The parentage of JOHN SCOTT of Wake County, N. C., who was the ancestor of the line of SCOTTS in which this writer is interested, has not been proven. However, in 1762 one JOHN SCOTT of Wake Co., N. C., was buying and selling land on Crabtree and Walnut Creeks. He left a will, recorded on the first of November, 1819 (WAKE CO., N. C. WILL BK. 15/347), naming his wife, Hannah and children, without naming his children. Presumably JOHN SCOTT who was later active in land deals in this same section was one of those unnamed children.

GILREATH, WILLIAM

A.

F252

William A. Gilreath was born on February 12, 1829 in North Carolina. At present no information is available on his earlier life. He moved to Fentress County between 1840-50. He was a prominent citizen of the Travisville Community. He ran a grist mill and was a Justice of the Peace in 1891. William also worked for the establishment of Pickett County.

William married Mary Adeline Allen about 1848 as their oldest child Martha is listed as 1 year old in the Fentress County Census Records in 1850. This is the first year William and Mary appear in the Fentress County Census, along with her parents Augusta and Elina Allen, and shows both the Gilreaths and Allens were born in North Carolina and their daughter Martha born in Tennessee. Mary's only known brother was Lafayette Allen, born in NC about 1843 and living in Tennessee in 1850, who was killed at the Dr. Hale place at Wolf River, TN, while on leave from the army during the Civil War.

William was married three times; (1) Mary Allen, (2) Rhoda Moody Crouch, (3) Necie Upchurch. Some sources indicate a marriage to Margaret Beason. But this writer can find no record of such a marriage.

William and Mary Allen were the parents of four children; Martha E., Elvina Alice, Malissa Adeline, and James.

Martha E., born December 1848, married Joe Crouch. They had two children Belle and Mary, both of whom died while young.

Elvina Alice, born 1852, married Sampson Fowler. Their children were; William Lafayette, Martha, John, James and Minna.

Malissa, born December 7, 1855, married John Wesley Crouch (son of George Washington Crouch and Lucinda Jennings). Their children were: Zona, who married Melvin Davidson; Martha, who married John Marion Rains; James Gordon, who married Ellen Storie and Delta Winningham; Dave, who married Eva Baker; William Lee, who married Ollie Storie; Fannie, who married Fred Lesh; Nellie, who married Lewis Craig; Tom, who married Alta Greer, Necie, who married Otto Garrett; and Ruby, who married John Rushing. Melissa died January 4, 1903. Her husband John died September 4, 1935. They are buried in the Davidson Cemetery at Forbus, TN. Their history can be found elsewhere in this book.

James, born 1861, married Corda Beason. Nor further information available at this time.

Mary Allen Gilreath died September 1866 and her funeral was conducted by Rev. A.B. Wright, at the "Head of the Cane".

Rhoda Moody Crouch became William's second wife sometime before 1880. She was the widow of William Crouch and had several children. William and Rhoda's children were; John, Nancy, Ebadell, and Leander.

John, born 1865, married Fetna Davidson and had Charles, Milton, Lee, Frona, Nona, Abbie, and Ben.

Nancy, born 1868, married John Evans.

Ebadell, born 1871, married John Upchurch.

Lee, born 1874, married Dovie Smallwood and had no children.

The 1900 Fentress County Census shows William and his third wife Necie Upchurch married 10 years. Their two children were Luther C. and Vannah E.

Luther, born in August, 1892, married Pearl Chism (daughter of L.B. Chism and Mary Wood). Their children were Willie, Christina and Hazel. Luther was killed in December, 1915.

Vannie, born December, 1894, married Bill Paris.

William died December 16, 1901 and is buried in the Gilreath Cemetery on his old homeplace.

Fagan and Welch united

Melanie Louise Welch of Raleigh and Sean Fagan of Raleigh were united in marriage July 23 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Stan Leas.

