Notes

I have a copy of Pop and Grandmom's marriage license from Wilkes County, NC. It was sent to me by Farrell Horton. The marriage took place on December 24, 1921 in the home of Grandmom's parents, James Darnell and Tish Miller Darnell located on Darnell Creek Road in Wilkes County, then known as Darnell, NC. Now known as Millers Creek.

Pop told us that he was born in Vannoy, Wilkes County, NC. On April 27, 1999 I received a Delayed Certificate of Birth Registration from Alleghany County, NC Register of Deeds. It was made May 14, 1942 and gives Morgan's birth as June 14, 1900. It says he was born in Furches, Alleghany County, NC. His father is listed as Alex Osborne and mother as Sarah Upchurch, both born in Alleghany County in 1863. His parents and sister Sallie Osborne Irwin signed an affidavit verifying his birth date. A family bible record was also presented as evidence.

Pop bought a total of 23 acres of land on three separate occasions in Wilkes County, NC. On 4/28/1923 he bought 11 acres for $50 from his parents, Alex and Sarah. The deed says "Maryan" Osborne but I think this a misprint. On 1/16/1928 he and my grandmother Annie bought 7 acres for $100 from Alex and Sarah. On 11.27.1928 he and Annie bought 5 acres for $70 from Alex Bare and Ettie Bare.

In April, 1999 my mother Helen said Pop may have left Wilkes County, NC in the early 1930's and gone to WV because of being wanted for making moonshine. This is only speculation at this point. Pop's older brother Charlie was already in WV and Pop and his family lived with Charlie for a time.

My mother Helen remembers her grandfather Alex visiting the farm in Auto when she was a child. She remembers him having white hair and a big stomach. She would help him tie his shoes because he had trouble bending over and doing it himself.

I have a copy of his marriage application dated September 16, 1882. His first cousin Martin Hoppers is shown as the applicant. Martin was a Justice of the Peace according to Lorene Sturgill book. Alex is 20 and Sarah Upchurch is 19 according to the application. The application was filed in Alleghany County, NC in the Register of Deeds.

The marriage license itself is dated September 24, 1882. The Justice of the Peace was M. F. Joines or Goines. It appears that the marriage took place in Cranberry Township in the home of Matilda Toliver Hoppers, wife of Alex's uncle, Daniel Hoppers.

Alex bought land in Wilkes County, NC on 6/15/1907 from D.A. Osborne and Cora E. Osborne. I have the deed. He paid $300 for 60 acres. He bought an additional 11 acres from the same people on 3/23/1914 for $68. He sold 18 acres on two separate occasions in the 1920's to his son, Morgan. See notes on Morgan.

On 8/20/1930 he sold 47 acres for $800 in Wilkes County, NC to his son Edward Osborne, with the proviso that Edward was to care for Alex and his wife Sarah for the rest of their lives.

My mother Helen said that Alex used to make the best tobacco twists.

On August 27, 1934 Alex purchased the 47 acres back from his son Edward. Adjoining lands of T. B. Finley, Millard Roten, and S. J. Dancy. Millard was Alex's son-in-law.

In her letter to me dated June, 1999 Sally Andrews Hutchens said that a cousin told her that Alex suffered from the gout for many years. This is consistent with what my Mom remembers-she didn't know the ailment but said he had lots of troubles with his legs.

Thanks for your letter of September 30, 1997. Also, thanks for the obituary of Amos V. Osborne. I read it to my mother over the phone and although she knew she had an Uncle Amos, she knew very little about him and did not recall ~~seeing~~ ever meeting him. My late cousin Guy Sheets said that Amos could really play the banjo, especially after a few drinks. Guy lived in North Wilkesboro and knew Amos. I'd say that the obituary of Amos is the best info on his birth date that we have so far. The other date comes from Lorene Sturgill's book. With that in mind, the infant in the 1902 photo would be Minnie. I think we may eventually solve this one.

