PRE HISTORY THROUGH CENTENNIAL - ELIZABETH REID MURRAY
1983

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 as representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

⁵⁷ Standard (s-w), May 31, 1851; Register (s-w), Jan. 9, 26, Feb. 9, 1856, Jan. 2, 1858. Lacking Raleigh business directories for the 1850s, the list of more than 70 merchants and tradesmen signing the resolutions at the Jan. 1858 meeting presents an informative cross-section of late antebellum businessmen (and one businesswoman): A. See Reverse for passing of Nell - Mrs Burt Krantz

My mom died peacefully on Nov. 15th. As she said so often: "I've had a wonderful life."

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, December 6, 2009 in the URC auditorium at 1 p.m. for Nell Morris Krantz who died recently at the age of 93. A native of Ohio, she received a BS degree in textile chemistry from Ohio State University and an MS in organic chemistry from Purdue University. While at Purdue she met and married fellow graduate student Bert Krantz, who died in 1939 after 47 years of marriage.

While Bert was completing his PhD she worked in the textile chemistry department at Purdue but after her first child arrived (just 2 days after Bert received his PhD) she became a full-time mother and homemaker. She was active in church and in the activities of her children, as well as being supportive of her husband's career.

From childhood she enjoyed traveling and Bert's career provided ample opportunity for that as he had positions in Raleigh, N.C.; Brawley, CA; and Billings, MT before moving to Davis in 1957. Their four children were each born in a different time belt of the lower 48 states. The family also had considerable experience overseas including an eleven year residence in India. She visited each of the 50 states and dozens of countries in every continent except Antarctica.

She enjoyed writing and leaves six short books which she wrote for her children and grandchildren, documenting various aspects of her early life and that of her family after her marriage.

She moved into University Retirement Community in its first year of operation and greatly enjoyed her life there.

She was active in Davis Community Church, being an elder, a deacon, past president of Presbyterian Women, circle leader and Bible study leader. She was a former board member of the local chapter of AARP. She was a member of Davis Senior Citizens and enjoyed a number of trips with Davis Travelaires; she worked for a time as a volunteer in the Travelaires office.

She is survived by her four children, Ellen Taylor and husband Frank of Lexington, MA; Carolyn of Santa Maria, CA; Kenneth and his wife Jo of Williamsburg, VA; and Robert and his wife Donna of Mt. Pleasant, S.C.; by 7 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests that memorial contributions may be made to the URC Foundation, 1515 Shasta Dr.; the Farmhouse Foundation, 7306 NW Tiffany Springs Parkway, Suite 210, Kansas City, MO 64153 designated for the Krantz Memorial Scholarship Fund; or Davis Community Church, 412 C. St. in Davis.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Krantz

944 SUNRISE DRIVE

SANTA MARIA, CA 93455

Dear Carolyn,

Sallaine and I were saddened to get your letter today and to learn of the passing of your dear mother, Nell. For years we have used the arrival of her Christmas card to announce the beginning of the Christmas season. Her was always the first to arrive. May you and others close to her take solace in her many years of cheerful service and cherish the memory of a lifetime of eventful days.

Perhaps you will allow me to add my own memories of Bert and Nell to illustrate how their passage over many years touched the lives of so many.

I first came to know Bert in the 1940's at N. C. State when I was a student and he was a Professor specializing in research on soil fertility as regards Corn production. His hallmark was that of a dynamic professional. I recall stories being told about the fact that he would run from place to place while doing his field work, rather than walking. Perhaps this energetic approach to life is what drew Nell to him and perhaps it abides in your memory as well.

A few short years later I had finished my BS & MS degrees in Agronomy and also an 18 month stint as a Research Instructor at U.C. State. In the meantime Best and Nell had relocated to Branley, CA. We had stayed in Texas and in December 1950 Sallaine and I were driving to Davis California where I was to pursue a Ph.D. We stopped by Branley and had a lovely visit with your parents. I am sure there were some kids underfoot.

While at Davis in 1951 and 1952 Best and Nell were traveling and stopped by to spend the night with us and we had another lovely visit. They presented us with an attractive set of wooders candle holders which we treasure to this day.

Let me amplify the foregoing comments. They reveal something special about your parents - I was a very junior professional and your parents were well along in what would be a very successful career. And yet they treated us as equals. Thus they along with a select few others gave me a boost early on... I have never forgotten their kindness.

Our paths did not cross often but I will relate one more event. About 1980 they visited us in Tucson where I was serving as Head of the Plant Sciences Department at the University of Arizona. They joined us for a patio lunch in our foothills home which we enjoyed so much. I know that we caught up on happenings in professional agricultural circles, but what I remember most is the joy of life that your parents continued to reveal. In particular, I remember Bert tanning our naturalized (desert) yard taking pictures of tiny hedgehog cacti with their tiny blooms. He was excited as a kid in a candy store.

Caralyn, I write these few words not to define the full world of Nell Kruty nor of Bert. Rather, these snippets from the past are intended to serve as brief illustrations of how your parents touched the lives of others. We know that the telling of the full story would take many volumes.

May these few words and the aid of others help lift up your spirits as you and the rest of the family and friends celebrate the life of a fine lady whose days were made brighter by her companionship of so many years. May They Rest in Peace.

Respectfully

Phillip Upchurch

I Thank you for taking the time to write about my parents' effect on your lives. I will treasure your letter.

(5)

Love,
Caroleyn
Krantz

Dear Wright:-

I received your letter several days ago, and was surely surprised to know Caroline is getting married. I bet she will make a beautiful bride and would love to be there to see her. Tell her I wish her all the luck in the world.

I have been feeling pretty good, and even though I miss Daddy more every day, I'm beginning to realize that you have to live even after the ones you love are gone.

Dora's boy is in the service, too. He is stationed in California at this time, but he is in the navy. Wouldn't it be a coincidence if Buddy and Junior would meet. I wonder if they would know one another by name. I surely hope Buddy gets to come down this way while he is in the service. I would love to see him.

Earl and his family are all well. Their baby, Mary, starts school in September, and Billy is almost a grown man.

Hilda, her husband and little girl were here in March for a week and they are hoping to move back to New Orleans by fall.

Well, I guess that's all the news I have for now.

Be sure to give my love to Mary and the children. Tell Carol I would love to see a picture of her wedding, since I can't be there in person.
