DETAILS RE CO "I"

MORING, F. O. K. Private

Enlisted in Wake County on 18 December 1863, for the war. Captured at Strasburg, Virginia, 23 September 1864, and confined at Point Outlook, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Boulware's Wharf, James River, Virginia, where he was received 19 March 1865, for exchange.

MORING, James H., Private

Enlisted in Alamance County on 3 July 1861, for the war. Wounded in the right thigh at the first battle of Manassas, Virginia, 21 July 1861, and was discharged 25 October 1861, by reason of wounds.

MORING, Willis L., Private

Enlisted in Wake County at age 20, 28 May 1861, for the war. Present or accounted for until captured at Rappahannock Station, Virginia, 7 November 1863. Confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Aiken's Landing, James River, Virginia, where he was received 25 February-3 March 1865, for exchange. Admitted to hospital at Richmond, Virginia, after exchanged. No further records.

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

Moring - Upchurch

Frank O'Kelly Moring[↑] was born at Moringsville, a community named in honor of his family, prominent planters and merchants in that vicinity. He was educated in private preparatory schools but the outbreak of the Civil War interrupted his studies. In 1865, then a boy of eighteen, he went into the Confederate Army as a private in Company I, of the Sixth North Carolina Infantry. From that time until the close of the hostilities, he bore arms in defense of the South and did well every duty to which he was called.

Following the war he took up farming, but later decided to go to Raleigh where he engaged in the wholesale grocery business, establishing the firm of Poole and Moring. In 1891 he entered the cotton milling industry, helping establish Caraleigh Cotton Mills. In addition to serving as the secretary and treasurer of this, he was also a director of both the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Company and the Raleigh Banking and Trust Company.

At one time he served as an alderman of Raleigh and was a deacon in the Christian Church of which his maternal great grandfather, the Rev. James O'Kelly, was the founder. In 1904 he was appointed by Governor Charles B. Aycock to represent the State of N. C. at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to be held in St. Louis, beginning April 30, 1904.

Pattie Aline Upchurch became the bride of Frank Moring just prior to her seventeenth birthday while he was nearly thirty-three. She was a beautiful young girl, and perhaps because of the difference in their ages, she was waited upon and treated as a queen all of her life. Nothing pleased her more than to be told she was more beautiful than any of her five daughters. Pattie was a loving and faithful wife and a devoted mother to her children. The greatest tragedy in her life was the death of her only son* at age four when he became ill with diphtheria. But she was a strong lady and lived to enjoy the marriage of each of her five daughters (all in the proper order) as well as enjoy her ten grandchildren.

The home of Pattie and Frank Moring was located at 127 N. Blount Street across from the old Meredith College and diagonally across the street from the Governor's Mansion. After Frank's death in 1920, Pattie sold her home and went to live her remaining years with her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Williams at 1405 Hillsboro Street.

Gathering their materials from Germany, Spain, England, South America, Florida, Tennessee, Virginia and the Great West, the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Works manufacture every grade of fertilizers demanded by the North Carolina trade. Their business is very successful, due largely to the fact that its management is composed of such energetic and reliable men as J. R. Chamberlain, Ashley Horne, S. R. Horne, E. C. Smith, F. O. Moring, J. W. Barber and A. L. Chamberlain. They have a large up-to-date plant, and the fact that a mile of side-track is required around their factory to handle heavy shipments, indicates somewhat the enormous business done. Raleigh is justly proud of this large industry. The success of this North Carolina enterprise is largely due to the eminent ability and intelligent management of the business of the company by its president, Prof. J. R. Chamberlain, who has been ably assisted by Mr. A. L. Chamberlain, the secretary and treasurer. Few manufacturing enterprises have been more ably managed in all its departments than the Caraleigh Phosphate Works, of Raleigh.

Moring - Upchurch

Frank O'Kelly Moring was born at Moringsville, a community named in honor of his family, prominent planters and merchants in that vicinity. He was educated in private preparatory schools but the outbreak of the Civil War interrupted his studies. In 1865, then a boy of eighteen, he went into the Confederate Army as a private in Company I, of the Sixth North Carolina Infantry. From that time until the close of the hostilities, he bore arms in defense of the South and did well every duty to which he was called.

Following the war he took up farming, but later decided to go to Raleigh where he engaged in the wholesale grocery business, establishing the firm of Poole and Moring. In 1891 he entered the cotton milling industry, helping establish Caraleigh Cotton Mills. In addition to serving as the secretary and treasurer of this, he was also a director of both the Caraleigh Phosphate and Fertilizer Company and the Raleigh Banking and Trust Company.

At one time he served as an alderman of Raleigh and was a deacon in the Christian Church of which his maternal great grandfather, the Rev. James O'Kelly, was the founder. In 1904 he was appointed by Governor Charles B. Aycock to represent the State of N. C. at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition to be held in St. Louis, beginning April 30, 1904.

