Phil,

Did you get Cyndi's email from last week asking for a conference call with you, Allen and me? She has been working with her 'backdoor' specialist and may have the answer to our needs.

I am leaving April 25 for five weeks in Europe but am available by email. Life has been busy for me, a funeral or two, plus chairing our county bicentennial effort.

Happy to walk this walk with you for the virtual archives.

All,

Cyndi and I talked briefly last night and it seems we might be closer to an answer to our archive and retrieval issues. My life has been incredibly busy this week, so I have not studied or reviewed the latest emails or the notes Phil and I made in St. Louis, but on the ship (for eight days beginning Saturday), I will immerse my primitive brain into the possibilities of following Cyndi's path.

We seem closer to a program that will create that virtual archives for associated families, promising ease of addition, downloading, and administration all for a reasonable price. It appears we can store thousands and thousands of documents as long as we create a (lack of a better phrase for my generation), a descriptive catalog card for each item, allowing easy search for researchers.

I am assuming once set up, that Allied Family personnel will be able to upload and edit materials without having to ask Cyndi or her staff to do so. That seemed a hic cup with some systems.

Cyndi, have I said this correctly? If I have, when can you give us a ball park price for your team's set up efforts and continuing back office support.

Thanks for your patience, Cyndi.

Phil,

Glenn will be communicating with you tomorrow or from the ship. But the bottom line is this...

Yes we CAN create a searchable database. The "catch" is you can not search the CONTENT of the docs, but rather the admin of the site (you?) would add the docs and create a description of the document (metadata) and THAT is searchable. Then you can make the database open to ALL to download (or password protect your call) and we can set it up where only the site ADMIN can upload docs.

We can chat when Glenn is back from euro and I return from my honeymoon mid may!

Thanks! We will be in touch!

Warm Regards,

Cyndi Long

Dear Ed,

Many thanks for your letter of 23 JUN 86 and for the Conder Family Packet. I have now incorporated all of the pertinent details relative to William B. Upchurch into my system. A sketch of my line and his down to Bill Cannon follows:

I am sending you a copy of my outline for Thomas Gay U, Sr as far as his first two children are concerned. Also provided are the follow on sheets (23A, 24A, 40A) which accommodate grandchildren of William Beatty & and their offspring, if any. The materials you sent provided some new information for me and I hope the enclosure provide some new information for you. Please let me know if you have questions. I would always welcome more details on the enclosure.

If you need details on the other children of Miller J. U or on the other children of Thomas Gay U, Sr please let me know.

My ancestor from Richard U II on down stayed in central NC where I was born & raised. (Wake Co, NC). Charles U and his son Thomas Gay U, Sr moved to Henry Co, GA about 1870 when Charles was an old man. Thomas Gay U, Sr gave rise to a large number of descendants many of whom live in GA today.

Its exchange notes when we can be helpful.

DEAR PHIL

I AM SENDING YOU WHAT IS KNOWN ON UPCHURCH
ANCESTORS. NOT MUCH IS KNOWN ON THE FAMILY
BEFORE THE WAGON TRAINS CAME FROM N.C TO GA.

WE KNOW A SMART MARRIED A STEED AND ONE OF THEIR MANY CHILDREN MARRIED A CONDORE.
THE SMARTS HAD MANY DAUGHTERS WHO STAYED
BELOW ATLANTA AND MARRIED LOCALLY. THIS MAKES MOST OF THE PEOPLE IN THE AREA
FROM THE OLD FAMILYS KIN.

I DO NOT KNOW OF ANY DESCENDENTS COMING BY THE NAME OF CONDORE, STEED, SMART OR
UPCHURCH LIVING IN GEORGIA, FRANK'S WIFE
MAY DIED AND I REMEMBER SEEING WHERE THE ADOPTED SON DICK DIED, I THINK.

BILLY DID NOT ANSWER MY LETTER WHEN I REQUESTED
INFO FOR MRS J.C. RICHARDSON OF ATHENS GA WHO WROTE UP THE INFO. WHAT IS WRITTEN ON THE UPCHURCH'S WAS MAINLY GOTTEN FROM SOME NOTES,
MY MEMORY OF THESE FINE PEOPLE AND TOMB STONES
IN WESTVIEW CEMITARY ON MILK DRIVE IN ATLANTA.

△ FRANK UPCHURCH OWNED A MEAT PROCESSING BUSINESS
IN EAST POINT (A SUB. OF ATLANTA) IN THE 1930'S AND WAS REAL PROSPEROUS AND SOLD TO SOME NATIONAL CONCERN. HIS BRICK HOME IS STILL IN ~~THE~~ EAST POINT
BEHIND THE CITY HALL. THE HOUSE BILLY LIVED IN
HAD A DRUG STORE ON THE SITE. FRANK LEFT
EAST POINT AND MOVED TO THE LENNOX SQUARE AREA BEFORE HE DIVORCED ACCORDING TO HIS FORMER WIFE IN 1976.

HOPE THIS HELPS YOU AND WOULD LIKE A COPY OF WHAT YOU MAKE OUT OF IT. LET ME KNOW OF ANY OTHER INFORMATION YOU NEED.

Sion Payne Condor was reared on a farm in Coweta Co., Ga. His father died when he was 9 years old, leaving his mother with seven minor children of her own and four step children by first wife, to support. Her life was a hard struggle as the War Between the States was being fought followed by the Reconstruction Days. Sion remembers helping dig his father's grave when he died of smallpox in 1862.

He married Sarah Adeline Hearn, a daughter of Lewis and Elizabeth Ferguson Hearn. The first few years of their married life was spent in a log cabin near his mother's home. Later he bought land adjoining his deceased father's farm, built a home, which was blown down by a storm before it was finished and had to be rebuilt. He was a successful farmer. He later moved his family into another home, known as the Burney home.

