Nathan Ray was born circa 1765, married Elizabeth Kilgo on January 5, 1790 and they had at least one child, a son, Wormley Rose Ray (father of Buckner Ray), born in 1794. Nathan and Wormley drowned in the Neuse River on or about the first of January 1822. Nathan was about 57 and his son, Wormley, was 27 at the time of their accidental deaths.

Deeds were registered in Wake County on September 3, 1793 and 1794 in which Hammon Mobley conveyed property in Wake County to Nathan Ray. The acreages and locations of the property were not stated in the court minutes. The 1793 Wake County Tax List shows Nathan as the owner of 50 acres. The 1794 Tax List shows his land holdings increased to 107 acres. In 1799, Nathan owned 182 acres located on the north side of the Neuse River. On February 18, 1800, Nathan Ray executed an Indenture to purchase a 75-acre parcel in Wake County from John Ray for 100 pounds "current money" (1.33 pounds/acre). This 75-acre parcel was located on the north side of the Neuse River adjacent to other property already owned by Nathan Ray on the river adjacent to Cedar Point. Nathan's property bordered land owned by Luke Ray, Joseph Ray, and John Ray suggesting a family relationship.

◆ NATHAN RAY AND ELIZABETH KILGO ◆

(Parents of Wormley Ray)

Nathan Ray (father of Wormley Rose Ray) was born circa 1765. The place of birth is believed to have been in the area of North Carolina that became Wake County. Nathan Ray married Elizabeth Kilgo (mother of Wormley Rose Ray) on January 5, 1790 in Wake County. A copy of their Marriage Bond is included on page 32. The Kilgo family was one of the earliest families to settle in the area that became Wake County. They arrived prior to 1755. It appears that Nathan and Elizabeth had only one child, a son, Wormley Rose Ray, during their 32 years of marriage. The 1790 Federal Census shows Nathan and Elizabeth living in Wake County with no slaves. Nathan was a bondsman for the marriage of Dempsey Woodard and Elizabeth Griggs on September 23, 1787, which indicates he was an adult a few years prior to his 1790 marriage.

Deeds were registered in Wake County on September 3, 1793 and 1794 in which Hammon Mobley conveyed property in Wake County to Nathan Ray. The acreages and locations of the property were not stated in the court minutes. The 1793 Wake County Tax List shows Nathan as the owner of 50 acres. The 1794 Tax List shows his land holdings increased to 107 acres. In 1799, Nathan owned 182 acres located on the north side of the Neuse River. On February 18, 1800, Nathan Ray executed an Indenture to purchase a 75-acre parcel in Wake County from John Ray for 100 pounds "current money" (1.33 pounds/acre). This 75-acre parcel was located on the north side of the Neuse River adjacent to other property already owned by Nathan Ray on the river adjacent to Cedar Point. Nathan completed payments for the land to John Ray and the Deed of Conveyance was registered April 16, 1802. The Tax Lists from 1802 to 1820 show Nathan as the owner of 192½ acres in Wake County on the north side of the Neuse River. Cedar Point has not been located on old maps of Wake County and was probably inundated when the dam was constructed in 1981 creating a lake with inlets along the Neuse River.

Nathan Ray purchased a Negro, Caesar, at the estate sale of Mordecai Mobley on January 25, 1808. On December 27, 1814, Nathan purchased a Negro woman, Jude, a boy, Ned, and a girl, Lucey, for 225 pounds from Benjamin Allen.

Nathan and his son, Wormley Rose Ray, both drowned in the Neuse River on or about the first of January 1822. Only Nathan's body was recovered and both men died without wills. Nathan was about 57 years old at the time of his death. Elizabeth Ray received her one third dower interest in Nathan's 193-acre estate on the Neuse River and the balance of his property was divided between Wormley's minor children, Buckner and Henry Ray.

When Nathan's estate was finally settled on April 10, 1824, the first item listed as an expense was "1 gallon of spirits drank when his corpse was taken from the River" at a cost of $1.00. Nathan's body was recovered from the Neuse River in January and his weary and distressed family and friends needed the gallon of whiskey to complete this chilling task.

Dear Mrs Nelson,

I was sorry to learn from your card that your husband passed away last January. I know the loss you and the family feel is large. Vernon made a great contribution to our knowledge of his Upchurch heritage. He obviously had a keen interest in his family roots and I would like to think that our exchanges made his recent years most enjoyable.

If it is not too much trouble I would like to know where Nelson died and where he is buried. Perhaps you could send me a copy of his obituary. This would help me complete his file.

Please know that I am available to interact at any time in the future should any member of the family develop an interest in their Upchurch history.

Happy for naming shared Vernon's life. ☺

Sincerely yours,

Nathan was about 57 years old at the time of his death. Elizabeth Ray received her one third dower interest in Nathan's 193-acre estate on the Neuse River and the balance of his property was divided between Wormley's minor children, Buckner and Henry Ray.

When Nathan's estate was finally settled on April 10, 1824, the first item listed as an expense was "1 gallon of spirits drank when his corpse was taken from the River" at a cost of $1.00. Nathan's body was recovered from the Neuse River in January and his weary and distressed family and friends needed the gallon of whiskey to complete this chilling task.
