11. SARAH ELIZABETH³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 18 Jan 1864 in Rutherford Co., NC. She died on 09 Jan 1941 in Transylvania Co., NC. She married Alfred Henry Owen, son of John Bishop Owen III and Malinda Reid, about 1881. He was born on 28 Dec 1844 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. Notes for Alfred Henry Owen:

According to Bonnie Waldier "My great grandfather, Alfred Henry OWEN, left Elizabeth (Betty) to raise the kids around 1879-80 (he was still there for the 1880 census) for Sarah Banther. He went to Virginia and started another big family. He stayed there until Betty Wood OWEN died, and then returned to NC. I have a copy of a letter that Alfred's mother, MELINDA REID OWEN sent to Alfred telling him that Betty was dying. I have always wondered if that is why Alfred killed himself. My grandfather, Tillman OWEN came west in 1907, and never got over any of it."

7. ALBEY PRISCILLA³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 14 Oct 1840 in Henderson (now Transylvania) Co., NC. She died in 1913 in Jackson Co., NC. She married (1) ANSEL OWEN, son of John W. Owen Jr. and Lavinia Parker, on 21 Nov 1858 in Henderson Co., NC. He was born in 1840 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He died in 1864 in Camp Vance, near Morganton, Burke Co., NC. She met (2) WASHINGTON OWEN. He was born in 1832 in NC. He died before 1871 in Clinton, Anderson Co., TN. She married (3) JAMES J. CAPPS in 1871 in Anderson Co., TN. He was born in 1831 in SC.

Notes for Alsey Priscilla Banther:

"Family lore says that Priscilla ran away with Rufus' brother Washington to Tennessee and had a couple of kids by him but have never found anything to prove this...if she (Priscilla) is correct in saying (on 1890 Civil War Veterans Census for Tennessee) he was captured and died in captivity then it is safe to say that he did not father any more children after the war." Source: Jerry Owen

Family members in Washington State say that they have a letter from Rufus' brother that indicated that Rufus had been killed and that he would take care of "Cilla".

1850 Mountain Creek District, Rutherford Co., NC census: She was living at home, age 10.

1860 census: She and Ansel were living in Henderson Co., NC

1870 census: She was living in Gloucester Twp. with all 4 children and no husband, next to her in-laws. Next door on the other side was her brother George W. Banther, and his first wife and 2 sons. Hers was the 57th household. Number 37 was future husband J. J. Capps with his first wife and 4 children.

1880 census: She was living with J.J. Capps in Cocke Co., TN. Her four children were all listed with Capps as their last name. It also says the father of all 4 was born in SC which was where J. J. Capps was born instead of NC where Ansel and Washington Owen were born.

Notes for Ansel Owen:

Ansel reportedly died while fighting in the Civil War in 1864 at Camp Vance, during a raid by Union soldiers. (See below the history of Camp Vance.) The Anderson Co., TN Owen family is adamant that William Huston Owen was born in 1863, thus the son of Ansel and Priscilla. Members of the NC Owen clan, however, feel sure that Huston was born in 1868 and therefore the son of Priscilla and most likely her brother-in-law Washington Owen. He was certainly not the son of James J. Capps whom Priscilla married in 1871 even though at least one census report seems to indicate as such.

"Family lore says that Priscilla ran away with Ansel's brother Washington to Tennessee and had a couple of kids by him but have never found anything to prove this...if she (Priscilla) is correct in saying (on 1890 Civil War Veterans Census for Tennessee) he was captured and died in captivity then it is safe to say that he did not father any more children after the war." Source: Jerry Owen

1860 census: He and Priscilla and nine-month-old Sarah were living in Henderson Co. between his parents and his brother Marion.

1890 Civil War Veterans Census: PVT C Co. 2nd NC Inf. captured and killed at Camp Vance, NC. Listed under Anderson Co, TN.

Camp Vance was named for Zebulon B. Vance, who was Governor of North Carolina during the Civil War. Camp Vance served as a training gound for North Carolina Troops throughout much of the Civil War. The Camp was raided by Federal Troops in 1864.

