Phil,

It seems that much of your research lines up with mine. I have been working on Ann Eliza for a while and she eludes me many times in her life. Is 11 too young to be hired out as a housekeeper? She is a housekeeper to Asley T. Holt later in life – living with him in 1880 along with what I believe to be two of her eventual 4 illegitimate children. I also have been unable to find her in the 1900 Census (and of course that darn 1890 census!).

I have a Book of Remembrance in my possession from my great grandfather (son in law of Henry Thomas Lawrence) that lists has Haywood Lawrence married to Elizabeth Upchurch and Hoywood's father being named William Haywood Lawrence. But Gayle is right, we haven't been able to find anything on his family besides the marriage record and this book I have.

I have also been wondering about the Mimms. It seems that the husband of Elizabeth Mimms served in the same Civil War Company as Haywood Lawrence, Company G 48th Regiment. But I guess this only proves that they were neighbors at the time of the formation of the company. Turns out I am related to the Mimms, but through my grandmother's father, rather than her mother. They may have some sort of family relationship, that I haven't seen yet

Hi Nicole (and Gayle)---

As of yesterday and today I think I have a good grasp of how your heritage fits into the Upchurch Family. The excellent Descendancy Chart that Gayle provided on December 24 finally became available to me yesterday. My computer would not print the attachment but yesterday Jay came to rescue. I have now made an extract of about 20% of the Chart and have made copies to be placed in my Biofile system. There are still many hints that need to be followed --such as the Mimms family. What is clear to me and is now well represented in our Biofile system is that your heritage fits generation after generation neatly with the families we have been tracking for years in the Wake/Chatham area. You have helped blaze a trail to amplify the Moses Upchurch/Ruffin Upchurch SubClan as regards Ruffin's daughter Elizabeth. Much more needs to be done to get all of this into our online system.

Allied Families is now deeply engaged in migrating our manually kept records to a digital format. Much of 2018 will be devoted to this and we hope you can help. Jay will work with you on that.

If you have not already done so I suggest you go to our first website and watch Video No. 32 on you ancestor Moses Upchurch and related videos as well.

If you can stick with us as helpers we should gradually be able to give you a better and better look at our huge data base

It is exciting to have you on board~

Hi Gayle----

Thanks for the sketch of how you trace back to Elizabeth which is very helpful. I hope Nicole will proved the same information for her line.

I carry the husband of Elizabeth as William Haywood Lawrence. Does that agree with your records? I would like to have a sketch of his ancestors to compare with the many Lawrence entries I have in my files if you have such information.

You asked the format I would prefer. If you can generate a Descendancy Chart that would be very helpful. The more detail the better. A high priority would be to have a complete list of the children of Elizabeth and Haywood and their spouses. Details on dates and places would be helpful.

Once we get the Biofiles of Haywood and Elizabeth and their children updated we will need help in transcribing them to put them on line. Would you and/or Nicole be up to this transcribing? See our website for over 100 Biofiles already posted. We would also love to have you and Nicole as Allied Families members . A 2018 Membership form is attached

Great to have you as a Cooperator/Cousin~

Hi Nicole---

Thanks for your family information which I will now add to our Allied Families records. I keep thinking of you and Gayle as over the last few days I have spent quite a few hours upgrading my records for the NC Lawrence Family which now involves Biofiles on several hundred members of the Lawrence Family consisting of several large branches which may or may not be connected. In due course I will share more of this with you and we should, together, be able to learn more about your Lawrence heritage in NC. I personally knew some of them and there were many Upchurch connections.

At this point I am turning my attention to the Upchurch part of your heritage. For now it looks like we are agreed that you trace back to Elizabeth Upchurch, Daughter of Ruffin Upchurch. However, I now want to find the best information possible that she and the Elizabeth, daughter of Murray Upchurch, are well defined in our records. Also, I want to define the details associated with both marrying Lawrence men and to clarify how the two Elizabeth's were both linked to brothers named John. The problem is that all of these names surface and you have to work hard to assign a bit of data to the right Elizabeth, John, etc. I would like the help of both of you on this as I get a little further along.

