← I wanted to share with you a little of the family history of Elizabeth and Fannie Sells. They married brothers, Jess and Elijah Crouch. When my Grandmother died in 1932, my Father was only 11. For years he was shuffled between relatives and friends of the family. Some of his happiest times were in Tennessee. He spent time with his Grandmother Lucinda, Uncle Raymond Sells and Uncle Elijah (Lige) and Aunt Fannie. He was very close to Lige and Fannie's son Delmer. They called themselves double first cousins. -We made family vacations to Tennessee every year. It developed in me a deep love for all my relatives in Tennessee. I visit my cousins Brittany and Chase as often as possible. They are Delmer's gr grandchildren. They were adopted by their grandparents, Charles and Janice, after their parents death.

Apex resident, 29, killed

By MARK TODD
Herald Editor

Ruth Farrington, 29, of Apex was killed last Thursday in a traffic accident on Interstate 40 as she drove to work at Rex Hospital.

Farrington was making plans to be married, and her death shocked friends and family who said she was the kind of person who would do anything she could to help someone in need.

Farrington, of 9024 Turner Dr., Apex, was on her way to work as a private duty nurse. The accident occurred at 12:20 p.m. near Cary Towne Boulevard, according to the North Carolina Highway Patrol.

Farrington was traveling west on the highway in the far right lane. When she began merging left, her 1987 Plymouth minivan hit the right front bumper of an 18-wheeler, spun and turned over in the median.

The van landed on the driver's side and Farrington was killed instantly, the patrol said.

Thursday

She was traveling alone and was not wearing her seatbelt, which surprised her family and friends, who said she habitually buckled up before going anywhere.

The driver of the truck was Johnny Thompson of Dallas. He was not injured and his truck sustained only minor damage.

Farrington was the third of 10

Surviving: fiance, Johnathan Evans; daughter, Christy Farrington; father, Wallace Farrington Sr.; mother, Edna Farrington; three sisters, Donna Farrington and Yolanda Farrington, both of Apex, Glenda Farrington of Raleigh; eight brothers, Donnie Farrington, Wallace Farrington Jr., William Farrington, Wallace Dawkins, Raythan Dawkins, Bruce Mangum, Anthony Dawkins and Sammy Rouse; grandmother, Mattie Lyons of Apex; nine aunts; five uncles.

children and was a 1986 graduate of Cary High School and a member of Poplar Springs Christian Church in Raleigh.

She was planning to be married to longtime sweetheart Johnathan Evans of Raleigh. She also left behind an adopted daughter, Christy.

In addition to her work at Rex Hospital, Farrington also worked part-time at Wendy's on Kildaire Farm Road in Cary.

Her good friend, Sheila Ellerbee of Apex, said Farrington was "great... I couldn't sleep at all last night."

Farrington loved children and often looked after them for friends and family members, she said.

"I just couldn't believe it. It's like they say, you come in, you gotta go out," Ellerbee said.

She said Farrington was "very happy" to be getting married after a long courtship. "They just took their time and they were very happy," she said of the couple.

Farrington, a native of Apex, was buried Monday at the church cemetery.

Wakelon High School's class of '45 reunites

The graduates of the class of 1945 of Wakelon High School, along with spouses, friends and special guests, gathered at the Shrine Club in Zebulon on May 20 for their 50th reunion.

"There was much excitement in seeing many classmates for the first time since graduation," said Mrs. James Robert Fowler Jr. The class had celebrated only its 32nd reunion previously.

After refreshments, the group went to the old Wakelon School, which opened in 1910, for a guided tour by the owners, Glaxo-Wellcome Inc. "It was a trip down memory lane, everyone being thankful the building had been saved," she added.

The group returned to the Shrine Club for pictures, visiting and memory sharing. Former Principal Roy L. Lowery, 92, remembered class members with his versions of their events.

Banquet tables were appointed with modified topiary arrangements of mixed roses and foli-ages, alternating with mirrored vaulted candles and greeneries.

James Robert Fowler welcomed everyone and introduced special guests, Mildred Dawson, first-grade teacher, and Mimi Dawson Kelly, mascot. Marty Gordon Massey Bryant led the memorial service with names of deceased classmates Dorothy Mae Oakley, Willa Dean Edwards, Andrew Allen Draughon, Neumo Elmo Finch, Eliza Louise Jeffreys and mascot Howard Beck Jr. She asked Barbara Finch, widow of Elmo, to light a white pillar candle in memory of these classmates, and called for a moment of silent prayer.