"On June 13, 1864, Col. Kirk with about 130 men left Morristown, Tennessee for a raid on Camp Vance, near Morganton, North Carolina. The soldiers traveled on foot through Bull's Gap, Greeneville, and Crab Orchard, Tennessee. They crossed into North Carolina and forded the Toe River about six miles south of the Cranberry Iron Works. They crossed the Linville River on the afternoon of June 26 and crossed Upper Creek at nightfall on June 27. They marched all night and reached Camp Vance at reveille on June 28. Camp Vance was a training camp for conscripts; the reluctant soldiers had not yet been issued rifles. The camp surrendered, and 40 of the conscripts promptly enlisted under Col. Kirk. All except the sick and the medical officers were carried off to Tennessee. The medical officers were paroled, but the sick (approximately 70 men) were set free because the Federal soldiers had no time to parole them. One Confederate report implies that the "sick" weren't really ill, but were put on the sick list and admitted into the hospital in a successful effort by the medical officers to prevent their capture. According to one of the Confederate medical officers, "Col. Kirk claimed to be a regular U.S. Officer, carried a U.S. Flag, and his men were all in Federal uniforms." Another Confederate report of this incident says that most of Kirk's men were armed with Spencer repeating rifles. Despite several small skirmishes on the way, Kirk and his men and prisoners returned safely to Tennessee." Source: <http://www.nctroops.com/3usmnt.html>

On June 13, 1864, Kirk's 130 volunteers successfully routed Confederates at Camp Vance, where 279 Rebels surrendered as prisoners of war and forty soldiers were recruited into the Union regiment. <http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/4the3sratedges/bryson.html>

Transylvania County, NC, Death Certificates provide additional information about Lesia Owen Parker and her son (Vol 1, pg 207&209). Lesia Parker was the daughter of A.H. Owen and Sarah Banther. Her son was born premature while she was suffering from tubercular pneumonia and lived only 30 minutes. Lesia died three days later from pneumonia in both lungs as well as the effects of the delivery. I have added her son to the listing beside her - she certainly would have been buried next to her son given these tragic circumstances. The child was buried February 7 in the family graveyard and Lesia was buried February 10.

According to the Dunson family history, which we have found to be very reliable genealogically, William Rogers was shown by the tax records as living with a widow, Jane Owen, in 1678 and 1679. In 1680 he was shown as the head of a household having married this lady. Her husband, Bertholomew Owen, had died in 1677. We do not say here that William was living in an adulterous state with the widow but it does not look good. Perhaps he was just dilatory in asserting himself as the head of the household. The only child of this marriage was William.

Notes for Arlesia Owen:
Transylvania County, NC, Death Certificates provide additional information about Lesia Owen Parker and her son (Vol 1, pg 207&209). Lesia Parker was the daughter of A.H. Owen and Sarah Banther. Her son was born premature while she was suffering from tubercular pneumonia and lived only 30 minutes. Lesia died three days later from pneumonia in both lungs as well as the effects of the delivery. I have added her son to the listing beside her - she certainly would have been buried next to her son given these tragic circumstances. The child was buried February 7 in the family graveyard and Lesia was buried February 10.

According to the Dunson family history, which we have found to be very reliable genealogically, William Rogers was shown by the tax records as living with a widow, Jane Owen, in 1678 and 1679. In 1680 he was shown as the head of a household having married this lady. Her husband, Bertholomew Owen, had died in 1677. We do not say here that William was living in an adulterous state with the widow but it does not look good. Perhaps he was just dilatory in asserting himself as the head of the household. The only child of this marriage was William.

[△] Irma Ragan Holland's book includes an extensive amount of information about the Holland family. Mrs. Holland's step-son, [△] Darrell Holland lives in Charlotte and has copies of the book.

Most of the records we have refer to David Henry Holland as "colonel," a rank he apparently held in the War of 1812. The Biblical Recorder, a Baptist paper published in Wake County, carried a resolution in its March 25, 1874, edition, extending sympathy to the family of David Holland (the paper was on file at Wake Forest College in the 1950's) An obituary in The Biblical Recorder dated September 4, 1867, included a notice about the death of Mrs. Mabel Holland. The notice reads: "Died, at the residence of her son-in-law Green Beckwith, Esq., on Sunday night the 25th inst., aged 86 years, Mrs. Mabel Holland, widow of the late Col. David Holland, of Wake County (full text on #39)." There is a discrepancy in these dates for David Holland's death: If Mabel, his wife, died in 1867 and was referred to as the widow of Col. David Holland, he could not have died in 1874. NOTE: CHECK THE BIBLICAL RECORDER -- DO WE HAVE THE WRONG DATE FOR ONE OF THESE ISSUES?

