VERNA SPIVEY PAGE

596

Born Verna Spivey to Anderson Laffette and Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey on June 1, 1902, Verna was the youngest of 12 children: Mary Eleanor, Margaret Melinda, Ava Elizabeth, Leonard Aarron, George Clinton, Needham Henry, Joseph Monroe, William Preston, Mattie McElroy, Floyd Pervis, Hattie Bell, Erna Mae, and Verna, the only survivor.

Verna's father, Anderson, was born January 15, 1860 in Wake County to George W. Spivey and Margaret Melinda Nordan Spivey.

George was born August 4, 1826 and Margaret Melinda was born January 16, 1835.

Anderson had an older sister, E.J. Spivey, born October 1, 1855, a brother, G.W. Spivey (second son) born May 11, 1870, and his youngest brother, J.B. Spivey, born November 10, 1873.

Verna's grandfather, George, served in the Civil War stationed in a Virginia Camp. After the war, he returned home and told his family that he became so hungry during the war that "If sausage had reached from Virginia to North Carolina, I could have eaten my way home."

Once while the Yankees were coming through, Verna's father, Anderson scared their chickens into the woods to keep them from being eaten by the Yankees. Food was so scarce during those times, and even a small boy had to help his family.

Verna's great-granddaddy and grandma Henry and Polly Nordan had three girls: Margaret Melinda, Mary, Ann and three sons: Needham, Clinton, and William. They all loaded a covered wagon and headed toward Illinois, but something changed their minds, so they turned around and headed home. They reached the N.C. mountains and ran out of food. Fearing they would starve, Henry sold some of their cooking utensils in order to get enough food for the trip home. Polly and the eldest daughter, Margaret (Verna's grandmother), walked beside the wagon through the snow during their trip home, and at night their dresses would be frozen around their ankles.

Verna's mother, Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey's ancestor originated from France. Through an old family Bible, we traced the Rambeauts back to Nancy Rambeaut born May 9, 1793 and William Rambeaut born May 11, 1785. They were married April 8, 1810.

Their children were: Gilbert born Dec. 13, 1810; John Richard born Oct. 3, 1811; Margaret born Sept. 21, 1813; William James born Sept. 5, 1815; Elizabeth Elenor born Dec. 29, 1817; Mary Jane born Nov. 25, 1819; Robert P. born Oct. 14, 1821; Francis Marion born Jan. 10, 1823; and Henry Laffette born Nov. 25, 1825. Below are the children of Henry and Polly Harvell Rambeaut (Verna's Grandparents on her mothers side.) Mary Elizabeth Rambeaut born Mar. 6, 1853; James Monroe born Apr. 12, 1854; William Moses born Aug. 27, 1855; Sivil Ann born Dec. 4, 1858 and Margaret Artelia born March 14, 1861.

Verna's father died Sept. 29, 1943 and her mother died Aug. 7, 1907 — Both were laid to rest at the Harvell Cemetery, now the Fellowship Baptist Church cemetery.

Verna met Early Green Page born Dec. 25, 1888 to Nathan and Elizabeth Stephenson Page of Willow Springs. Early had a total of nine sisters and brothers, all are now deceased. Nathan was a farmer and worked harvesting turpentine with the help of Anderson Laffette Spivey (Verna's father.) Early and Verna were married Feb. 12, 1922. They farmed tobacco, cotton and corn. They were blessed with six children. Hilda Artelia born Sept. 19, 1924; Jesse Earl born July 5, 1926; Elton Green born April 5, 1928; Rachel Elizabeth born Feb. 2, 1930; Margaret Ann born Nov. 5, 1937; and Patsy Erlene born Feb. 3, 1940. From these came 18 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren of which two are deceased.

Early and Verna shared many happy years together before Early passed away July 7, 1971 of cardiac arrest. Verna lives at the homeplace and is a member of Fellowship Baptist Church. She enjoys crossword puzzles, reading and visiting. Her favorite hobby is quilting. As each grandchild marries she presents the couple a special homemade quilt, something that will always be treasured. She is what you think Grandmothers should be loving, warm, thoughtful and always helping others.

VERNA SPIVEY PAGE

Born Verna Spivey to Anderson Laffette and Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey on June 1, 1902, Verna was the youngest of 12 children: Mary Eleanor, Margaret Melinda, Ava Elizabeth, Leonard Aaron, George Clinton, Needham Henry, Joseph Monroe, William Preston, Mattie McElroy, Floyd Pervis, Hattie Bell, Erna Mae, and Verna, the only survivor.