In the meantime I hope we can set the stage to explore just how you two or your close relatives can lend us a hand. It looks like we have a lot of interest in common. I assume Gayle is working with Jay Buck to get yourTree in our hands.

Mary Christmas~

Hello Everyone,

Sorry that it has taken me a while to respond. But here is a brief overview of how I trace back to Elizabeth Upchurch. I am eager to help in any way and will soon be applied to Allied Families. Let me know what format you would like to have for a full descendency overview. We don't have much more information on the Lawrence side beyond Haywood.

Hi Nicole---

It has been some time since we corresponded about your descending from Elizabeth Upchurch who heads a Line in the Moses Upchurch/Ruffin Upchurch SubClan. We have several working on the Moses Clan but it is huge and there is much to do. Please let me know if you can lend a hand so as to help financially or with a little computer work.

With many hands we can get a lot done.

Sending All Best Wishes~

○ Extract of Notes of trip 2350N1978. R. P. U & Mattie Inez Creighton

On Aunt Ferry Rd I pointed to spot (no house) 50 yds west of intersection of Trailwood Rd & Aunt Ferry Rd where Mattie said she lived. Inez could not recall but said maybe this is 1st place Doll lived when he farmed in this area 1910-1919 - Early in this period Doll lived in the Goodman house which earned - impressing Inez greatly - Hubert was 6 months old - beyond Catholic orphanage. Inez was in the field, Moll was in the house. The CAUDLE girls saw the fire first - everything was saved - even a partial bale of unginced cotton. This house was behind a white cottage now on Aunt Ferry Rd. An ungraded road runs to the south just east of the cottage & we drove down this lane. The lake (Johnson) is barely in view through the woods.

Just before the curve on Aunt Ferry Road leading to the Lake Johnson bridge there is a white cottage on the south side of the road. Prof McIntyre of N. C. State College lived here & Prof Sherman lived behind him. Doll lived on the north side of the road here. He was a share cropper for the father of John Hardin and for Granger Ashe. Doll farmed here 1916, 17, 18. Farmed with Dr Goodman 1910-1913 one farm belonged to Dr Lewis

In spring 1918 Doll moved to Tucker Farm (now part of Meredith College) - Then moved to Western Blvd where he broke up housekeeping. Doll then boarded with Lorena in Raleigh. At this time Doll was a foreman and sometimes dispatcher for Southern RR

W. A. Crayton lived near the Macedonia Cem on mid Pine Rd in Ramoth. Doll & family at one point lived in a house behind Adams Store just NE of the Vaughn House on Holly Springs Road - we drove up close & Inez is convinced this is the correct house

Paul-McIver United in ceremony

Miss LuAnn Denise Paul of Elizabeth City and Mr. Kent Ray McIver of Apex were united in marriage on Saturday, June 20 at 3 p.m. at Olive Chapel Baptist Church in Apex. The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Phil Qualls.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lula Sparrow Paul and the late Byron T. Paul of Elizabeth City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob R. McIver of Apex.

The bride, escorted by her brother, Larry Paul, wore a formal gown of satin organza over taffeta in white. The fitted bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline with French pouf fluted ruffle sleeves. Re-embroidered flower patterns encrusted with pearls and sequins overlaid the bodice. A softly gathered organza skirt was edged with a pyramid of ruffles mounted in lace at the hemline. The skirt extended into a cathedral train with flowing tiers of ruffles mounted in the lace. A deep satin bow adorned the back waistline giving a bustle effect. The bride also wore sheer gloves edged with ruffles and satin ties. For her hair, she wore a band of pearls accented on the side with ribbon, silk flowers, sequins and pearl sprays. The veil was softly gathered in the back extending to a fingertip length.

The matron of honor was Libby Powell, friend of the couple. The bridesmaids were Lisa Leary and Kathy Leary, nieces of the bride, Margaret Tillman, cousin of the bride, Patty McIver, sister-in-law of the groom, Marsha Yost and Kelly Killian, friends of the couple. The honorary bridesmaids were Chris Leary and Stacey Paul, nieces of the bride.

Mr. Bob McIver, father of the groom, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Keith McIver, brother of the groom, Rick Jones, Chris Yost, Sutton Hack, Terry Jones and Biff Eller, friends of the couple.

