④ Δ FAIRVIEW (COMMUNITY) - SWIFT CREEK TSP - WAKE CO, NC
 REC'D 26 APR 2007 BY RPU FROM KATHERINE MAE JONES

REC'D
 26 APR 2007

How the Fairview Rural Fire Department Began

Δ The Fairview Rural Fire Department, Inc. originated in the summer of 1962 from an idea proposed by Gene W. Ogburn. Gene sold fire equipment at the time, and he recognized the need for the community to be prepared to handle fire emergencies.

□ Δ Gene talked over his idea with Thomas Allen Pierce, who was the president of the Fairview Community Club. Allen invited Gene and his family to come to a picnic hosted by the Club and asked Gene to present his idea at the business meeting after the picnic. Gene explained how valuable it would be to have a tanker truck ready to put out local fires--brush or tobacco barn fires, for example. Sally Beard thought that was an excellent idea, so she made a motion for the Club to give $100 toward the purchase of a tanker truck. She stated she would match the Club's contribution with a personal donation of $100, if the Club members would vote in favor of the motion. The motion was approved, and that was the beginning of the Fairview Rural Fire Department.

Δ □ Word went out to the community that a fire department was going to be organized. Several men came to the first meeting, and a lot of interest was shown. Gene explained that the first order of business would be to organize a formal fire fighting team and then purchase a tanker truck to haul water. Twenty-two men formed the original Fairview Rural Fire Department, and Gene became the first Fire Chief. □ Δ Furman West and Gene located an Army surplus tanker truck and brought it back to Fairview. After many hours of work, the volunteers had an operational pump with water tank and hose. Filled with water from local ponds, the tanker functioned as the Department's first fire truck.

In the best way he could, Gene trained the men to run a fire department. He did a lot of research, gathered information from his work-related travel, and visited well-known fire departments. All of this knowledge he brought back to the other firemen. Many fire drills were held in the beginning, and they occurred any time, day or night. Gene saw that the fire department had a good set of by-laws, and he oversaw the department's incorporation in 1963. Soon after the fire department was organized, it received permission from the Fairview Community Board of Trustees to build a fire station on the community property. Many fund raising barbecues were held to reach this goal. The original fire station was built almost exclusively by its firemen.

The Fairview Rural Fire Department began modestly with $200 and twenty-two dedicated charter members, but over the years the Department has expanded in many ways, to reflect the needs of a growing community. From its beginning, though, its foundation has been the generosity and commitment of many community citizens.

Ogilvie honored by 4-H Club

One of the highest honors in 4-H club work has been bestowed upon a Wake County 4-H'er.

Rhonda Ogilvie, 19, daughter of Roger and Ann Ogilvie, Route 1, Apex, was tapped for membership in the State 4-H Honor Club in a candlelight ceremony during North Carolina 4-H Congress at North Carolina State University.

The Honor Club recognizes 4-H'ers who have exemplified leadership, high moral standards and outstanding achievement in the 4-H program.

Ogilvie, a 4-H'er for 10 years, has completed projects in 7 4-H program areas. She has held various local 4-H offices and conducted numerous workshops. She is a national consumer education project winner, a state clothing winner and has attended Citizenship Washington Focus.

About one half of 1 percent of the state's 4-H members are selected for membership each year. Less than 1,600 4-H'ers have been tapped into the club since its organization in 1931.