Ned L. Frazier offered invocation. After a prime rib dinner, Fowler called on each classmate to introduce their spouse or friend, and update everyone on family and points of interest. Of the 40 present, there were 21 classmates, 15 guests and four special guests. Fowler gave a roll call of absentees, correspondence update, and explained why some were unable to attend.

Absent: Jane Baker Pearce, Elmarie Brewer Martin, Dorothy Denton Keyes, Geraldine Gay Fleming, Jewel Hood Simmons, Margaret Horton Pearce, Carolyn Mangum Jay, Nannie Ree Parrish Denton, Margaret Pearce, Crocker Perry, E.G. Richards, Allyne Starnes Huckabee and Gloria Faye Williams Hawkins.

Vic Gill Wootton held elections of superlatives — 50 years later. A few of those were: most traveled, Mary Kemp Brown from Florida; runner-up Robert Denton from Boone; most worldly (lived in most states), Robert Denton and Charles Horton; most productive (most children and grandchildren), Elizabeth Baker Henderson; and happiest (married closest to 50 years), Peggy Perry Underhill.

"Goodbyes came late and were hard to say," said Mrs. Fowler, "but they promised to meet every two years for future reunions."

○ FROM BOOK: The Bingham of Louisville RE: BINGHAM, KENAN, WORTH, FLAGLER FAMILIES

Special Comments on Robert Worth Bingham "Judge" "Bob"

4 8 NOV 1871 & 1937

"Bob" is a central figure in the book. The authors portray him as a handsome ladies man liked by everyone but that his early life was spent deceitfully to gain advantage. He married 3 rich women to further his cause. No 2 was Mary Lilly (Kenan) Bingham, widow of Henry Morrison Flagler. Bob & Mary had an affair in their youth & the Kenan Family went to great lengths to separate them. Mary soon took up with Flagler & in due course married him & became wealthy when he died. She was lonesome & soon fell into Bob's clutches & married him. Within a year she was dead. The authors present the case that Bob killed her. He came away from her death wealthy & became a highly minded citizen - Editor & owner of Louisville KY newspaper & Roosevelt's Ambassador to Great Britain. The authors hint that the Kenan Family closed their challenge to Bob's right to Mary Lilly's money after an autopsy led them to believe that she had a venereal disease. Bob had the same ailment. Bob graduated from the Bingham Academy in 1888 & enrolled in UNC at age 16. UNC Classmates = CHARLES MANGUM, W^M ANDREWS of Raleigh, NC, SHEPARD BRYAN, W^M WATKINS DAVIS "DAVE". Bob left UNC summer of 1890 (forced by Kenans) & enrolled UVA in drama. Went to Bingham School in Ashville JUL 1891 ~ PRDF for 4 years (VO recovery?). Law Degree 1897 Univ of Louisville. Bob & Dane had Louisville Law Practice 1899. Aft 1901 Bob challenge will of his GGF John Milton Worth & used Atty from Ashboro, NC OSCAR STAPP. I wanted to share with you a little of the family history of Elizabeth and Fannie Sells. They married brothers, Jess and Elijah Crouch. When my Grandmother died in 1932, my Father was only 11. For years he was shuffled between relatives and friends of the family. Some of his happiest times were in Tennessee. He spent time with his Grandmother Lucinda, Uncle Raymond Sells and Uncle Elijah(Lige) and Aunt Fannie. He was very close to Lige and Fannie's son Delmer. They called themselves double first cousins. -We made family vacations to Tennessee every year. It developed in me a deep love for all my relatives in Tennessee. I visit my cousins Brittany and Chase as often as possible. They are Delmer's gr grandchildren. They were adopted by their grandparents, Charles and Janice, after their parents death.

Dear cousin Cameron.

Thank you for your letter of 30 APR 1994 and for the details provided. I have just finished extracting the information and have placed it in the appropriate Biopiles and on the Master outline. An enclosed sheet shows by highlight the information which was new to me from your letter.