The bride is the daughter of Ron and Rita Parmer of Zebulon and Melvin and Barbara Welch of Austin, Texas. Parents of the bridegroom are Bradley and Louise Taylor of Raleigh and the late Dr. Harry Fagan Jr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin embellished with venise and alencon lace and beaded with seed pearls. The antique-style gown featured a flowing, cathedral-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place by flowers and ribbons which matched her bouquet.

She carried a bouquet of bridal white, yellow and pink roses accented with baby's breath.

She was attended by Jill Christine Smith of Houston, Texas, cousin of the the bride, as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Janell Harris and Sandy Cate, both of Raleigh. The junior bridesmaid was Le Ann Fagan of Trenton, daughter of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom chose Scott Parsons of Raleigh to be his best man. Ushers were Kenny Hill and Robert Clarke, both of Raleigh; and Brian Welch of Wilmington, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Sean Fagan
Melanie Louise Welch

Wedding music was presented by the church organist.

The bride is a student at Meredith College. Her husband is self-employed.

Wayne County Outlook
1930

Mrs. Adkins Had Lived An Active And Useful
Life And Was Much Beloved

Funeral services for Mrs. Sidney Adkins, who died Tuesday as a result of a stroke of paralysis suffered several days ago were held at the Primitive Baptist Church conducted by Rev. Robert Keeton Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. She was 85 years of age.

Sidney Jane Parmley, daughter of Washington and Betsy Parmley, was born in Wayne County, Kentucky, January 22, 1845 and departed from this life May 6, 1930 at the age of 85 years, 3 months and 14 days. She was the last surviving member of a family of ten children.

She was united in marriage to James Franklin Adkins on Oct. 7, 1866, in Wayne County, Ky. Soon after her marriage they came to Iowa where they settled near Kellogg. Nine children were born to this union, eight of whom are living. They are: Mrs. Mary Alice Rice of Mobridge, S. Dak., Mrs. Florence A. Dearing of Walhalla, N. Dak., Robert H., Fred M., Dr. Louis M., Mrs. Gertrude Reutter, and Mrs. Geneva Ahrens, all of Grinnell. The ninth child, now deceased was Mrs. Alta A. Matteson.

Later, they moved to a farm three miles west of town, now owned by Henry Ahrens, living there 29 years. In the fall of 1905 they went to California where they spent the winter and upon their return moved to Grinnell.

Her husband preceded her in death six years ago.

She was a kind and loving mother, sympathetic and helpful. Thirty years ago she united with the Primitive Baptist Church and has always lived a true conscientious Christian life.

Besides her immediate family she leaves to mourn her loss, thirty grandchildren and twenty two great grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends.

ROBERT THEODORE UPCHURCH, M.D.

Robert Upchurch was born at Apex, Wake County, North Carolina, January 22, 1881, son of William B. and Sallie Chambers Upchurch. The family had been established first in Jamestown, Virginia, at a very early period in the colonization of the new world, after which a removal was made to Wake County. William B. Upchurch, the father of Doctor Upchurch, was born in 1847 on a farm in Wake

William was a deep student of masonry. He died in February, 1925. Sallie Chambers Upchurch, who was born in Montgomery County, North Carolina, near Carthage, passed away in 1898. Her people were from Charleston, South Carolina. Her father was a planter and slave owner of Montgomery County. Mrs. Upchurch was educated in the Greensboro Female College, which she attended during Civil War days.

By her marriage, she became the mother of six sons and a daughter: Joseph W. Upchurch, George E. Upchurch, Rufus M. Upchurch, Walter A. Upchurch, Malphus G. Upchurch, Robert T. Upchurch and Maggie E. Upchurch. Following the death of his first wife around 1900, Mr. Upchurch remarried and had four sons by this second union: Romulus F. Upchurch, Worth M. Upchurch, Percy B. Upchurch and Thomas J. Upchurch.