Sion and his brother, William Houston, were partners in several land purchases as shown by deeds in Coweta Co. Courthouse. It was reported by reliable source that they had the first registered Jersey herd of cattle in the county and possibly in the State of Ga. Sion operated a dairy on his farm and would deliver the dairy products to Atlanta, Ga. twice a week. He showed his ingenuity in the construction of a dairy house by building double walls of rock with a space between the walls through which water from a spring flowed, keeping the building cool for storing milk and butter. The rock walls of this dairy house were still standing in 1970.

When most of his children became grown and were attending school of working away from home, Sion build a home in Palmetto and moved from the farm. The Victorian type house continued to be the home of some of his children until about 1973.

Dear Mr Long,

As you will see from the enclosed literature I have a keen interest in the Upchurch family. Recently a mutual cousin of ours, Mr William (Billy) Nathaniel Cannon sent me a packet of materials on the Condon family you had prepared some years ago. He gave me your 1976 address. He is the gr of Sarah Fennice Condon and William B Upchurch.

I know a great deal about the avensoren of William B Upchurch in case you happen to be interested in that. It seems likely that we would have a mutual interest in the marriage of William B Upchurch and Sarah Fennice Condon. I have collected some details but they are hard to acquire.

Please let me know if you would be interested in exchanging information.

Sincerely yours

GREEN HILL. The marriage bond of Wyatt Wills to Nancy Garner, dated August 4, 1802, was witnessed by GREEN HILL, Clerk of Franklin County, who was a son of the GREEN HILL, born, as Beedle says on page 312 of his "Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight" Nov. 14, 1741 in BUTE COUNTY, N. C. and died in Williamson County, Tennessee in 1826. This is error because the text of the account shows that the 1741 date would apply to EDGECOMBE COUNTY, as even then, GRANVILLE COUNTY had not been set aside and organized. So, this shows, that the GREEN HILL who lived South of Louisville across the Tar River, where Bishop Coke held the First North Carolina Methodist Conference at his home in 1785, which Bishop Asbury attended, was in Williamson County, Tennessee, in 1812, and it was his son GREEN HILL, who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812. (Green Hill, father of the 1741 Green, married GRACE BENNETT, daughter of WILLIAM BENNETT and was father also of many children, including GREEN and JORDAN HILL, whose name appears on the 1800 census list given in this sketch.) The Green Hill who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812 married Mary Long, who was obviously a daughter of GABRIEL LONG and his wife SUSAN RICHARDSON, of Halifax County. Gabriel Long was the son of COL. NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax. Nicholas Long, son of Nicholas and brother of Gabriel, appears on the 1800 census in Franklin also, though the Georgia Records show that he was and had become a leading citizen of WILKES COUNTY, GEORGIA, a little after or about this time. The GREEN HILL who was Clerk of Franklin County in 1812, and who married the grand-daughter of COL. NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax County, probably did not remove to WILLIAMSON COUNTY, Tennessee, with his father, since the father was living in Tennessee in 1808, according to Bishop Asbury (p. 312 Beedle's 17th Century) while his son was still in Franklin County even four years later, holding a county office. However, GREEN HILL the younger afterwards moved to ALABAMA and settled in GREEN County, where his family also went, including a son GABRIEL HILL, born in 1811, evidently in Franklin County, N. C., who married ELIZABETH EPPS MURPHY. The son GABRIEL HILL and his wife ELIZABETH had WILLIAM, RICHARD, GRACE, GABRIEL and ANNE LIZA HILL, the latter becoming the wife of NICHOLAS TURNER SORSBY (b. N. C. 1817), son of ALEXANDER SORSBY, who died in NASH COUNTY, N. C. in 1818, believed to have been the son of SAMUEL SORSBY who died in Nash County in 1791. Nicholas Turner Sorsby and his wife ANNE LIZA HILL were the parents of NUGENIA REBECCA SORSBY (b. 1854) who married ROBERT JAMISON or JAMISON, who was in some way related to the SORBY FAMILY, of GRANVILLE County, who settled in TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA.

In Reply to: Re:

Greene, Pickens, Tuscaloosa, Hale, County, AL by Bridget Pieschel

This caught my eye, even tho I have a different last name in my records for the marriage.

Catherine Upchurch m. George Cook on 6 Jan. 1867 in Itawamba Co., MS.

Catherine was one of five Upchurch siblings, with the others being Emily A., Sarah C., Martha, William A., who were listed on 7 Aug. 1860 Itawamba Co., MS records when John A. Bryant and Sarah Bryant applied for guardianship of the 5 children.

Of these siblings: Sarah C. Upchurch m. Joel Springer on 10 Feb 1874 in Lee Co., MS. On 18 Dec 1871 Lee Co., MS a marriage license was taken out for Martha Upchurch and Frederick Schumpherd, but a return never filed. William A. Upchurch took out a marriage license on 2 Jan 1882 in Lee Co., MS to marry Maggie Cunningham but a return was never filed.

There is speculation that these are the children of A. Upchurch found on 1850 DeSoto Co., MS census in household of Elias Beall, who had moved from GA to MS. At this time this A. Upchurch was 23, b. NC around 1827. An A. Upchurch is then found on 1855 directory for Bolands, Itawamba Co., MS.

There is speculation that this A. Upchurch might also be the A. Upchurch of 1849 that was headed from MS to MO to be outfitted to go out west during the Gold Rush.

There is also an A.G. Upchurch, possibly Alexander or Almenean Gaston, who took out a marriage license on 14 Dec 1852 in DeSoto Co., MS to marry Susannah B. Vaughan, with no return ever filed. He is found on 1860 DeSoto Co., MS census with family. He then either deserted his family or something as his wife married Frank Rowland in 1866. By 1867 A.G. Upchurch is in Panola Co., MS, with mentions of DeSoto Co. and Tate Co., MS. In 1873, he married Mariah/ Mona C./E. Long/Longe, but my 1880 this wife had married Berry Matthews and was in Attala Co., MS.