Provided herewith is an 11 Page Master outline for the Jubal Upchurch / Calvin Upchurch subclan to which you belong. This covers Calvin U, his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren to the extent that information is available. Information on more recent generations is available in continuation sections as shown on the left hand side of the Master outline. I will welcome any corrections or additions you may have to this Master outline. It has been generated over many years with input from many individuals and sources.

Also provided are two pages of questions on your family. I will be grateful for any answer you have or can get.

We still have a great deal to learn about Jubal U and his son Calvin U. Both lived in the Moccasin Creek Area of present day Franklin Co, NC and both seemed to be wealthy. I have located the precise land owned by Richard U, III who lived near his brother Jubal U. We still need to locate the land of Jubal U.

For several years I accumulated details on the Upchurch Family of Moccasin Creek and I finally realized that the three Upchurch males on the 1850 Census of Cumberland Co, NC (Benjamin, John & Nathus) would fit precisely into what had been the family of Calvin U in earlier records. The evidence is still circumstantial but I am convinced it is convincing. I can supply more on that later.

May I congratulate you on your composition and your analytical abilities. I believe you can achieve much in the life ahead of you.

Hope to hear from you again soon.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

Dear Mr. Upchurch,

I am glad that you noticed my query in Wake Treasures. The first time that I put a query in I get a reply back! I am sorry that I haven't written back sooner, but since I am in high school, it takes up all of my time. Well, yes I do descend from John C. "Kitt" Upchurch, He was my great-great-grandfather. I will give you my descent as far back as I can toward the end of the letter.

I have had a lot of difficulty researching the Upchurch family. Since my line lived in Harnett County, the records in the courthouse have burned and very little is left except the records from about 1900. All I have been able to go by are census records, cemetery records, and word of mouth. Until a few months ago I was stumped at Kitt Upchurch, but at a Wake County Gen. Soc. meeting one night an elderly man started talking to us. He was from Harnett County, and remembered Kitt and his family. Something that knocked me over was that he knew my grand-mother, and was an admirer of her. He joked and said that if he hadn't met his wife he probably would have married Dot! He gave me some information about the family of Kitt's brother, Jeff Upchurch. Before now I had theorized that Benjamin Upchurch was Kitt's father, and when the man said that Jeff was a brother of Kitt, it tied it all together.

My lineage is as follows...

Dear David,

I have noted your Query in the Winter 1994 issue of Wake Treasurer and feel we may have information to share - especially about Upchurch. Since 1980 I have published Upchurch Bulletin in which details are enclosed. All four of my grandparents [UPCHURCH, RAY, EDWARDS, CROSS] have their heritage in central NC [Wake & surrounding counties] going back before 1800. I was born & raised in Wake Co, NC and lived there for many years.

I am descended from Richard Upchurch, II who arrived in old Granville Co, NC about 1755. While I do not have absolute proof, I have strong circumstantial evidence that John C. "Kitt" Upchurch is descended from this same Richard Upchurch, II. It took me quite a few years and much piecing together of the Upchurch puzzle to draw this conclusion. I also have substantiated detail on the descendants of John C. "Kitt" Upchurch and I show he had 16 children rather than the 12 you show.

Could you send me a sketch of how you relate to John C. "Kitt" Upchurch? I'll be glad to continue to exchange information as long as we can help each other. My assumption is that you descended from John C. "Kitt" Upchurch

☺ sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

Longtime grocer retiring, closing shop

By DAVID LEONE
Staff Writer

Time is running out for customers of the Apex Grocery.

Come November, owner Harry Beasley will be closing down the 46-year-old general store to retire, and his long-time patrons will have to find somewhere else to go.

"About 60 years I've been coming by here. I used to come here when I was about four or five years old — I'm about 77 now," Leather Harrington said.

"When you came down here

then you'd only see an automobile every now and then — most people came down on wagons," he reminisced. "He ain't going to close up, he'd hurt too many people like me and a whole lot of other people."

Beasley's brother Richard opened the grocery in 1950, and Harry joined him after his father's City Feed Store burned to the ground in 1955.

Originally located on the west side of downtown Salem Street, the Beasleys bought, in 1957, the building in which it is now housed.

The store catered mainly to the area's tenant farmers in its early years, Beasley said.

