PRE HISTORY THROUGH CENTENNIAL-ELIZABETH REID MURRAY

On pages 269 & 270 the Author describes the antebellum situation with regard to Raleigh merchants. In 1851 owners were concerned with being open too long - from sunrise until dark 5-7 in summer - a 14 hour day. The 1851 movement came to naught. In 1858 the merchants were concerned about the practice of extending 12 months credit. These interests did not lead to a formal merchants association until years later. Those signing a document in January 1858 as representatives at a Commercial Convention in Richmond are listed below.

Albert's brothers Henderson and Burwell lived between his house and the church. The preacher often visited in the home of Albert and Jacky. See letter Monroe T. Ray (Albert and Jacky's son) wrote to his brother George's daughter, Lucie Ray Hodge, dated November 30, 1937. This letter tells about the building up of Hopkins Chapel Community and the church just before, during and after the Civil War.
