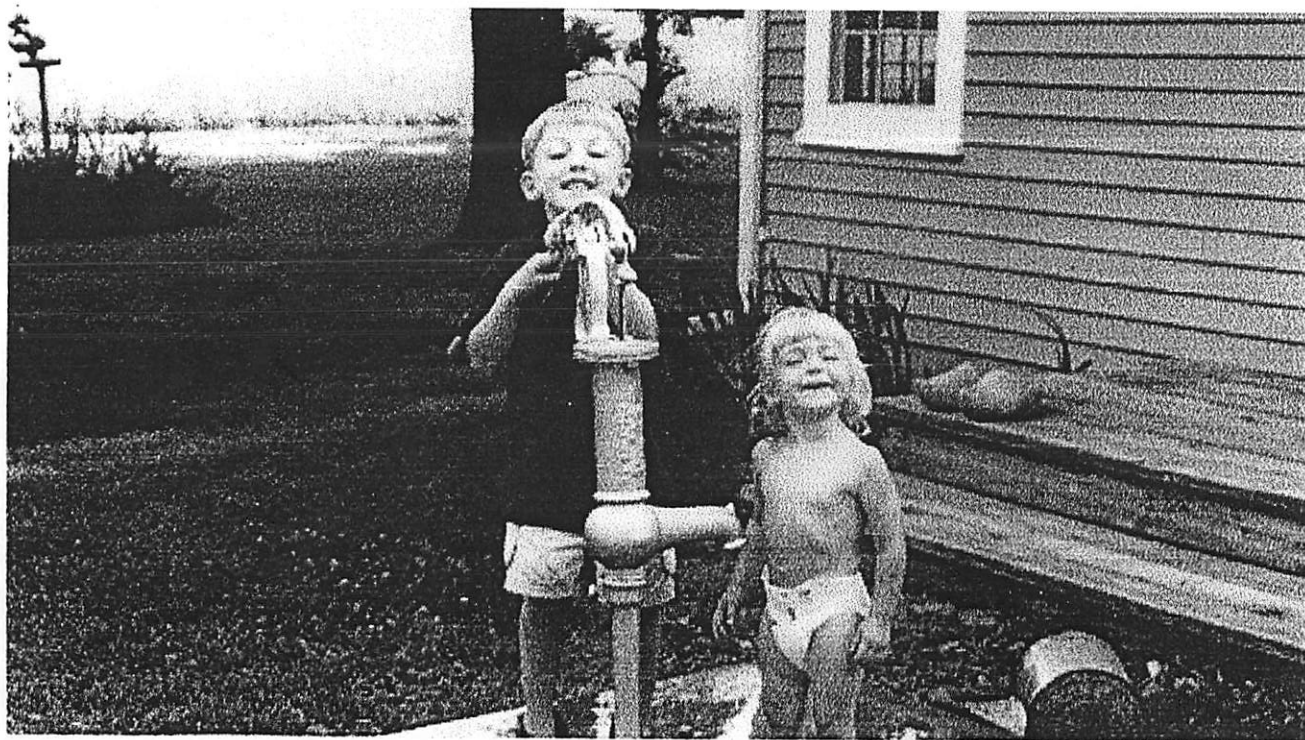

Grace Upchurch married Edward Yakle and remained in Brown County. Irvin married Caltha Thompson and moved to Versailles. Owen married Harriet Long and lived in Timewell for many years. After her death in 1942 Owen married Hilda Miller. Edna married Malvin Morrison and also lived in Timewell.

After the children were gone and some grandchildren grown Mr. and Mrs. Upchurch remained in their home. When Mrs. Upchurch died in 1922, Mr. Upchurch moved to Timewell to live with his daughter Edna and her family and rented his home to his grandson, Russell Yakle who was newly married that October. They took up housekeeping at the old farm and their son and only child James. Was born there in September 1923. Mr. Upchurch visited often during the two years the couple lived there. They moved to Timewell, and in 1926 to Clayton, but they promised themselves that if they could, they would come back to Pea Ridge and buy the quiet old farm of their grandparents.

Mr. Upchurch lived several years with his daughter Edna, and her family. He was tall, quiet, and a fine looking old gentle man with white hair and beard. He died in 1927 at the age of 80. When the estate was settled, the farm was passed into the hands of Grace and Edward Yakle, who lived there with their younger children. Soon a new group of grandchildren, nieces, and nephews were climbing trees and wading the creeks on the farm of their great grandparents.

When Grace and Edward moved to Timewell, they rented the farm until 1953. Then Russell Yakle and wife bought the farm as they had hoped to do. They bought an additional 40 acres, repaired and restored the house, made a few additions, and brought back into flourishing condition the shrubs and flowers in the yard.

Russell's son James married Betty Kaylor in 1949, and in 1950 moved to Timewell to become partner in a lumber company with his father. Their three children, Linda, Steven, and Roxie were born in Timewell, thus providing a new generation of children at the farm. James moved his family to Florida in 1963 but the farm still remains in their family. There have been many reunions and picnics at the old farm for descendents of James and Barbara Upchurch. Hog Back has been a favorite camping place for young Upchurch and Yakle boys for a long time. The farm has been in the Upchurch family and it's descendents since 1872, a period of 129 years as of the last Upchurch reunion June 17, 2001.
