① Raleigh, NC - when Thomas Ruffin, Robert Hamilton, Frederick Hill and J. W. Norwood organized the new State Agricultural Society in 1852, they made Raleigh the center of agricultural research and education in NC. An immediate manifestation of the new statute was the first annual State Fair held in 1853 on an 8.5 acre field bordered by East Hargett, East Darnell and Hargett Streets (3), Pg 41).

FRANKLIN CO, NC TAX RECORDS

This extract seems to provide a reasonably complete listing for Upchurch property owners in Franklin Co, NC for the period 1798-1836. It may be presumed that a number of the Upchurch family members owned the same land year after year. Thus the change of the District in which their tax listing fell represented a change in the District Captain. A careful study of these records could reveal the sequential names of the Captains for the main Upchurch Enclave.

There are some Upchurch listings that seem to fall outside of the main enclave. However, one needs to consider that District lines could have changed. My impression are that most if not all Upchurch listings are quite near each other in any case. Two Captains who are known by their full names are JOHN NORWOODS, SAMUEL TAYLOR & ELEY DENSON. See additional sheet for a full list of District Captains. Note that there have to be more Upchurches for the 1798-1836 era.

MARY LOU NORWOOD

Western Wake Herald WED 14 FEB 1950 Apex, NC

As many of you know, Mother was buried in Apex last Tuesday following her death on Sunday evening at her home in Morehead City.

Mary Lou Booth

She leaves behind many memories of warm days at her beach, her never to be duplicated clam chowder, shrimp creole and crab cakes. Mammy was everybodys Mammy and for every young person who was ever able to benefit from her open door from Longwood College, Meredith, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Greensboro, Apex High School will remember her. Our thanks to all of you for your beautiful cards, flowers and food and surrounding us with your love and memories of her. We thank God for her life and for giving us the beauty of flowers so that we can always be surrounded by her love and memory.