Verna's father, Anderson, was born January 15, 1860 in Wake County to George W. Spivey and Margaret Melinda Nordan Spivey.

George was born August 4, 1826 and Margaret Melinda was born January 16, 1835.

Anderson had an older sister, E.J. Spivey, born October 1, 1855, a brother, G.W. Spivey (second son) born May 11, 1870, and his youngest brother, J.B. Spivey, born November 10, 1873.

Verna's grandfather, George, served in the Civil War stationed in a Virginia Camp. After the war, he returned home and told his family that he became so hungry during the war that "If sausage had reached from Virginia to North Carolina, I could have eaten my way home."

Once while the Yankees were coming through, Verna's father, Anderson scared their chickens into the woods to keep them from being eaten by the Yankees. Food was so scarce during those times, and even a small boy had to help his family.

Verna's great-granddaddy and grandma Henry and Polly Nordan had three girls: Margaret Melinda, Mary, Ann and three sons: Needham, Clinton, and William. They all loaded a covered wagon and headed toward Illinois, but something changed their minds, so they turned around and headed home. They reached the N.C. mountains and ran out of food. Fearing they would starve, Henry sold some of their cooking utensils in order to get enough food for the trip home. Polly and the eldest daughter, Margaret (Verna's grandmother), walked beside the wagon through the snow during their trip home, and at night their dresses would be frozen around their ankles.

Verna's mother, Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey's ancestor originated from France. Through an old family Bible, we traced the Rambeauts back to Nancy Rambeaut born May 9, 1793 and William Rambeaut born May 11, 1785. They were married April 8, 1810.

Their children were: Gilbert born Dec. 13, 1810; John Richard born Oct. 3, 1811; Margaret born Sept. 21, 1813; William James born Sept. 5, 1815; Elizabeth Elenor born Dec. 29, 1817; Mary Jane born Nov. 25, 1819; Robert P. born Oct. 14, 1821; Francis Marion born Jan. 10, 1823; and Henry Laffette born Nov. 25, 1825. Below are the children of Henry and Polly Harvell Rambeaut (Verna's Grandparents on her mothers side.) Mary Elizabeth Rambeaut born Mar. 6, 1853; James Monroe born Apr. 12, 1854; William Moses born Aug. 27, 1855; Sivil Ann born Dec. 4, 1858 and Margaret Artelia born March 14, 1861.

Verna's father died Sept. 29, 1943 and her mother died Aug. 7, 1907 — Both were laid to rest at the Harvell Cemetery, now the Fellowship Baptist Church cemetery.

Verna met Early Green Page born Dec. 25, 1888 to Nathan and Elizabeth Stephenson Page of Willow Springs. Early had a total of nine sisters and brothers, all are now deceased. Nathan was a farmer and worked harvesting turpentine with the help of Anderson Laffette Spivey (Verna's father.) Early and Verna were married Feb. 12, 1922. They farmed tobacco, cotton and corn. They were blessed with six children. Hilda Artelia born Sept. 19, 1924; Jesse Earl born July 5, 1926; Elton Green born April 5, 1928; Rachel Elizabeth born Feb. 2, 1930; Margaret Ann born Nov. 5, 1937; and Patsy Erline born Feb. 3, 1940. From these came 18 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren of which two are deceased.

Early and Verna shared many happy years together before Early passed away July 7, 1971 of cardiac arrest. Verna lives at the homeplace and is a member of Fellowship Baptist Church. She enjoys crossword puzzles, reading and visiting. Her favorite hobby is quilting. As each grandchild marries she presents the couple a special homemade quilt, something that will always be treasured. She is what you think Grandmothers should be loving, warm, thoughtful and always helping others.

VERNA SPIVEY PAGE

Born Verna Spivey to Anderson Laffette and Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey on June 1, 1902, Verna was the youngest of 12 children: Mary Eleanor, Margaret Melinda, Ava Elizabeth, Leonard Aarron, George Clinton, Needham Henry, Joseph Monroe, William Preston, Mattie McElroy, Floyd Pervis, Hattie Bell, Erna Mae, and Verna, the only survivor.

Verna's father, Anderson, was born January 15, 1860 in Wake County to George W. Spivey and Margaret Melinda Nordan Spivey.

