Charles Richard Killinger ↑ "Buch" is a correct name but there is a story. When he was born his parents swayed between Richard and Bernard. They chose Richard and all through his growing up it was Richard. One time when he was grown he needed his birth certificate it said
Bernard & so he had it changed to Richard.

Dear John

I was very much saddened by your letter of June 18 which brought the message about the passing of Naemin. She was a dear genealogical friend and we exchanged dozens of letters on gene history. We both had a deep and abiding interest in genealogy and we loved to share. It would indeed have been a great pleasure to have met her. It is a kind of you to contact me.

I am encouraged to know that she has some interest in family history and that she may become more active as her children grow up. If you will send me her address I will get out letters just to open lines of communication for the year ahead.

We will continue to send the 1990 Upturn Bulletin to you as they are paid for. Perhaps you will wish to give them to her.

When we were in St Louis last month I took my sisters from NC to see the monument to John Jordan Upturn, your great grandfather. It is really an inspiring sight.

All the best

Sincerely yours
Phil Upturn

The proper name is Karl Andrew Killinger but he went by Andy. He was born with the artery to his brain malformed. It was discovered when he was 23 and he had his first stroke.

They cleaned his brain. He had to learn how to talk, read and write again. He was a plucky lad. He was even able to drive again. He was told he could have it happen again and it did.

The Twenty-Third Psalm
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me, thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
