① Zebulon Record THUR 25 SEP 1993 Zebulon, NC

Donica Lynn Murphrey of Zebulon and Robert Edward Langevin of Knightdale were united in marriage Aug. 7 at Pilot Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Shelby Stephens.

The bride is the daughter of Jesse and Linnie Murphrey of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Langevin of Sanford. The grandmother of the bride is Doris Price of Zebulon.

Escorted by her father and presented in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal, handmade gown of white satin and pearl organza. The bodice featured elongated pearls and iridescents with a high neckline and long netted sleeves with iridescents on lace. The gown was mermaid-style with a chapel-length train.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a band of pearls with a double pouf, fingertip-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of miniature cream carnations with light pink miniature roses, fugi pompons, ivy and baby's breath.

She was attended by Jessica Clark of Goldsboro as matron of honor and bridesmaids Caroline Jones of Manteo, Cathy Palmer of Greenville, Tiana Perry of Zebulon and Susan Queen of Knightdale.

Each attendant wore a fuchsia suit featuring an off-the-shoulder jacket with rhinestone buttons and a floor-length skirt. They each carried a bouquet of rubrum lilies and fuchsia and white miniature carnations.

The bridegroom chose Michael Engelsman of Clarksville, Md., to be his best man. Ushers were Donald Clark Jr. of Goldsboro, Todd Hayes of Garner, Brian Dilworth of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Snehal Desai of Chicago, Ill.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with tails and a boutonniere of white miniature carnations and a pink rose. Each groomsman wore a white carnation boutonniere.

The church sanctuary was decorated with a heart candelabrum, two arch candelabra and a unity candle, each holding an arrangement of ivy and small white seasonal flowers. The pews were marked by two candles with greenery and white satin bows. An arrangement of pink and white miniature carnations, baby's breath and greenery was used in the vestibule.

Wedding music was presented by the bridegroom's sister, Monique Love, soloist; Keith Lloyd, soloist; and Nanette Warren, organist.

The wedding was directed by Kim Gay of Zebulon. Rodney and Sandra Van Scoy of Knightdale presided at the guest register. Birdseed attendants were Blaire Floars and Christen Love, and the program attendant was Greg Love.

The bride is a graduate of Barton College. She is a nurse at Wake Medical Center. Her husband is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is employed by East Wake High School.

After a wedding trip to Key West, Fla., the couple will make their home in Knightdale.

Reception

A reception was held in the church annex, hosted by the couple's parents. It was catered by the bride's co-workers at Wake Medical Center as a gift to the bride.

The center table featured an ice sculpture in the shape of a heart with two doves. Two flower arrangements on each side included fuchsia and white carnations with fugi pompons.

A round table held tiered layers of assorted fruit surrounded by strawberries dipped in chocolate. The cake consisted of three tiered layers with butter icing. A lighted fountain surrounded with flowers was placed beneath the cake.

Rehearsal dinner

The parents of the bridegroom-elect hosted a rehearsal dinner at Swain's Steak House on Aug. 6. After dinner, the bridegroom-elect's parents hosted a party at Hedingham Clubhouse honoring all out-of-town guests.

Bridesmaids' luncheon

The bride-elect and her bridesmaids were honored with a bridal luncheon at the home of the bride-elect's sister, Jessica Clark, on July 17. Hostesses were Ms. Clark and Tammy Floars. The bride-elect chose this occasion to present gifts to her attendants.

Clark, Murphrey exchange vows

Jessica Price Murphrey of Zebulon and Donald Eugene Clark Jr. of Goldsboro were united in marriage May 28 at Pilot Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jesse Mooney.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Murphrey of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Christine Clark and Donald Clark Sr., both of Goldsboro. The bride is the granddaughter of Doris Price of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal full-length gown of summer silk with re-embroidered alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline with scalloped alencon lace motifs, leg-o'-mutton sleeves and a torso waist. The sleeves were appliqued with schiffli lace and pearls; they extended to a point over the hand. Fluted ruffles edged the hemline and extended to ruffled tiers completing the cathedral-length train.

She wore a cathedral-length veil embellished with pearls and sequins, topped with a Juliet cap. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

She was attended by Donica Murphrey as maid of honor and bridesmaids Lisa Askew of Plymouth, Sandra Pate of Raleigh, Susan Richardson of Zebulon and Lisa Wade of Zebulon. The bridesmaids each wore a full-length gown of red satin, trimmed with red lame bows and sleeves.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Jeff Jones of Raleigh, Ronnie Jones of Goldsboro, Alan Hewett of Shallotte and Thomas McClay Jr. of Coats.

Wedding music was presented by Susan Richardson and Beth Richardson of Zebulon.

The wedding director was Kim Gay. Presiding at the guest register were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Webber.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and Campbell University. She is a loan officer at Branch

Banking & Trust Co. in Goldsboro. Her husband is a graduate of Faith Christian Academy and Campbell University. He is in his final year of law school at Campbell and is employed as a legal clerk in the Smithfield firm of Mast, Morris, Schulz & Mast.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple will make their home in Goldsboro.

Reception

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception at the church given by the bride's parents.

The T-shaped refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations and groupings of votive candles on pedestals. Silver appointments were filled with meatballs, chicken drumettes, bacon roll-ups, cheese straws, ladyfingers, open-faced sandwiches, butter mints, nuts, vegetable trays, a fruit cascade, banana nut fingers and punch.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was on a round table in the center of the room. The top tier held miniature bride and bridegroom figurines with a lighted cascading staircase of red roses.

Punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Floars of Goldsboro. Cake was served by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Garriss of Goldsboro.

Rehearsal dinner

On the eve of the wedding, the mother of the bridegroom-elect hosted a rehearsal dinner at The Meeting Place restaurant in Wendell. The centerpiece for the head table was a red and white silk arrangement with lighted silver votive candles.

The bride-elect and bridegroom-elect presented their attendants with gifts following the dinner.

Bridesmaids' luncheon

The bride-elect's mother served a luncheon for the bridesmaids at her home in Zebulon.