The farmers were given a stipend credit line at the store by their landlord, and they bought all their worldly goods there in the spring and summer work months.

"That's the reason all the stores in Apex carried a variety," Beasley said. "Feed, seed, fertilizer, just whatever it would take to grow a crop of tobacco."

"We had washing powder, Clorox, shoes, clothes — that was before all these chain stores started moving in."

He still carries a variety, everything from seeds, grapes and turnips to buckets, overalls and cokes.

"Since I was a little bitty boy — about 25 years — I've been coming here off and on," Samuel Mangum Sr., said.

Mangum brought his young daughter Deonna in Friday afternoon, to purchase mustard greens for his patch and "to bring her in here to see where daddy used to come and buy stuff."

"I spend about $100 a week right here in this store buying garden seed, grass seed, fertilizer and hams," Moody Long said.

Long is one of Apex's older residents who often come to the grocery to sit and chat about things past, the current state of affairs and things yet to come.

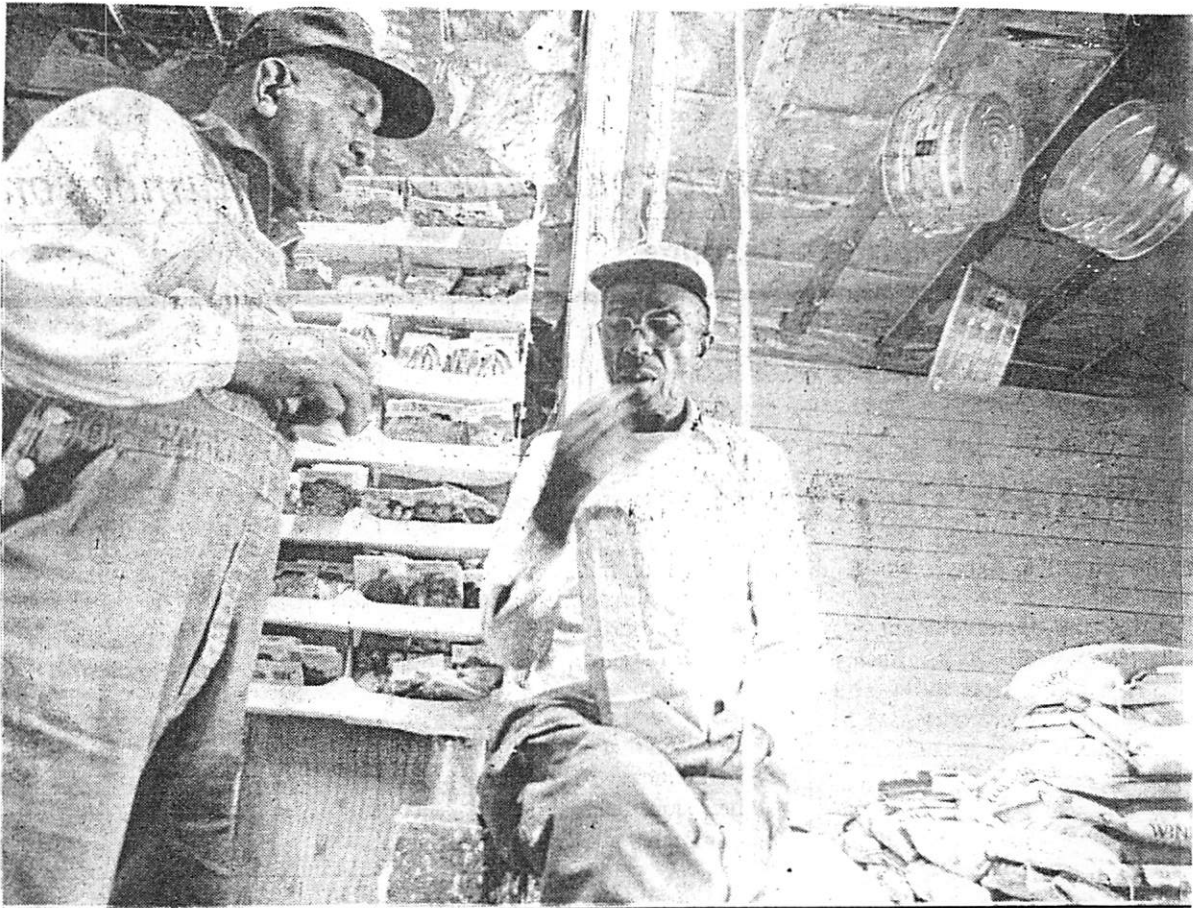

Some come in now to stock up on goods that will be gone in November, when the store closes.

