The Napoleon design sleeves had matching lace appliques. A very full skirt had scattered motifs and a fluted hemlien flounce that was mounted in lace. The skirt extended into a cathedral train that had a scalloped border and tiers of fluted ruffles in a pyramid design. Her finger-tip veil had a fluted border falling from a lace tiara. Pearls, crystal beads and iridescent sequins embellished the tira. She carried a cascading bouquet of purple roses, white roses and stephanotis centered with white catalya orchids.

Dear Robert:

I was on Maui in the Hawaiian Islands in April at a meeting of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers, and on a side trip to Kona on the big island of Hawaii I spotted some gravestones in a beautiful little church cemetery which I thought might be of interest to you. The headstones read as follows:

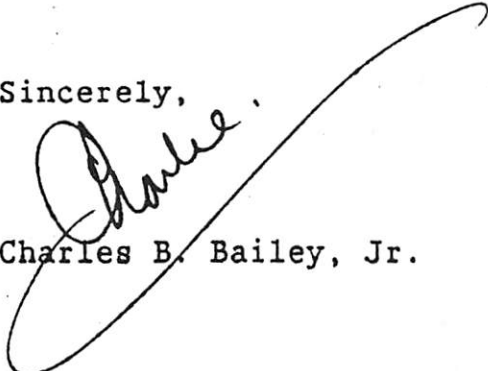

Robert Hunani Upchurch
Kanona Liftee ↑
 1936-1941

Emmaline Upchurch Liftee
 1896-1951

I hope everything is going great for you. I was in the Smoky Mountains near Gatlinburg last fall while visiting an aunt in Asheville and thought of the motel that you and I stayed in on separate occasions, but cannot recall the name. This must be due to premature rampant senility which has plagued me for at least fifteen years.

With very best regards.

Sincerely,

 Charles B. Bailey, Jr.

He apparently did not vote as he did not pay a poll tax. His total taxes were 42 cents. He and Henry J. Goodwin appeared on the census of 1850 at The Western Division, Wake County, North Carolina. William, 68, is listed as age as a farmer who could read and write. 1782 - 1856 (son of William Goodwin Sr.)

William Goodwin Jr. was born at Wake County, North Carolina in 1782, the son of William Goodwin and Winifred Thrailkill. He married Sarah Lightfoot in 1806, at Wake County. Sarah Lightfoot was born in 1781 and died in 1872.

The information about William Goodwin Jr. marrying Sarah Lightfoot comes from "Daughter of the American Revolution" reports filed by descendants of William Goodwin Jr. There also is a marriage bond for a William Goodwin marrying Sally Straight on November 26, 1906 at Wake County, N.C. I do not know if this is the same William Goodwin. I also do not know if Sarah Lightfoot and Sally Straight are the same persons. William Goodwin Jr. makes reference to his wife "Sarah" in his Will.

Dear Cousin Jan,

Inclosed is a copy of information that came yesterday from Cousin Fannie in Wendell, NC. I thought you would like to see some reaction to your article which is really great. I hope you get some response.

The Ambrose & Fannie refers to it not the Ambrose in your line.

I hope this finds you well and pleased with your move to North Dakota. We are staying very busy with what with farming, family history and 8 grandchildren. Let me hear from you as time allows.

Sincerely yours

Seeks answers to families' history

REC'D
11 FEB 1999

To the editor:

On Oct. 24, 1824 in Franklin County, North Carolina, Ambrose Upchurch was shot and killed by a man of whom his son says years later "a Mr. Wright, who married the half sister of my mother. What the difficulty was about, I was too young to comprehend. Wright fled the country, and it was said went to Arkansas, while that state was held by Mexico; at any rate, his family followed some time after. I will remember the circumstances of three Negroes and 350 acres of land being taken from us, which led me to believe that property was the cause of the murder."

Ambrose Upchurch was the only son of John Upchurch and Mary "Anne" Harris of Franklin County. He left behind a widow, Elizabeth Hill Upchurch, the only daughter of the Honorable Henry Hill, a magistrate who appears to have been both a prominent and wealthy citizen of Franklin County. He also left behind four small children, my great-great grandfather, John Jordan Upchurch, his younger brother, William Horace Upchurch, and his two older sisters, Priscilla M Upchurch who eventually married Turner Lawrence, and Mary Ann Elizabeth Upchurch who eventually married Ralph Parrish.