According to Irma Ragan Holland's book, THE HOLLANDS...FROM VIRGINIA TO NORTH CAROLINA...THE JOSEPH HOLLAND LINE...THE JIMMY HOLLAND LINE, David Henry Holland died March 1, 1874, and the death is listed in the Wake County Death Notices, volume 1856 - 1893. This book says Holland lived in Apex, NC, near the Bright Holland Place. Northern soldiers ransacked the place when they came through during the Civil War.

Herbert Benoy cites this source of information: "The Hollands from Virginia to North Carolina" by Irma Ragan Holland, pages 6, 7, 8, and 10. Also, "Death Notices" Vol. 1836-1893, Wake County, North Carolina. Included in Herbert's papers are pictures of Lucinta Holland and her husband Green Beckwith. In correspondence with Mrs. C. F. Oakley of Siler City, NC, October 30, 1955, she says "the site of David Holland's home was around 3 miles from my old home...I've seen it lots of times." She mentions that she helped "Cousin S. W. Williams, a druggist in Raleigh, write a family history." She says Williams has died and she doesn't know who has the history...."You could write to Mrs. S. W. Williams, Hillsboro St., Raleigh, NC, and ask her if she has the history"

David Holland is mentioned twice in Elizabeth Reid Murray's book, Wake: Capital County of North Carolina. In her account of Wake County's involvement in the War of 1812 she says: "Late in 1812, after the war was in progress, the General Assembly divided the Wake County militia regiment into two regiments. So many Wake men had volunteered at a June muster that it was necessary to hold a draft to determine those to be accepted. Officers of the first regiment were Col. Allen Rogers, with John T. C. Wiatt and Daniel L. Barringer as first and second majors. Col. Simpson Shaw commanded the second, with William Daniel and Thomas Ferrill, majors. The 24 Wake companies were made part of a new Seventh Division of state militia, and Dr. Calvin Jones of Raleigh, adjutant general since 1808, was named major general in command of the new Seventh. Robert Williams of Raleigh succeeded Jones as adjutant general." She then lists the captains of the two regiments. Included in one regiment are the names of the following men: Dempsey Blake, James Speight, David Holland, Thomas Ferrill, Reuben Jackson, John Green, Solomon Jones, William Jones, Benjamin Dunn, John Arnold, William M'Cullers, and Asa Bacon.

In her account of banking in Wake County during the 1800s, Mrs. Reid says the county's early banks came into being primarily for the purpose of issuing notes to retire the old post-Revolutionary paper currency of the state. Three of these banks survived the financial panic and depression of 1819, but in the 1820s local investors speculated heavily in bank stocks, and dividends began to decline. "Between 1832 and 1835...two (banks) passed all their dividends, and ...three were forced into liquidation in 1835. One of the reasons for their failure was the demand of the Second Bank of the United States that they meet in specie all their obligations to pay. Several groups of Wake citizens gathered in May and June of 1834 and forwarded to Congress resolutions protesting the bank's actions and opposing its rechartering....In June at Holly Spring, those taking...action were Woodson Clements, Col. David Holland, John B. Owen, John A. Brown, Needham and [△] Samuel Norris."

11. SARAH ELIZABETH³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 18 Jan 1864 in Rutherford Co., NC. She died on 09 Jan 1941 in Transylvania Co., NC. She married Alfred Henry Owen, son of John Bishop Owen III and Malinda Reid, about 1881. He was born on 28 Dec 1844 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He died on 26 Dec 1926 in Lake Toxway, Transylvania Co., NC.

Notes for Sarah Elizabeth Banther:

1880 census: She was with Alfred.

1910 census: She was living with Alfred. She had had 12 children; 10 were living. 1940 census:

1940 census: She was widowed and living in Gloucester with her son Jesse Dillard's family.

