Burrous there to help

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Special to the Record

It's about time Estelle Burrous receives the recognition she deserves.

That's the way her friend and neighbor, Beatrice Miles, sees it. If anybody should be "Neighbor of the Month," it's Mrs. Burrous, said Mrs. Miles. Her friend is in every sense of the word a true neighbor. Mrs. Burrous is always — and Mrs. Miles does emphasize always — willing and able to lend a helping hand or say a word of prayer for anyone who needs it.

Mrs. Burrous, who lives on Parks Village Road right outside of Zebulon, "is there for people if there has been a death in the family, sickness, childbirth, or whatever. Even if they just need prayer, she's right there — and she's been doing it for as long as I can remember," said Mrs. Miles.

"You sure have been keeping an eye on me," Mrs. Burrous said, looking at her friend and laugh-

"She is a minister, giving hope to everyone who hears her," Mrs. Miles said. And like a doctor, "she is always on call," she added.

"She never says 'no,' and she's always there to comfort in time of need."

Mrs. Burrous explained she does not do it for the recognition. She admitted that the nomination for "Neighbor of the Month" came as a surprise. She said she simply lives her life the way everyone should live — being good and kind to their fellow man while sustaining strong Christian beliefs.

Mrs. Miles, who works at Country Club Retirement Village, said Mrs. Burrous "gives of her time," and in many cases, that is much more important and more valuable than any material object.

Mrs. Burrous, who keeps busy by "doing a little sewing," said finding time for family and friends is not hard, even if it means staying up till 4 in the morning with her son and his friends, listening to them play music and making them breakfast — which she did recently.

A little acknowledgment for a person such as Mrs. Burrous has been a long time coming, said Mrs. Miles. "And I'm not the only one who feels this way — ask anybody" who knows her. "She helps anybody with anything they need help with."

Mrs. Burrous is not just a "Neighbor of the Month," said Mrs. Miles, she is a neighbor all yearlong.

The two have been friends for almost 30 years, they said. They attend the same church, Mt. Zion United Holy Church of Zebulon on Stronach Avenue, both are deaconesses and Mrs. Burrous is president of the church's missionary circle.

Mrs. Burrous takes her church work seriously, both women agree, and she lives a Christian life away from the church, said Mrs. Miles.