○ CIVIL WAR 1861-1865 - COMPANY I, 6TH REGIMENT - NC STATE TROOPS

see RPA was ready for complete Article as published in WAKE TREASURES Vol 9 No 2 SUMMER/FALL 1999 PG 41-57

many participants were from Wake Co, NC and nearby counties so the article has been extensively extended for RPA Profiles

DETAILS RE CO "I"

MORING, F. O. K., Private

Enlisted in Wake County on 18 December 1863, for the war. Captured at Strasburg, Virginia, 23 September 1864, and confined at Point Outlook, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Boulware's Wharf, James River, Virginia, where he was received 19 March 1865, for exchange.

MORING, James H., Private

Enlisted in Alamance County on 3 July 1861, for the war. Wounded in the right thigh at the first battle of Manassas, Virginia, 21 July 1861, and was discharged 25 October 1861, by reason of wounds.

MORING, Willis L., Private

Enlisted in Wake County at age 20, 28 May 1861, for the war. Present or accounted for until captured at Rappahannock Station, Virginia, 7 November 1863. Confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Aiken's Landing, James River, Virginia, where he was received 25 February-3 March 1865, for exchange. Admitted to hospital at Richmond, Virginia, after exchanged. No further records.

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.

TRACT 5 - About 1837, Shadrack Mills purchased a 106 acre tract from John Moring, as documented by Wake Co., NC CPQS (Feb 1837-pg. 527): "A deed from John Moring to Shadrack Mills was duly proved by the oath of Seth Jinks, a subscribing witness thereto." Deed recorded 20 May 1837 in Wake Co., NC Deed Book 12, pg. 381.

The property is located in Wake Co., near Chatham Co. line, and bounded the W. side of Nathan Mills' land. The E. boundary was about 5,000 ft., S. was about 1,300 ft., and W. was about 3,000 ft. The N. boundary was about 2,500 ft. of White Oak Creek.

After owning his land for about 3 years, Shadrack sold it 24 Jan 1840 to his brother, Nathan Mills for $107, as documented by Wake Co., NC CPQS (Feb 1841-pg. 363): "A deed from Shadrack Mills to Nathan Mills was duly proven by the oath of Willie J. Fuller, a witness thereto." Deed recorded 20 Mar 1841 in Wake Co., NC Deed Book 14, pg. 321. A transcript of the 1840 deed follows:

Following the war John M. Moring was for many years a leading lawyer of the county. He was born and reared in Williams Township and was long prominent in politics, as well as at the bar. He represented the county in the legislature for several sessions in the eighties and was Speaker of the House in 1879, being the only representative from Chatham ever chosen to this high and responsible position. Soon after the formation of the county of Durham, he moved to the new town of Durham, but after a short stay there returned to Pittsboro, where he died. He was a Confederate soldier, exceedingly popular in the county, and regarded as a trial lawyer of great skill.

#320233, Pg. 139--RICHARD C. MORING, 86, of 245 E. South Street, Raleigh, North Carolina
 b. about 1851

"My mammy wus Cherry, an' my pappy wus Jacob. Mr. Anderson CLEMMONS owned mammy, an' Mr. Fielding MORING owned pappy.

"I doan know much 'bout Mr. MORING, case we stayed wid Mr. CLEMMONS near Apex, in dis same county.

"Mr. CLEMMONS owned less'n a dozen slaves, but he wus good ter 'em. De Oberseer, Mr. UPCHURCH, whupped de slaves some, but not very much.

"We had nuff ter eat an' w'ar' an' we wuck hard, but no harder dan we has since dat time. Marster 'lowed us our own gyarden an' tater patch, we also had our own hawgs.

"Dey 'lowed us some fun lak dancin', wrestilin' matches, swimmin', fishin', huntin' an' games. We also had prayer meetin's at our cabins.

"When dere wus a weddin' dar wus fun fer all, case hit wus a big affair. Dey wus all dressed up in new clothes, an' marster's dinin' room wus decorated wid flowers fer de 'casion. De ban' which wus banjoes, an' fiddles 'ud play an' de neighborin' folks 'ud come.

"De preacher married 'em up good an' tight just lak he done de white folks, an' atter hit wus ober an' de songs wus sung marster's dinin' table wus set an' dar wus a weddin' supper fer all.

"I doan 'member so much 'fore de war but I 'members dat de Rebs go by an' dat de Yankees chase 'em. (I is on Mr. MORING's place den clost ter Morrisville.)

"De Yankees am so busy chasin' de Rebs dat dey doan stop ter bodder us much, 'cept ter kill de chickens an' so on.

"Dar's a place out from Morrisville whar de Yankees an' de Rebels had er little skirmish on dat trip. We could hyar de guns go boomin', an' atter hit wus ober we chilluns went dar an' pick up de balls an' boxes of dese hara tacks whar de soldiers had fit.