Notes for Alfred Henry Owen:

According to Bonnie Waldier "My great grandfather, Alfred Henry OWEN, left Elizabeth (Betty) to raise the kids around 1879-80 (he was still there for the 1880 census) for Sarah Banther. He went to Virginia and started another big family. He stayed there until Betty Wood OWEN died, and then returned to NC. I have a copy of a letter that Alfred's mother, MELINDA REID OWEN sent to Alfred telling him that Betty was dying. I have always wondered if that is why Alfred killed himself. My grandfather, Tillman OWEN came west in 1907, and never got over any of it."

1850 census: living at home

1870 census: He was in Caney Fork, Jackson Co., NC.

1880 census: He was living in Gloucester, listed as 23, when he was surely 33.

1910 census: He was still in Gloucester, a farmer.

Her son was born premature while she was suffering from tubercular pneumonia and lived only 30 minutes. Lesia died three days later from pneumonia in both lungs as well as the effects of the delivery. I have added her son to the listing beside her - she certainly would have been buried next to her son given these tragic circumstances. The child was buried February 7 in the family graveyard and Lesia was buried February 10.

7. ALSEY PRISCILLA³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 14 Oct 1840 in Henderson (now Transylvania) Co., NC. She died in 1913 in Jackson Co., NC. She married (1) ANSEL OWEN, son of John W. Owen Jr. and Lavinia Parker, on 21 Nov 1858 in Henderson Co., NC. He was born in 1840 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He died in 1864 in Camp Vance, near Morganton, Burke Co., NC. She met (2) WASHINGTON OWEN. He was born in 1832 in NC. He died before 1871 in Clinton, Anderson Co., TN. She married (3) JAMES J. CAPPS in 1871 in Anderson Co., TN. He was born in 1831 in SC.

Notes for Alsey Priscilla Banther:

Source: Jerry Owen

Family members in Washington State say that they have a letter from Rufus' brother that indicated that Rufus had been killed and that he would take care of "Cilla".

1850 Mountain Creek District, Rutherford Co., NC census: She was living at home, age 10.

1860 census: She and Ansel were living in Henderson Co., NC

1870 census: She was living in Gloucester Twp. with all 4 children and no husband, next to her in-laws. Next door on the other side was her brother George W. Banther, and his first wife and 2 sons. Hers was the 57th household. Number 37 was future husband J. J. Capps with his first wife and 4 children.

1880 census: She was living with J.J. Capps in Cocke Co., TN. Her four children were all listed with Capps as their last name. It also says the father of all 4 was born in SC which was where J. J. Capps was born instead of NC where Ansel and Washington Owen were born.

Notes for Ansel Owen:

Ansel reportedly died while fighting in the Civil War in 1864 at Camp Vance, during a raid by Union soldiers. (See below the history of Camp Vance.) The Anderson Co., TN Owen family is adamant that William Huston Owen was born in 1863, thus the son of Ansel and Priscilla. Members of the NC Owen clan, however, feel sure that Huston was born in 1868 and therefore the son of Priscilla and most likely her brother-in-law Washington Owen. He was certainly not the son of James J. Capps whom Priscilla married in 1871 even though at least one census report seems to indicate as such.

"Family lore says that Priscilla ran away with Ansel's brother Washington to Tennessee and had a couple of kids by him but have never found anything to prove this...if she (Priscilla) is correct in saying (on 1890 Civil War Veterans Census for Tennessee) he was captured and died in captivity then it is safe to say that he did not father any more children after the war." Source: Jerry Owen

1860 census: He and Priscilla and nine-month-old Sarah were living in Henderson Co. between his parents and his brother Marion.

1890 Civil War Veterans Census: PVT C Co. 2nd NC Inf. captured and killed at Camp Vance, NC. Listed under Anderson Co, TN.

Camp Vance was named for Zebulon B. Vance, who was Governor of North Carolina during the Civil War. Camp Vance served as a training gound for North Carolina Troops throughout much of the Civil War. The Camp was raided by Federal Troops in 1864.