Wedding music was provided by John Moody as pianist and organist and vocalists Felton Yeargan and Betty Linthicum.

The wedding was directed by Ms. Gayla Elkins, friend of the couple. Floral arrangements were also by Ms. Elkins.

Mrs. Gretchen Carter, sister of the bride and Mrs. Donna Peterson attended the guest register.

Reception

A reception followed the ceremony at the Ramada Inn in Apex. Greeting the guests was Mrs. Jean Hack. Dancing and hors d'oeuvres were a part of the reception festivities.

Rehearsal Dinner

Military news

Chandler "Grey" McIver

U.S. Army Pvt. 1st Class Chandler "Grey" McIver of Zebulon has been proposed for a citation for meritorious performance during a training maneuver accident at Fort Carson, Colo., in January.

McIver participated in the first response to the medical emergency. The Army said his quick response and medical expertise were instrumental in the extraction and immediate stabilization of the injured soldiers. In making the recommendation, McIver's commanding officers said he "helped stabilize a soldier with a collapsed lung who would probably have died without immediate and expert care."

The private is the son of Penny McIver and Jim McIver.

LuAnn Denise Paul of Elizabeth City and Kent Ray McIver of Apex were married June 20 at Olive Chapel Baptist Church in Apex. Reverend Phil Qualls officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lula Sparrow Paul and the late Byron T. Paul of Elizabeth City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob R. McIver of Apex.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Larry Paul, wore a formal gown of satin organza over taffeta in white. The fitted bodice was styled with a Sabrina neckline with French pouf fluted ruffle sleeves. Re-embroidered flower patterns encrusted with pearls and sequins overlaid the bodice. A softly gathered organza skirt was edged with a pyramid of ruffles mounted in lace at the hemline. The skirt extended into a cathedral train with flowing tiers of ruffles mounted in the lace. A deep satin bow adorned the back waistline giving a bustle effect. The bride wore sheer gloves edged with ruffles and satin ties. For her hair, she wore a band of pearls accented on the side with ribbon, silk flowers, sequins and pearl sprays. The veil was gathered in the back extending to a fingertip length.

Libby Powell was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Lisa Leary, niece of the bride, Margaret Tillman, cousin of the bride, Patty McIver, sister-in-law of the groom, Marsha Yost and Kelly Killian. The honorary bridesmaids were Chris Leary and Stacey Paul, both nieces of the bride.

Bob McIver, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Keith McIver, brother of the bridegroom, Rick Jones, Chris Yost, Sutton Hack, Terry Jones, and Biff Eller.

McIver in command of her future, goals

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

When she was attending classes at East Wake High School, Megan McIver of Zebulon wasn't quite sure what she wanted to do with her life.

She knew she wanted to do "something with medicine" — ophthalmologist or pharmacist, maybe even a doctor.

Then one day, her eyes caught a glimpse of a brochure — join the Navy, become a nurse, have your college education paid for. "I thought it would be fun, so I went for it," she said.

It was a "shot in the dark." There were never any pressures from her family or friends to "be a nurse" or "join the service." This was her own idea.

Now, 2½ years later, after graduating from EWHS in 1992, she has no regrets. A junior at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, she spends much of her time in either nurse white or Navy blues.

Not only is she taking her ROTC duties seriously, they're taking her seriously, too. This past summer, she served as commander for a platoon of 20 Navy midshipmen. She was the big boss. When she spoke, they listened.

Her responsibility was "being in charge of the platoon," she explained. It's the commander's duty to "make everything happen." Being in charge meant leading the midshipmen in drills and getting them ready for inspection, as well as anything else she felt needed to be done.

She enjoyed her semester as commander. She could have turned it down, but being in ROTC means responsibility, "and most people want the responsibility."

This semester, she will not be able to take part in drills because of a scheduling conflict with a nursing class. She will still lead the color guard and be active in the unit, "but I can't do drill and I can't hold a billet (job)," said Ms. McIver.

Nursing class duties keep her busy as well. Last semester, she worked at Duke Hospital in the med-surge (post-surgery) unit. This semester, she'll be working with pediatrics at UNC's hospital.