See Brief of Richard C. Moring for 2nd page of Text where the Transcriber reports Mr GGF John Jones Sewer bought land bounded by 1998 Salem Church Road & Davis Drive from Fielding G. Moring and A.K. Clements presumably the above Anderson Clements. A.K. Clements lives at Salem Church, Apex, NC. [Note: The Overseer Mr U is probably a grandson of More U or Nathan U, I - RPH]

"I fergit ter tell you 'bout de fust gang o' Yankees what come by. Dey wus lookin' fer food an' when dey got ter our place dey comes in an' he'ps dere selbes ter marster's stuff. Dey kilt all de live things, took all de hams an' sich, an' dey foun' 'bout a bushel o' aigs. Dey put 'em in de big wash pot an' biled 'em an' dey goes ter de spring house an' gits seben er eight poun's o' butter. When de aigs am biled dey splits 'em open an' puts de butter on 'em an' eats 'em dat way. Dat's de fust aigs dat eber I tasted, an' dey shore give me all I wants.

"We went back ter Mr. CLEMMONS' 'fore de surrender, case when dat happen Mis' Jane CLEMMONS tells us'n herself dat we am free. All o' we chilluns, Duncan, Candice, Mariah, Len, Willis, William, Sidney, Lindy, Mary, Rilda, an' me, all of mammy's chilluns wus dar at de en' of de war.

"We stayed on at Mr. CLEMMONS fer seberal years, in fac' till de ole folks died. My young Missus Mis' Katy ELLIS lives on Hillsboro Street, an' I often goes ter see her an' she sometimes gives me money, so you sees de feelin' dat 'zists twixt me an' my white folkses.

"I'll tell you de story 'bout de witch at de mill iffen you want ter hyar hit, I hyard my grandmammy tell hit when I wus a little feller.

THE WITCH AT THE MILL

"Onct dar wus a free nigger what ownes a mill an' he makin' a heap o' money. He married a han'some nigger wench an' hit 'peared lak his luck all went bad. De folkses quit bringin' dere co'n ter be groun' an' he 'ganter git pore.

"Long in dem times de slaves sometimes runned away from dere cruel marsters an' dey'd go ter dis nigger at de mill. He'ud put 'em ter sleep in de mill, but dey can't sleep on de 'count of fusses an' scratchin'.

"Last one night a nigger what has runned away comed ter spen' de night, an' he sez dat he am not skeerd o' nothin'. De owner can put him ter sleep in de house if he wants ter, case his wife am spendin' de night wid a friend of hern but he 'sides ter put him in de mill.

"He tells de runaway nigger 'bout de witch, but atter de nigger gits hisself a butcher knife he ain't skeered no mo' an' he goes on ter de mill.

"Way in de night de nigger sees somethin', an' de whites o' his eyes shines lak lamps. De things comes nearer an' nearer an' he sees dat hit am a big black cat wid de savage notion o' eatin' him.

"De nigger swings his knife an' off comes one of de ole cat's feets. She gives an awful screech an' goes outen de winder.

"De nex' mornin' de owner's wife am sick in de bed an' she 'fuses ter git up. De man tells her ter git up an' cook his breakfas', but she 'fuses ter stir.

"Yer better git up, you lazy trollop', de man shouts an' wid dat he drags de 'oman outen de bed. He am 'mazed when he sees dat her han' am cut off, an' he yells fer de neighbors.

"When de neighbors gits dar dey makes a big bresh pil an' dey ties her on hit an' burns her up. Atter dat de man had good luck, eben atter he married ag'in.

DETAILS RE CO "I"

MORING, F. O. K., Private

Enlisted in Wake County on 18 December 1863, for the war. Captured at Strasburg, Virginia, 23 September 1864, and confined at Point Outlook, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Boulware's Wharf, James River, Virginia, where he was received 19 March 1865, for exchange.

MORING, James H., Private

Enlisted in Alamance County on 3 July 1861, for the war. Wounded in the right thigh at the first battle of Manassas, Virginia, 21 July 1861, and was discharged 25 October 1861, by reason of wounds.

MORING, Willis L., Private

Enlisted in Wake County at age 20, 28 May 1861, for the war. Present or accounted for until captured at Rappahannock Station, Virginia, 7 November 1863. Confined at Point Lookout, Maryland, until paroled and transferred to Aiken's Landing, James River, Virginia, where he was received 25 February-3 March 1865, for exchange. Admitted to hospital at Richmond, Virginia, after exchanged. No further records.

The company, known as "Cedar Forks Rifles," was from Wake and Chatham Counties and enlisted in Wake County on 28 May 1861. It went into the camp of instruction near Company Shops (Burlington), Alamance County, 1 June 1861, and was assigned to this regiment [Sixth Regiment] as Company I. After joining the regiment, the company functioned as a part of the regiment, and its history for the war period is recorded as a part of the regimental history.

The information contained in the following roster of the company was compiled principally from company muster rolls for 20 June 1861, through February 1864, and 15 September through December 1864. No company muster rolls were found for the period prior to 20 June 1861; for March through 14 September 1864; or for the period after December 1864. In addition to the company muster rolls, Roll of Honor records, receipt rolls, hospital records, prisoner of war records, and other primary records, supplemented by state pension applications, United Daughters of the Confederacy records, and postwar rosters and histories, all provided useful information.
