P.S. I can't explain the different first names. He went by his middle name when I know him from the birth records. I just copied what I apparently found in the birth records.

Dear Phil,

Thank you so much for sending me the clipping about Winfred Mashburn in May 2004. It was sad to hear of his death the previous year. I'm sorry to have taken so long to express my appreciation.

Winfred was a personal friend of mine while growing up although we never saw each other again after that. We attended the same Sunday School. He was only three months older than I. We even attended high school together briefly in 1944. His father replaced my grandfather as Sunday School superintendent after the latter's death.

Personal and family circumstances have continued to vastly restrict my family history activities since late 1998 when I published much of my research in a book about the Reynolds family of northern Moore Co, NC - my maternal grandmother's line. I had hoped to publish more of my research but doubt if I'll ever be able to do so now.

I wish you continuing good results in your church activities.

Thanks so much for staying in touch.

Sincerely,
DeWitt Glasgow

TALMADGE WINFRED MASHBURN