One would think her plate is full with both nursing and ROTC requirements, but Ms. McIver does have other interests. At one time, she was a member of the pistol team, competing in different contests at colleges across the country. That has since fallen by the wayside, to her regret, because the college's shooting range "is out of commission."

As a requirement of her scholarship, once she graduates, she'll be stationed and begin her tour of duty at one of four naval hospitals — San Diego, Calif.; Pensacola, Fla.; Bethesda, Md.; or Portsmouth, Va. She has hopes of also being sent to Japan for training.

Ms. McIver is unsure if she's going to make the Navy her career. "I'd be glad to stay in though. The pay is good."

All she knows now is that she "loves nursing" and she "loves the ROTC" — which is "like being in a big fraternity." She feels that with the ROTC, she has made friends for life.

At the time of graduation, Ms. McIver will have the rank of ensign, equivalent to that of second lieutenant in the Army.

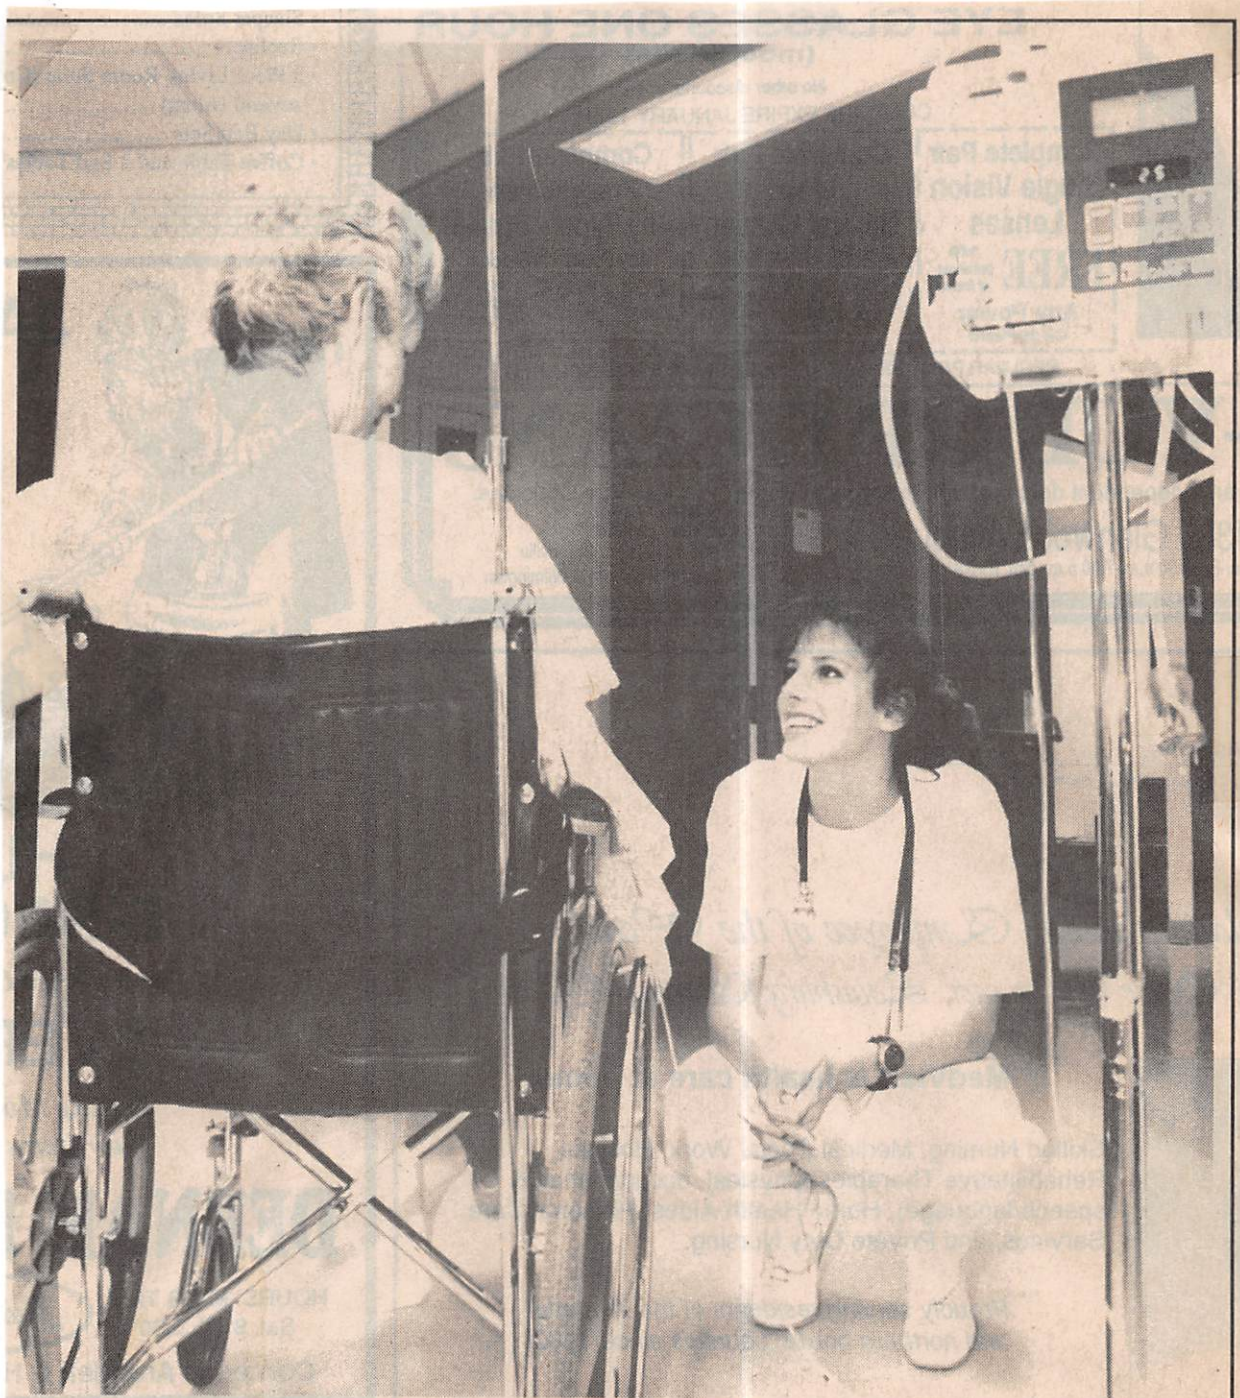

Raised in Zebulon, she is the daughter of Penny McIver and Jim McIver. Her only sibling, Grey, is beginning a career in the service also, but not the Navy — he's going to be an Army man.

She said she likes to return home, but it's often "hard to find the time." And it's easy to see why.

○ Zebulon, Record THUR 21 APR 1994 Zebulon, NC