Daniel Page, who came in to buy a stovepipe for a friend, also picked up apples and syrup.

"I want to get me some of that syrup before you close up," Page remarked to Beasley on Friday.

Beasley said that even though he'll try to sell off his inventory over the next few months, he will still order items people need.

"I've got a hotline right to the factory," he said. "I'm just not restocking."

Beasley has begun reducing prices on some items in order to move them. He's lowered prices on shoes, jackets and winter clothes and beginning Nov. 1 he said he is going to drop the price on all goods.

Beasley said that at the end of November he may hold an auction on the remaining items.

"I'm not happy at all about quitting," the 66-year-old Beasley said. "But there comes a time when everybody needs to retire."

While work wasn't too hard, Beasley said it has been rather confining, his being stuck in the store every day from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

He resides on Cunningham Street with his wife, in a house he has lived in for 39 years.

As for his customers, Beasley said in the old days they used to hang out at filling stations.

"I expect some of them will miss it really," Beasley said. "It's been kind of a hangout but they'll find somewhere else to go."

"I know this is one of the best stores Apex ever had — I was trading with their daddy before they ever took over," Frank Caufield said from his seat in the back room.

"Everybody knows me, I've lived here about 50 years," the retired 82-year-old dry cleaner said. "When it closes, I'll just sit home on the porch, I imagine."

Longtime grocer retiring, closing shop

By DAVID LEONE
Staff Writer

Time is running out for customers of the Apex Grocery.

Come November, owner Harry Beasley will be closing down the 46-year-old general store to retire, and his long-time patrons will have to find somewhere else to go.

"About 60 years I've been coming by here. I used to come here when I was about four or five years old — I'm about 77 now," Leather Harrington said.

"When you came down here

then you'd only see an automobile every now and then — most people came down on wagons," he reminisced. "He ain't going to close up, he'd hurt too many people like me and a whole lot of other people."

Beasley's brother Richard opened the grocery in 1950, and Harry joined him after his father's City Feed Store burned to the ground in 1955.

Originally located on the west side of downtown Salem Street, the Beasleys bought, in 1957, the building in which it is now housed.

The store catered mainly to the area's tenant farmers in its early years, Beasley said.

The farmers were given a stipend credit line at the store by their landlord, and they bought all their worldly goods there in the spring and summer work months.

"That's the reason all the stores in Apex carried a variety," Beasley said. "Feed, seed, fertilizer, just whatever it would take to grow a crop of tobacco."

"We had washing powder, Clorox, shoes, clothes — that was before all these chain stores started moving in."

He still carries a variety, everything from seeds, grapes and turnips to buckets, overalls and cokes.

"Since I was a little bitty boy — about 25 years — I've been coming here off and on," Samuel Mangum Sr., said.

Mangum brought his young daughter Deonna in Friday afternoon, to purchase mustard greens for his patch and "to bring her in here to see where daddy used to come and buy stuff."

"I spend about $100 a week right here in this store buying garden seed, grass seed, fertilizer and hams," Moody Long said.

Long is one of Apex's older residents who often come to the grocery to sit and chat about things past, the current state of affairs and things yet to come.