A.G. UPCHURCH(957)

A.G. UPCHURCH(957) usually went by the initials A.G. only. One record was of Alexander or Almenean Gastin that was probably really A.G. The A. UPCHURCH(951) of DeSoto County may actually be A.G. due to the locality and the close age. On 14 December 1852, A.G. UPCHURCH took out a marriage licence in DeSoto County, Mississippi to marry Susannah B. VAUGHAN. No return was ever recorded for this license. ⁶⁷⁷

In 1860 A.G. and his family appeared on the DeSoto County census. A.G. UPCHURCH was born about 1822 in North Carolina. Susannah B. VAUGHAN was born about 1835 in Alabama. The had a daughter, M.E. UPCHURCH(958), born about 1853 in DeSoto County. ⁶⁷⁸ It is unknown if A.G. UPCHURCH divorced his wife or just deserted his family. At any rate, on 11 February 1866, ⁶⁷⁹ in DeSoto County, Mrs. Susie UPCHURCH married Frank ROWLAND. Presumably this is the wife of A.G. UPCHURCH, who was definitely still alive at this time.

On 20 March 1867, A.G. UPCHURCH of Panola County bought two lots for $50 at Cold Water Depot in DeSoto County from R.D. FORT. This land deed was recorded in Tate County. ⁶⁸⁰ A.G. probably never lived on this land for he was a resident of Panola County when he sold the land on 21 October 1870 for $60 to W.E. EMERY. It is interesting to note that this latter deed was handled by the Mississippi Commissioner in Memphis, Tennessee and was recorded in Tate County. ⁶⁸¹

The next record of A.G. UPCHURCH was a marriage license on 12 October 1873 in Tate County. In this record he was listed as A.G., Almenean G., Almenean Gastrin, Alexander, and Alexander S. or G. His bride was listed as Maria C. LONGE, Maria E. LONGE, Mona C. LONG, M. LONGINE, and Mariah or Monah C. LONG. ⁶⁸² A.G. and Maria C. LONG had one child, Minnie UPCHURCH(959), born about 1874. By 1880 ⁶⁸³ Maria had married Berry MATTHEWS and was living in Attala County. No further records have been found for the family of A.G. UPCHURCH.

GREEN HILL. The marriage bond of Wyatt Wills to Nancy Garner, dated August 4, 1802, was witnessed by GREEN HILL, Clerk of Franklin County, who was a son of the GREEN HILL, born, as beaded says on page 312 of his "Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight" Nov. 14, 1741 in BUTE COUNTY, N. C., and died in Williamson County, Tennessee in 1826. This is error because the text of the account shows that the 1741 date would apply to EDGEBOURNE COUNTY, as even then, GRANVILLE COUNTY had not been set aside and organized. So, this shows, that the GREEN HILL who lived South of Louisburg across the Tar River, where Bishop Coke held the First North Carolina Methodist Conference at his home in 1785, which Bishop Asbury attended, was in Williamson County, Tennessee, in 1812, and it was his son GREEN HILL, who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812. (Green Hill, father of the 1741 Green, married GRACE BENNETT, daughter of WILLIAM BENNETT and was father also of many children, including GREEN and JORDAN HILL, whose name appears on the 1800 census list given in this sketch.) The Green Hill who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812 married Mary Long, who was obviously a daughter of GABRIEL LONG and his wife SUSAN RICHARDSON, of Halifax County. Gabriel Long was the son of SOL, NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax. Nicholas Long, son of Nicholas and brother of Gabriel, appears on the 1800 census in Franklin also, though the Georgia Records show that he was and had become a leading citizen of WILKES COUNTY, GEORGIA, a little after or about this time. The GREEN HILL who was Clerk of Franklin County in 1812, and who married the grand-daughter of SOL, NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax County, probably did not remove to WILLIAMSON COUNTY, Tennessee, with his father, since the father was living in Tennessee in 1808, according to Bishop Asbury (p. 312 Roddie's 17th Century) while his son was still in Franklin County even four years later, holding a county office. However, GREEN HILL the younger afterwards moved to ALABAMA and settled in GREEN County, where his family also went, including a son GABRIEL HILL, born in 1811, evidently in Franklin County, N. C., who married ELIZABETH EPPS MURPHY. The son GABRIEL HILL and his wife ELIZABETH had WILLIAM, RICHARD, GRACE, GABRIEL and ANNE LIZA HILL, the latter becoming the wife of NICHOLAS TURNER SORSBY (b. N. C. 1817), son of ALEXANDER SORSBY, who died in NASH COUNTY, N. C. in 1818, believed to have been the son of SAMUEL SORSBY who died in Nash County in 1791. Nicholas Turner Sorsby and his wife ANNE LIZA HILL were the parents of NUGENIA REBECCA SORSBY (b. 1854) who married ROBERT JAMISON or JAMISON, who was in some way related to the ERABY FAMILY, of GRANVILLE County, who settled in TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA.

Morrison, born October 21, 1910. Mrs. Mollie K. Collins died November 8, 1908, and Mr. Collins was married a second time at New London, Connecticut, April 30, 1910, to Miss Nellie Smith Williams, daughter of Leonard N. and Nancy E. (Smith) Williams, both natives of Connecticut. One daughter has been born to this union, Sidney Clyde, born June 22, 1913. Mrs. Collins is a member of the Baptist Church. Mr. Collins is a Master Mason and a member of the Elks Lodge, his membership in the latter lodge being still at Pittsburg, Kansas, Lodge No. 412.

