On September 2, 1778, Shadrack Medlin was a witness to the sale of land by Willis Tant to William Fish in Bute County on the north side of Crooked Creek, adjoining Fish on the Mill Branch and to head of William Pace's Spring Branch.

In 1778, in Captain Ferrell's District in Bute County, Henry Tyler Medlin, Shadrach Medlin, Bradley Medlin, and Ryal Medlin took oaths of allegiance to the State of North Carolina to defend the independent government against King George III. This oath of allegiance qualified these Medlin (Medlen) patriots from Bute County to vote in elections.

The Earl of Bute had become very unpopular in the colony and his name created dishonor. In 1779, the North Carolina Legislature abolished Bute County and the area formerly known as Bute County was divided into Franklin and Warren Counties.

On January 29, 1779, Franklin County came into existence as the southern half of previous Bute County. This new county was named in honor of Benjamin Franklin, the very popular patriot statesman of Pennsylvania.

Page 10

Henry Tyler Medlin, Shadrach Medlin, and Bradley Medlin were three Patriot soldiers from Franklin (formerly Bute/Granville) County, North Carolina that served in the Revolutionary War against Great Britain. After enlisting at Granville Court House, Henry and Shadrach Medlin served together in Captain Edward Yarborough's Company in the Revolutionary War.

Henry Tyler Medlin died in July 1781 from disease after marching to Charlotte. His son, John Medlin, was issued a military land grant in Montgomery County in 1820 for his father's military service.

In the pension application for Shadrach Medlin, aged 70, in Wake County Court on October 4, 1820, his wife Cloah is listed as age 67 and his granddaughter Rebecca is listed as being age 12 or 13.

Bradley Medlin was drafted in 1780 in Franklin County, North Carolina and served two tours as an American Revolutionary War soldier from 1780 to 1782 enlisting under Captain William Ferrell. Bradley Medlin and his descendants moved to Tennessee in 1793 where he received land grants for his service. He lived in Wilson County in 1832 when he applied for a pension and he moved to Madison County, Tennessee in 1839 where he died on August 18, 1843.

Bryant Medlin (Sr.) enlisted in Kinston, in Dobbs County (later Lenoir County), as a Volunteer in the N.C. Militia for three different periods totaling 15 months between 1775 and 1781 in the American Revolutionary War. Beginning with Captain John Garland's Company, Bryant Medlin drew musician's pay as both drummer and piper. This Medlin Patriot soldier fought in the Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge, North Carolina and the Battle of Stono at Charleston, South Carolina.

John Medlin, private from Moore County, enlisted in Moore County and served under the company commanded by Captain John McRae, according to his widow's application for pension. Nancy McKenzie Medlin, living in Scotts Hill, Tennessee, last filed for a pension on August 18, 1853 in Henderson County, Tennessee. She stated that she was married prior to 1794 to John Medlin in Moore County by Thomas Medlin, justice of the peace. Her several applications were all denied for lack of existence of proof of a service record in North Carolina.

PAINTER - Mrs. Karen Patterson, Travelers Rest, SC 29690 found Nancy PAINTER heading a household in High Shoals District, Rutherford Co, NC 1820 - 1850. During this period she had 5 children, but at no time was a husband shown. The children were born 1814 - 1823.

"What circumstances during this time period would have a husband away from home? I assume there was a husband as I cannot locate any bastard(y) bonds.

On the other hand I cannot locate a marriage bond for a Nancy anybody. According to the census Nancy was born 1795, and her first child born when she was 19. What am I overlooking?"

John PAINTER was born Rutherford Co, NC, married 1871 Fannin Co, GA to Rose Ann Shope, and he died 1889 in Union Co, GA. Their children were: Louisa, Jane, Joseph, Mellie, Alice, Samuel, George, Carrie, and Sarah. John married 2nd Jane RATCLIFF and had two children Caty and Oliver. "Is there someone out there who can help me find any of these children?"

Karen,

I saw your query in Family Puzzlers lately. I have a Nancy Upchurch Painter in my family tree. Do the children here ring any bells with you? I have not looked for this family on the census. So do not know if Michael lived through the years that you listed Nancy without a husband. I may have some more help if this is good. My Upchurch family was in Rutherford Co, NC from 1790, when Nancy's parents were married in Rutherford Co.