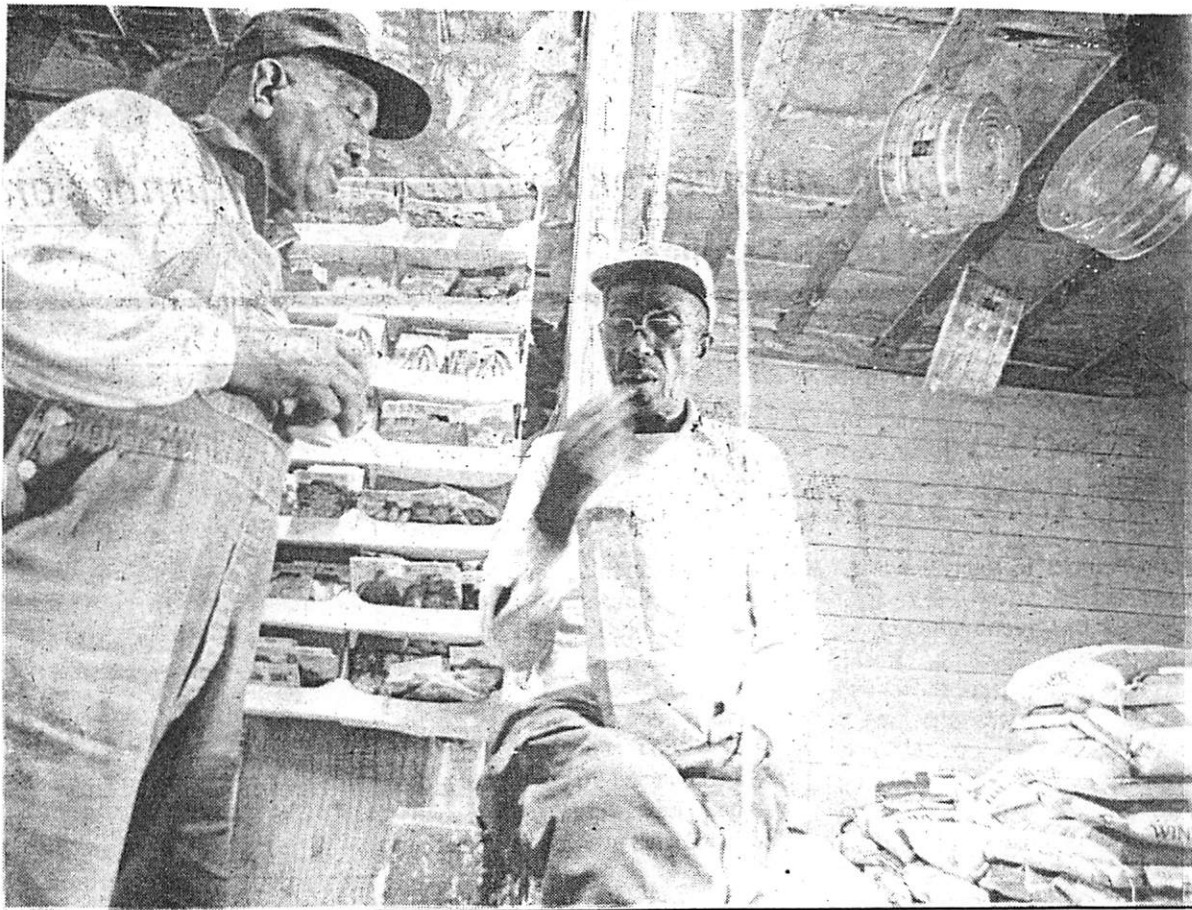

Some come in now to stock up on goods that will be gone in November, when the store closes.

Daniel Page, who came in to buy a stovepipe for a friend, also picked up apples and syrup.

"I want to get me some of that syrup before you close up," Page remarked to Beasley on Friday.

Beasley said that even though he'll try to sell off his inventory over the next few months, he will still order items people need.

"I've got a hotline right to the factory," he said. "I'm just not restocking."

Beasley has begun reducing prices on some items in order to move them. He's lowered prices on shoes, jackets and winter clothes and beginning Nov. 1 he said he is going to drop the price on all goods.

Beasley said that at the end of November he may hold an auction on the remaining items.

"I'm not happy at all about quitting," the 66-year-old Beasley said. "But there comes a time when everybody needs to retire."

While work wasn't too hard, Beasley said it has been rather confining, his being stuck in the store every day from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

He resides on Cunningham Street with his wife, in a house he has lived in for 39 years.

As for his customers, Beasley said in the old days they used to hang out at filling stations. "I expect some of them will miss it really," Beasley said. "It's been kind of a hangout but they'll find somewhere else to go."

"I know this is one of the best stores Apex ever had — I was trading with their daddy before they ever took over," Frank Caufield said from his seat in the back room.

"Everybody knows me, I've lived here about 50 years," the retired 82-year-old dry cleaner said. "When it closes, I'll just sit home on the porch, I imagine."