Notes

I have a copy of Pop and Grandmom's marriage license from Wilkes County, NC. It was sent to me by Farrell Horton. The marriage took place on December 24, 1921 in the home of Grandmom's parents, James Darnell and Tish Miller Darnell located on Darnell Creek Road in Wilkes County, then known as Darnell, NC. Now known as Millers Creek.

Pop told us that he was born in Vannoy, Wilkes County, NC. On April 27, 1999 I received a Delayed Certificate of Birth Registration from Alleghany County, NC Register of Deeds. It was made May 14, 1942 and gives Morgan's birth as June 14, 1900. It says he was born in Furches, Alleghany County, NC. His father is listed as Alex Osborne and mother as Sarah Upchurch, both born in Alleghany County in 1863. His parents and sister Sallie Osborne Irwin signed an affidavit verifying his birth date. A family bible record was also presented as evidence.

Pop bought a total of 23 acres of land on three separate occasions in Wilkes County, NC. On 4/28/1923 he bought 11 acres for $50 from his parents, Alex and Sarah. The deed says "Maryan" Osborne but I think this a misprint. On 1/16/1928 he and my grandmother Annie bought 7 acres for $100 from Alex and Sarah. On 11/27/1928 he and Annie bought 5 acres for $70 from Alex Bare and Ettie Bare.

In April, 1999 my mother Helen said Pop may have left Wilkes County, NC in the early 1930's and gone to WV because of being wanted for making moonshine. This is only speculation at this point. Pop's older brother Charlie was already in WV and Pop and his family lived with Charlie for a time.

Notes

5 + 99 I received a letter from Uncle Charlie's daughter, Ella Osborne Everett. She said that her family moved from NC in April, 1924 when she was 6 weeks old.

[MILGAN BRANT OSBORNE] ←

I can remember Uncle Charlie and his wife Beatrice "Be-at" pretty well. They had a farm in Auto about a mile from Pop's. Uncle Charlie was an avid hunter. He would go out for days and no one would know when he was going to return. He had some hounds for hunting. We could hear them howling at night. He was also a beekeeper. First honey beehives I ever saw.

My mother said that her family lived with Uncle Charlie for a time when my mother's family moved from NC to WV.

Uncle Charlie and Aunt Beat are buried in Woodland Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Auto, Greenbrier County, West Virginia. Death dates and marriage date was given to me by Dolly Perez through Leonard Osborne, son of Charlie and Beatrice.

On May 7, 1999 I received a copy of a Delayed Certificate of Birth Registration from Alleghany County Register of Deeds. It was made on May 5, 1942. It gives his birth as June 1, 1896 in Furches, Alleghany County, NC. Mary Jane Wagoner was the midwife at birth. Alex and Sarah Upchurch Osborne are listed as parents. Charlie's sister, Sallie Osborne Irwin, signed an affidavit stating Charlie's birth date. Bible records were used as evidence.

I received a letter from Leonard Osborne in May, 1999 and he said he and his parents moved from NC to WV on April 16, 1924. Leonard said that his grandparents, Alex and Sarah lived with them one winter in WV when he was 9 or 10 years old.

I received a letter from Leonard Osborne in October 1999 and he said that his family left NC due to a warrant for his father Charlie's arrest for moonshining. He said that they had handcuffs on his father when Uncle Charlie ran away and Leonard has the handcuffs.

Notes

According to a Memoriam sent to my mother from Mattie's daughter, Sally Andrews Hutchens of Winston-Salem, NC, Mattie is buried in Antioch Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery in Alleghany County.

At the time of her death Mattie had 6 surviving children, 28 grandchildren, 66 great grandchildren and 44 great great grandchildren.

I have a copy of Aunt Mattie's death certificate from Alleghany County. She lived in Laurel Springs. I saw where she lived when Uncle Hobe and I visited Mattie's daughter Amy Andrews twice at the old homeplace.

↳ [nee AMY ZELL ANDREWS]

In her letter to me dated June 1999 Sally Andrews Hutchens said her parents were married in Prathers Creek Church in Alleghany County, NC. She's not sure if the church still stands.