ROBERT E. LONG. From cow trails to modern public highways, from log huts to modern homes, from grazing lands to cultivated farms, from a form of Indian civilization to a cosmopolitan and modern society, from the era of the cow thief to that of the law-abiding citizen, extends the span of more than thirty years that Robert E. Long has spent in the historic Choctaw country. The span is of vital interest to him for he has had an important part in this locality's development. The agile hands that threw the rope on the cattle ranges of the nation became possessed of a sort of magic when he abandoned the career of a cow-puncher and took up that of contractor and builder. The frontier village of Atoka was transformed into a modern little city because of the activities of such men as he. His ideas and his hands conceived and helped to construct the beautiful McArthur home that is now owned by J. O. Kuykendall, one of the wealthiest men of Eastern Oklahoma, the W. H. Reynolds home, the J. A. Cline home, the L. C. LeFlore home, the William Hildwell residence, the J. R. Ray home and the residence of R. R. Phillips. These are the names of men and families that during the last forty years have been conspicuous in Atoka's progress and they dot the span that reaches from the early Indian and missionary settlements to the modern days.

In more recent years the activities of Mr. Long have again been conspicuous, for as a member of the board of county commissioners he took a leading part in the construction of a modern brick county courthouse and jail that cost $67,100. It became his duty—the duty of his board—under recent state laws to survey and build public highways. This accomplished a transformation of important history value, for the county was for fifty years without roads save those the pioneers traveled out through convenient routes. The transformation was practically from cow trails to modern highways. Two state highways were made to thread the county, one running north and south and the other east and west. County highways were also established, and in the three years following 1912, when Mr. Long entered the office of county commissioner, rapid progress was made in laying out and improving section lines. In this respect Atoka County took the lead of some of its neighbors in the Indian country. One of these county highways extends from Atoka to Wapanucka through the historic Village of Boggy Depot and another traverses the lands formerly held by Chief Atoka, after whom Dr. J. S. Murrow, founder of the Village of Atoka, named this village. In 1915 about seventy bridges, of more or less magnitude, had been constructed. One of these that cost $7,000 was erected in the mountain region east of Atoka on the east-west state highway. The board of county commissioners, of which in 1915 Ira Stephenson of Caney and T. M. Dyer of Wardville, were the other members, also has taken a forward step in the agricultural development of the county in making annual appropriations for part of the salary of a United States farm demonstration agent.

Robert E. Long was born at Decatur, Wise County, Texas, in 1873, and is a son of Joseph and Mary (Bridges) Long. His father, who is a native of Missouri, settled in Texas in the '50s, and engaged in the cattle business, leaving that enterprise in 1861 to enter the Confederate army in which he served during the war between the states, following which he entered the service of the Texas Rangers with whom he was identified for several years. He is now living at Atoka at the age of seventy years. Mr. Long's mother is of Choctaw descent, her father having emigrated from Mississippi to Texas after the migration of the Choctaws to Indian Territory. Unlike many red men he was not proud of his Indian blood and never asked, but on the contrary eschewed, enrollment with the Choctaw tribe in Indian Territory. There were the following children in the family of Joseph and Mary Long: Robert E.; Mrs. L. Shope, wife of a conductor on the Texas Pacific Railroad, at Bonham, Texas; Joseph Newton, a brakeman on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, living at Atoka; Thomas, who is engaged in farming in Atoka County; Wesley, who was an employe of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad and was killed on that road December 13, 1900; Martha Adline Falkner, who lives at Ada, Oklahoma; Samuel H., a conductor on the Frisco Railroad, who was killed while in the service, near Frances, Oklahoma, in 1911, and Edwin Long, who lives in Coleman, Oklahoma, engaged in the drug business.

When he was nine years of age, Robert E. Long came to Atoka County with his parents, and here entered the subscription school. His first activities were as a cowboy on the ranch of D. N. Robb, of Brush Creek, near Atoka. Later for two years he was employed on the ranch of A. L. Dulaney, leaving that work to learn the trade of carpenter under John McAfee, one of the earliest contractors in the Choctaw Nation. Still later he worked under J. H. Jackson, another early-day contractor. Among his early teachers were B. S. Smyser, a pioneer of Atoka County; and E. H. Rishel, now of Oklahoma City, who once was superintendent of the Atoka Baptist Academy. Among his schoolmates was Governor Locke, who is now principal chief of the Choctaw Nation. Mr. Long was married at Atoka, in 1898, to Miss Belle Upchurch. They have four children: Mabel, who was born in 1901; Helen, born in 1903; Robert E., Jr., born in 1912 and Dorothy, born in 1914. Mr. and Mrs. Long are consistent members of the Methodist Church. His fraternal connections are with the Masons, the Knights of Pythias and the Woodmen of the World, and he holds membership also in the Carpenters' Union. For six years he was district deputy grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias lodge, and for nine years has been a member of the grand lodge of the state.

AMIL H. JAPP. The legal profession of Cotton County number among its able and thoroughly learned members, Amil H. Japp, city attorney of Walters, an office which he has held since his arrival in this city in 1912. Unlike many, Mr. Japp did not enter his practice in untried youth, for his early years were passed in agricultural pursuits, but when once entered upon his career he made steady advancement, so that today he occupies a substantial and firmly-established place among the practitioners of Cotton County.