"On June 13, 1864, Col. Kirk with about 130 men left Morristown, Tennessee for a raid on Camp Vance, near Morganton, North Carolina. The soldiers traveled on foot through Bull's Gap, Greeneville, and Crab Orchard, Tennessee. They crossed into North Carolina and forded the Toe River about six miles south of the Cranberry Iron Works. They crossed the Linville River on the afternoon of June 26 and crossed Upper Creek at nightfall on June 27. They marched all night and reached Camp Vance at reveille on June 28. Camp Vance was a training camp for conscripts; the reluctant soldiers had not yet been issued rifles. The camp surrendered, and 40 of the conscripts promptly enlisted under Col. Kirk. All except the sick and the medical officers were carried off to Tennessee. The medical officers were paroled, but the sick (approximately 70 men) were set free because the Federal soldiers had no time to parole them. One Confederate report implies that the "sick" weren't really ill, but were put on the sick list and admitted into the hospital in a successful effort by the medical officers to prevent their capture. According to one of the Confederate medical officers, "Col. Kirk claimed to be a regular U.S. Officer, carried a U.S. Flag, and his men were all in Federal uniforms." Another Confederate report of this incident says that most of Kirk's men were armed with Spencer repeating rifles. Despite several small skirmishes on the way, Kirk and his men and prisoners returned safely to Tennessee." Source: <http://www.ncdroops.com/3usmnt.html>

On June 13, 1864, Kirk's 130 volunteers successfully routed Confederates at Camp Vance, where 279 Rebels surrendered as prisoners of war and forty soldiers were recruited into the Union regiment. <http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/4the3sratedges/bryson.html>

He died on 01 Nov 1972 in Knoxville, Knox Co., TN. He married (1) MATTIE IVORY HOSKINS, daughter of Caleb Houston Hoskins and Tabitha Ann Wallace, on 15 Sep 1918 in Anderson Co., TN (Charles C. Wade, J. P.). She was born on 26 Oct 1894 in Anderson Co., TN. She died on 17 Jul 1923 in Anderson Co., TN.
- He married (2) DOROTHY LEE MCQUEEN, daughter of John Wesley Vowell McQueen and Julia Ann Daugherty, on 29 Dec 1926 in Anderson Co., TN (Rev. Lee Ward). She was born on 04 Mar 1905 in TN. She died on 20 Jul 1993 in Anderson Co., TN.

Notes for Joseph Kelly Owen:

As a young adult, Joe helped his father on the family farm. He later bought a sawmill. When his wife Mattie died, leaving him with two small children and a large debt of medical bills, he went to Indiana to earn enough money to support his children and to pay his debts. He left three-year-old Violet and 18-month-old Leonard with Mattie's mother and sister Barbara. For two years in Indiana he worked on a farm. Then he went to Detroit and worked for General Motors. There he met Dorothy McQueen whose sister Beulah was living in Detroit and married to Mattie's brother George Hoskins. Joe and Dorothy returned to Tennessee and were married there. They bought a grocery store and worked there together. He ran for Sheriff of Anderson County and served a four-year term from 1954-1958. He was defeated in his bid for re-election. He then started a bus line to transport workers to and from the newly founded atomic energy plant in Oak Ridge. With the bus line taking up most of his time, Joe and Dorothy sold the grocery store. After several years, Joe went into semi-retirement, buying a farm mostly for pleasure. He was a life-long member of Bethel Baptist Church and is buried in its graveyard between his two wives.

1900 census: He was Joseph K., age 2.

1910 census: living at home, he is listed as Kelly J.

Sept. 12, 1918, WWI draft registration: He was farming in Anderson Co. and gave his parents as next of kin. He had brown eyes and black hair and was "sound".

1920 census: He and Mattie were living on the property next to his parents.

1930 census: Joe and family were living in a house they owned, worth $500 on Big Valley Rd. He was listed as a salesman in a grocery store but his income was as the owner.

1940 census: He was a merchant in his own business, living on Clinton Highway. He finished 3 years of high school.

The Owen name is of Welch origin. The word means "well born" or "well descended". It was a personal name in Wales and was not used as a family name or surname until the sixteenth century. The name was originally Owain, Owin, Owens, and lastly, Owen. It has always been popular as a forename, being the name of princes and leaders, notably Owain Gwynedd (c.1100-1170) and Owain Glyndwr (c.1354-1416). The first of the family to adopt Owen as a surname was Roland Owen, sheriff of Montgomeryshire, Wales in the year 1610. The Owen Glendowers, or Glendower Owens, were persecuted by their enemies, and driven from their estates to the mountain wilds, where they became shepherds; their ancestral home was in Marionethshire, Wales, one of the extreme western counties, the coast of which is washed by Cardigan Bay. It lies not far from the port of Liverpool, and its principle town is Barmouth. (From "Historical Sketches of the Campbell, Pilcher and Kindred Families", by Margate Pilcher, Nashville, TN, 1911)

Notes for Mattie Ivory Hoskins:

1900 census: She is listed as Martha F., living with her parents and 8 siblings.

