Called Brenda Ann Lawson at 885-7486. A pleasant male answered & said she had not been staying there for several days. I left my home & office no for her to call

③ About 10 or 11 JAN 85 Brenda called to say that the people she was staying with had to go to Benson for the week-end. She wanted to know if she could spend the night at my house just for one night. I said that I

JOHN LAWSON

A. The first record of a European visiting what would become Wake Co, NC was left by John Lawson in 1701. That year, during an exploration of the interior of the Carolina territory for the Lords Proprietors, he camped the night of February 8 at the "Falls of the Neuse, called nee Quoehom by the Indians. The Indians were the Tuscarora, who were soon to be decimated in the 1711-1714 Tuscarora war. (37, Pg 11-12)

B. The Tuscarora Indians captured John Lawson + Baron Christoph von Graffenried in SEP 1712 as they sailed up the Neuse River into Indian territory. Although both were acquitted by the Indians for trespass, Lawson lost his life in a post trial argument with a sub-chieftain (37, Pg 13)

JOHN

LAWSON

Zebulon Record THUR 14 MAR 1996 Zebulon, NC

Eastern Wake County is an area that people have called home for more than 300 years.

Historians believe the Tuscarora Indians lived in the Marks Creek area, east of Knightdale, at the dawn of the 18th century. Food and wildlife were plentiful here. In fact, legend has it that panthers lived along the Neuse River at that time.

One of the first white men to pass through this area was English explorer John Lawson, who followed the river into the present-day Wake County. English settlers followed in his wake; homesteads began popping up in this area around 1740.

EDGAR BARDEE

Work began on the city of Raleigh and the state capital in the late part of the 1700s. By that time, several small communities had sprung up in eastern Wake County. Three — Knightdale, Wendell and Zebulon — eventually became towns, while others — Eagle Rock and Shotwell — remain small communities. Why some grew and some did not can be attributed to some degree to the Raleigh-Pamlico railroad, which was built around 1905. The railway primarily carried lumber and cotton products, but it also attracted new businesses and citizens to the area.

The heritage of eastern Wake County has been, and continues to be, tied closely to tobacco, but today the area hosts several industries that employ more people than the gold leaf. We still enjoy a slow pace of life here.

Above, an actor demonstrates traditional ways to tie tobacco for drying in a barn.

Who we are

The eastern Wake route of the railroad tracks resulted from the work of several people, including Henry Haywood Knight, commonly regarded as the father of Knightdale.

Knight, whose family owned much of the land in what is now Knightdale, was a community leader at the turn of the century. He and others arranged for the construction of the first Knightdale school, a one-room building on First Avenue, around 1900.

He is thought to have been instrumental in getting the railroad to put its tracks through Knightdale. The depot was built on land donated by Knight.

The land around the depot grew into a business district, which formed the basis of the town, chartered by the state of North Carolina March 9, 1927.

The town of Wendell grew out of the seed that was the one-room Rhodes School House, which was built in the days before the American Civil War, or the "War Between the States" as many in this area still call the conflict. Named for landowner Ambrose Rhodes, the school was renamed Wendell Preparatory School around 1890 in honor of the poet Oliver Wendell Holmes, a favorite of then-Schoolmaster M.A. Griffin.

Shortly afterward, a Wendell post office opened in a store belonging to J.R. Nowell. Restored by the Wendell Historical Society, the original post office is currently located on Fourth Street.

The town of Wendell was incorporated March 6, 1903.

One of the town's first major establishments came from the efforts of R.B. Whitley, C.Z. Todd, Amos Dean and others, who formed the Bank of Wendell in 1907. Whitley served as the bank's president until his death in 1944. He also was a town official and a state legislator at different times.

The town of Zebulon also resulted from businessmen working together. Falconer Arendell of Wakefield and Edgar Barbee of Barclaysville founded the Zebulon Co. in 1906 and purchased 90 acres that served as the heart of the new town.

With development in full swing, the N.C. General Assembly passed an act the following year — Feb. 16, 1907 — which incorporated the town. The original boundaries consisted of 297 acres. The town has grown to cover more than 3,600 acres.

ALLIED FAMILIES Programs and plans 2013-2017.docx

Hi Megan----

Now is a good time for an update on Allied Families. We carry you as a member of the George Upchurch family but do not show you as a member/supporter. Progress on your enrolled family of George Upchurch has been considerable but we need your participation. I hope you will join as a 2017 member using the attached form or PayPal.

Also attached is a summary of what we have accomplished and our hopes for 2017.

For more details on our route to digital see the Upchurch Bulletin for 2016 recently posted on www.upchurchstory.com--password 2013upchurch#. Also, note progress on your enrolled family at www.alliedfamilies.com password 2014allied#.

Also, be sure to view Video No. 22 for George on our website www.upchurchstory.com and those for his ancestors as well---all your direct ancestors.

I will be in North Carolina March 29-April 2, 2017 working in the Allied Families Cary Facility starting some new projects. Would love to see you there. Let me know if you need details.

Our progress has been substantial but we need participation whether as a casual follower or as a dedicated worker and donor. I hope you will give us encouragement by joining today and being as generous as your circumstances allow.

Sending all Best Wishes~

Phil Upchurch