Ambrose Upchurch was my three times great-grandfather. I first read the story in his son's memoirs when I was very young, and have been intrigued ever since. So much is left unsaid. Who was "Mr. Wright" and his wife who was half sister to my great-great-great-grandmother? Why did he shoot Ambrose? Why was the land taken? By whom? The event, as you can imagine, had great impact on my great-great-grandfather's life. His mother unable to support him, he and his siblings are sent to live with their paternal grandfather. It is to be 10 years before they are reunited with their mother when her father deeds a farm to her. He grows up to establish the first fraternal insurance program for widows and orphans in the country. What happened to Elizabeth during that time? She does not appear in her father's household. Who was her mother? Why did her father who was by all accounts a wealthy man wait 10 years to purchase a farm for her, so she could be with her children?

The Upchurch, Hill and Harris families all had sons, daughters, parents, cousins etc. in Wake, Granville, Halifax and Franklin counties. It is my hope that some of your readers may have families who go back to this era and be able to supply some of the answers to these questions through either facts or family tales handed down.

I don't know if you take the Wake Forest paper or have heard from anybody on the above. I thought you would enjoy this. The Ambrose Upchurch in my line married Harriett Pearce. If you have a story on the above Ambrose being killed, I would be interested in reading it.

ongoing interest in family history. I'll just wait for a signal from you about anything we need to treat jointly. No doubt there will still be things we can share from time-to-time. There is one special item you might keep in mind. If you are ever in Fargo and have a little time to spare, it would be great if you could visit the Pioneer Mutual Life Insurance Company (or their successor) and learn if the picture of John Jordan Upchurch still hangs in the board room - it would also be nice to learn if the officer/employees have any idea who he is and why the picture is there.

Sallaine always said we would starve to death if we had to make our living farming [it was OK for me to prosper being a Professor and telling other people how to farm]. No doubt, you and Chris will be more successful on the farm scene. I am enjoying our farming operation but it has as much to do with investing as it does with farming. The fact is we spend money on our land rather than making money on it.

Let me wish you and yours the very best as you move into this new phase of your life, who knows what the future holds for any of us. Let's just say it holds opportunity.

Thank you for the nice Christmas card, note and letter. All your kids and grandkids were with us for the holidays and we had company solid from 11 DEC to 2 JAN. Sallaine & I are glad to have our peace & quiet back after a joyful experience.

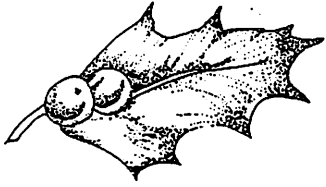

Sincerely yours

DEAR Phillip & Sallaine,
YES, this is MORE than late! Nothing, but nothing WENT OFF AS planned OR Scheduled! Though WE ARE HERE in our new home, the SALE on the farmstead in TN still has not closed - and we ARRIVED here behind our own Schedule, but well ahead of our belongings. Without the money from the house things are financially tight until spring when we'll have a regular pay check, or the house sale closes whichever comes first! Still and all, we are happy to be in our new home. THE farm is beautiful and Streeter is a wonderful community
full of Angels!

STREETER, ND 58483-9617

Dear Everyone,

Happy Holidays! I apologize in advance for the form letter, most of you know that I don't usually send Christmas cards out this way. And I promise to write everyone a more personal letter after the new year. However, this year circumstances dictate that if I'm to get the Christmas cards out at all I need to put this letter into them so I can mail them from along the way.

We have sold our house and are moving to North Dakota to try our hands at farming. This past month, since before Thanksgiving has been given over entirely to getting the house ready for the sale to close the 19th of this month, (In fact, as I sit here typing this, the roofers are still pounding away over my head!) and packing up our furniture and belongings for the movers to load up tomorrow. I haven't even had time to do the Christmas shopping for the family yet, (that also will get done along the way as we travel, we are leaving here on Friday as soon as the sale closes). I haven't a clue yet as to what can be done about a Christmas dinner. The movers have said that no way will they be able to make delivery until the day after Christmas, and the house will not be ready for occupation until January 1 anyway. We will spend our first week in our new hometown, in a furnished apartment with very little in the way of dishes and pots and pans.

The first couple of weeks may be rough, but we are looking forward to the move. We have been looking forward to it since October. The timing of it all has been in God's hands since the when depended almost entirely on when the house sold here, though we have known since October that we wanted to be there by January 1 if it was at all possible.