Mr. Japp was born in Scott County, Iowa, June 18, 1877, and is a son of John A. and Doris (Schwin) Japp, the families on both sides being old and honored ones in Germany. His father, born in 1836, in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, came to the United States in 1876 and settled at Davenport, Scott County, Iowa, where he began to accumulate the means for the foundation of a home. About the year 1879 he went to Hamilton County, Iowa, where he continued his farming and stockraising operations, remaining there until 1891, when he came to

A.G. UPCHURCH(957) usually went by the initials A.G. only. One record was of Alexander or Almenean Gastin that was probably really A.G. The A. UPCHURCH(951) of DeSoto County may actually be A.G. due to the locality and the close age. On 14 December 1852, A.G. UPCHURCH took out a marriage licence in DeSoto County, Mississippi to marry Susannah B. VAUGHAN. No return was ever recorded for this license. ⁶⁷⁷

In 1860 A.G. and his family appeared on the DeSoto County census. A.G. UPCHURCH was born about 1822 in North Carolina. Susannah B. VAUGHAN was born about 1835 in Alabama. The had a daughter, M.E. UPCHURCH(958), born about 1853 in DeSoto County. ⁶⁷⁸ It is unknown if A.G. UPCHURCH divorced his wife or just deserted his family. At any rate, on 11 February 1866, ⁶⁷⁹ in DeSoto County, Mrs. Susie UPCHURCH married Frank ROWLAND. Presumably this is the wife of A.G. UPCHURCH, who was definitely still alive at this time.

On 20 March 1867, A.G. UPCHURCH of Panola County bought two lots for $50 at Cold Water Depot in DeSoto County from R.D. FORT. This land deed was recorded in Tate County. ⁶⁸⁰ A.G. probably never lived on this land for he was a resident of Panola County when he sold the land on 21 October 1870 for $60 to W.E. EMERY. It is interesting to note that this latter deed was handled by the Mississippi Commissioner in Memphis, Tennessee and was recorded in Tate County. ⁶⁸¹

The next record of A.G. UPCHURCH was a marriage license on 12 October 1873 in Tate County. In this record he was listed as A.G., Almenean G., Almenean Gastrin, Alexander, and Alexander S. or G. His bride was listed as Maria C. LONGE, Maria E. LONGE, Mona C. LONG, M. LONGINE, and Mariah or Monah C. LONG. ⁶⁸² A.G. and Maria C. LONG had one child, Minnie UPCHURCH(959), born about 1874. By 1880 Maria had married Berry MATTHEWS and was living in Attala County. ⁶⁸³ No further records have been found for the family of A.G. UPCHURCH.

Longtime grocer retiring, closing shop

By DAVID LEONE
Staff Writer

Time is running out for customers of the Apex Grocery.

Come November, owner Harry Beasley will be closing down the 46-year-old general store to retire, and his long-time patrons will have to find somewhere else to go.

"About 60 years I've been coming by here. I used to come here when I was about four or five years old — I'm about 77 now," Leather Harrington said.

"When you came down here then you'd only see an automobile every now and then — most people came down on wagons," he reminisced. "He ain't going to close up, he'd hurt too many people like me and a whole lot of other people."

Beasley's brother Richard opened the grocery in 1950, and Harry joined him after his father's City Feed Store burned to the ground in 1955.

Originally located on the west side of downtown Salem Street, the Beasleys bought, in 1957, the building in which it is now housed.

The store catered mainly to the area's tenant farmers in its early years, Beasley said.

The farmers were given a stipend credit line at the store by their landlord, and they bought all their worldly goods, there in the spring and summer work months.

"That's the reason all the stores in Apex carried a variety," Beasley said. "Feed, seed, fertilizer, just whatever it would take to grow a crop of tobacco."

"We had washing powder, Clorox, shoes, clothes — that was before all these chain stores started moving in."

He still carries a variety, everything from seeds, grapes and turnips to buckets, overalls and cokes.

"Since I was a little bitty boy — about 25 years — I've been coming here off and on," Samuel Mangum Sr., said.

Mangum brought his young daughter Deonna in Friday afternoon, to purchase mustard greens for his patch and "to bring her in here to see where daddy used to come and buy stuff."

"I spend about $100 a week right here in this store buying garden seed, grass seed, fertilizer and hams," Moody Long said.

Long is one of Apex's older residents who often come to the grocery to sit and chat about things past, the current state of affairs and things yet to come.