George was born August 4, 1826 and Margaret Melinda was born January 16, 1835.

Anderson had an older sister, E.J. Spivey, born October 1, 1855, a brother, G.W. Spivey (second son) born May 11, 1870, and his youngest brother, J.B. Spivey, born November 10, 1873.

Verna's grandfather, George, served in the Civil War stationed in a Virginia Camp. After the war, he returned home and told his family that he became so hungry during the war that "If sausage had reached from Virginia to North Carolina, I could have eaten my way home."

Once while the Yankees were coming through, Verna's father, Anderson scared their chickens into the woods to keep them from being eaten by the Yankees. Food was so scarce during those times, and even a small boy had to help his family.

Verna's great-granddaddy and grandma Henry and Polly Nordan had three girls: Margaret Melinda, Mary, Ann and three sons: Needham, Clinton, and William. They all loaded a covered wagon and headed toward Illinois, but something changed their minds, so they turned around and headed home. They reached the N.C. mountains and ran out of food. Fearing they would starve, Henry sold some of their cooking utensils in order to get enough food for the trip home. Polly and the eldest daughter, Margaret (Verna's grandmother), walked beside the wagon through the snow during their trip home, and at night their dresses would be frozen around their ankles.

Verna's mother, Margaret Artelia Rambeaut Spivey's ancestor originated from France. Through an old family Bible, we traced the Rambeauts back to Nancy Rambeaut born May 9, 1793 and William Rambeaut born May 11, 1785. They were married April 8, 1810.

Their children were: Gilbert born Dec. 13, 1810; John Richard born Oct. 3, 1811; Margaret born Sept. 21, 1813; William James born Sept. 5, 1815; Elizabeth Elenor born Dec. 29, 1817; Mary Jane born Nov. 25, 1819; Robert P. born Oct. 14, 1821; Francis Marion born Jan. 10, 1823; and Henry Laffette born Nov. 25, 1825. Below are the children of Henry and Polly Harvell Rambeaut (Verna's Grandparents on her mothers side.) Mary Elizabeth Rambeaut born Mar. 6, 1853; James Monroe born Apr. 12, 1854; William Moses born Aug. 27, 1855; Sivil Ann born Dec. 4, 1858 and Margaret Artelia born March 14, 1861.

Verna's father died Sept. 29, 1943 and her mother died Aug. 7, 1907 — Both were laid to rest at the Harvell Cemetery, now the Fellowship Baptist Church cemetery.

Verna met Early Green Page born Dec. 25, 1888 to Nathan and Elizabeth Stephenson Page of Willow Springs. Early had a total of nine sisters and brothers, all are now deceased. Nathan was a farmer and worked harvesting turpentine with the help of Anderson Laffette Spivey (Verna's father.) Early and Verna were married Feb. 12, 1922. They farmed tobacco, cotton and corn. They were blessed with six children. Hilda Artelia born Sept. 19, 1924; Jesse Earl born July 5, 1926; Elton Green born April 5, 1928; Rachel Elizabeth born Feb. 2, 1930; Margaret Ann born Nov. 5, 1937; and Patsy Erlene born Feb. 3, 1940. From these came 18 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren of which two are deceased.

Early and Verna shared many happy years together before Early passed away July 7, 1971 of cardiac arrest. Verna lives at the homeplace and is a member of Fellowship Baptist Church. She enjoys crossword puzzles, reading and visiting. Her favorite hobby is quilting. As each grandchild marries she presents the couple a special homemade quilt, something that will always be treasured. She is what you think Grandmothers should be loving, warm, thoughtful and always helping others.

Two other sheets on a MAMIE UPCHURCH are enclosed (1910 Durham Co, NC Census) & a 1985 Death record. I am tempted to think these are for your mamie - but maybe not.

Enclosed is a Biofile sheet on Ernest Clenton Nordan which shows his descendants and how Albert Upchurch fits into the picture.

I realize that the Nordan children are not blood relatives of their step grandfather.

Sometimes I follow stepchildren & stepgrandchildren & sometimes not. It all depends on the situation.

I had a stepgrandfather Adolphus Creighton who lived out close to where Helen lives.

He was very kind to me and I spent a number of nights in his home. I remember him fondly.

My guess is that all of this detail goes beyond your need - but I like to share rather than be stingy. If you have any further interest I'll be happy to hear from you. Thanks again.