As part of required Naval ROTC training at the University of North Carolina, Megen McIver of Zebulon spent one month last summer aboard the USS Inchon based at Norfolk, Va., working in the medical department. This summer she will be entering nursing school which will lead to being a commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy.

After graduating from East Wake High in 1992, she entered UNC Chapel Hill with a four-year Navy nurse scholarship. As a freshman in the ROTC, she joined the pistol team, which competed with other pistol teams. Ms. McIver also became involved in the Semper Fidelis Society, acting as secretary.

After joining the color guard, she traveled to New Orleans, La., where the ROTC drill team participated in a meet at Tulane University, and both the color guard and drill team marched in a Mardi Gras parade. The color guard then traveled to Villanova University and competed against 15 other ROTC units, and captured a third-place trophy.

Ms. McIver served as the editor-in-chief of the UNC ROTC newsletter and was the supply petty officer in charge of distributing uniform parts.

As a sophomore, she has earned the rank of mastering petty officer of the color guard, which performs details for UNC football and basketball games, has traveled to Mardi Gras again, and will soon return to Villanova to defend its title.

This year, Ms. McIver also is serving as a squad leader. "This was very challenging in that I had to take on a role similar to that of a drill sergeant and had to prepare my squad for a drill competition in which I called commands," she said. "My squad took a close second place."