Mattie and her husband operated a grocery store at their farm in Laurel Springs for many years. The building still stands and I've seen it. My mother remembers going to it when her family visited NC. Laurel Springs used to be called Furches.

Notes

I have a copy of Pop and Grandmom's marriage license from Wilkes County, NC. It was sent to me by Farrell Horton. The marriage took place on December 24, 1921 in the home of Grandmom's parents, James Darnell and Tish Miller Darnell located on Darnell Creek Road in Wilkes County, then known as Darnell, NC. Now known as Millers Creek.

Pop told us that he was born in Vannoy, Wilkes County, NC. On April 27, 1999 I received a Delayed Certificate of Birth Registration from Alleghany County, NC Register of Deeds. It was made May 14, 1942 and gives Morgan's birth as June 14, 1900. It says he was born in Furches, Alleghany County, NC. His father is listed as Alex Osborne and mother as Sarah Upchurch, both born in Alleghany County in 1863. His parents and sister Sallie Osborne Irwin signed an affidavit verifying his birth date. A family bible record was also presented as evidence.

Pop bought a total of 23 acres of land on three separate occasions in Wilkes County, NC. On 4/28/1923 he bought 11 acres for $50 from his parents, Alex and Sarah. The deed says "Maryan" Osborne but I think this a misprint. On 1/16/1928 he and my grandmother Annie bought 7 acres for $100 from Alex and Sarah. On 11.27/1928 he and Annie bought 5 acres for $70 from Alex Bare and Ettie Bare.

In April, 1999 my mother Helen said Pop may have left Wilkes County, NC in the early 1930's and gone to WV because of being wanted for making moonshine. This is only speculation at this point. Pop's older brother Charlie was already in WV and Pop and his family lived with Charlie for a time.

Notes

5 4 99 I received a letter from Uncle Charlie's daughter, Ella Osborne Everett. She said that her family moved from NC in April, 1924 when she was 6 weeks old.

[MORGAN BRANT OSBORNE] ←

I can remember Uncle Charlie and his wife Beatrice "Be-at" pretty well. They had a farm in Auto about a mile from Pop's. Uncle Charlie was an avid hunter. He would go out for days and no one would know when he was going to return. He had some hounds for hunting. We could hear them howling at night. He was also a beekeeper. First honey beehives I ever saw.

My mother said that her family lived with Uncle Charlie for a time when my mother's family moved from NC to WV.

Uncle Charlie and Aunt Beat are buried in Woodland Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Auto, Greenbrier County, West Virginia. Death dates and marriage date was given to me by Dolly Perez through Leonard Osborne, son of Charlie and Beatrice.

On May 7, 1999 I received a copy of a Delayed Certificate of Birth Registration from Alleghany County Register of Deeds. It was made on May 5, 1942. It gives his birth as June 1, 1896 in Furches, Alleghany County, NC. Mary Jane Wagoner was the midwife at birth. Alex and Sarah Upchurch Osborne are listed as parents. Charlie's sister, Sallie Osborne Irwin, signed an affidavit stating Charlie's birth date. Bible records were used as evidence.

I received a letter from Leonard Osborne in May, 1999 and he said he and his parents moved from NC to WV on April 16, 1924. Leonard said that his grandparents, Alex and Sarah lived with them one winter in WV when he was 9 or 10 years old.

I received a letter from Leonard Osborne in October 1999 and he said that his family left NC due to a warrant for his father Charlie's arrest for moonshining. He said that they had handcuffs on his father when Uncle Charlie ran away and Leonard has the handcuffs.

There seems to be no doubt that Sarah "Sallie" Roberts was the wife of John Wesley Upchurch. They're buried next to each other in Cranberry Cemetery and their daughter's death certificate (my Sarah Upchurch Osborne) clearly indicates that they were her parents. I have no proof that Emily Hoppers was Sarah's mother except for what I was told by my grandfather, Morgan Osborne↑. There's an outside chance that a married Wesley got Emily pregnant at the age of about 15, had Sarah, with Sarah being raised by Wesley and Wesley's wife. Quite a long-shot I would think.