Dr. Robert T. Upchurch attended Buies Creek Academy, Wake Forest College, and was graduated from the University of North Carolina with the degree of Graduate Pharmacist in County. During the latter years of the War between the States, William Upchurch enlisted under the colors of the Confederacy but did not engage in active service, as the war closed shortly after his enlistment. His youth had been devoid of opportunities for a formal education, but while in the army, he began a course of self-training, and as he was an omnivorous reader, with a receptive mind and an excellent memory, he was able to give himself a good education. At the close of the war, he engaged in farming and conducted a store at Apex. He also had real estate holdings, banking and industrial interests. He was actively identified with the upbuilding of his community, took a helpful interest in promoting public welfare and was a recognized leader in Democratic circles of his day, serving as a member of the State Legislature in 1891. He helped establish the Sunday School and was largely instrumental in the building of the Green Level Baptist Church.

Maria Parris Upchurch, c. 1916.

1904. He next entered Jefferson Medical College where the degree, Doctor of Medicine was conferred upon him in 1908. Following an internship in St. Vincent's Hospital at Erie Pennsylvania, he began private practice in Henderson, North Carolina in 1910. In 1919 he did special work at Harvard University for six months under Doctor Cabot, a famous diagnostician. He had also taken post-graduate work at Jefferson Medical College and at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. In 1928, he again entered Harvard where he did special work in cardiology under Dr. Paul White.

Realizing the need of a modern and suitable institution in Henderson for those needing hospital care, Doctors Upchurch, Thomas S. Royster, Hodge A. Newell, James H. Wheeler, and B.G. Allen built the Maria Parham Hospital which was formally opened July 1, 1925. All of the physicians had offices in the hospital and Dr. Upchurch was President of the Board. He was medical director of the hospital following its reorganization in 1946. He served without compensation. He was a factor in the movement program at the time of his death on August 4, 1949. He belonged to the Vance County Medical Society, the North Carolina Medical Society and the American Medical Association. He was a member of the Masons.

During his residency in Henderson, he was a member of the First Baptist Church and for a time served as a deacon.

On June 27, 1916, Dr. Upchurch married Maria Parris of Hillsboro, North Carolina, daughter of Annie Parks Parris and Dr. David C. Parris. She was a graduate of Salem College, Winston-Salem, North Carolina and also took a postgraduate course at Columbia University. She taught Home Economics at Oxford College prior to her marriage. She was active in the Baptist Church, Maria Parham Hospital Guild, Henderson Garden Club and The Student's Clubs.

Dr. and Mrs. Upchurch had one daughter, Anne Chambers, born in October 1920, who married James W. Jenkins, Jr. in 1948. See the Jenkins reports.

In nearly forty years of active practice he learned all parts of Vance County well where he had frequently gone in ministrations to the sick. For many of his patients and others, he was an advisor in health matters and other things as well. Unbeknown to the general public, he had through the years befriended numbers of youth in assisting them through courses in higher education.

It was said in an editorial in The Henderson Daily Dispatch, "Dr. R.T. Upchurch who died suddenly and so unexpectedly Thursday evening literally gave his life to this community. Coming here from medical college, he plunged into the practice of his profession with an energy which carried through to the final hour, and when the end came he was found still in the harness of service in a life-long endeavor to relieve human suffering."