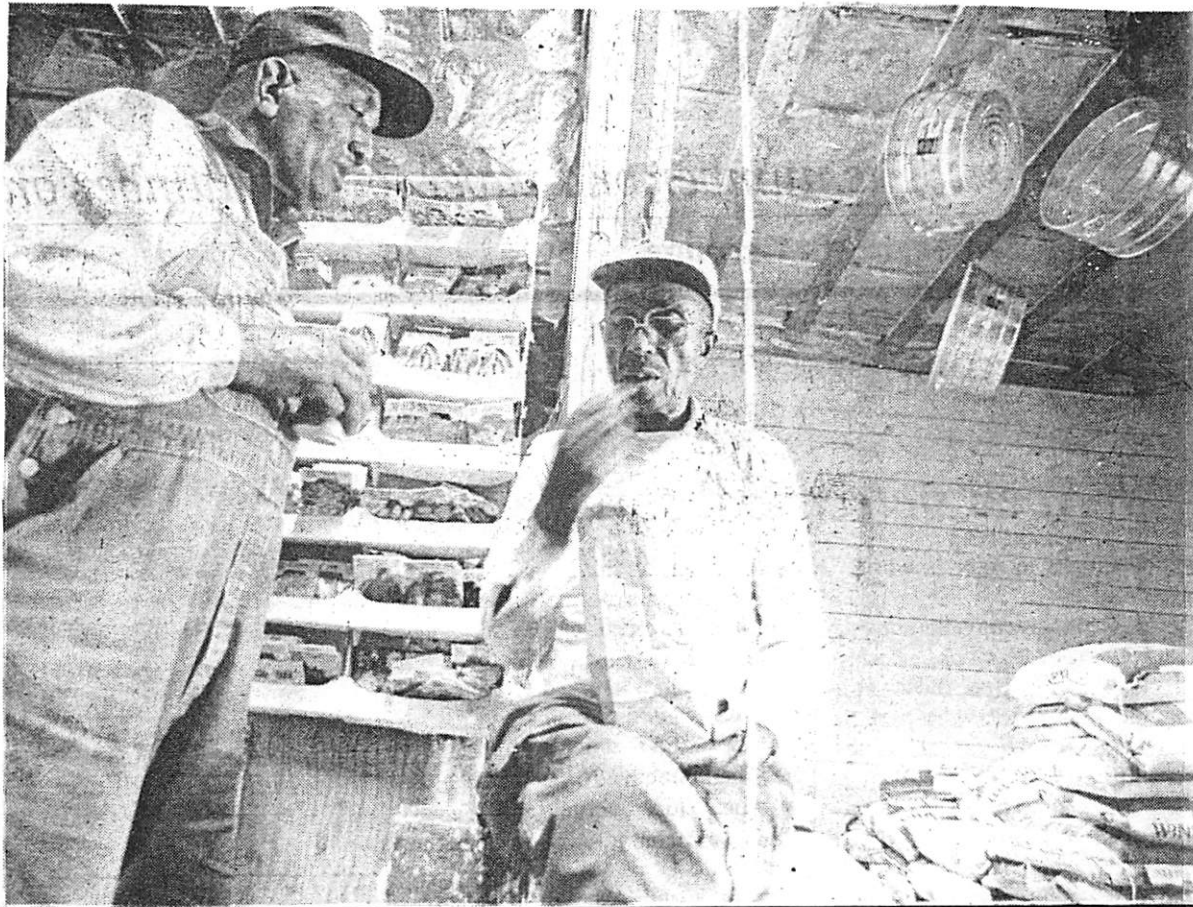

Some come in now to stock up on goods that will be gone in November, when the store closes.

Daniel Page, who came in to buy a stovepipe for a friend, also picked up apples and syrup.

"I want to get me some of that syrup before you close up," Page remarked to Beasley on Friday.

Beasley said that even though he'll try to sell off his inventory over the next few months, he will still order items people need.

"I've got a hotline right to the factory," he said. "I'm just not restocking."

Beasley has begun reducing prices on some items in order to move them. He's lowered prices on shoes, jackets and winter clothes and beginning Nov. 1 he said he is going to drop the price on all goods.

Beasley said that at the end of November he may hold an auction on the remaining items.

"I'm not happy at all about quitting," the 66-year-old Beasley said. "But there comes a time when everybody needs to retire."

While work wasn't too hard, Beasley said it has been rather confining, his being stuck in the store every day from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

He resides on Cunningham Street with his wife, in a house he has lived in for 39 years.

As for his customers, Beasley said in the old days they used to hang out at filling stations.

"I expect some of them will miss it really," Beasley said. "It's been kind of a hangout but they'll find somewhere else to go."

"I know this is one of the best stores Apex ever had — I was trading with their daddy before they ever took over," Frank Caufield said from his seat in the back room.

"Everybody knows me, I've lived here about 50 years," the retired 82-year-old dry cleaner said. "When it closes, I'll just sit home on the porch, I imagine."

Reflections

Life stays pretty much the same at the Apex Grocery

By David Leone
Staff Writer

In 1945, Apex wasn't much more than farmland. In those days things were different. A Coke cost a nickel, cars still had that wonderful open, rounded-out look, and the Polio virus was still ravaging the nation.

Times have changed. Apex is on its way to bedroom community status, a Coke now goes for 55 cents, no matter what make or model of car you buy, it will look just like all the others, and the AIDS virus is the scare of a nation.

At the Apex Grocery though, things are still pretty much the same.

Harry Beasley has run the store ever since his brother, Dick, retired about five years ago. Before that, the two of them worked the store since it was built after their father's place, the City Feed Store, burned down.

The City Feed Store went up in 1945 to serve the needs of the tenant farmers in the area. The store provided the families with all their needs and many traded their goods to get by. Some of them still do.

There isn't a day that goes by when you can go into the general store at 122 South Salem and not see a couple of old guys hanging out in the corner chatting away.

And through the course of the day, the faces of these men will change as one goes out and another one comes in.

There's Raymond Allen, 81, of Friendship Road and Moody Long, who is 80 but could pass for 40.

"Do you know what the definition of a codger is?" Moody asks, and gives his own answer. "Raymond Allen."

"Moody saved his money by trading with Harry Beasley," comes the retort.

They've been coming into the store ever since it opened, and even before.

"I knew [Harry's] daddy before he was born," Raymond touts. Ray was one of those people who used the store for all of its goods.

Actually, the definition of codger is "an odd or eccentric fellow." That definition applies to more than just Ray and Moody though.

A little later on, Elmer Topps is in the grocery, gossiping to anyone who'll listen about the "deadman's curve on Schieffelin road" which caused a woman's car to recently overturn.

Dick Beasley takes his hand to fixing an old adding machine at the store.

Talk then turns to the influx of northerners into the town. "I have a lot of Yankee friends," Elmer said. "I have no problem if they come down looking for a job."

That seems to be the general opinion among these men. One thing that never changes is the need to make a good buck.

"I've worked for 50 cents a day for a six hour day," Raymond recalls.

Of course, not all of the men are so welcoming to strangers. One

Frank Cofield, 80, lights up in the back of the grocery.

Photos by David Leone

old codger who wouldn't give up his name described the difference between a "Damn" Yankee and a "Good" Yankee.

"A Damn Yankee is one that comes and stays. A Good Yankee is one that goes back," he chuckled.

Round about lunchtime Harry's retired brother, Dick, comes in to check on things. Immediately he begins tinkering with an old adding machine.

"He don't come around much because I put him to work," Harry said.

After fixing the machine, Dick collects on what would be the "most exciting thing to ever happen to Apex on a Sunday." That would be when his father's Feed Store burned down.

All of the fire trucks from Raleigh and Fuquay came to put it out, he said.

"The four bottles of black powder we had didn't help the situation much," he added.