1910 census: Mattie I., 15, was living with her mother and 9 siblings.

1920 census: She was living with Joe.

Violet and her younger brother Leonard were left with their maternal grandmother and their mother's sister Barbara when Vi was just three and Leonard was 18 months old. Their father went to Indiana and then to Detroit to earn money to pay his debts incurred by the illness and death at the age of 29 of his wife. The family was reunited when Violet was eight years old. When she was 18, she began her nurse's training at Fort Sanders Hospital in Knoxville, TN. While she was there, a congenital kidney ailment was discovered and one kidney was removed. It was this missing kidney which kept her from joining the US Army. Undaunted, she worked for the Army as a civilian nurse in Crossville, TN, where she met Jerry.

11. SARAH ELIZABETH³ BANTHER (George Johan², Michael Painter¹) was born on 18 Jan 1864 in Rutherford Co., NC. She died on 09 Jan 1941 in Transylvania Co., NC. She married Alfred Henry Owen, son of John Bishop Owen III and Malinda Reid, about 1881. He was born on 28 Dec 1844 in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He died on 26 Dec 1926 in Lake Toxway, Transylvania Co., NC.

Notes for Sarah Elizabeth Banther:

1880 census: She was with Alfred.

1910 census: She was living with Alfred. She had had 12 children; 10 were living. 1940 census:

1940 census: She was widowed and living in Gloucester with her son Jesse Dillard's family.

Notes for Alfred Henry Owen:

According to Bonnie Waldier "My great grandfather, Alfred Henry OWEN, left Elizabeth (Betty) to raise the kids around 1879-80 (he was still there for the 1880 census) for Sarah Banther. He went to Virginia and started another big family. He stayed there until Betty Wood OWEN died, and then returned to NC. I have a copy of a letter that Alfred's mother, MELINDA REID OWEN sent to Alfred telling him that Betty was dying. I have always wondered if that is why Alfred killed himself. My grandfather, Tillman OWEN came west in 1907, and never got over any of it."

1850 census: living at home

1870 census: He was in Caney Fork, Jackson Co., NC.

1880 census: He was living in Gloucester, listed as 23, when he was surely 33.

Hi Linda---

I have a keen interest in Upchurch family history re which please see my website www.upchurchstory.com.

Recently I have been exchanging emails with Tina Beller whom I believe you know. She and I have some interests in common and have been able to help each other some. I am not able to help a lot on the common ancestor of Aaron N. Rogers (who married Nancy Ann Upchurch) and possible siblings of Aaron.

I suggested that you and I might have common interests as your husband traces back to the Harmon U./Howell U. Subclan. Tina agreed and urged me to contact you. I would be glad to hear from you.

Tina has a keen interest in DNA work. While I appreciate its importance it is not a priority for me.

Best!

Phil Upchurch

Good to hear from you. Right now, I am down with bad bronchitis and haven't been thinking family history very seriously! I certainly will enjoy staying in touch with you and trying to share what meager news I have.

The Rogers line has been easier to find than my family line of Owen. I am at a dead end with my gg grandfather Elias Owen. B Ohio 1818 His wife Jane Senter, b VA 1822 has a history in Virginia through her grandfather Henry Senter. It's nice for us amateurs to have people like you who have really delved into the stacks, so to speak.

So, When I feel on top of things again, we can correspond. I have a few questions about info I have that I don't know from whence it came!!! ☺

Thank you,

Linda Owen Rogers

The child was buried February 7 in the family graveyard and Lesia was buried February 10.

- viii. SHERMAN FLETCHER OWEN was born on 03 Jan 1900 in Clinton, Anderson Co., TN.
 △ He died on 18 Dec 1987 in Sweetwater, Monroe Co., TN. He married Mary Sonora
 △ Jones, daughter of James Monroe Jones and Elizabeth Goldston, on 01 Jun 1937
 in McMinn Co., TN. She was born on 08 Sep 1906. She died on 04 Jan 1999 in Sweetwater, Monroe Co., TN.