The move takes us to the little town of Streeter, ND. It has a population of 170 persons and reminds me a great deal of summers in Litchfield, NE when I was growing up. There's a grocery store, a bank, a co-op, a garage, a library (open from late May to early October because the city can't afford to heat the building in the winter!), a cafe where the lady who owns it also cooks and waits table, and a tavern. My husband Chris says that there really is a payphone there, but I don't remember seeing it. The kids will go to school in Gackle, another town only slightly larger, about 12 miles away.

We'll be working for another farmer, Val Gross who owns the Walkabout Ranch, and living on another farm about 2 miles down the road from him. Part of it will be conventional farming, but there is also a cattle-raising, hay-hauling business for others on the side, and Chris is contracted to do some computer-consulting work on his own as well, for companies using the AS-400 mainframe system. Eventually, we hope to buy the farm we'll be living on and gain a partnership in the contract cattle-raising and hay-hauling business, but that's a ways down the road. We'll see. God may have other plans for us along the way, and only time will tell.

The new address will be RR 1, Box 37b, Streeter, ND 58483-9617. new phone # 701-424-3345

Hope this letter finds everyone healthy, and enjoying the Holiday Season. Take care, each of you, and I will try hard to get another letter out to each of you after the New Year.

Love,

Jan

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 are representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 are representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

⁵⁷ Standard (s-w), May 31, 1851; Register (s-w), Jan. 9, 26, Feb. 9, 1856, Jan. 2, 1858. Lacking Raleigh business directories for the 1850s, the list of more than 70 merchants and tradesmen signing the resolutions at the Jan. 1858 meeting presents an informative cross-section of late antebellum businessmen (and one businesswoman): A. Dear Ms Lind,

A copy of an article about the estate sale of Samuel Upchurch appeared in Vol III #3 (Date?) of your publication. This was sent by Eugene A. Bedard of Austin, TX to Nelson Galt Ferguson of Galesburg, IL who kindly sent a copy on to me. This document is of use to me as I track all Upchurches and their descendants. Details on the Upchurch Bulletin are enclosed. I have a great deal of information on Samuel Upchurch and his descendants.

I might like to reproduce the above article in the Upchurch Bulletin and am writing to ask your permission to do this. Proper credit would be given.

with Appreciation!

☺ sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

Dear Borton,

I have your note of 15 JAN 1983 and the extra $15.00 for postage which is appreciated. You have fully paid for the 1982 and 1983 issues of Upchurch Bulletin. We sent issue 1,243 of 1982 last September. There was a new clerk at the PD and he insisted on filling out some forms so you would not have to pay duty. Since they never arrived we have today mailed to you under separate cover issue 1,243 of 1982. They have gone "Air Mail - Printed Matter" to the address as above except we omitted "Niger River Eye Clinic" but we know if they do not arrive in a reasonable time. This time the PD clerk said nothing about the "duty free" forms. We sent the 1982 issue #4 to you about ~~5 DEC 82~~ 5 DEC 82 without the "duty free" form and it apparently arrived OK. For 1983 we will mail in early MAR, early JUN, early SEP & early DEC.

~~My question is as follows:~~

Could you answer the following questions:

- 1) where was Margie Dale Upchurch born and is "Margie" an official name or a nick-name.

- 2) what is your full name and where born & when?
- 3) Do you & Margie have any children? If so names, dates & places?
- 4) For ~~the~~ Wesley Ira Upchurch
 - a) where was he born, where did & where buried?
 - b) where was his wife born, where did & where buried?

I am curious about how you came to be in Niger and what you are doing with the Niger River Eye Clinic. Will you be there for a long time? I assume Margie is with you.

I have just come ~~over~~ over a minor court case involving Mose U, the avenger of Margie. The case was referred to the Supreme Court from Chatham Co, NC and involved the general period 1800-1820. It is of no great significance but just another minor item to help us understand the family.

Hope to hear from you

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

LINDER, HOMER LEE

F349

Homer Lee Linder was one of Fentress County's leading educators and most prominent farmers from the period of the late 1920's until his death in 1970. Mr. Linder served as teacher, basketball coach, principal, attendance teacher, materials clerk, and held the office of school superintendent longer than anyone in Fentress County history serving terms in 1941-1948, 1956-1960, and 1962-1970.