ROBERT THEODORE UPCHURCH, M. D., a physician who for twenty-five years has been a leader at Henderson in public health and sanitary work, was born at Apex, Wake County, North Carolina, January 22, 1881, a son of William B. and Sallie (Chambers) Upchurch and a representative of one of the old and honored families of Wake County that has here been represented through several generations. The family had been established first at Jamestown, Virginia, at a very early period in the colonization of the new world, after which a removal was made to Wake County. William B. Upchurch, the father of Doctor Upchurch, was a merchant and planter at Apex. He also had extensive real estate holdings, banking and industrial interests and was a farmer and tobaccoist. He was actively identified with the upbuilding of his community, took a helpful interest in promoting public welfare and was a recognized leader in Democratic circles of his day, serving as a member of the State Legislature in 1891. Educational progress was a matter of deep concern to him, as was the religious and moral advancement of the community. He helped establish the Sunday school and was largely instrumental in the building of the Green Level Baptist Church, and he was a deep student of Masonry. He died in February, 1925, and his wife, who was born in Montgomery County, North Carolina, near Carthage, passed away in 1898. Her people were from Charleston, South Carolina, and two of her brothers were killed while serving in the Civil War. Her father was a planter and slave owner of Montgomery County. Mrs. Upchurch was educated in the Greensboro Female College, which she attended during Civil War days, and by her marriage she became the mother of six sons and a daughter.

Dr. Robert T. Upchurch attended the Bules Creek school and for one year was a student at Wake Forest. With the idea of ultimately becoming a physician, he entered the University of North Carolina, where he won the degree of Graduate in Pharmacy in 1904. He next entered Jefferson Medical College, where the degree Doctor of Medicine was conferred upon him in 1908. He gained valuable practical experience as interne in St. Vincent's Hospital at Erie, Pennsylvania, and he began private practice at Henderson, North Carolina, in 1910. In 1919 he did special work at Harvard University for six months under Doctor Cabot, a famous diagnostician. He has also taken postgraduate work at Jefferson Medical College and at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia and in 1928 he again entered Harvard University, where he did special postgraduate work in cardiology. He has likewise taken postgraduate work at the University of Pennsylvania on metabolism. In addition to his private practice he has for twenty-five years been the leader in public health movements and sanitary work in Henderson, where he has pioneered many sanitary projects leading to reorganization or to the passage of public health ordinances that now receive the strong endorsement of public opinion.

On the 27th of June, 1916, Doctor Upchurch was united in marriage to Maria Parris, of Hillsboro, North Carolina, a graduate of Salem College, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She also took a postgraduate course at Columbia University and taught home economics at Oxford College prior to her wedded life. Doctor and Mrs. Upchurch have a daughter, Anne Chambers, who graduated in 1938 at St. Catherine's school of Richmond, Virginia, and is now a student at Hollins College, Virginia.

The Doctor owns a small farm near Henderson and its cultivation is perhaps his hobby. He has long been a deep student of philosophy and is recognized as a man of sound and discriminating judgment. He is particularly interested in all phases of medical progress and advancement and he was one of the leaders in organizing the movement for the establishment of the Maria Parham Hospital at Henderson, which was opened to the public July 1, 1925.

OSCAR G. PARROTT
(AS A SOURCE) 24 JUN 1978

On June 24, 1978 in the AM I visited the
"Carolina Memorial Gardens" in Creedmoor, NC.
Talked to the grass cutter Mr Oscar G. Parrott who gave the information below.

He lives at other end of Town - Get on West side of RR tracks and go south til you reach the Curve. He knew the Cross Family:

Lum Cross was a brother of Pitt Cross

~~Lum~~ Cross died young but had 2 sons

1. Allen Cross - his widow lives in brick house in sight of her - Oscar suggested

I go see her which I did (her name turned out to be Thelma (Clark) Cross
- RPH). Allen's children:

a. Wayne Cross - In National Guard

b. A son - School Teacher at Oxford, NC
High School.

2. Bob Cross - his wife was a Clegg.
She still lives down highway 50 - go to junk yard on left - the next
brick house on the left is here
Oscar says Bob had nothing
but got a lot.

(Oscar says Lum raised Pitt's two boys
Allen and Bob.)

Bob Cross and Clegg - Their children

a. A girl - md Sheriff Braims -
They now live south on 50 - go to 1st road south of town
- turn left - 1st brick house
on it.

b. B. G. Cross (a son) - lives on same road as (a) above - next house on left

Oscar was a very cordial & helpful person.