After the fire, Dick said that the family teamed together to build the Apex Grocery

Though many of these guys have wandered weekly into the store since its opening, some of them weren't here all the time.

John Maynard spent seven of his years in the military, 47 months of which he was stationed in the South Pacific during World War II. He was stationed at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese attacked.

"I saw the first bomb hit. I was fixin' to eat breakfast when we heard the planes, ran out and saw it hit the gas storage," he said.

John noted that part of the reason nobody was aware of the attack was because the boy on the radar had been playing crazy to get a section eight discharge. When he reported seeing all those blips 25 minutes out, command just assumed he was crying wolf.

Yes, there are all sorts of stories you can hear at Harry Beasley's

Apex Grocery. All one has to do is to walk in at any time and catch an old codger in a good mood.

Frank Cofield, who spent 59 years in the dry cleaning business before retiring as "Master Cleaner," summed the situation up best.

"I'm up here about every day. I have nothing to do and I don't want to do anything."

In the late afternoon before closing, most of the wanderers gone home, in comes a woman with her daughter who runs all the way around the counter yelling "Mr. Beasley, Mr. Beasley" as loud as a two-year-old can.

And with a smile, she is greeted by Harry Beasley who, though he may have been around for a long, long time, isn't too old to know young Kinyatta by sight. She has joined the tradition very early

Hi Phil,

I hope you are doing well.

I spent May 2016 in NC and had a wonderful time. The weather was great and not muggy. I went to two family Reunions and my high school senior class met for breakfast.

I saw some of my Aunt Lillian UPCHURCH Parrish's grand children. She was married to my Daddy's brother, Cleasy Parrish. It was fun.

I went to The Hunter Family Reunion but didn't know anyone. My sister Alice Faye Parrish married Fred Hunter. Fred is now deceased.

I might have replied to your letter BUT I'm now sick, lame, lazy and senile. I can't stand the senility! There isn't anyone who can aggravate ME like I aggravate myself!

I might have replied to your letter BUT I don't remember!!

I get around with a cane. My son-in-law got a Hurry Cane for me. It is wonderful! The foot is flexible and the height is adjustable. It certainly provides stability when walking.

Well I must get my rear in gear! My car must be SMOG tested so I can renew my license tag. I must go to DMV and get a DL testing booklet. I need to review the CA laws, they probably have something that don't know about or have forgotten. I know my night driving is over!!

When in NC I had a great visit w/ my two PERDUE nieces. The younger niece went into a diabetic coma when she was three years old. I have never heard of that any other time. She had a broken leg but looked so healthy and pretty. I asked how she broke her leg and she said she was walking across the room and

The next thing she knew she was on the floor. Diabetics don't always heal well but she was doing great! Unfortunately she died recently, she was having gall stones removed and her heart stopped. She was 58.

⊙ She was a miracle like my precious "Michael Angel"!

The house next door is getting a new roof, lots of pounding and compressor going on and off.

I still have my windows open at night, use the whole house fan which blows the hot air out of the attic!
Good sleeping.

Must get my rear in gear!

⊙ I called Deb after I got home and told her how pretty, healthy and happy she looked. She was tickled and thanked me. Shortly afterwards she died. ~~She was~~ ~~gone.~~

Take care,
Nancy Long

Hi Nancy----

You are among my 600+ email addresses mostly having to do with family history--my passion. I have just made the rounds to firm up interests with many of these. However, my family history interests with you are incidental or not well defined. Given that you might be curious I am sending you and several others of like status this update on our work on family history. Should you want more just let me know. A support form is attached should the spirit move you. A special PS may be added.

Our website for the Upchurch Bulletin (1980-2015) is www.upchurchstory.com password 2013upchurch#. We are proud of our 4,000 pages of posted Upchurch information and of our videos. Our newer website for Upchurch and Allied families Association, Inc, a 501 (c) 3 entity is www.alliedfamilies.com password 2014allied#. Here we are doing family history in a more powerful way. Have a look. Much more will be added in the months ahead. I work on this 40+ hours per week in my apartment and in the Allied Families Headquarters in Chesterfield , MO where we have 18 hours per week of part-time paid helpers Mary Lou Brown and Jay Buck.

Allied Families now has an office in Wake County, NC in Suite 120, at 1130 Kildaire Farm Road in Cary . N. C.. There we have volunteers working under four Coordinators on a part-time basis. This operation holds a great potential and we look for it to prosper.

Our active projects now include annotating cemeteries and historic site and transcribing Biofiles to be posted on our website. We have so far 20 remote volunteer transcribers. We have 22 families in various stages of being enrolled on our website. Each is to be accompanied by a Family Tree on Anncestry.com. We are making good progress in sequestering funds to build endowments for each of the enrolled families to provide long term support.

The Allied Families program of work is designed to involve descendants of the enrolled families each headed by a patriarch or matriarch who lived about the time of the Revolution. We hold out the promise that records can be preserved and shared far into the future.

Should you have questions, suggestions, interest or words of encouragement please let us know.

Fraternally~

Phil Upchurch, President , Allied Families.