Notes for Sherman Fletcher Owen:

Sherman was a teacher in the Anderson County school system and then was principal of 5 schools. In 1936 he was elected superintendent, a position he held from 1937-1948, longer than any other superintendent up to that time. In 1942, their house was purchased by the Corps of Engineers as part of 56,000 acres taken over in order to build Oak Ridge and to begin what was eventually known as the Manhattan Project. This project was to build the atom bomb which was to put an end to WWII. After 27 1/2 years with the Anderson Co. school system, he and Mary bought a farm in Sweetwater and he farmed until his death. He and Mary never had children.

1900 census: living at home, 5 months old

1910 census: living at home

Sept. 12, 1918, WWI draft registration: He was a student, giving his parents as next of kin. He had brown eyes and black hair.

1920 census: He was living at home and in school.

1930 census: living at home, he was a school teacher

1940 census: He and Mary were living with her mother. He was superintendent of schools.

Mary Jones's father built the house at Edgemoor and owned the land to be inherited by Mary. It was quite a nice picture facing the river and backed up against some woods. The house was a two story wood house freshly painted always. It was beautiful and created a scene that required passersby to take a second look. The Pellissippi His. Soc. supported a Mr. Raby and others to go to Atlanta to get pictures of the homes in "the area" taken by the gov. in 1942 when they took the land for the Manhattan Project. They wanted people to have a chance to have pictures of their homes if they didn't have any. It was a wonderful thing for them to do I think. Disks can be bought from Mrs. Harris at the court house or by contacting the Pell. His. soc. The pictures were taken in Sept when all the leaves were off the trees and the houses were in their worst shape since money was scarce back then for paint. Also the gov. wanted the property not to look the best as they estimated value. I have many stories about those days. Although I was only five, the memories are as fresh as watching a movie. Anyway, the Sherman Owen house is one of the houses. It still looked pretty good I thought, stately standing slightly on a hill, overlooking the river with the green woods as a backdrop. Very Sherman and Mary. He was a very good-looking man and easily was highly respected and liked. Mary was so neat and wore very pretty clothes. Her hair was naturally pretty. Don't know the color of her hair as she was white headed when I was in first grade. She was of fair skin and looked like a model. Knew how to wear make-up for the best result and natural look. Reminded me of the look that Queen Elizabeth had when she was younger (without the white hair). Well, every child loved Mrs. Owen. Maybe that's one reason I became a teacher. I can't imagine what Mary would have thought of modern kids who are much more forward than we would have dared. Our parents had a lot of respect for anything educational and we wouldn't have dared do anything that would seem disrespectful.

Notes for Mary Sonora Jones:

1940 census: She and Sherm were living with her mother. Mary had no occupation.

Notes for Violet Nadine Owen:

Violet and her younger brother Leonard were left with their maternal grandmother and their mother's sister Barbara when Vi was just three and Leonard was 18 months old. Their father went to Indiana and then to Detroit to earn money to pay his debts incurred by the illness and death at the age of 29 of his wife. The family was reunited when Violet was eight years old. When she was 18, she began her nurse's training at Fort Sanders Hospital in Knoxville, TN. While she was there, a congenital kidney ailment was discovered and one kidney was removed. It was this missing kidney which kept her from joining the US Army. Undaunted, she worked for the Army as a civilian nurse in Crossville, TN, where she met Jerry.

1850 Mountain Creek District, Rutherford Co., NC census: She was living at home, age 10.

1860 census: She and Ansel were living in Henderson Co., NC

1870 census: She was living in Gloucester Twp. with all 4 children and no husband, next to her in-laws. Next door on the other side was her brother George W. Banther, and his first wife and 2 sons. Hers was the 57th household. Number 37 was future husband J. J. Capps with his first wife and 4 children.

1880 census: She was living with J.J. Capps in Cocke Co., TN. Her four children were all listed with Capps as their last name. It also says the father of all 4 was born in SC which was where J. J. Capps was born instead of NC where Ansel and Washington Owen were born.