Linder was born August 18, 1908, the son of James S. Linder and Mary Belle Franklin Linder. His father served as one of Fentress County's earliest office holders by serving as trustee. James S. Linder was also on the original Board of Directors in the establishment of York Institute. Homer had four sisters: Hettie Linder Powers, Hazel Linder Mullinix, Hallie Linder Anderson, and Helen

Homer L. Linder

Linder Hull. "Miss" Hazel and "Miss" Helen recently retired as teachers from the Fentress County School system.

Homer Linder was one of the earliest graduates from Tennessee Polytechnical Institute, (now Tennessee Technological University) graduating in 1932. After teaching stints at Sweet Gum Elementary and Manson Elementary, Linder became a teacher at his alma mater, Stockton Valley Academy (Helena). He also served as boy's basketball coach coaching several outstanding teams, once to the extent of defeating county rival York Institute by a score of 40-8. Linder later served as principal of Clark-range High School 1948-1956.

Homer had three children by his first wife, Flonnie Peavyhouse. They were Mildred Linder Copley, Betty Lou Linder Ackerman, and James Marion Linder. Mildred served as voter registrar until her death in 1985. Betty Lou and James reside in Illinois and Indiana respectively. Homer also had eight grandchildren.

Homer was married to Bonnie Stinson Linder in his second marriage. They had one son, Homer Lee Linder, Jr., who is now serving as teacher and basketball coach at York Institute.

Along with his role of educator, Homer Linder's love of raising beef cattle and farming will always be remembered. He was one of Tennessee's first members of the Aberdeem-Angus Association. He owned and operated West Fentress Farms located in Manson, Tennessee. He continuously maintained a herd of registered angus beef cattle and was instrumental in helping many farmers to develop their herd.

Homer was a member of the First Baptist Church of Jamestown and attended regularly. He was also a well-known member of the Republican Party, serving as one of the campaign chairmen in Roy Acuff's campaign for Governor in 1948.

Homer Lee Linder died June 13, 1970 while still serving his county as school superintendent.

He was buried on his farm in his beloved Manson community.

Raeford Native Honored

(Ed. Note: The following article appeared recently in a Bennettsville, S.C. paper. Mrs. Linder is the former Suzanne Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cameron of Raeford.)

A → Mrs. Suzanne Cameron Linder was recognized Monday night by the Junior Charity League as the Woman of the Year, 1980. Mrs. Pledger Hodges, president, honored her with the annual award as a highlight of the Bridge and Fashion Show held at the Marlboro Country Club.

In the presentation Mrs. Hodges said, "1980's Woman of the Year is one of many talents, tireless efforts, and outstanding accomplishments.

Our new library is tangible evidence of her good work for five years, during which time she has served as a trustee and an officer of the library board. In the eyes of at least one of her fellow board members, she is its most valuable resource.

The Marlboro Historical Society is indeed fortunate to have in her an active member, whose talks and programs are both popular and informative. She researched and wrote The Medical History of Marlboro County and is currently completing her second reference book. Through her writing, she has developed into a local authority on our history.

Perhaps her most recent efforts have been channeled into the organizing of a countywide group for the relief of child abuse and neglect. She is the first chairperson of this, The Multi-Disciplinary Committee composed of local professionals and interested citizens. She founded the committee's program "Mother's Morning Out," which gives mothers relief from stressful home situations by offering free day-care for little ones twice a week and providing professional counseling for parents.

Mrs. Linder has been a longtime member of the Bennettsville Music

Mrs. Suzanne Cameron Linder ← A

Club and the Marlboro Arts Council and is also involved with the Marlboro Players. She is active in the Medical Auxiliary and has given many hours of volunteer work to Marlboro General Hospital. She has given of her outstanding musical talents often of various church and civic groups. She served with distinction on the Bennettsville Area School Board.

She is a loyal, working member of First United Methodist Church, where she is a circle member, works with the youth and often teaches an adult Sunday School Class. She is not only a leader in organizing our church bazaars, but she is also a valuable contributor who makes and bakes very special items for sale each year.

She is a former member of the Bennettsville Junior Charity League and she's never told us no when we've called on her to help us as a sustaining member."

Mrs. Linder is married to Dr. → B James H. Linder and they have three children, Jimmy, Emily and Marion.