GREEN HILL. The marriage bond of Wyatt Wills to Nancy Garner, dated August 4, 1802, was witnessed by GREEN HILL, Clerk of Franklin County, who was a son of the GREEN HILL, born, as Roddie says on page 312 of his "Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight" Nov. 14, 1741 in BUTE COUNTY, N. C. and died in Williamson County, Tennessee in 1826. This is error because the text of the account shows that the 1741 date would apply to EDGECOMBE COUNTY, as even then, GRANVILLE COUNTY had not been set aside and organized. So, this shows, that the GREEN HILL who lived South of Louisburg across the Tar River, where Bishop Coke held the First North Carolina Methodist Conference at his home in 1785, which Bishop Asbury attended, was in Williamson County, Tennessee, in 1812, and it was his son GREEN HILL, who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812. (Green Hill, father of the 1741 Green, married GRACE BERRY, daughter of WILLIAM BERRY and was father also of many children, including GREEN and JORDAN HILL, whose name appears on the 1800 census list given in this sketch.) The Green Hill who was Clerk of Franklin in 1812 married Mary Long, who was obviously a daughter of GABRIEL LONG and his wife SUSAN RICHARDSON, of Halifax County. Gabriel Long was the son of COL. NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax. Nicholas Long, son of Nicholas and brother of Gabriel, appears on the 1800 census in Franklin also, though the Georgia records show that he was and had become a leading citizen of WILKES COUNTY, GEORGIA, a little after or about this time. The GREEN HILL who was Clerk of Franklin County in 1812, and who married the grand-daughter of COL. NICHOLAS LONG, of Halifax County, probably did not remove to WILLIAMSON COUNTY, Tennessee, with his father, since the father was living in Tennessee in 1808, according to Bishop Asbury (p. 312 Roddie's 17th Century) while his son was still in Franklin County even four years later, holding a county office. However, GREEN HILL the younger afterwards moved to ALABAMA and settled in GREEN County, where his family also went, including a son GABRIEL HILL, born in 1811, evidently in Franklin County, N. C., who married ELIZABETH EPPS MURPHY. The son GABRIEL HILL and his wife ELIZABETH had WILLIAM, RICHARD, GRACE, GABRIEL and ANNE LIZA HILL, the latter becoming the wife of NICHOLAS TURNER SORSBY (b. N. C. 1817), son of ALEXANDER SORSBY, who died in WASH COUNTY, N. C. in 1818, believed to have been the son of SAMUEL SORSBY who died in Nash County in 1791. Nicholas Turner Sorsby and his wife ANNE LIZA HILL were the parents of NUGENIA REBECCA SORSBY (b. 1859) who married ROBERT JAMISON or JAMISON, who was in some way related to the BERRY FAMILY, of GRANVILLE County, who settled in TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA.

GREEN HILL. The marriage bond of Wyatt Mills to Nancy Garner, dated August 4, 1802, was witnessed by GREEN HILL, Clerk of Franklin County, who was a son of the GREEN HILL, born, as Boddie says on page 312 of his "Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight" Nov. 14, 1741 in BETH COUNTY, N. This is error because the text of the account shows that the 1741 date would apply to EDGEWATER COUNTY, as even then, GRANVILLE COUNTY had not been set aside and organized. Long, a Peace sophomore, is the daughter of Randy Long of Zebulon and the granddaughter of Mrs. Rochelle Long of 124 Arendell Ave., Zebulon.

① The Zebulon Record 15 MAY 1988 Zebulon, NC

Miss Long graduates with honor

The daughter of a Zebulon man was among the approximately 200 young women graduated from Peace College during the 114th commencement Saturday.

Rhonda Gail Long, daughter of Randy Long, was also one of eight students honored for top Peace awards held as a secret until commencement. She was one of the five graduates who earned the "Academic Achievement Award." For the first time, that award was given to more than one student because five graduates — including Miss Long — earned perfect A (4.0) averages for their two years.

Miss Long received the associate of arts degree. She plans to continue her education at Appalachian State University, to which she has recently been awarded an academic scholarship. She plans to major in English and secondary education.

Miss Long was named an outstanding sophomore scholar at Peace College for being among the top 10 scholars in her graduating class. All of the top scholars this year have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.8 out of a possible 4.0.

Miss Long also was nominated to the National Dean's List by Peace College Academic Dean Helen Staples. For that honor, her name will appear in an annual publication along with academically qualified students from 2,500 colleges and universities.

Among her Peace activities, Miss Long was a member of Phi Theta Kappa (National Junior College academic honor society), a marshal, a dean's list student, and a member of Sigma Delta Mu (Spanish honor society).

She is the granddaughter of Rochelle Long of 124 S. Arendell Ave.

Long earns perfect GPA at Peace College

Rhonda Long, daughter of Zebulon resident Randy Long, was honored this spring at Peace College for several kinds of outstanding achievement as a student.

Long, a rising sophomore, was named the first-place winner of the "Penny Freshman English Award" for students with superior performance in written and oral work during their freshman year. The English faculty chose Long as the top English student, based on samples of her work. She received a $100 scholarship for the honor.

Long made the spring semester dean's list with distinction, earning a perfect 4.0 (A) grade point average for the second semester in a row. She was one of seven freshmen to make a straight A average.

She was also recently selected to be an admissions assistant, one of seven select sophomores who act as goodwill ambassadors for the college. They give campus tours to prospective students and help with special admissions office activities such as "Junior and Senior Visitation Days" and "Scholarship Interview Days." Admissions assistants are selected after administrative recommendations and interviews.

Long is the granddaughter of Rochelle Long of Zebulon.

Zollie was a farmer all his life. He had a country store on what is now Johnson Town Rd. near Pearces. This was a gathering place for the men to talk and play checkers or cards. There was a large mule-drawn cider mill located on the farm with a cider loft built over it. The loft had a big yellow apple painted on the barned structure. This was used to make cider and vinegar. Other families would bring their apples to be ground for cider and vinegar, also.

Zollie never learned to drive and until 1937 when he bought his first truck, his means of travel was by mule and wagon and his work was by mule and plow. The family raised their own food: hogs for meat; cows for meat, milk, and butter; chickens for meat and eggs; and all vegetables were canned. Wheat and corn was carried to a mill to trade for flour and corn meal.

Most of the family still lives in Franklin County. Many live in the Pearces and Bunn Community. Zollie died in 1963. Lillie lived with her son, Pete, until her death in 1985. Both Zollie and Lillie are buried in the Pearce Baptist Church Cemetery.