Notes for Ansel Owen:

Ansel reportedly died while fighting in the Civil War in 1864 at Camp Vance, during a raid by Union soldiers. (See below the history of Camp Vance.) The Anderson Co., TN Owen family is adamant that William Huston Owen was born in 1863, thus the son of Ansel and Priscilla. Members of the NC Owen clan, however, feel sure that Huston was born in 1866 and therefore the son of Priscilla and most likely her brother-in-law Washington Owen. He was certainly not the son of James J. Capps whom Priscilla married in 1871 even though at least one census report seems to indicate as such.

"Family lore says that Priscilla ran away with Ansel's brother Washington to Tennessee and had a couple of kids by him but have never found anything to prove this...if she (Priscilla) is correct in saying (on 1890 Civil War Veterans Census for Tennessee) he was captured and died in captivity then it is safe to say that he did not father any more children after the war." 1860 census: He and Priscilla and nine-month-old Sarah were living in Henderson Co. between his parents and his brother Marion.

1890 Civil War Veterans Census: PVT C Co. 2nd NC Inf. captured and killed at Camp Vance, NC. Listed under Anderson Co, TN.

Camp Vance was named for Zebulon B. Vance, who was Governor of North Carolina during the Civil War. Camp Vance served as a training gound for North Carolina Troops throughout much of the Civil War. The Camp was raided by Federal Troops in 1864.

"On June 13, 1864, Col. Kirk with about 130 men left Morristown, Tennessee for a raid on Camp Vance, near Morganton, North Carolina. The soldiers traveled on foot through Bull's Gap, Greeneville, and Crab Orchard, Tennessee. They crossed into North Carolina and forded the Toe River about six miles south of the Cranberry Iron Works. They crossed the Linville River on the afternoon of June 26 and crossed Upper Creek at nightfall on June 27. They marched all night and reached Camp Vance at reveille on June 28. Camp Vance was a training camp for conscripts; the reluctant soldiers had not yet been issued rifles. The camp surrendered, and 40 of the conscripts promptly enlisted under Col. Kirk. All except the sick and the medical officers were carried off to Tennessee. The medical officers were paroled, but the sick (approximately 70 men) were set free because the Federal soldiers had no time to parole them. One Confederate report implies that the "sick" weren't really ill, but were put on the sick list and admitted into the hospital in a successful effort by the medical officers to prevent their capture. According to one of the Confederate medical officers, "Col. Kirk claimed to be a regular U.S. Officer, carried a U.S. Flag, and his men were all in Federal uniforms." Another Confederate report of this incident says that most of Kirk's men were armed with Spencer repeating rifles. Despite several small skirmishes on the way, Kirk and his men and prisoners returned safely to Tennessee." Source: <http://www.nctroops.com/3usmnt.htm>

On June 13, 1864, Kirk's 130 volunteers successfully routed Confederates at Camp Vance, where 279 Rebels surrendered as prisoners of war and forty soldiers were recruited into the Union regiment. <http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/4the3sratedges/bryson.html>

1870 census: living at home with his mother in Gloucester, Transylvania Co., NC. He was listed as 4 years old which would mean he was born after Rufus died. If the age is correct on the census, he was probably the son of Washington rather than Rufus Owen.

1880 census: living at home in Cocke Co., TN, age 16. His last name was listed as Capps, that of his step-father.

1891 census: There is a W. H. Owen in Anderson Co., TN.

1900 census: He was a farmer.

1920 census: He was a farmer.

Also in 1920 there was a Marian J. Owens living in the Briceville area working as a coal miner. He and both parents were born in NC. He was 39 years old, wife Delia (Cordelia) (age 29) Daugherty (sister of Julia Daugherty, mother of Dorothy McQueen Owen). (She was born June 3, 1890 in Anderson Co. and died Aug. 17, 1969 in Lake City. They were married in 1918 in Anderson Co.) Her brother Dunk (Duncan) age 50 lived there too. Marian's children: daughter Louise 12, son Cleo (?) 10, and daughter Fay 3 years, 2 months. Delia and her parents were born in TN but Dunk's mother was born in NC. Could Marian be the brother of Huston?

In Clinton there is also a Richard Owen age 27, married to Mossie Hart age 21 and their daughter Juanita, less than one year old. They were living with Mossie's parents Thomas D. and Mary E. Hart. Richard and both parents were born in TN. He was a foreman for the railroad. His father-in-law was a clergyman.