P.S. - Please share this with Helen Phil U.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

○ Notes of RPU Call to Jacquelyn (Nordan): Dawn "JACK" "JACKIE" wife of Paul Dawn (919) 790 8414 3608 Carolyn Drive, Raleigh, NC 27604 [North Raleigh] on 22 AUG 2004 [Name/Number given to me by her SIL Helen (Sloan) Nordan. The purpose of the call was to elicit information about a NORDAN-UPENORCA Connection [Albert U b-1864 is on 1930 census of Wake Co, NC as stepfather - in home headed by Ernest Clinton Nordan (father of Jackie).]

Jackie was willing to talk & did some but had to leave for church. I am to call back after 3:30 PM on 23 AUG 2004

Jackie knew the Albert U in question & says he died in 1936 and is buried in the City Cemetery in Raleigh, NC. Jackie said that the Albert U was the 2nd husband of the mother of Mamie Belle U (Apparently Mamie took her stepfather name) The mother of Mamie Belle U was nee Sudie Coats who died of cancer in VA and is buried there. Albert U apparently lived with the family of Sudie Coats before he married Sudie.

Jackie says Albert U had a married brother who lived in Raleigh

[COPIED 3 PAGES FOR: ALBERT U, SUDIE COATS, MAMIE BELLE U †]
 ○ Notes of RPL Call 23 AUG 2004 to Jacquelyn Nordan

This is a follow-up to a call the previous day. In the meantime Jackie has been able to study her family records which her daughter helped to create.

△ Jackie holds clear proof that the Albert U b 1864 and with the NORDAN family on the 1930 Census of Wake Co, NC was in fact Albert U s/o Nathan U, III, G s/o Nathan U, II and G G s/o Nathan U, I - Head of Class.

△ Jackie has details of the marriage license for Albert U and SUDIE COATS which took place on 5 JUL 1909 at 503 Benvenue St, Raleigh, NC and cited his Nathan U, III and his wife nee Martha A. Pope. It shows Sudie as 30 but she was actually 36. Further, Jackie has personal knowledge that the Albert U had a male brother James G. U who lived in Raleigh and was called "Uncle Jim" by the Nordan Family. Albert U was born 1 JUL 1864 (Wake Co, NC) & 23 SEP 1936 (Raleigh, NC) and was buried in the City Cemetery in Raleigh, NC. Jackie was 4 years old and remembers attending the service in the Cemetery. She & others stood back from the proceedings. She remembers seeing his monument but years later went back and could not find it. Jackie says Albert U could not write as he used X for a signature.

Jackie related 2 incidents about Albert U. His Nordan step grandchildren recall the family living at 108 Summit Ave which is in Caraleigh and near the old waterworks. They recall him being an overall loving mentor and that he took them fishing, swimming, etc. Jackie tells a story wherein Albert U had a bet (political in nature?) Apparently he lost and paid off by riding a bull down Fayetteville Street in Raleigh, NC. At the end of the street he got in a Boxcar on the railroad and was gone for 2 years. She does not know when this took place.

- △ The story of Mamie Belle U unfolds as follows:
- △△ Mamie was born (to an early ?? marriage of) SODIE COATS about
- △△ 1899. Subsequently Sodie Coats md 31 MAR 1900 (1) John
- △ Russell. This marriage did not last and Sodie took back
- △ her Coats maiden name. Then in 1909 when Mamie
- △△ was about 10 Sodie married Albert U. and Mamie
- △ took her stepfather's name becoming Mamie Belle U.
- △ Sodie d 8 APR 1918 (Newport News, VA) when the
- △ family worked in the shipyard and Sodie is buried
- △ there. The Nordan's lost their Summit Ave place in
- △ the Depression and then for 6-7 years lived on the
- △ Smithburg Road. Albert was not living with the Nordan
- △ Family when he died.

△ Mamie Belle (U) Nordan died 1974. She was the only child of Sodie Coats and her husband

Ernest Clinton Nordan was also an only child

△ Albert U is on the 1870, 1880 and 1930 census - record - but is yet to be located on the census

△ records for 1900, 1910 or 1920. Since he married

△ in Raleigh in 1909 there is a good chance he

△△ was in Raleigh in 1910. Jackie assumes he

△△ was with Sodie in VA when she died in 1918.

△ One should hope to find him on 1920 census

△ in VA or NC - but he has not yet been found
